Truth

PREFATORY.

TRUTH IN SONG appears after a lapse of six years since the publication of Salvation Echoes.

Having in view an early preparation of a permanent collection containing all the practical and useful songs that have originated among us, it was thought best to omit such from this book, especially since the manuscripts on hand were quite sufficient for a collection entirely new.

With the exception, principally, of a few pages of standard old church hymns, the pieces in this book are, therefore, such as appear for the first time.

It contains sixty-four pages more than any song-book we have used heretofore—an immense collection to be practically all new.

Care has been taken to represent a great variety of subjects, which are mixed throughout the book regardless of classification. The topic names appearing under the titles in this case are perhaps an innovation, and are intended as a useful guide in the right selection of songs in religious service. A Topical Index gives an extensive classification of the various subjects.

It has been our aim also to represent as many contributors as possible. Many excellent compositions, some of words and some of music, have been furnished by others.

The greatest pains have been taken with the preparation of the manuscript copy. We are thankful for the advantage, had with this book, of the competent assistance of Sister Clara McAlister and Brother C. W. Naylor, whose earnest and patient efforts in the way of criticism and revision have brought the words of these hymns to a degree of superior excellence.

After weeks of incessant toil in its preparation, in which we have had the prayers of the saints and the blessings and help of the Lord, we submit TRUTH IN SONG, believing it sufficiently complete to fill all the requirements of a song-book. May the TRUTH it sings stand as a mighty rock amidst the crumbling creeds of error and carry salvation and victory to thousands of waiting hearts. This is our prayer.

TRUTH.

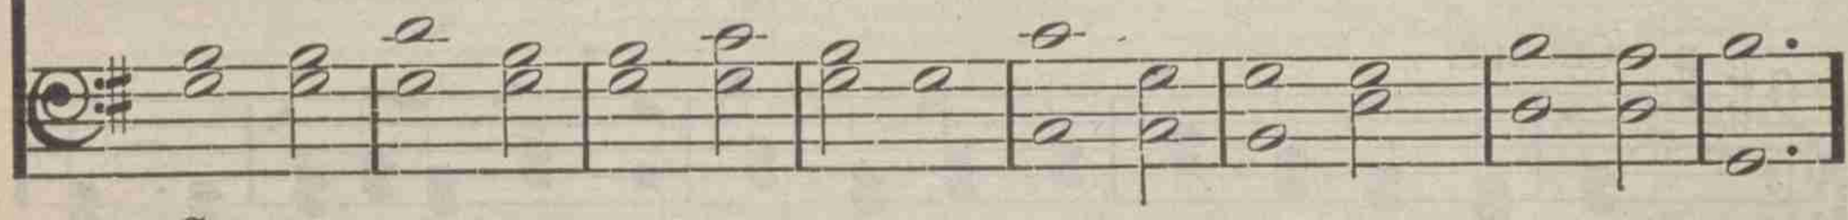

B. E. WARREN. A. L. BYERS.

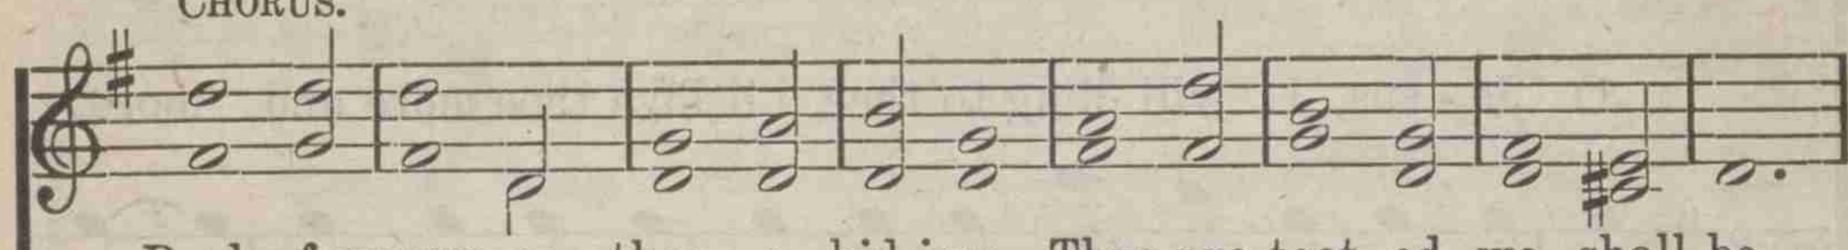

1. TRUTH IN SONG, di - vine - ly spo-ken, Clothed in strains of mu-sic grand;
2. TRUTH IN SONG, we own thy Author, Ma - ker of e - ter - nal things,
3. We thy counsel, Lord, have taken, Creeds are crumbling 'neath our feet:
4. Law of love, we meek-ly pray thee, Light and life to us im-part:

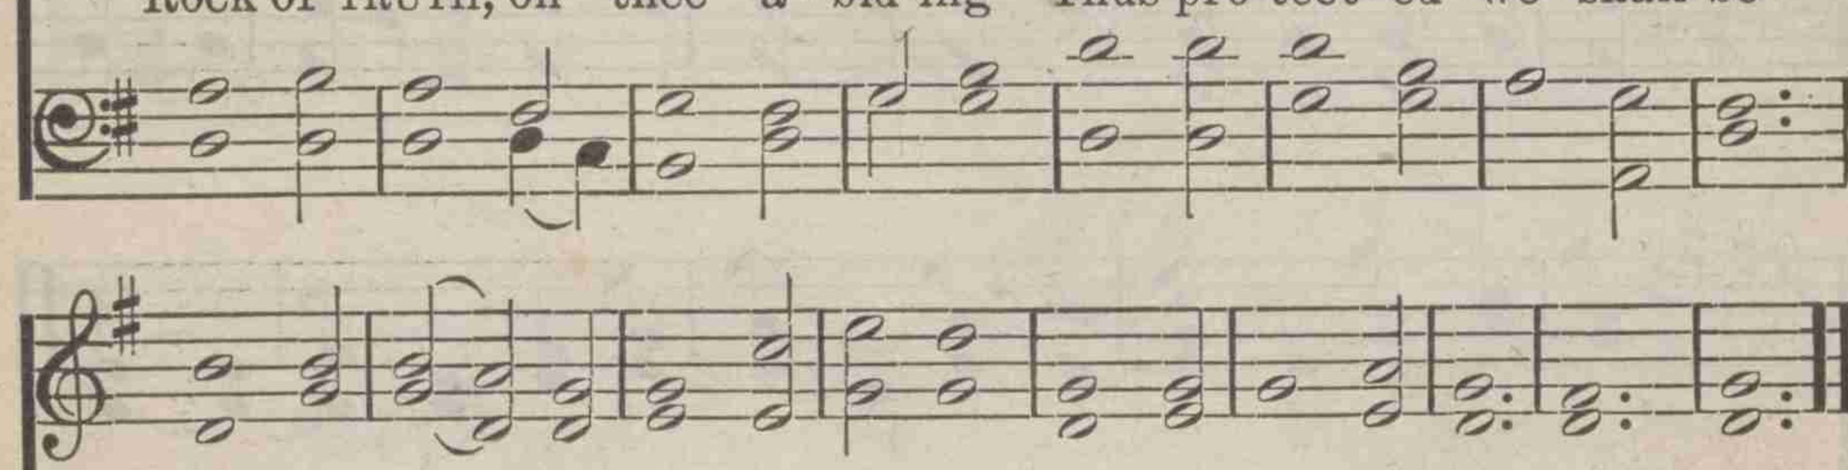

Like a chain with links un-bro-ken, Like a rock on which we stand.
Praise to him we glad - ly of - fer For the hope and grace it brings.
Here we stand, by sin un-sha-ken, Here we reign in grace com-plete.
Un-con-demned, we will o - bey thee, Dwell thou ev - er in our heart.

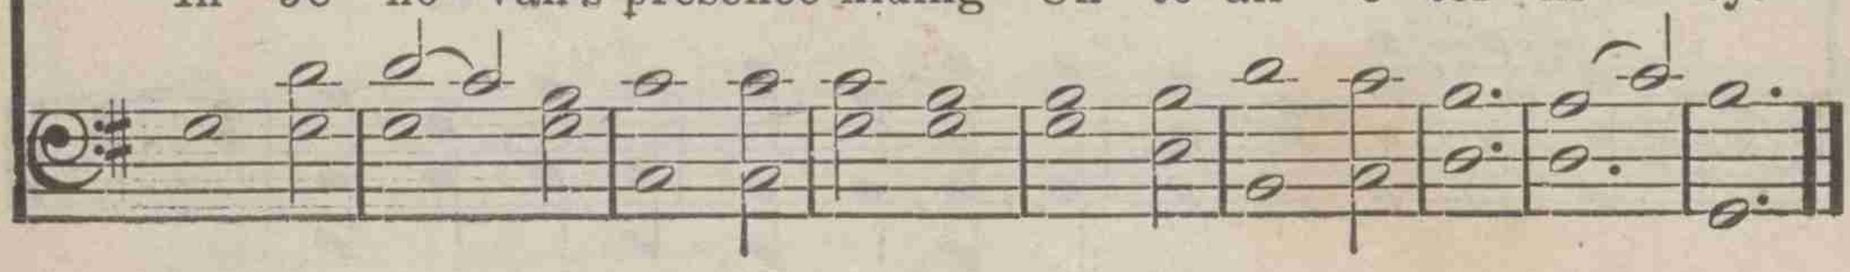

CHORUS.

Rock of TRUTH, on thee a - bid-ing—Thus pro-tect- ed we shall be

In Je - ho - vah's presence hiding Un - to all e - ter - ni - ty.

1. I thank thee, Lord, that I can cast My bur-dens all on thee;
2. Tho' tried and pressed, yet I will trust,—This one thing I can do;
3. Tho' rag-ing storms a-bout me sweep, And fier-y bil - lows roll,

Tho' I be tempt-ed, thou hast died To bear them all for me.
I'll lean up - on thy loving breast, Thou'lt guide me safely thro'.
To thee, dear Lord, I hum-bly trust The keeping of my soul.

CHORUS.

O Je - sus, I will cling to thee, I'll love thee more and more;

I'll place my trembling hand in thine, Un - til the bat - tle's o'er.

In thy maj - es - ty so fair, Thou art pres-ent ev - 'ry-where.

Round a - bout me cast thy charms, Un-der-neath me be thine arms.

God of love, God of light, Guide my trusting soul a-right;

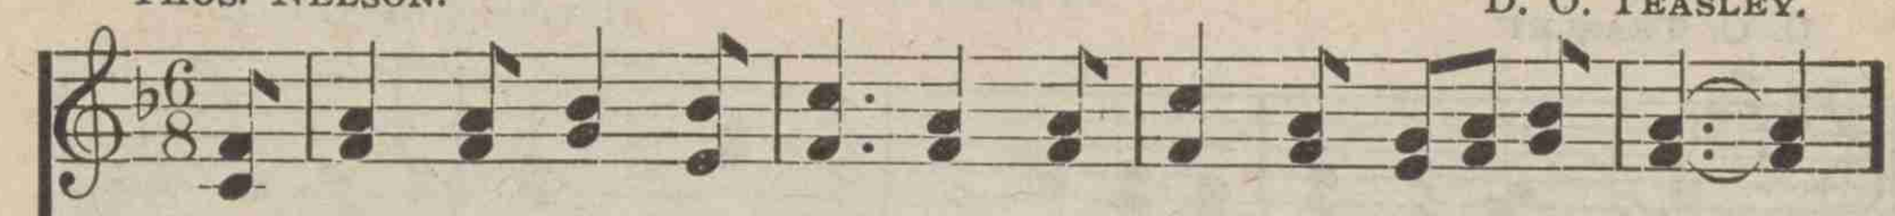

God of wis - dom, God of pow'r, Be thou with me ev - 'ry hour.

THOS. NELSON. D. O. TEASLEY.

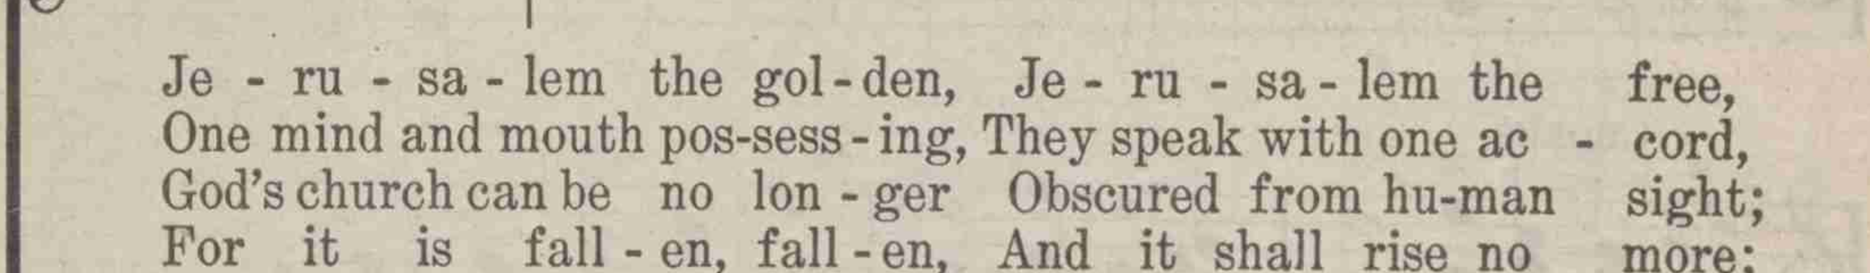

1. Now to the ho - ly cit - y The faith - ful gath-er home;
2. Now eye to eye be - hold - ing The way-marks on the road,
3. Sing glo - ry to the Sav - ior, High o - ver - all the world;
4. No lon - ger Ba - bel's bondage The bride of Christ can hold;

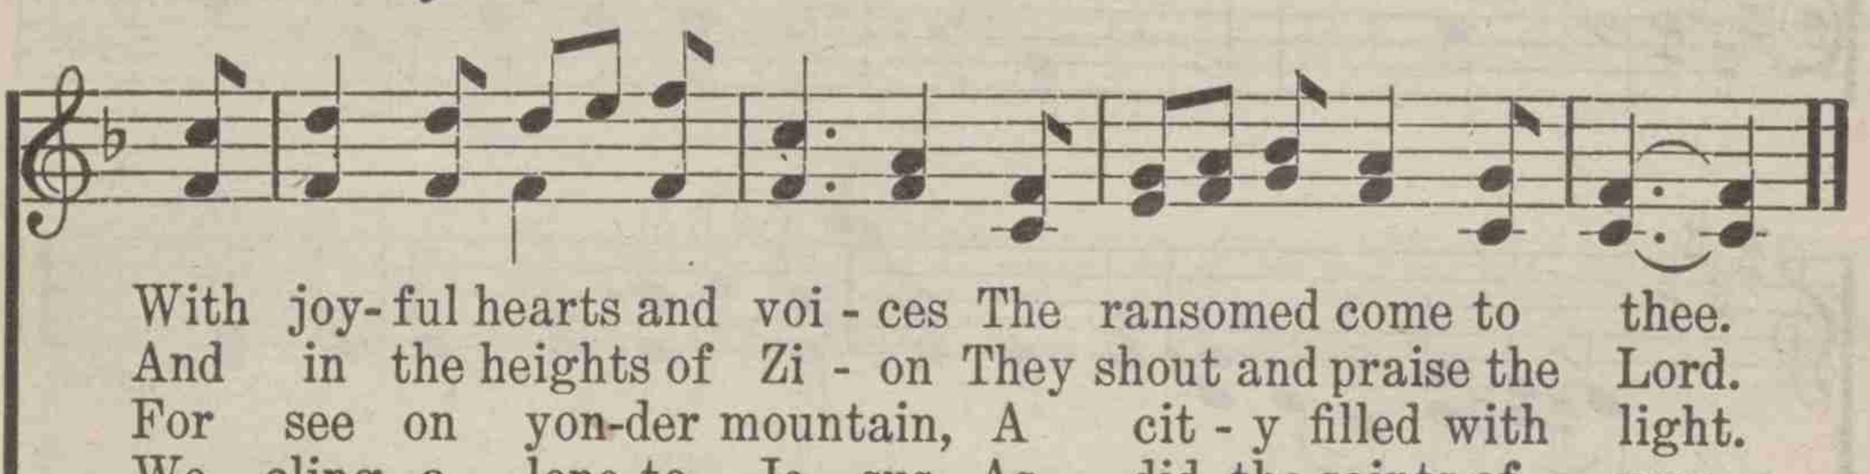

To Zi-on's mount of glo - ry With songs of joy they come.
All bound in love to - geth - er, They're com-ing home to God:
On Zi-on's heights for - ev - er His ban - ner is un - furled.
God's children now are ho - ly, And free from Ba - bel's fold:

Je - ru - sa - lem the gol - den, Je - ru - sa - lem the free,
One mind and mouth pos-sess - ing, They speak with one ac - cord,
God's church can be no lon - ger Obscured from hu-man sight;
For it is fall - en, fall - en, And it shall rise no more;

With joy-ful hearts and voi - ces The ransomed come to thee.
And in the heights of Zi - on They shout and praise the Lord.
For see on yon-der mountain, A cit - y filled with light.
We cling a - lone to Je - sus, As did the saints of yore.

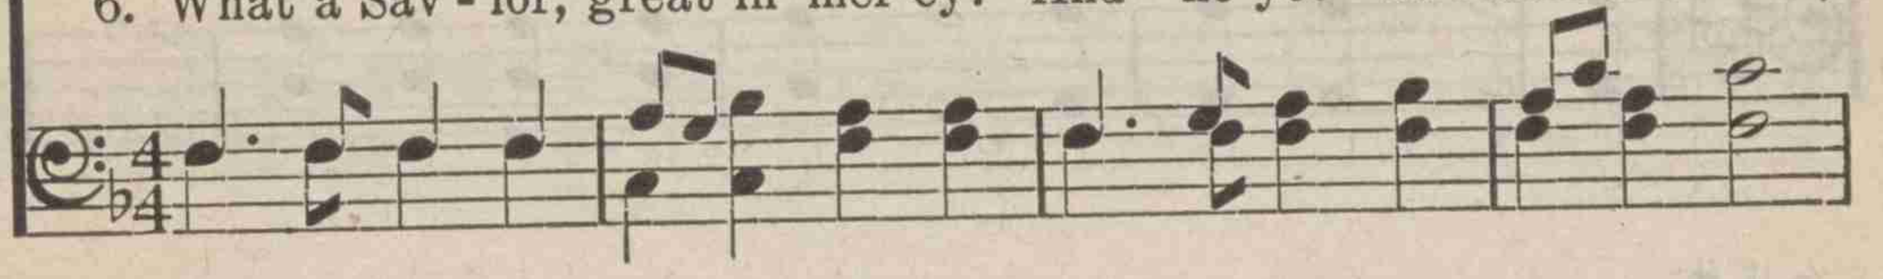

No. 5. Memories of Galilee.

MEDITATION.

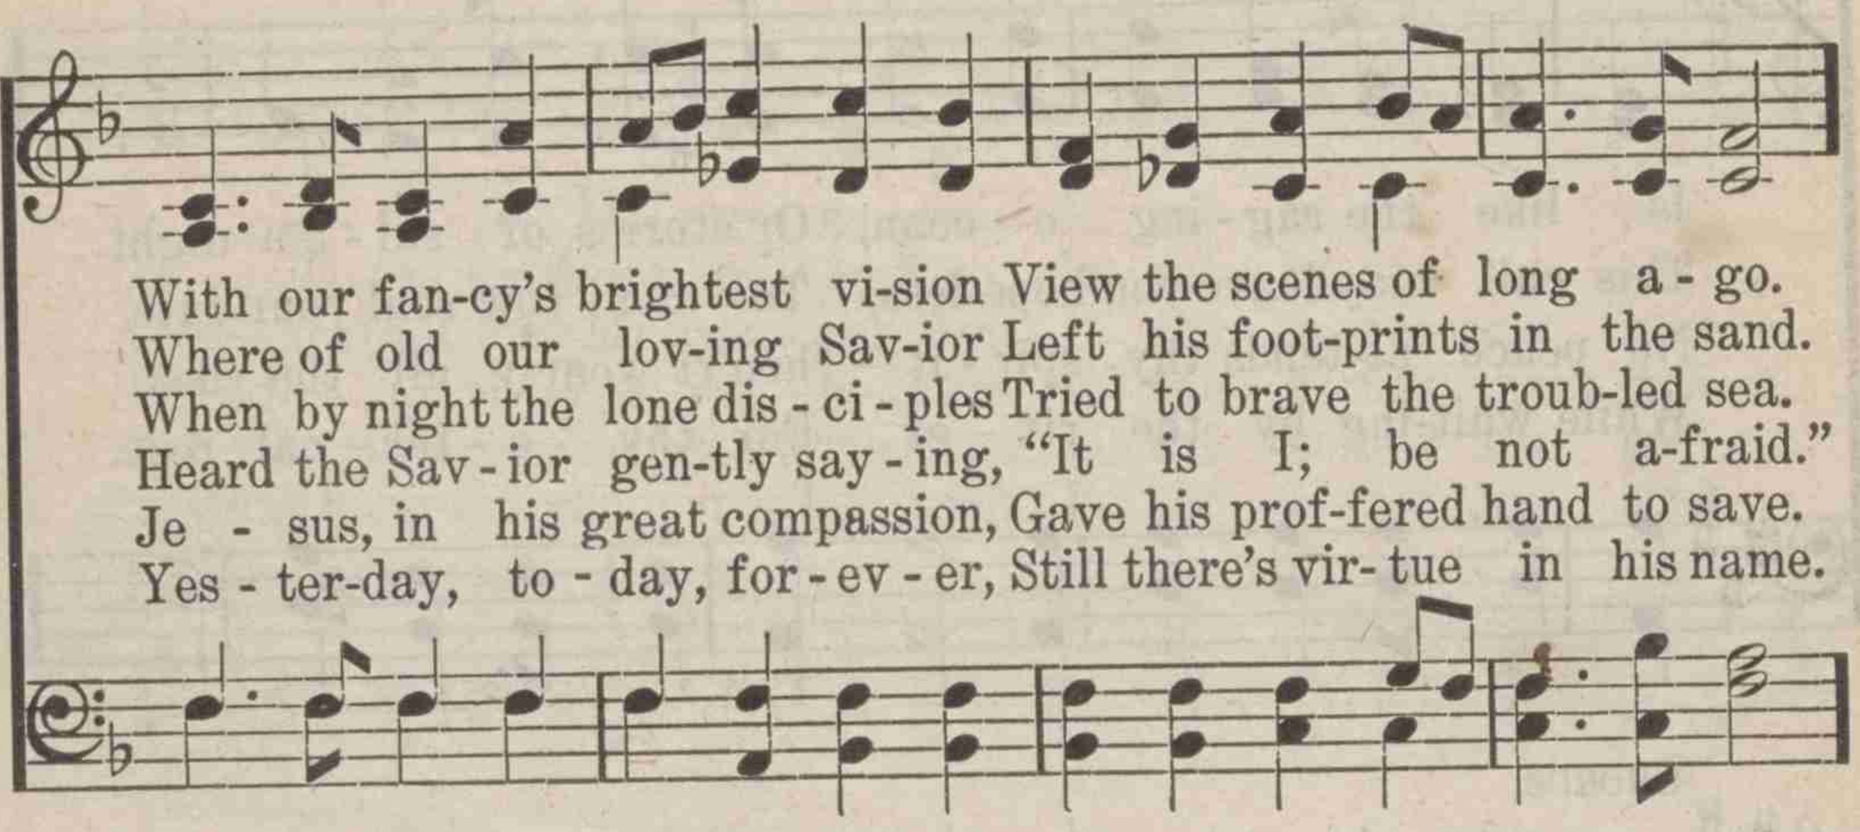

N. H. BYRUM. A. L. BYERS.

1. Oft in si - lent med-i - ta- tion Back to Gal - i - lee we go,
2. On its shores we long to wan-der, Sa-cred spot of all that land,
3. Oft in mem - o - ry we lin-ger, View the storm on Gal - i - lee,
4. Looked they out up-on the wa-ters, While their hearts were still dismayed,
5. Then as Pe - ter, full of doubting, Tried to walk up - on the wave,
6. What a Sav - ior, great in mer-cy! And he yet re-mains the same;

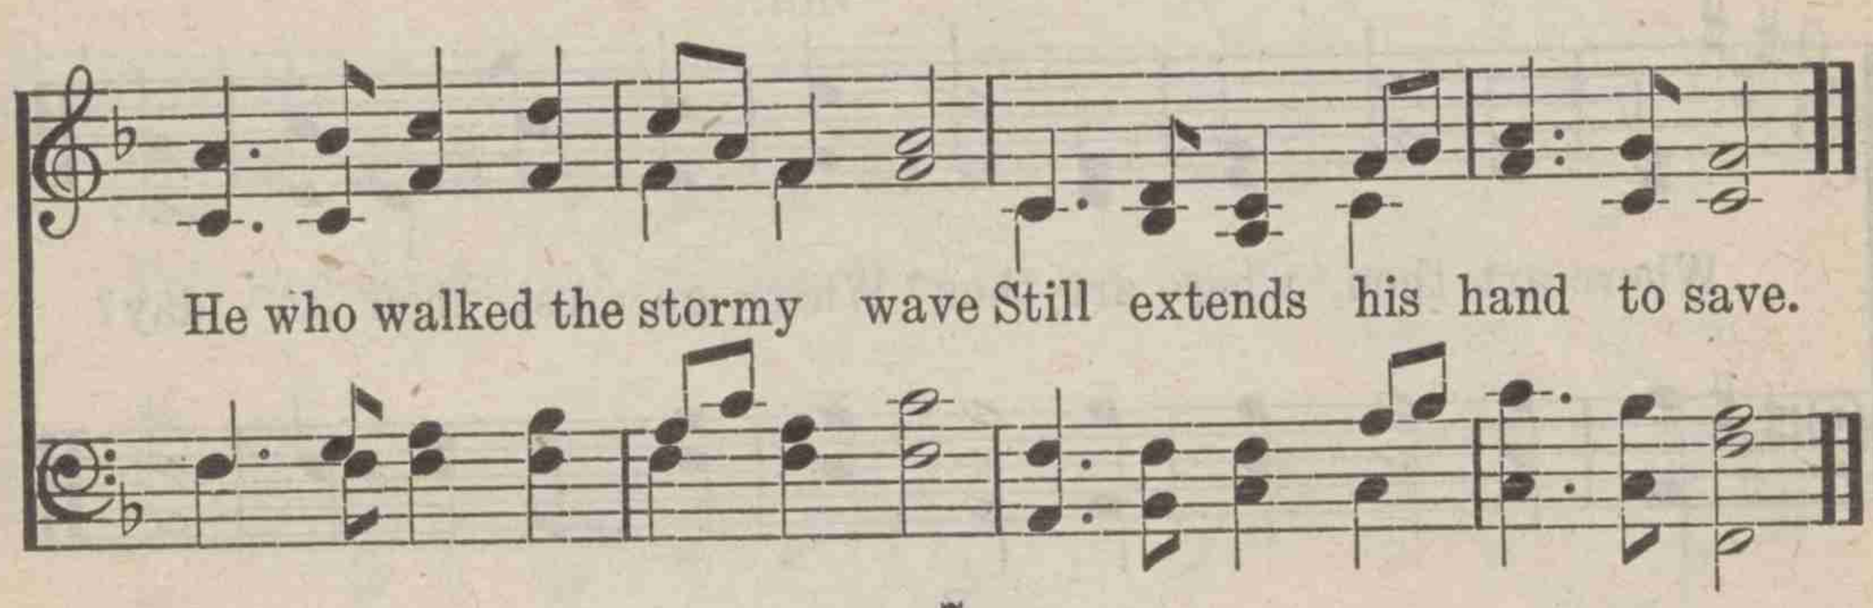

With our fan-cy's brightest vi-sion View the scenes of long a - go.
Where of old our lov-ing Sav-ior Left his foot-prints in the sand.
When by night the lone dis - ci - ples Tried to brave the troub-led sea.
Heard the Sav - ior gen-tly say - ing, "It is I; be not a-fraid."
Je - sus, in his great compassion, Gave his prof-fered hand to save.
Yes - ter-day, to - day, for - ev - er, Still there's vir- tue in his name.

CHORUS.

Sweet and pre-cious un - to me Are the tho'ts of Gal - i - lee;

He who walked the stormy wave Still extends his hand to save.

No. 6. Where Art Thou?

WARNING.

D. O. T. D. O. TEASLEY.

1. O sin - ner, where art thou? Thy soul, designed for light,
2. Ne-glect - er, where art thou? O do not be too late!
3. Back-slid - er, where art thou? Since thou hast gone a - stray,
4. O Chris - tian, where art thou? Thy hap - py soul is blest,

Is like the rag - ing o - cean, Or storms of sul - len night.
This call may leave you hope-less, To - mor - row seal your fate.
No peace at-tends thy spir - it—Thou'rt wear-y all the day.
While wait-ing by the riv - er For thy e - ter - nal rest.

CHORUS.

Where art thou, where art thou, Broth - er, on life's way?

rall.

Where art thou, where art thou? Where go - est thou to - day?

O glo - ry to his precious name! It sat - is - fies my soul.
Un - veils the Fa-ther's smil-ing face, It sat - is - fies my soul.
And makes the Christian pathway bright, It sat - is - fies my soul.
Its flow - ing riv - ers nev - er cease, It sat - is - fies my soul.

Its wealth no lan-guage e'er has told, It sat - is - fies my soul.

D. O. T. D. O. TEASLEY.

1. Nothing but leaves, no gold-en sheaves, I've gathered on life's way,

3. Nothing but dross; the reeking cross, It sheds no light on me;
4. Sow-ing the tares 'mid earth's sad cares, Ne-glect-ing my dear Lord;

Now I am bro't--how sad the tho't— To judgment's aw-ful day.
On the dark shore that lies be-fore, I see no light of day.
Spending my life 'mid sin and strife, Re-fused I to be free.
Tak-ing my flight to dark-est night, I meet my just re-ward.

CHORUS.

Lost! lost! e-ter-nal-ly lost! Heav-en, can it be!.....

Oh, can it be!

rall.

Lost! lost! e-ter-nal-ly lost! Mer-cy no lon-ger I see.

Di-rect-ed by my Sav-ior's hand, Tow'rd Canaan's bright and blessed land.
And yet I longed for deep-er grace, In Ca-naan's bless-ed rest-ing-place.
The fright'ning waves my heart did chill, But I must yield, 'twas Heaven's will.
The Fa-ther, Son, and Spir-it reign; All in-ward foes are sure-ly slain.

4. The waves a-round may splash and roll, They can-not harm my trust-ing soul;

Tri-um-phant-ly the ea-gle flies, My soul on wings of faith would rise,
The Mas-ter walked and calmed the sea, The wild-ly toss-ing Gal-i-lee.
Our bless-ed Fa-ther cares for all, He se-eth e'en the spar-row's fall;
Re-gard-ing not what I may see, My faith, O Lord, as-cends to thee.

When rag-ing is the tempest's blast, Ere yet its wrath is o-ver-past—
By faith a-gain I hear his voice, In tones which make my heart re-joice,
His chil-dren more he sure-ly loves, Their cry his heart with pit-y moves:
The dark-est night and bra-zen sky Are pierced by Faith's un-fail-ing eye:

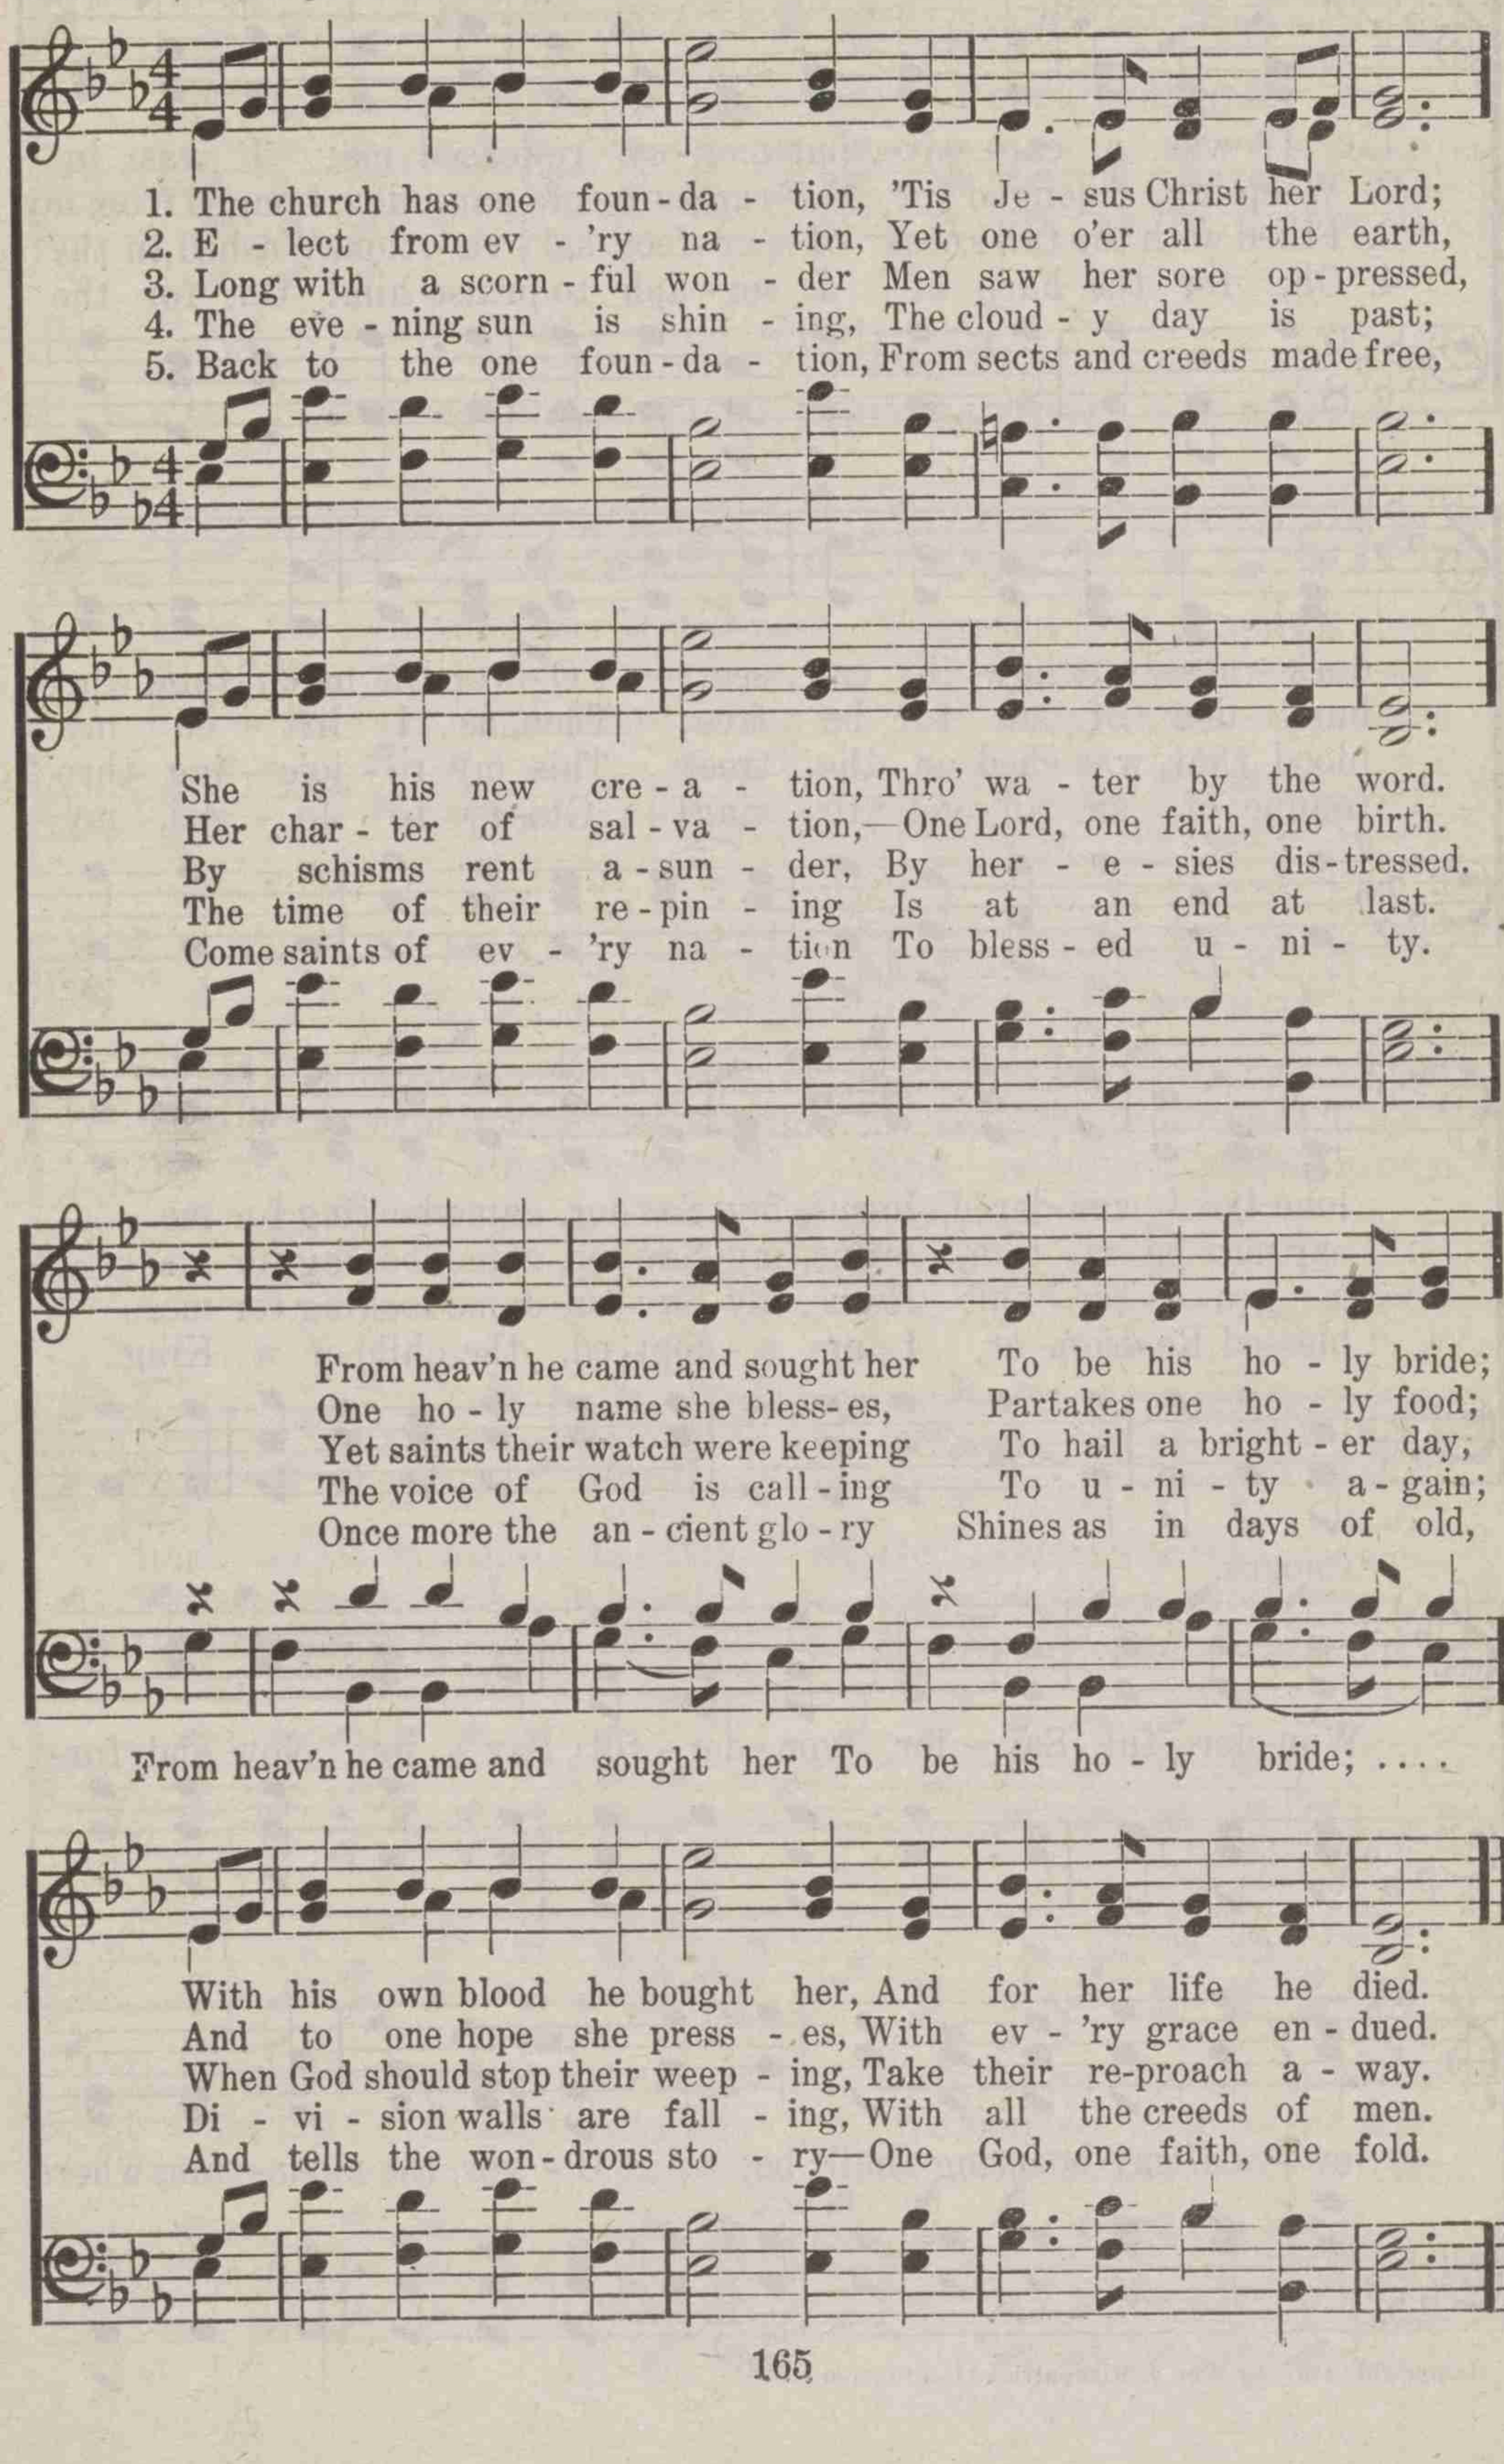

My soul would rise from earthly woe, To leave the storm-y winds be-low.
When fears my soul with ter-ror thrill, He gen-tly whispers, "Peace, be still."
Tho' thorns bestrew the path we've trod, He whis-pers still, "Have faith in God."
My cry shall be till time shall cease, "O bless-ed Lord, my faith in-crease."

CRUCIFIXION.

CLARA MCALISTER. B. E. WARREN.

With feeling.

1. The e - ven-tide falls gen-tly now, By Kedron's side, o'er Ol-ive's brow,
2. In fer-vent pray'r for you and me He wres-tled there in ag - o - ny;
3. And then be-fore his vi - sion came The crown of thorns, the cruel shame,
4. Geth-sem - a - ne! O sa-cred place! Once more I see my Sav-ior's face;

rit. pp

And thro' the gloom me-thinks I see A lone - ly form in pray'r for me.
With drops of sweat, of crim-son hue, His brow was wet, as with the dew.
The scorn of those he sought to save, The reeking cross, the si - lent grave.
It shines a - new with glo - ry now, And angels smooth his pal - lid brow.

The gen- tle tone, thro' state-ly trees, Is borne up - on the murm'ring breeze,
In tears he knelt, with troubled soul, While there he felt death's sorrows roll;
"This bit-ter cup, O Lord, I pray, Be-fore I sup, take thou a - way"—
Oh, let me e'er this scene be-hold! Oh, let me hear the sto - ry told

rit. pp

He bowed his head—God's only Son—And meek-ly said, "Thy will be done."
Our sins he bore—the Ho-ly One—And said once more, "Thy will be done."
Yet answered still, as there he knelt, "Not as I will, but as thou wilt."
Of him who there the vic- t'ry won, Who said in pray'r, "Thy will be done!"

1. The Lord of the harvest is call-ing For la-bor-ers true in his field,
2. The Sav-ior hath giv-en us free-ly Sal-va-tion and grace thro' his name,
3. When taking his word to the lost ones, It is not a gift we be-stow:
4. Much grain now is falling un-gath-ered, While many stand i-dle and wait:

To gath-er the sheaves ere they perish, When mercy no more is re-vealed.
He bids us to pub-lish his gos-pel, Its words to all creatures pro-claim.
By working and praying and giv-ing, We pay but the debt that we owe.
The harvest time soon will be end-ed, For gar-ner-ing then 'tis too late.

We bask in the sunlight of glo-ry, On heav-en-ly man-na we're fed;
We're debtors to those who are dy-ing, And nev-er its pow-er have known:
If mil-lions are lost at the judgment, Their cries shall our conscience upbraid,
O soul, prove thy love to the Sav-ior, For what he has done un-to thee, slower.

While souls o'er the ocean, in dark-ness, Are starv-ing for life-giv-ing bread.
Can we, who so rich-ly are fa-vored, Still leave them to per-ish a-lone?

No. 265. 'Tis So Sweet.

CLARA MCALISTER. In Minor Key. A. L. BYERS.

1. 'Tis so sweet just to know, as I with my Sav-ior go, If I heed ev-'ry sa - cred command, That when sorrows be- tide I may in the ref-uge hide;
2. 'Tis so sweet just to feel as be-fore him low I kneel That he knows all my bur-dens and needs,Counts each one of my tears, bids me cease from all my fears,
3. I'll re - joice in the shame when I suf - fer for his name, He will on - ly per- mit what is best: Ho - ly an - gels are near those who walk in god - ly fear,
4. Oh, how sweet it will be when my Sav - ior I shall see, In his pres-ence to dwell ev - er- more! I will share in the loss and re-proach-es of his cross

CHORUS.

He up- holds me se- cure with his hand.
And his Spir - it for me in - ter-cedes.
'Tis so sweet just to trust him and rest.
For the joy that is wait- ing be - fore.

'Tis so sweet just to know that my Father loves me so, He will list to my heart's faintest cry: I will trust in his grace, for I see his smil-ing face, 'Tis so sweet just to know he is nigh.

3. Dear dy-ing Lamb, thy pre-cious blood Shall nev-er lose its pow'r,

D. S.—And there have I, tho' vile as he, Washed all my sins a-way.

CLOSING.

No. 281. Sanctified by Faith.

Tune:—BEULAH LAND.

1 Why should a doubt or fear arise,
As this poor little all of mine
I lay a living sacrifice,
All on the altar, Christ divine.

CHO.—I'm fully thine, yes, wholly thine,
All on the altar, Christ divine.
The word of Jesus I believe,
The Sanctifier I receive;
All on the altar I abide,
And Jesus says I'm sanctified.

2 Ah, not a moment more I'll doubt,
And not a moment longer wait;
He shed his blood to sanctify,
He suffered death without the gate.

3 By faith I venture on his word,
My doubts are o'er, the victory won;
He said the altar sanctifies,
I just believe him, and 'tis done.

4 Thro' all my soul I feel his pow'r,
And in the precious cleansing wave
I wash my garments white this hour,
And prove his utmost power to save.

No. 282. The Cleansing Wave.

1 Oh, now I see the cleansing wave,
The fountain deep and wide;
Jesus, my Lord, mighty to save,
Points to his wounded side.

CHO.—The cleansing stream I see, I see,
I plunge, and oh, it cleanseth me!
Oh, praise the Lord, it cleanseth me!
It cleanseth me, yes, cleanseth me!

2 I rise to walk in heaven's own light,
Above the world of sin,
With heart made pure and garments white,
And Christ enthroned within.

3 Amazing grace! 'tis heaven below
To feel the blood applied,
And Jesus, only Jesus know,
My Jesus crucified.

—Mrs. Phœbe Palmer.

No. 283. Consecration.

Tune:—I Am Trusting.

1 Yes, I yield at Jesus' call,
On the altar lay my all—
Heart and hand, and time and voice,
Now a living sacrifice.

CHO.—I am saved by power divine,
I am thine, entirely thine;
Jesus now from sin sets free,
Sanctifies and cleanses me.

2 All I think of, here I give,
All unthought of, too, receive;
Counted all thine own shall be,
As it comes, I'll give to thee

3 Blessed altar Christians have,
Wondrous is thy power to save;
Doubts and fears and Satan flee;
As I claim my purity.

4 Resting on what Jesus saith,
Resting now by simple faith,
I, the gift, am sanctified
By the cleansing blood applied.

No. 284. All to Christ I Owe.

1 I hear the Savior say,
Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray,
Find in me thine all in all.

CHO.—Jesus paid it all!
All to him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain,
He washed it white as snow.

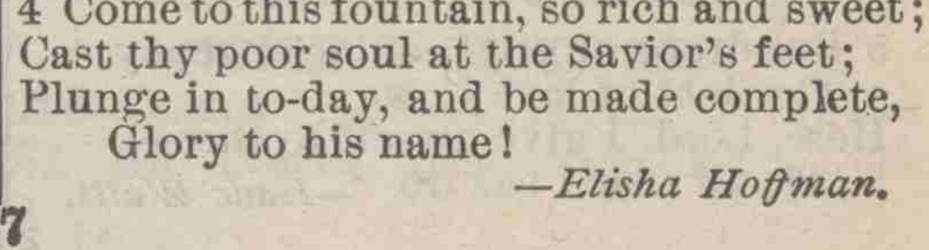

2 Lord, now indeed I find
Thy power, and thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots,
And melt the heart of stone.

3 For nothing good have I
Whereby thy grace to claim—
I'll wash my garments white
In the blood of Calvary's Lamb.

4 And when before the throne
I stand in him complete,
I'll lay my trophies down,
All down at Jesus' feet.

—Elvina M. Hall.

No. 285. Glory to His Name.

1 Down at the cross where my Savior died,
Down, where for cleansing from sin I cried;
There to my heart was the blood applied,
Glory to his name!

CHO.—Glory to his name!
Glory to his name!
There to my heart was the blood ap-[plied;
Glory to his name!

2 I am so wondrously saved from sin;
Jesus so sweetly abides within;
There at the cross where he took me in,
Glory to his name!

3 Oh, precious fountain, that saves from sin,
I am so glad I have entered in,
There Jesus saves me and keeps me clean,
Glory to his name!

4 Come to this fountain, so rich and sweet;
Cast thy poor soul at the Savior's feet;
Plunge in to-day, and be made complete,
Glory to his name!

—Elisha Hoffman.

No. 286. I Am Trusting, Lord.

1 I am coming to the cross;
I would full salvation know;
I am counting all but dross;
Wash me whiter than the snow.

CHO.—I am trusting, Lord, in thee,
Dear Lamb of Calvary;
Humbly at thy cross I bow;
In thy blood, oh, cleanse me now.

2 Long my heart has sighed to be Wholly purified within;
Jesus sweetly speaks to me—
I will cleanse you from all sin.

3 Here I give my all to thee,
Friends, and time, and earthly store,
Soul and body thine to be—
Wholly thine forevermore.

4 In the promises I trust;
In the cleansing blood confide;
I am prostrate in the dust;
I with Christ am crucified.

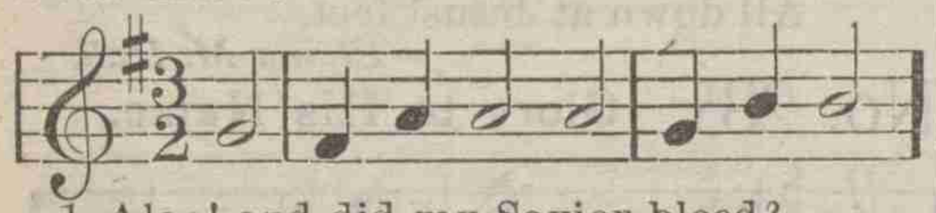

5 Jesus comes; he fills my soul!
Perfected in love I am;
I am every whit made whole;
Glory, glory to the Lamb!

(Chorus to fifth verse.)

Still I'm trusting, Lord, in thee,
Dear Lamb of Calvary;
Humbly at thy cross I bow—
Jesus fully saves me now.

—Wm. McDonald, alt.

No. 287. I Do Believe.

1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

CHO.—I do believe, I do believe
That Jesus died for me; [blood,
And through his blood, his precious
I am from sin set free.

2 Was it for crimes that I had done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself to thee—
'Tis all that I can do. —Isaac Watts.

No. 288. Remember Me.

1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

CHO.—Help me, dear Savior, thee to own,
And ever faithful be;
And when thou sittest on thy throne,
Dear Lord, remember me.

2 Was it for crimes that I had done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

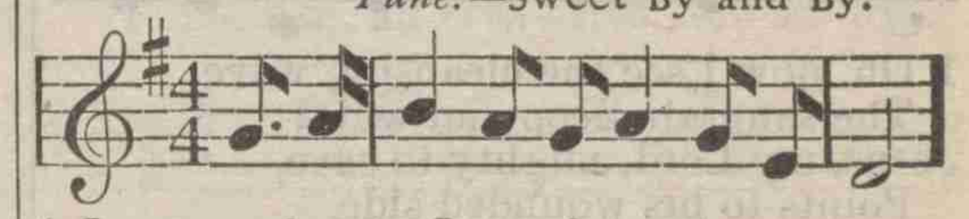

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself to thee,
'Tis all that I can do.

—Isaac Watts.

No. 289. I Believe Jesus Saves.

Tune:—Sweet By and By.

1 I am coming to Jesus for rest,
Rest, such as the purified know;
My soul is athirst to be blest,
To be washed and made whiter than snow.

CHO.—I believe Jesus saves,
And his blood washes whiter than
snow;
I believe Jesus saves,
And his blood washes whiter than
snow.

2 In coming, my sin I deplore,
My weakness and poverty show;
I long to be saved evermore,
To be washed and made whiter than snow.

3 To Jesus I give up my all,
Every treasure and idol I know;
For his fullness of blessing I call,
Till his blood washes whiter than snow.

4 I am trusting in Jesus alone,
Trusting now his salvation to know;
And his blood doth so fully atone,
I am washed and made whiter than snow.

5 My heart is in raptures of love,
Love, such as the ransomed ones know;
I am strengthened with might from above,
I am washed and made whiter than snow.
