PREFACE.

---

To all who "love God," and hope for "eternal life" through the merits of a "crucified Redeemer," "PRECIOUS JEWELS" is respectfully dedicated. It is full of Bible doctrine, beautiful melodies, simple, rich and pleasing harmonic progressions; small in size, low in price, and up to the demands of a progressive American people. A careful examination of the work will establish its merits in the minds of all intelligent Christians. Let us read, preach, pray, sing and LIVE the Bible, while life is given, so that "beyond the grave" we may "sing the song of Moses and the Lamb." Grateful thanks are due the following Poets and Composers who have so kindly assisted us in the preparation of this work:

TALK WITH ME LORD.

That which I see not, teach Thou me.—Job 34: 32,

MRS. M. SLUSSER.

J. H. LESLIE.

1. Talk with me, Lord, the way is dark, I can - not see Thee near ;
 2. Talk with me, when I tread the maze Of doubt and un - be - lief ;
 3. Talk with me, when the mists of death Fall damp - ly on my brow ;

O still the murm - 'ring of my heart, That I Thy voice may hear.
 Thy wel - come voice will sure - ly bring A balm of sweet re - lief.
 Let heav'nly ac - cents pure and sweet, Re - kin - dle life's last glow.

Give me the faith that will not doubt, The love that knows no fear.
 Teach my re - bel - lious heart to bow Sub - mis - sive to Thy will.
 No oth - er voice can cheer my soul, Throughout life's la - test gloom.

That hope which kindled in my breast, Brings Heav'n and glory near.
 Tho' darkness may surround my path, O keep me steadfast still.
 No other voice will sound so sweet, Beyond the cheerless tomb.

ROCK OF AGES.
