26. Just the Place for Me.

REV. W. C. MARTIN, D. D. JOHN D. CRESWELL.

1. I care not where my Lord may lead me, O - ver land or on the sea; I want to go where he may need me, That is just the place for me.
2. Perhaps it is a spot of beau - ty, Or a bleak and bar - ren place; If there I find the field of du - ty, There I serve my Lord by grace.
3. Perhaps it is a-mong the low - ly, Com-fort-ing the sad and lone, I find the place of serv - ice ho - ly, When I do his will a - lone.
4. Perhaps his gen-tle hand may lead me On the road to Cal - va- ry; To that lone mount his feet pre - cede me, Smoothing all the path for me.

CHORUS.

Just the place where he may need me, Is the place I long to be, Where the Master's hand may lead me, That is just the place for me!

INA DULEY OGDON. E. S. LORENZ.

1. The Spirit's call is sweet and clear, And sinners lose their doubt and fear;
2. They seek the fountain free and wide; They wash within the cleansing tide,
