PREFACE.

The Voice of Praise contains just such music as Sunday Schools delight to sing.

The Voice of Praise includes hymns for both the young and the grown-up people, and all are the very best.

The Voice of Praise is intended for practical use in the Song Service of the Sunday-School, Prayer Meeting, Praise Meeting, and all other meetings where good gospel songs are appropriate.

The Voice of Praise presents music suited to all occasions, such as Children's Day, Christmas, Easter, Anniversaries, Sunday-School Concerts, Celebrations of all kinds, etc., etc.

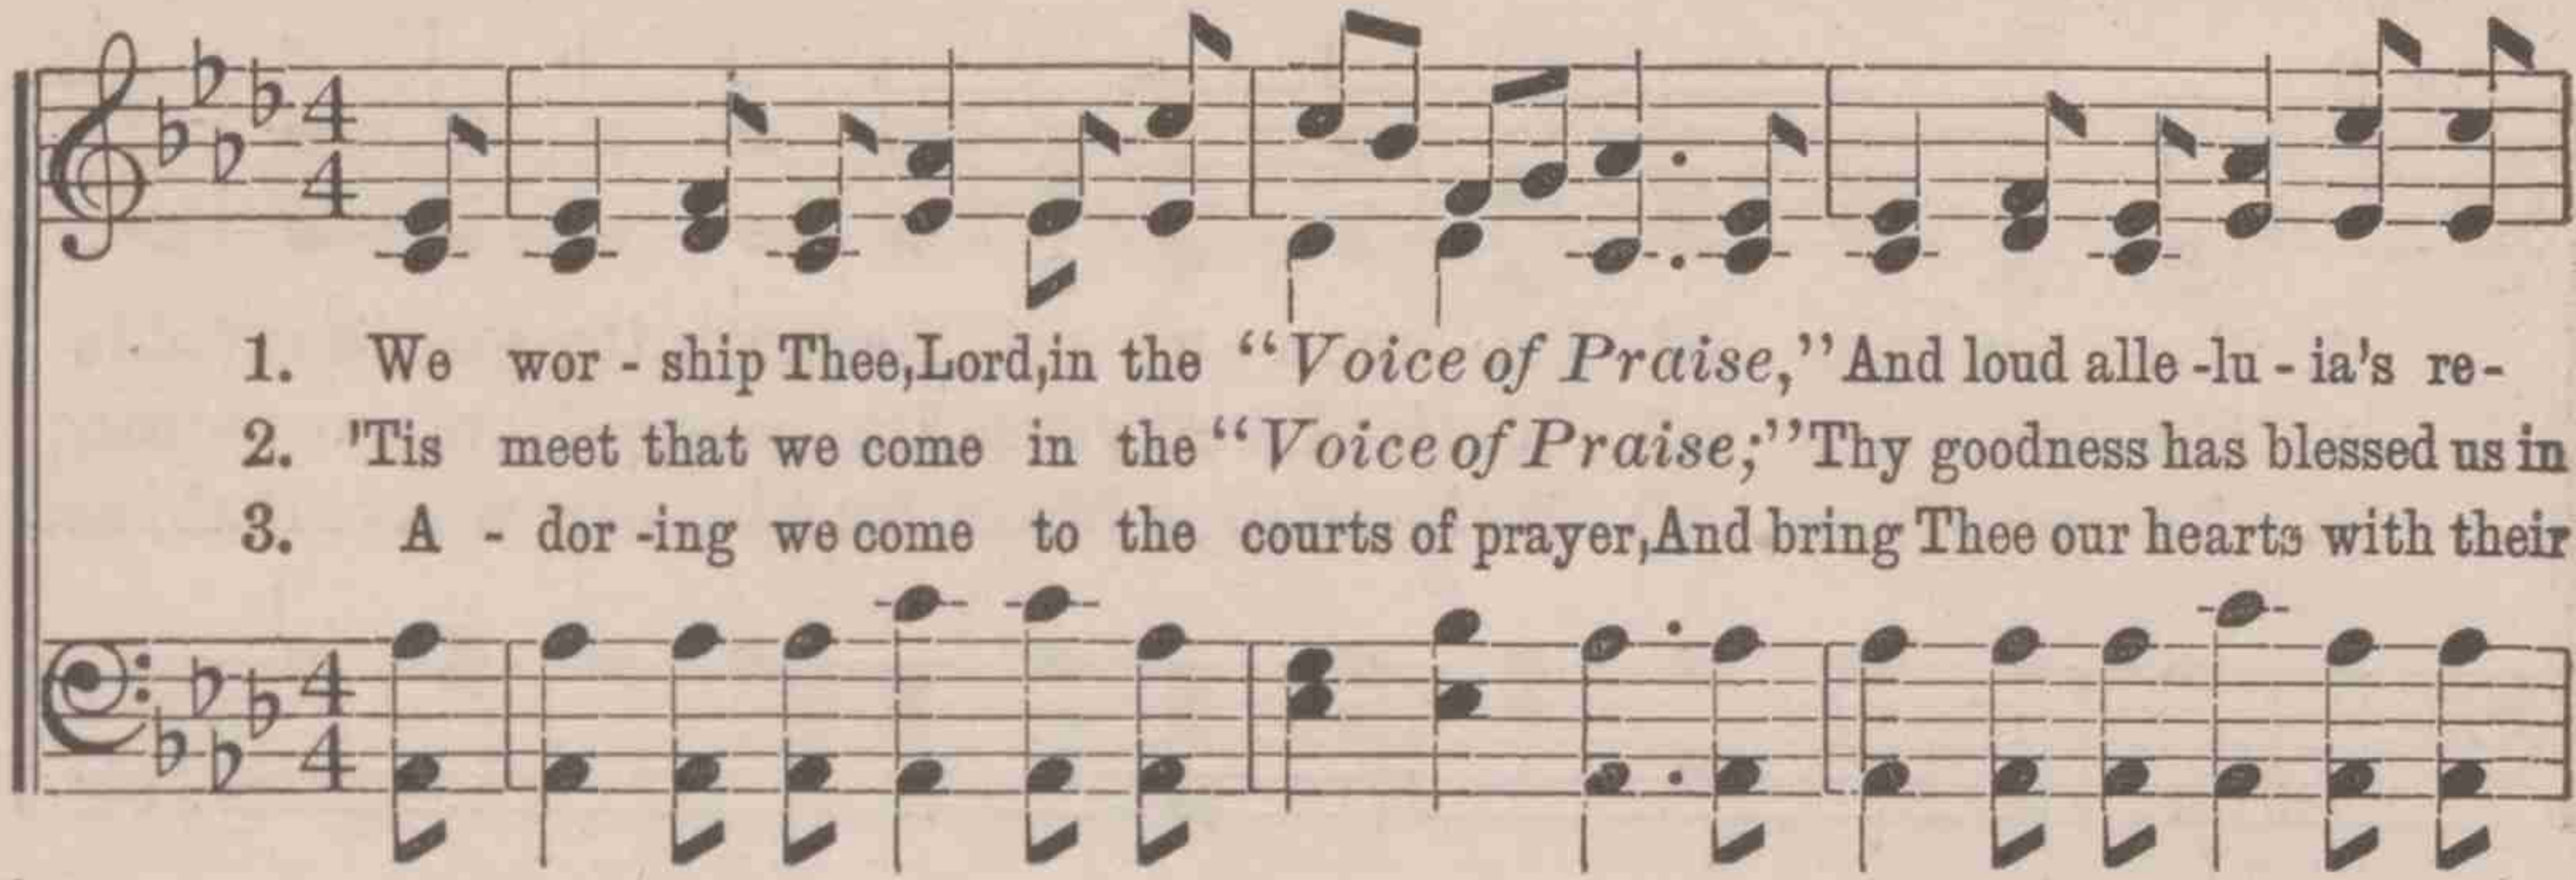

The Voice of Praise recognizes the fact that an improved taste demands better material for the Service of Song, and, while it does not contain any music that has the soul taken out of it by excessive technical polishing, nothing has been inserted which does not earnestly present some phase of the old Gospel theme—Christ in His character and His work.

No. 8. When the Mists Have Cleared Away.

Words arr.

A. J. SHOWALTER.

1. When the mists have roll'd in splendor From the beau-ty of the hills,
2. Oft we tread the nar-row pathway With a wea-ry bur-dened heart,
3. When the mists have ris'n a-bove us, As our Fa-ther knows His own,

And the sun-light falls in glad-ness, On the riv-er and the rills,
And we toil a-mid the shad-ows While our fields are far a-part;
Face to face with those that love us We shall know as we are known;

We re-call our Father's promise In the rain-bow of the spray:
But the Saviour's "Come, ye blessed," All our la-bor will re-pay,
And the songs of our redemption Shall resound through endless day,

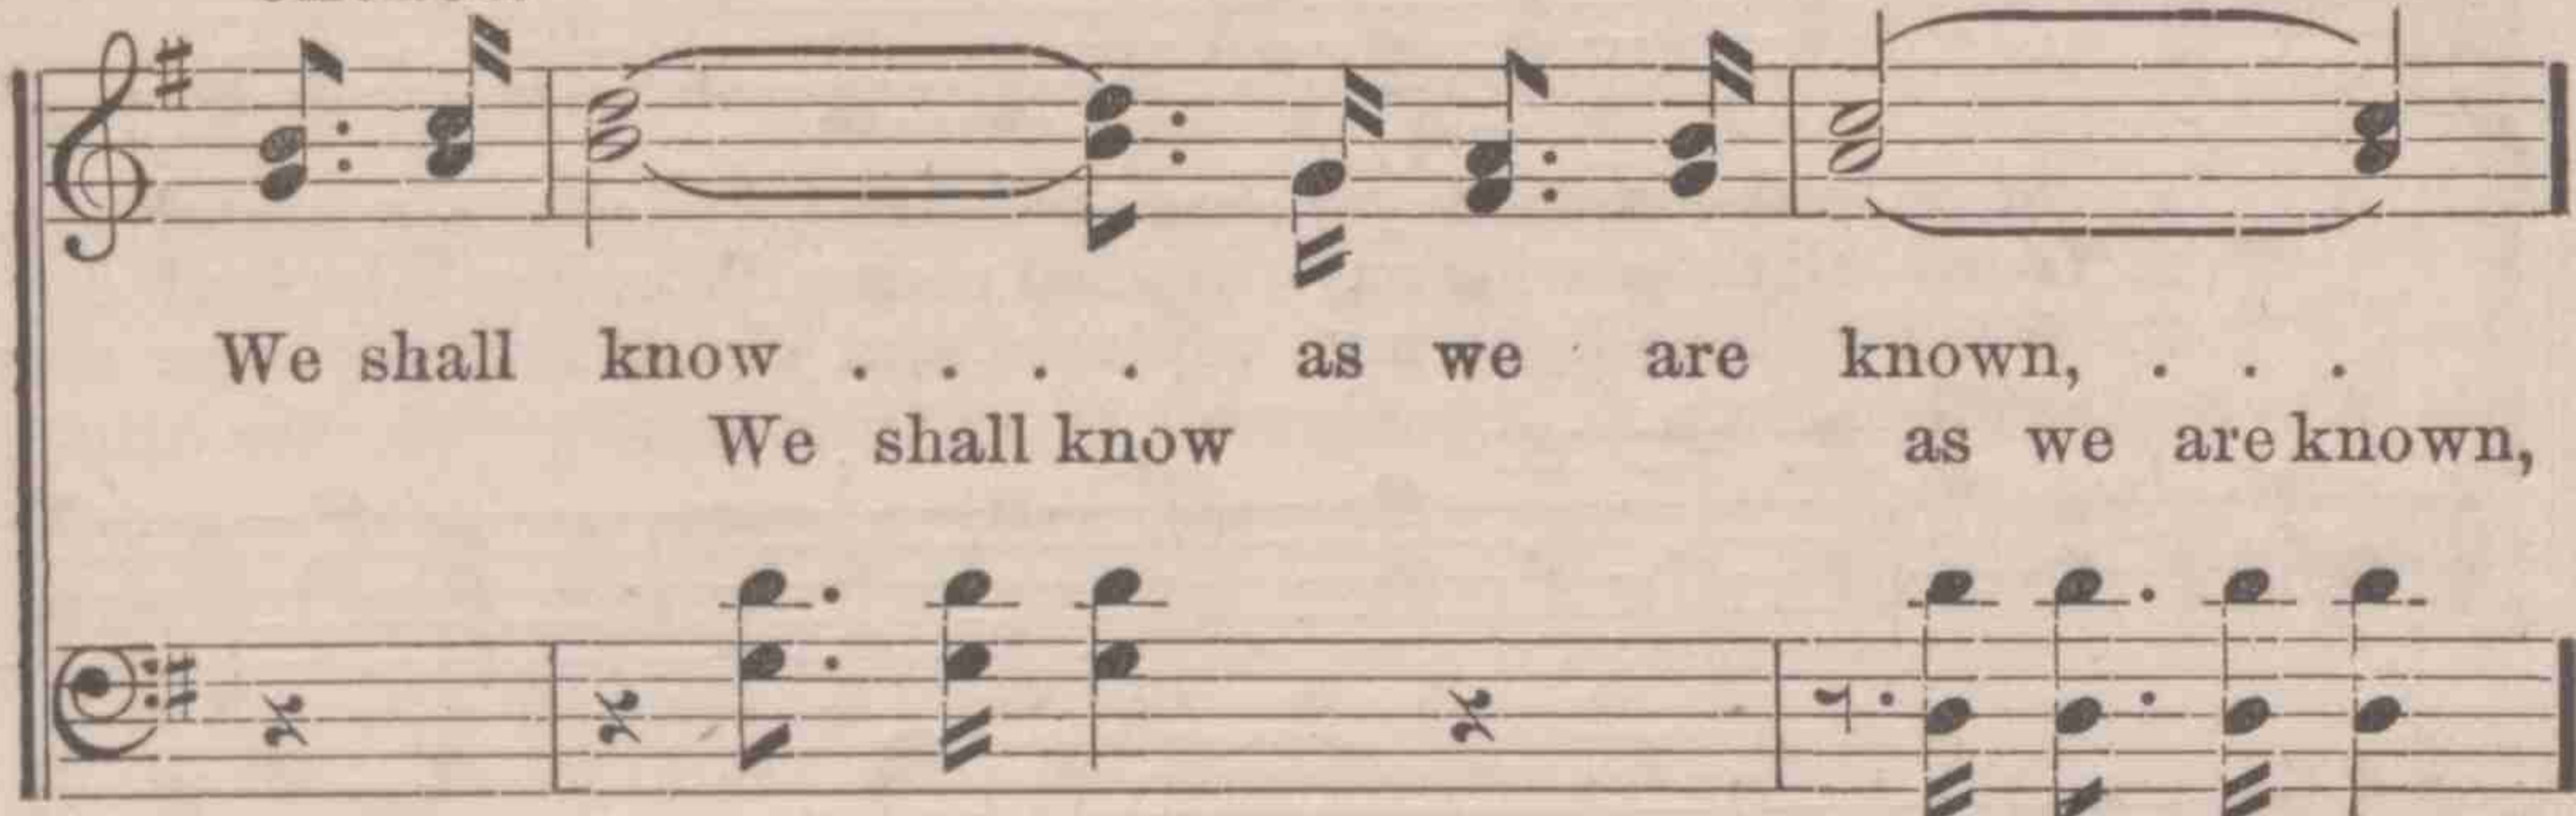

We shall know each oth-er bet-ter When the mists have cleared a-way.
When the wea-ry watch is o-ver, And the mists have cleared a-way.
When the shadows have depart-ed, And the mists have cleared a-way.

No. 53. Christ our Lord Arose To-day.

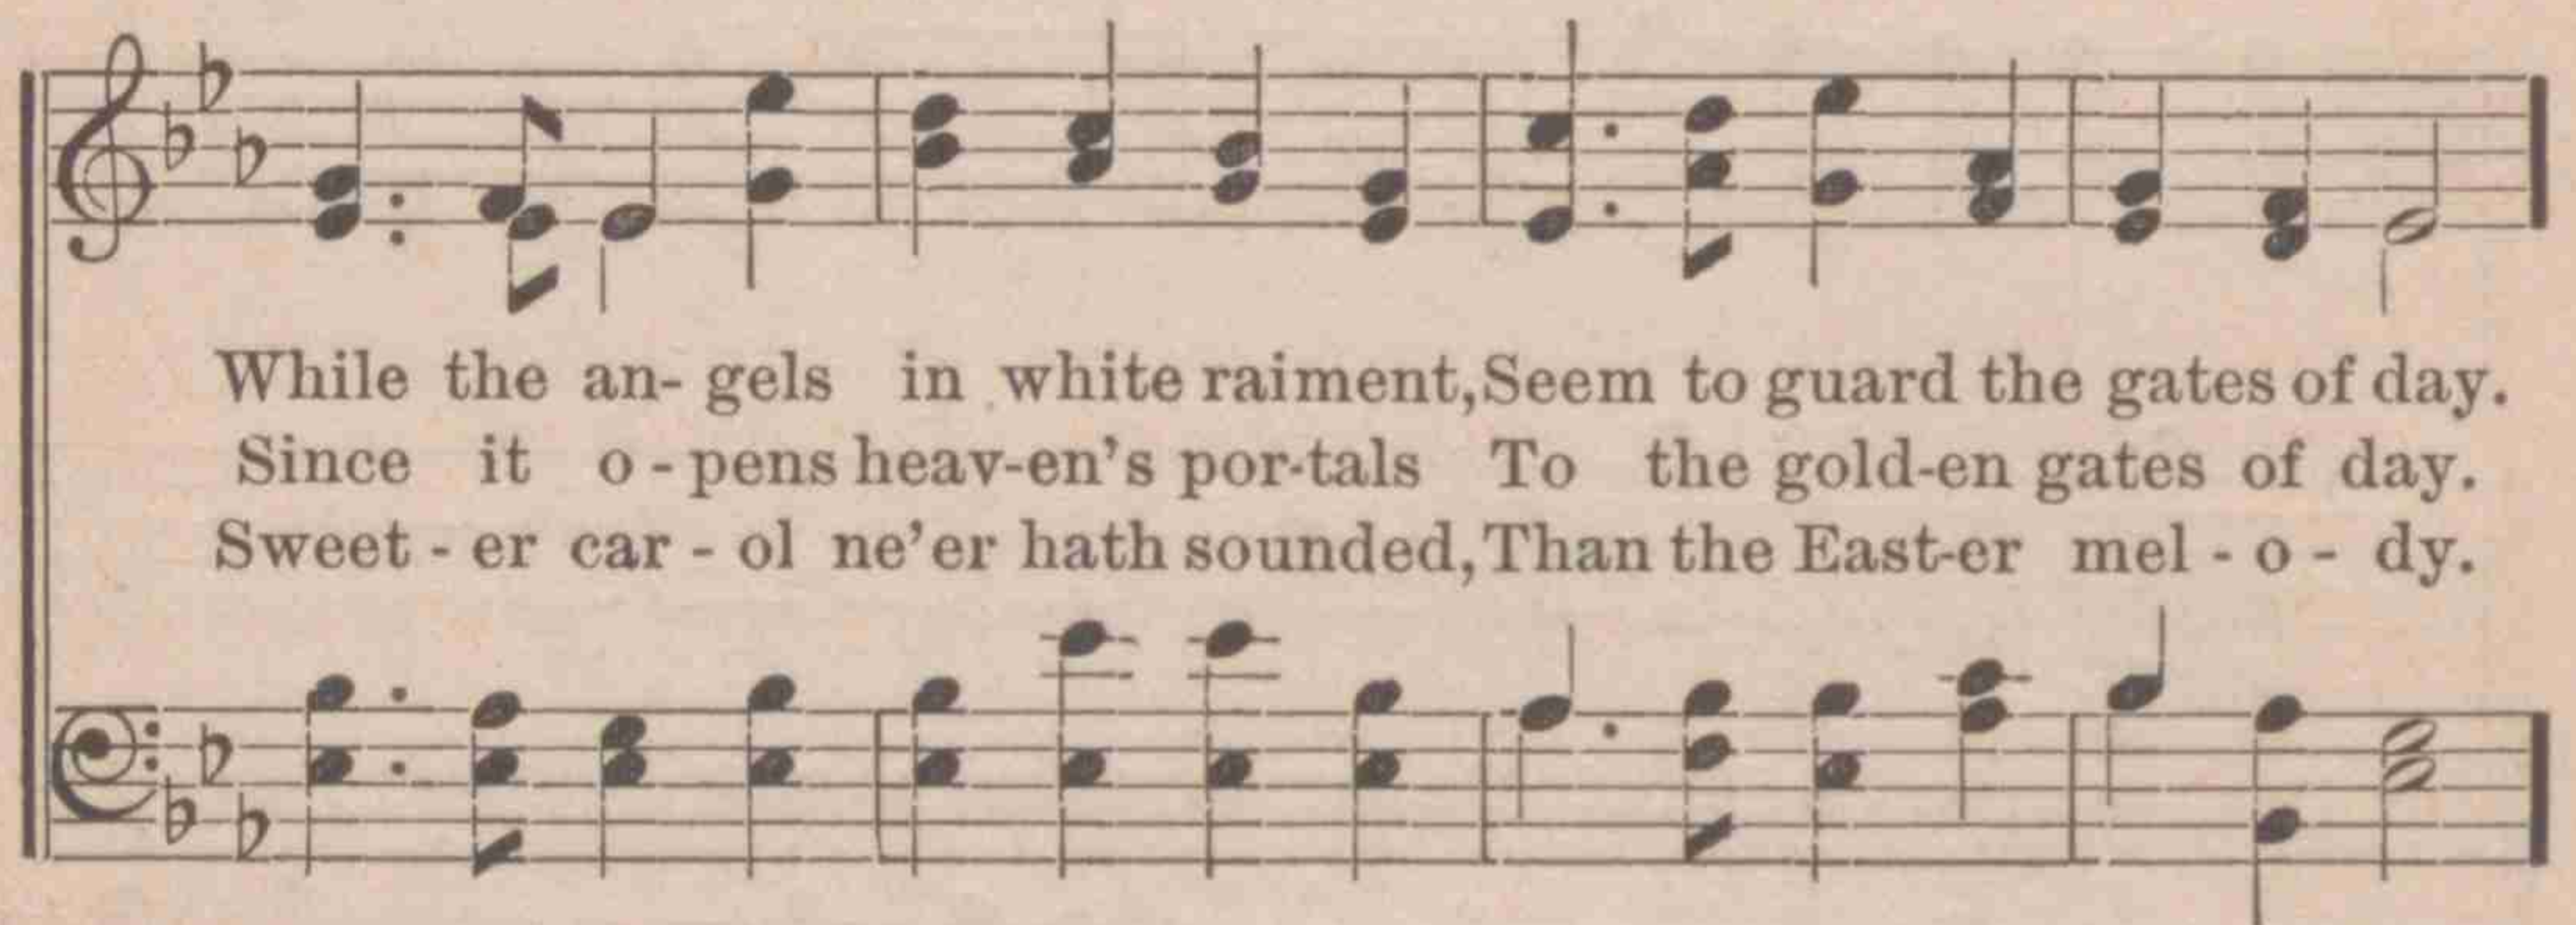

ELIZA M. SHERMAN.

EASTER SONG.

C. C. CASE. By per.

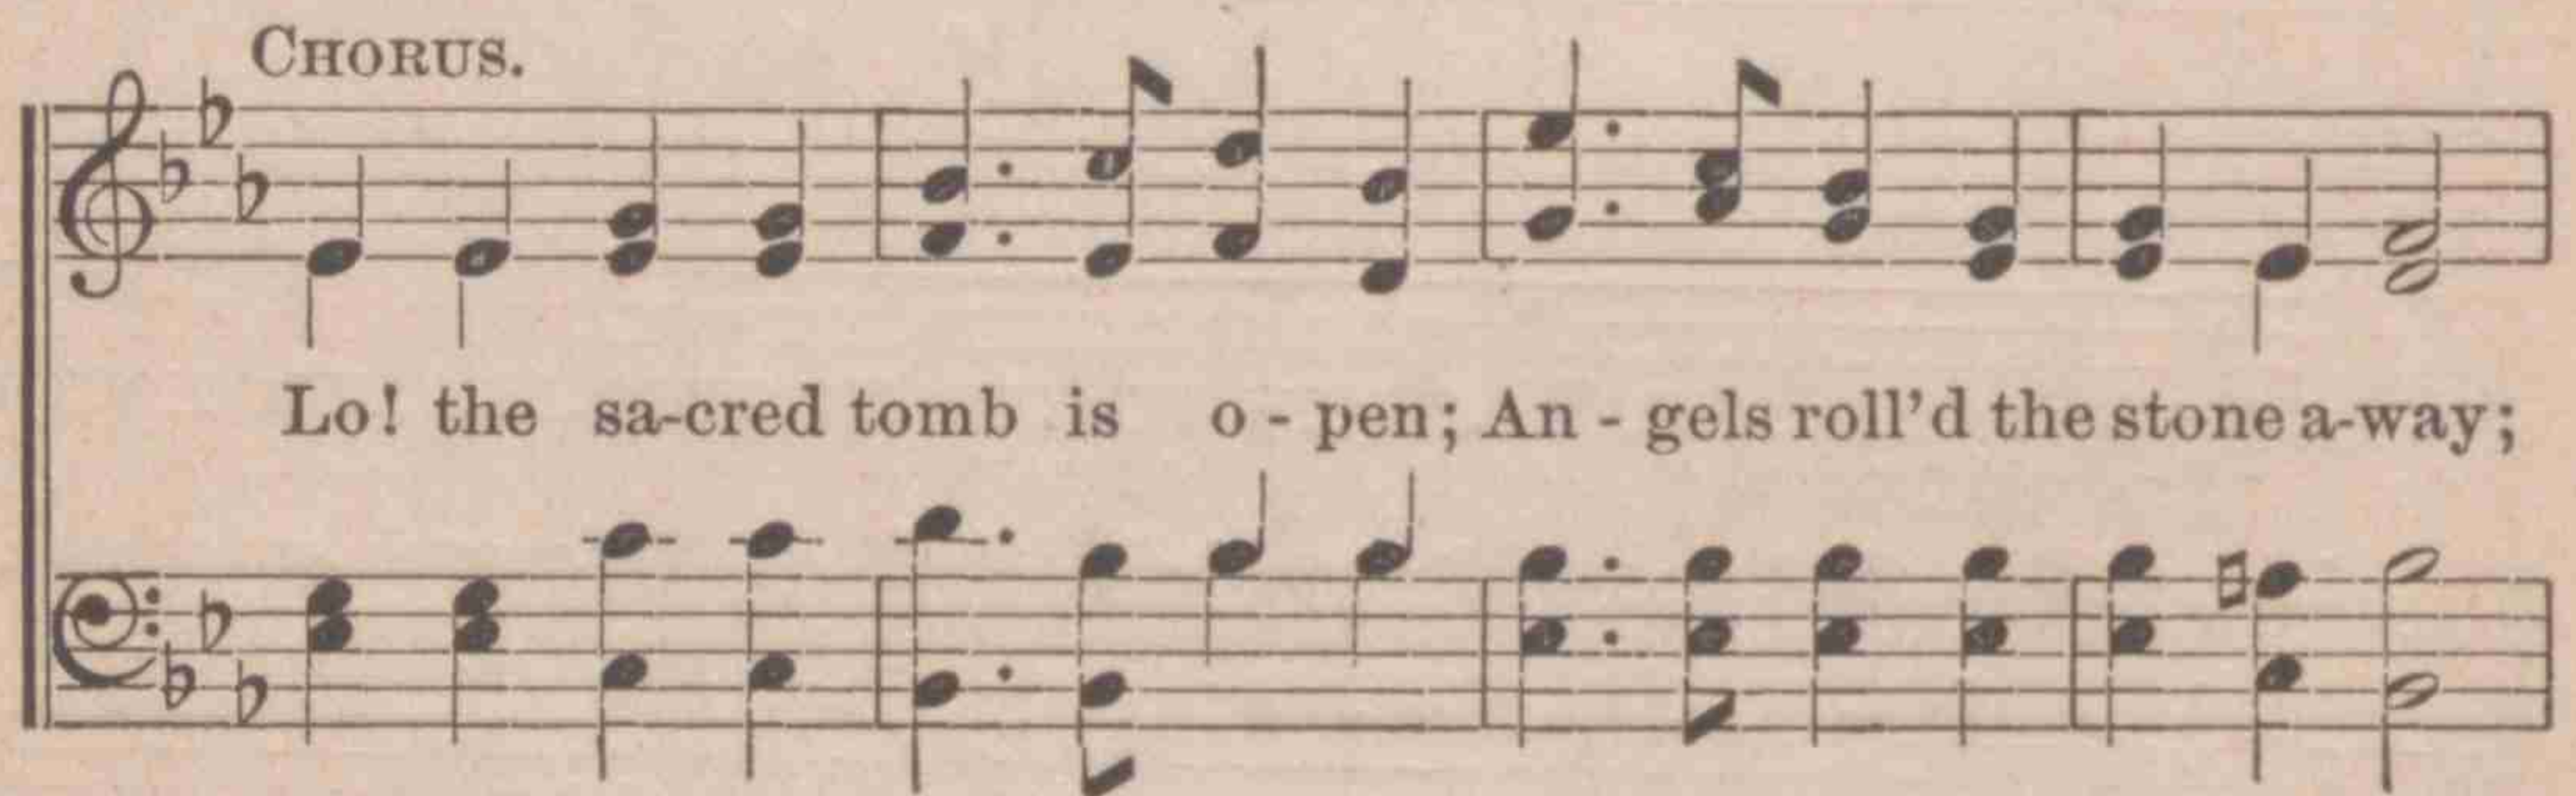

1. Soft - ly fall the silver moon-beams On the spot where Jesus lay,
2. Christ a-rose, all gloom and darkness From the grave is gone away,
3. Christ a-rose, oh, glorious morning! O'er the golden gates of day,

While the an-gels in white raiment, Seem to guard the gates of day.
Since it o-pens heav-en's por-tals To the gold-en gates of day.
Sweet-er car-ol ne'er hath sounded, Than the East-er mel-o-dy.

CHORUS.

Lo! the sa-cred tomb is o-pen; An-gels roll'd the stone a-way;

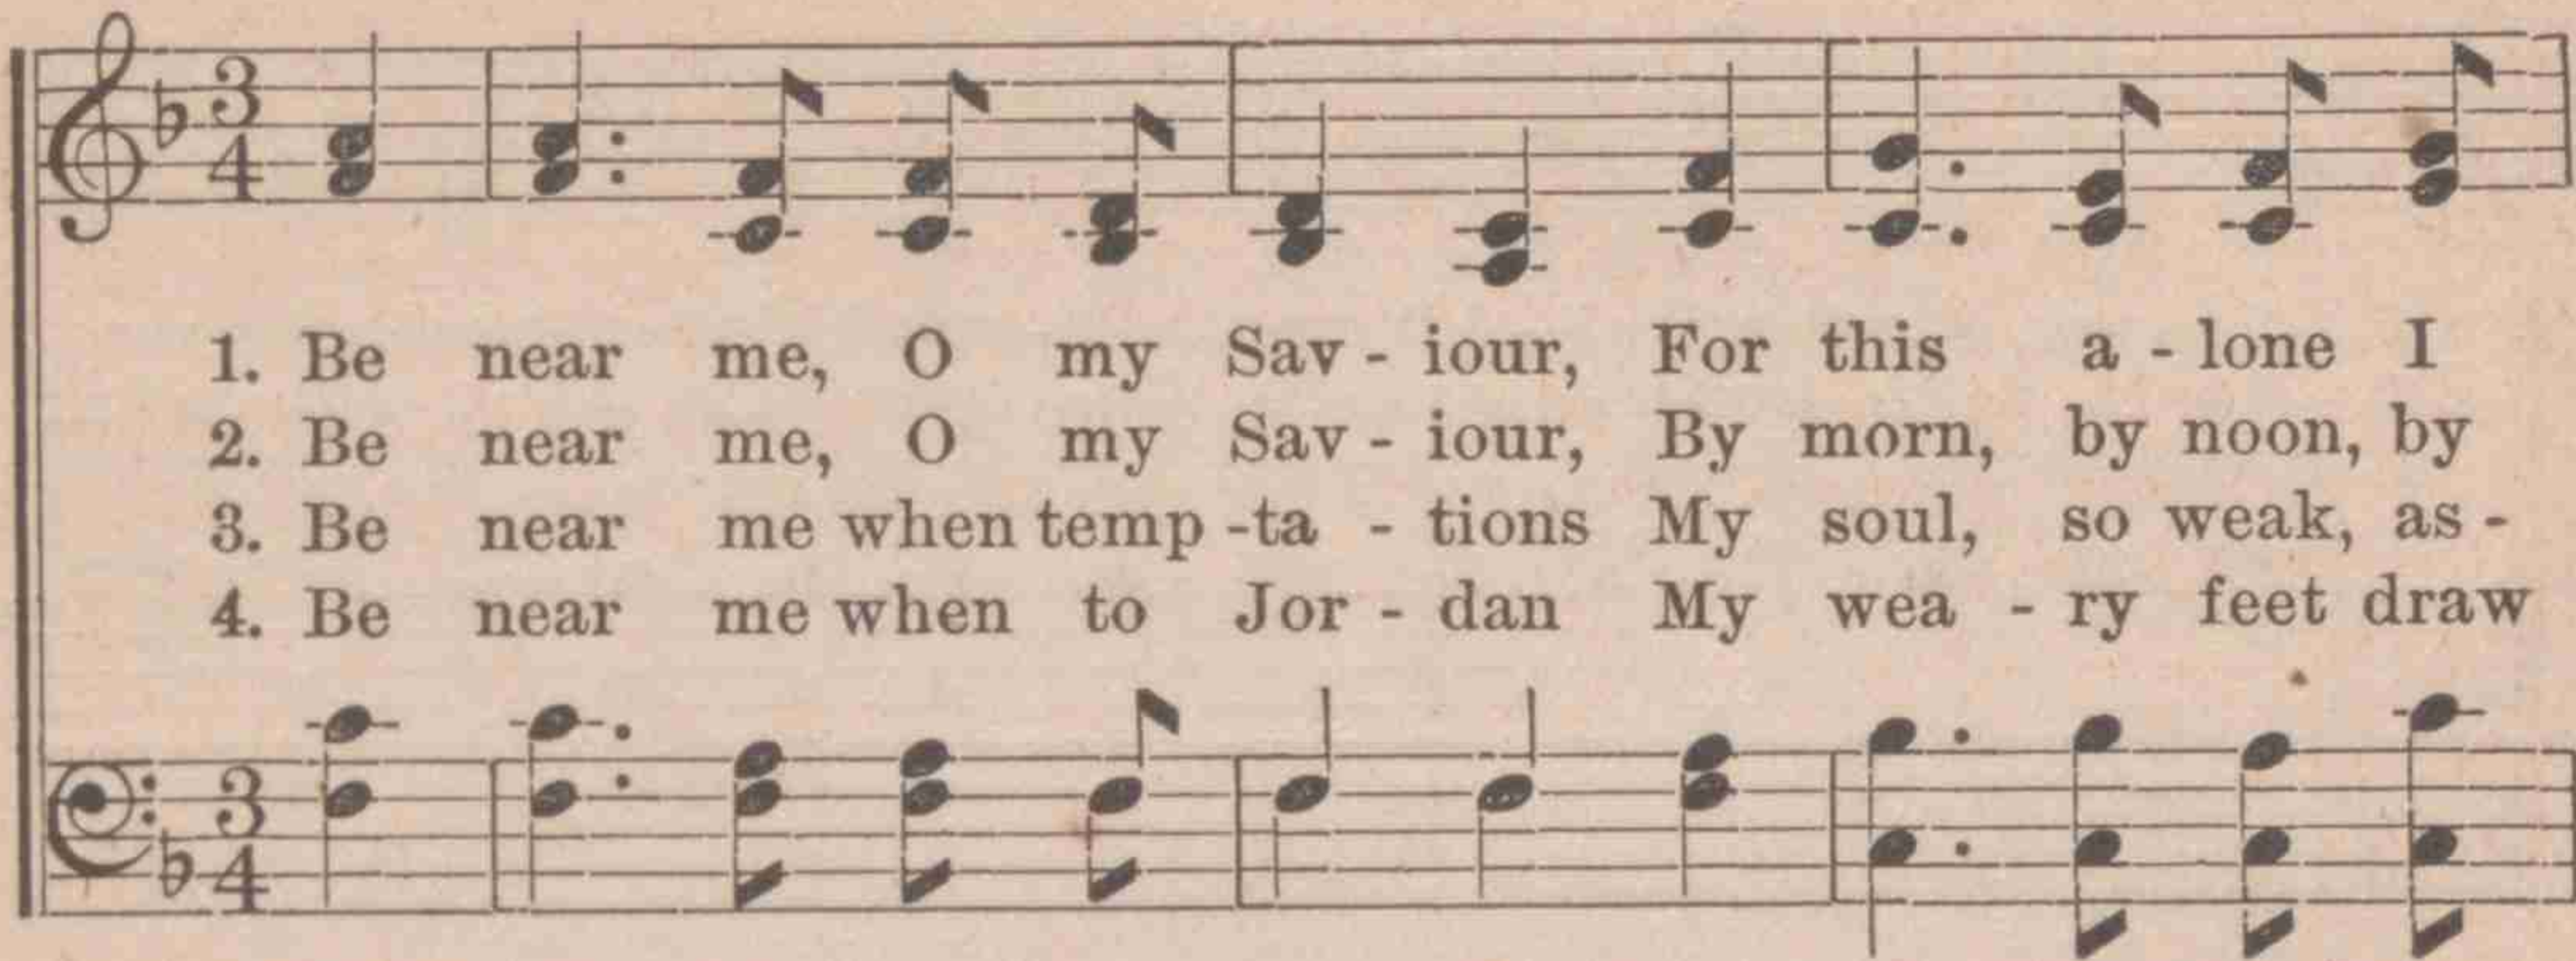

Christ is ris-en, Hal-le-lu-jah! Christ our Lord a-rose to-day.

No. 105. Songs of Praises Sing.

MRS. E. W. CHAPMAN.

JOSEPH B. MOON.

1. In the ear - ly dawn of the glad new morn, Let the voice ascend in praise,
2. Let our thanks arise for the sac - ri - fice He hath giv'n for sin - ful men,
3. To the Saviour King we will anthems sing, And His vic' try shout a - gain:

To the God of light for the rest of night, And the love that crowns our days.
For the fountain's flow to redeem from woe, And salva - tion's glorious plan.
Let the world re - joice with the harp and voice, And re - peat the glad re - frain.

CHORUS.

Songs of prais - es sing, Hal - le - lujahs shall resound,
Songs of praises sing to the Lord and King, Hallelujah,

We will join the cry as along the sky The sweet notes of praise rebound.

ISAAC WATTS.

P. P. ORR.

1. A - las! and did my Saviour bleed? And did my Sovereign die?
2. Was it for crimes that I have done, He groan'd upon the tree?
3. Well might the sun in darkness hide, And shut His glo-ries in,
4. Thus might I hide my blushing face While His dear cross appears,
5. But drops of grief can ne'er re-pay The debt of love I owe:

Would He de-vote that sa-cred head For such a worm as I?
A - mazing pit - y! grace unknown! And love be-yond de - gree.

No. 119. Deliverance Will Come.

J. B. M.

REV. JOHN B. MATHIAS.

1. { I saw a way-worn trav'ler, In tat-ter'd garments clad,
His back was la-den heav-y, His strength was al-most gone,
2. { The sum-mer sun was shin-ing, The sweat was on his brow,
But he kept pressing on-ward, For he was go-ing home;

And strug-gling up the mountain, It seem'd that he was sad;
Yet he shout-ed as he journey'd, "De-liv-er-ance will come."
His gar-ments worn and dus-ty, His step seem'd ver-y slow:
Still shout-ing as he journey'd, "De-liv-er-ance will come."

CHORUS.

Then palms of vic-to-ry, crowns of glo-ry, Palms of vic-to-ry I shall wear.

3 The songsters in the arbor,
That stood beside the way,
Attracted his attention,
Inviting his delay:
His watchword being "Onward!"
He stopped his ears and ran,
Still shouting as he journey'd,
"Deliverance will come."

5 While gazing on that city,
Just o'er the narrow flood,
A band of holy angels
Came from the throne of God:
They bore him on their pinions
Safe o'er the dashing foam:
And joined him in his triumph,—
"Deliverance has come!"

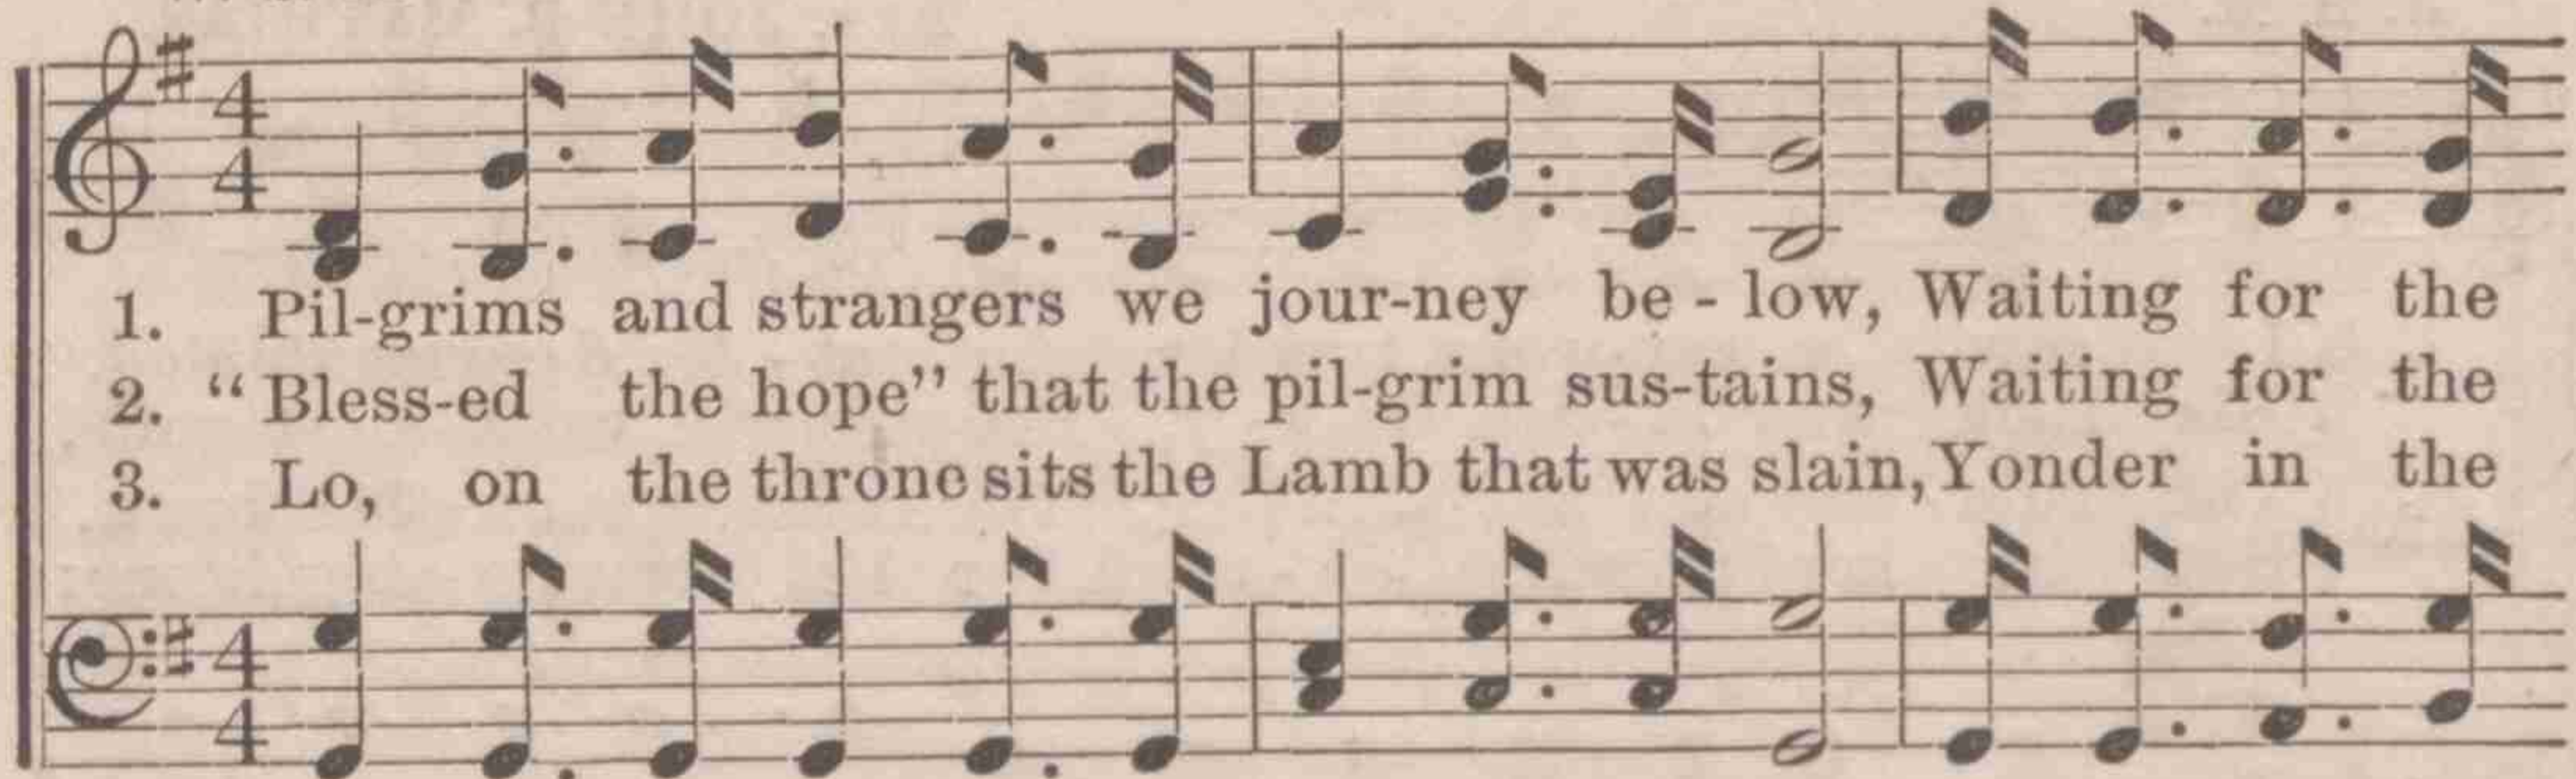

4 I saw him in the evening,
The sun was bending low,
He'd overtopped the mountain,
And reached the vale below:
He saw the golden city,—
His everlasting home,
And shouted loud, "Hosanna!
Deliverance will come!"

6 I heard the song of triumph
They sung upon that shore,
Saying, Jesus has redeemed us
To suffer never more:
Then, casting his eyes backward
On the race which he had run,
He shouted loud, "Hosanna!
Deliverance has come!"

- 4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
 Has gathered thick, and thundered loud,
 He near my soul has always stood;
 His loving-kindness, Oh! how good!
- 6 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
 Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
 Oh, may my last expiring breath,
 His loving-kindness sing in death.
- 5 Often I feel my sinful heart
 Prone from my Saviour to depart;
 But though I oft have Him forgot,
 His loving-kindness changes not.
- 7 Then, let me mount and soar away
 To the bright world of endless day;
 And sing, with rapture and surprise,
 His loving-kindness in the skies.

1. There is mu-sic o - ver yon-der, On the bright e - ter - nal shore,
 2. There is mu-sic o - ver yon-der, Where the crystal wa-ters glide,
 3. There is mu-sic o - ver yon-der, And the songs shall never cease,

Where the saints shall dwell with Jesus, All the bright for-ev - er more;
 Where the tree of life is ev - er Blooming by the sil-ver tide.
 For the saints shall dwell for-ev - er With the Lord in per-fect peace.

All their years of sor-row end-ed, Where no night can ev - er come,
 Oh, what joy the heart is thrilling, O-ver on the shining shore,
 Soon we hope to join the cho - rus On the bright e - ter - nal shore,

They are sing-ing, sweetly singing, In their glorious heav'nly home.
 Where they sing the song of Mo - ses And the Lamb for-ev - er more.
 Where the saints shall be with Je - sus, All the bright for-ev - er more.

| 1 Little children, seek the Saviour In the sunny days of youth; Seek to know Him, learn to love Him, Study now the Gospel truth. | 2 Still the sky is clear above you, Brightly shines the morning sun; Do not linger by the way-side, For life's course is quickly run. |
|--|--|

CHORUS.

|--|---|--|
| Soon the storms of life may gather, Soon shall wintry age come on; Oh, seek refuge in the Saviour, He will safely guide you home. | 3 Consecrate yourselves to Jesus, For He shed His blood for you; Ever love Him, ever serve Him, Daily He'll your strength renew. | 4 Many children now are singing Round the throne of God above; For they sought the Saviour early, And they learn'd the truth to love. |
