Boisterous waves obey Thy will

And the fearful breakers roar
'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Thee say to me,

What a Friend We Have in Jesus 71

JOSEPH SCRIVEN CONVERSE C. C. CONVERSE

2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged:
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness:
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge—
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee;
Thou wilt find a solace there.

Prayer: Giving thanks for the new life in nature and in Jesus.

Reading by Superintendent: (Luke 23. 50-56.)

Reading by a Girl:

In the end of the Sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did quake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear ye not; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet and worshipped him.—Matthew 28. 1-9.

Hymn: "Christ the Lord is Risen Today." No. 30; or "He is Risen." No. 29.

Reading by a Boy:

The eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All power hath been given to me in heaven and on earth. Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.—Matthew 28. 16-20.

Hymn: "Crown Him With Many Crowns," No. 31.

Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live.—John 11. 25.

(If the flag is not on a standard it should be brought to the front and held by a boy.)

"I am whatever you make me, nothing more.
But always, I am all that you hope to be and have the courage to try for.

I am the day's work of the weakest man, and the largest dream of the most daring.
I am the constitution and the courts, statutes and the statute makers, soldier and dreadnaught, drayman and street sweep, cook, counselor, and clerk.
I am no more than what you believe me to be.
My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors. For you are the makers of the flag and it is well that you glory in the making."—Franklin K. Lane.

Psalm of the Pilgrims

O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good;
For his mercy endureth forever.
Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy,
And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
And from the north and from the south.
They wandered in the wilderness and in a desert way;
They found no city to dwell in.
Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.
Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses,
He led them forth by the right way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.
O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness,
For his wonderful works to the children of men!
For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with good.

—Psalm 107. 1-9.
