St. Louis, Aug. 5. 1901.

Censor theolog.

IMPRIMATUR.

H. Muehlsiepen.

Prayers and Devotions.

I. MORNING PRAYERS.

At awaking make the sign of the cross. While rising and dressing repeat some short ejaculations, as:

DIVINE heart of Jesus, all with thee, and all for thee.—Sweetest Heart of Mary, be my help. — Jesus, Mary, Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.—Jesus, Mary, Joseph, assist me in my last agony.—Jesus, Mary, Joseph, let my soul send forth her last sigh in peace with you. Amen.--O Angel of God, to whose care I am committed by the divine goodness, enlighten and guard, direct and protect me. Amen.

When dressed, kneel down and say:

IN the name of the Father and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I prostrate myself before thee and adore thee in union with all the angels and saints, whom I invite to adore thee.

I firmly believe in all that thou hast revealed and proposest for our belief through the holy Catholic Church, because thou art the eternal and infallible truth, who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

With confidence do I hope from thy love, omnipotence and fidelity, through the merits of Jesus Christ, eternal life and all the graces necessary to obtain it.

I love thee as the most amiable good, as my Creator and kind benefactor, and I love my neighbor as myself.

Under thy protection, O my God, I have rested this night, and have awaked with new strength. Take again under thy protection this day myself, my parents, my brothers and sisters, my teachers and fellow-students, and all for whom I pray to thee.

May thy Holy Spirit enlighten and strengthen me for whatever is good.

An Offering to the Blessed Virgin.

O my Lady, my Mother! I offer myself entirely to thee, and, as a proof of my devotedness, I this day consecrate to thee my eyes, my ears, my lips, my heart, my whole being. Since I am now thine, O tender Mother, preserve me, protect me, as thy property and possession.

O Domina mea, O Mater mea! Tibi me totum offero, et, ut me tibi probem devotum, consecro tibi hodie ocu-los meos, aures meas, os meum, cor meum, plane me totum. Quoniam itaque tuus sum, O bona mater, serva me, defende me, ut rem ac possessionem tuam.

Other Invocations.

SAINT Joseph, model and patron of those, who love the Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us.

ANGEL of God, my Guardian dear,
To whom His love commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side,
To light and guard, to rule and guide.

THOU also, O happy Saint, whose name I bear, pray for me, that I may serve God faithfully in this life, as thou hast done, and that I may glorify him eternally with thee in heaven. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

II. NIGHT PRAYERS.

IN the name of the Father etc.

Under thy all-powerful protection, O most Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, I have ended this day. I thank thee for the numberless benefits which thou hast bestowed upon me. It was my duty to have served thee most faithfully in all things, and to have striven to do thy holy will joyfully, as the holy Angels and Saints do in heaven. But have I done so? Give me light, O my God, to know my faults, and grace sincerely to repent of them.

(Examination of Conscience.)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for these and for all the sins of my past life, especially for these . . . ., because by them I have offended thee, O infinite love. Pardon them through the infinite merits of Jesus Christ; give me the grace never to sin again, and carefully to avoid those faults which I have so often committed.

O my God, take me under thy protection, preserve me from all evil of body and soul, from the snares of Satan and especially from an unprovided death, and should this night be my last, let me depart in thy holy grace.

Into thy most Sacred Heart, O my Jesus, I place myself and all those whom I recommend to thee!

Now either repeat the Offering to the Mother of God, etc., page 3 or say the following, or both.

Memorare.

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother. To thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Memorare, o piissima Virgo Maria, non esse auditum a saeculo, quemqam ad tua currentem praesidia, tua implorantem auxilia, tua petentem suffragia, a te esse derelictum. Ego tali animatus confidentia ad te Virgo virginum, Mater, curro, ad te venio, coram te gemens peccator assisto. Noli, Mater Verbi, verba mea despicere, sed audi propitia et exaudi. Amen.

Prayers to your Guardian Angel, St. Joseph, Patron Saint, page 4.

Catholic families should, if by any means possible, unite in prayer every morning and night, one leading and the rest answering. Beside some special prayers for absent, sick or departed members of the family, it is customary, to add to the night prayers the Litany of the B. V. Mary, page 27, which may either be said at the beginning or inserted before the Offering to the Mother of God.

III. DEVOTIONS AT HOLY MASS.

A PRAYER BEFORE MASS.

O Father of mercies, and God of all consolation, who, not content that thy only begotten Son should have once been offered a bleeding victim upon the cross for our salvation, wouldst have the same most acceptable oblation daily repeated in an unbloody manner, to renew in our souls the fruit thereof: grant, we beseech thee, that we may assist at this adorable mystery of thy power, wisdom, and goodness, with such reverence, attention, and love, that we may plentifully partake of the fruits it is intended to produce in us: through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF MASS.

I confess, O my God, not only in thy presence, who seest the secrets of hearts, but in presence of all the blessed in heaven, and of all the faithful on earth, that I have often and grievously offended thee by my thoughts, words, actions and omissions. Yes, I have sinned. O my God! I have sinned! I acknowledge it to my shame, and with the most bitter regret. I have abused all thy gifts. I am unworthy to appear before thee. But thy mercies, O my God, are above all thy works; thou wilt not despise a contrite and an humble heart.

O most holy Virgin! and ye Angels, and Saints of heaven! I humbly beseech you to intercede for me. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to listen to their prayers. Grant to the ardor of their supplications, what thou mayest justly refuse to the coldness of mine, and to their services, so pleasing in thy sight, that pardon, to which my offenses can have no claim.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS.

GLORY be to God on high, and peace on earth to men of good will. We praise thee. We bless thee. We adore thee. We glorify thee. We give thee thanks for thy great glory. O Lord God! O heavenly King! O God, the Father Almighty! O Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son! O Lord God, Lamb of God! Son of the Father! O thou, who takest away the sins of the world! have mercy on us. O thou, who takest away the sins of the world! receive our prayer. O thou, who sittest at the right hand of the Father! have mercy on us. For thou alone art holy. Thou alone art Lord. Thou alone art most high. O Jesus Christ! together with the Holy Ghost, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis Deo. Et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis. Laudamus te. Benedicimus te. Adoramus te. Glorificamus te. Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam. Domine Deus, Rex coelestis! Deus pater omnipotens! Domine, Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe! Domine Deus! Agnus Dei! Filius Patris! Qui tollis peccata mundi! miserere nobis. Qui tollis peccata mundi! suscipe deprecationem nostram! Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris! miserere nobis. Quoniam tu solus sanctus. Tu solus Dominus. Tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe! cum Sancto Spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

THE COLLECT.

This prayer is so called because in it the priest lays before God the necessities of his people, their vows, and their desires, collected in a manner together.

ALMIGHTY and eternal God! we humbly beseech thee to look down upon this congregation from thy heavenly sanctuary, and graciously to hear these prayers of thy Church, addressed to thee for us all, by the ministry of thy priest.

Grant us in thy infinite mercy, pardon for our sins, health of mind and body, peace in our days, unity and increase of Catholic faith, fervor of charity, sincere devotion, patience in suffering, and every thing conducive to thy glory, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE.

O eternal God, who never ceasest to excite us to the worship and love of thy holy name, and to arm us against the attacks of the world, the flesh and the devil, by the public ministry of the Church, by the doctrine of thy prophets and apostles, and by many other holy admonitions, grant that we may faithfully attend to these lessons of salvation, that thus our knowledge of thy law may never rise in judgment against us, but guide us securely to thee: through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE GOSPEL.

It is not thy interpreters, O God, who are now to instruct me; it is thy only Son; it is his word I am going to hear. I most gratefully embrace this heavenly doctrine. I rise up and declare, in the face of heaven and earth, that I will walk faithfully in that way which he hath marked out for me. He tells me here: that it will avail a man nothing to gain the whole world, if he lose his own soul; that the sensual, the covetous, the worldling, the libertine, the detractor, and such as are insensible to the miseries of the poor, shall have no share in his heavenly Kingdom; and that, in order to become his disciple, I must take up my cross and follow him. I receive with all my heart these sacred maxims; grant me the grace to put them into practice. For, to what purpose, O my Jesus, should I declare myself thy disciple, if I were not to live according to thy Gospel?

THE CREED.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and born of the Father before all ages, God of God, Light of Light, true God of true God. Begotten, not made, consubstantial to the Father, by whom all things were made. Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven. And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary; and Was Made Man. He was crucified also for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate, and was buried. And the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures. And ascended into Heaven, sitteth at the right hand of the Father. And he is to come again with glory, to judge both the living and the dead, of whose Kingdom there shall be no end. And in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son: who, together with the Father and the Son, is adored and glorified: who spoke by the Prophets. And One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead. And the life of the world to come. Amen.

Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem coeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, Lumen de Lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum non factum, consubstantialem Patri, per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui, propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem, descendit de coelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine; et Homo Factus Est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis sub Pontio Pilato, passus et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum scripturas. Et ascendit in coelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos et mortuos; cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam, et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma, in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

THE OFFERTORY.

O Holy Father, almighty and eternal God! How unworthy soever I be to appear in thy presence, I dare to offer thee this Host, by the hands of the priest, with the intention which Christ my Saviour had, when he first instituted this sacrifice, and which he has, at this very instant, that he immolates himself for us. I offer it in acknowledgment of thy supreme dominion over me, and all creatures. I offer it in expiation of my crime, and in thanksgiving for all thy benefits. I offer it to obtain from thy infinite goodness, for my parents, benefactors, friends and enemies, all those precious graces, which only through him can be obtained, who is the Just One by excellence, and who became a victim for the sins of men.

Accept then, O Lord, this ineffable sacrifice, as a sweet odor, and permit me to unite to this sacred oblation, the sacrifice of my soul and body, and whatever I am, or have. Change me, O Lord, and make me a new creature in Christ, as thou art going to change this bread and wine by thy power, to make them the body and blood of thy Son.

THE ORATE FRATRES.

RECEIVE, O Lord, from the hands of the priest, the sacrifice which is now being prepared, for the praise and the glory of thy name, for our benefit and that of thy holy Church. Graciously hear the prayers which she now offers to thee by the mouth of her minister, and mercifully grant us all the graces which thou knowest to be necessary for our salvation.

THE PREFACE.

IT is truly meet, and just, right, and salutary that we always and in all places, give thanks to thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, who with thy only begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God, and One Lord: not in one person, but in three persons and one substance. For what we believe of thy glory, as thou hast revealed it, the same we believe of thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without any difference, so that in the confession of one true and eternal Deity, we adore a distinction of persons, a unity of essence and an equality of majesty, which the Angels and the Archangels praise, the Cherubim and Seraphim also, who cease not to cry out daily, saying, with one voice;

Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God of Sabaoth; the heavens and the earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the Highest.

Sanctus! Sanctus! Sanctus! Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

THE CANON.

O Father of mercy! graciously receive by the hands of the priest, this most holy sacrifice, in union with that which thy beloved Son offered up to thee, during his whole life, at his last supper, and on the cross. Look down on thy Christ, thy dearest and only begotten Son, in whom thou art always well pleased; and by the infinite merits of his Incarnation, of his Nativity, of his tears, labors, sufferings, and death, have mercy on me, and on all these, for whom I ought to pray [here name the particular persons], my parents, brethren, friends, benefactors, relations, and those who have injured me, or whom I have injured. I also beseech thee to guard, prosper, and extend the holy

Catholic Church, to pour down thy blessing upon our chief pastor the Pope, upon the bishops, and all the clergy; enlighten and guide them in the way of salvation. Bless and preserve our rulers and all our fellow-citizens. Look upon us all, I beseech thee, with eyes of mercy and compassion. Bring us all to the perfect practice of a holy and virtuous life here, and to the possession of thy eternal glory hereafter. May we all know thee; may we all please thee perfectly; may we fear, love and glorify thee: through the same Jesus Christ, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

Why have I not, O God, at this moment, the ardent sighs with which the holy patriarchs longed for the Messiah? Why have I not their faith, and all their love? Come, Lord Jesus! Come, sweet Redeemer of the world, to accomplish a mystery, which is an abridgment of all thy wonders! Thou art indeed the true Pastor of souls, who didst lay down thy life for thy flock. Thou art the Lamb of God, that died upon the cross, to save us. I prostrate myself in spirit before thee, and desire to praise and bless thee for ever.

AT THE ELEVATION.

If for any reason you feel unable to pray in your own words during these sacred moments, say the following prayers:

HAIL, Victim of Salvation! Eternal King! Incarnate Word, sacrificed for me and all mankind! Hail, precious body of the Son of God! Hail, sacred flesh, torn with nails, pierced with a lance, and bleeding on the cross, for us, poor sinners! O amazing goodness! O infinite love! Oh! let that tender love plead now in my behalf! Let all my iniquities be here effaced, and my name be written in the book of life! I believe in thee; I hope in thee; I love thee. To thee be honor, praise and glory from all creatures for ever!

Hail, sacred Blood, flowing from the wounds of Jesus Christ, and washing away the sins of the world! Oh! cleanse, sanctify and preserve my soul, that nothing may separate me from thee! Behold, O eternal Father, thy holy Jesus, and look upon the face of thy Christ, in whom thou art well pleased. Hear the voice of his blood, that cries out to thee, not for vengeance, but for pardon and mercy. Accept this divine oblation, and through the infinite merits of all that Jesus endured on the cross for our salvation, be pleased to look upon us, and upon all thy people, with an eye of mercy. Amen.

AFTER THE ELEVATION.

IT is now, O eternal Majesty, that we truly and really offer thee that pure, holy, and immaculate Victim, which of thyself thou hast been pleased to grant us, and of which all other offerings were only the types. The sacrifice of Abel, of Abraham and Melchisedech, were nothing compared to ours. This glorious victim, thy dear Son himself, the perfect object of thy eternal love, is alone worthy of thy altar, and an offering by so much the more precious than theirs, as God is greater than all creatures.

Offer the Mass, as a Sacrifice of Adoration.

O Sovereign Lord of all things! graciously accept my humble homage, in union with that which thou here receivest from Christ, thy beloved Son, in whom thou art well pleased. With him I offer thee his own holy sacrifice, for the end he proposes, while he immolates himself upon this altar. He alone knows the boundless excellence of thy unspeakable Majesty. He alone fully comprehends the entire extent of thy dominion. He beholds thee, as thou art; and how all creatures, visible and invisible, depend on thee. He clearly conceives that thy right is absolute over all we are, and all we possess, or can hope for in this life and in eternity. It is to acknowledge this supreme dominion, and to make in his name a public profession of our total dependence upon thee, that he renews every day, and that we renew with him, this most holy sacrifice.

As a Sacrifice of Thanksgiving.

Vouchsafe also, dearest Lord, to receive this precious Victim in thanksgiving for all thy benefits. Thou hast created me to thy own likeness, and without thee, I must fall back into my original nothingness. For my sake, thy beloved Son gave himself up to the cruelty of the Jews, and to an ignominious death; nor doth a moment of my existence pass away, without new proof of thy bounty. I wish, O Lord, I could, even at the price of my blood, acknowledge, in some degree, these numberless favors; but the offering I here make thee is far more acceptable: it is thy own Son, equal in all things to thee; the figure of thy substance, the splendor of thy glory.

As a Sacrifice of Expiation.

Remember, O merciful Father, that the sacrifice we are now offering to thee, is a representation of that which was offered by our Saviour on the cross. May it be now again a propitiatory sacrifice. Pardon us our ingratitude. Our transgressions, it is true, are grievous and manifold; but then, O Lord, it is the blood of a God we offer in atonement.

As a Sacrifice of Impetration.

O God, who art infinitely bountiful, be pleased now to crown all thy favors by the gift of a lively faith, a firm hope, and an ardent charity. Bless all my labors; grant me the grace clearly to know thy holy will, steadily to execute it, and to persevere in thy grace to the end of my life. Have mercy on the souls of the faithful departed, and particularly on all those for whom I am bound to pray. [Name them.] Deliver them, O Lord, from their sufferings, through the powerful merits of thy Son.

PATER NOSTER.

Our Father! who art in heaven; hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them, that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Pater Noster! qui es in coelis: sanctificetur nomen tuum. Adveniat regnum tuum. Fiat voluntas tua, sicut in coelo et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie. Et dimitte nobis debita nostra sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem. Sed libera nos a malo. Amen.

Deliver us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all evils past, present, and to come! And by the intercession of the blessed and ever Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of Andrew and all the saints, mercifully grant peace in our days, that through the assistance of thy mercy, we may be always free from sin, and secure from all disturbance: through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

THE AGNUS DEI.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world:

Answer twice:

Have mercy on us; (and lastly:) Give us peace.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei .... miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei .... dona nobis pacem.

O Lamb of God, sacrificed for my sake, have mercy on me! O adorable Victim of my salvation, look down on me, and save me! Divine Mediator, obtain pardon from thy Father for me, a sinner, and mercifully grant me the sweets of thy peace! Amen.

THE COMMUNION.

To communicate spiritually, renew by an act of faith, your firm belief in Christ's real presence. Make an act of contrition. Desire most earnestly to receive him with the priest. Beg him to accept these desires, and to unite himself to you in the effusion of his graces. Say with the priest:

Lord! I am not worthy, that thou shouldst enter under my roof, but only speak the word, and my soul shall be healed. Three times.

What a comfort to me, O my God, were I among the number of those, whose sanctity allows them to receive thee daily! What an advantage, if I could at this instant possess thee in my heart, pay thee there my homage, lay open to thee my wants, and share in the favors which thou grantest to those who receive thee really! But since I am unworthy, do thou, O Lord, supply my want of dispositions; pardon me my sins; I detest them from my heart, because they are displeasing to thee. Accept my ardent wish to be united to thee; cast thine eye upon me, and purify my soul, that I may soon be fit to receive thee worthily. But until the arrival of this happy day I earnestly entreat thee, O dearest Lord, that thou wouldst make me a sharer in all the advantages, which the priest shall produce in these thy people. Increase my faith by the virtue of this sacrament, strengthen my hope, refine in my soul thy divine charity, fill my heart with love, that it beat but for thee, and live for thee alone. Amen.

THE LAST PRAYER.

THOU hast offered thyself, O Lord, for my salvation: I desire to be sacrificed for thy glory. I am thy victim: do with me as thou willest. Whatever I have, I consecrate entirely to thee. Those crosses, which thou wilt be pleased to send me, I most freely accept. I bless them; I receive them from thy hand, and unite them with those thou hast endured for my sake. I am now about to leave thy temple, resolved, with thy help, to serve thee faithfully. I will struggle against my failings, but chiefly against that to which I am most inclined.... Thy law shall henceforth direct me, and I shall forfeit all, and suffer every thing, rather than mortally transgress it. Amen.

THE LAST GOSPEL.

DIVINE Word, only Son of the Father! Light of the world, who comest from heaven to show us the way to it! I adore thy majesty with the most profound respect. I place my whole confidence in thee. I hope most firmly, that as thou art my God, a God made man to save mankind, thou wilt grant me those graces my sanctification requires, and also the enjoyment of thee in thy glory.

A PRAYER AFTER MASS.

I EARNESTLY thank thee, O my God, for having permitted me to assist at the celebration of this holy sacrifice, in preference to so many others, who have not been thus favored. I humbly entreat thee to pardon me the faults, which I have committed during it, either by my inattention or my neglect. Grant, that I remember through the course of the day, what thou hast here done for me. Grant, that no thought, word, or action of mine, deprive me of the graces of which, through thy infinite mercy, I have been partaker. Amen.

IV. DEVOTIONS FOR CONFESSION.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE.

O Almighty and most merciful God, who hast made me out of nothing and redeemed me by the precious blood of thy only Son; who hast with so much patience borne with me to this day, notwithstanding all my sins and ingratitude, and ever callest on me to return to thee from the ways of vanity and iniquity, behold, O most gracious Lord, I now sincerely desire to leave all my evil ways, and to return to thee, the fountain of life. I know thou desirest not the death of a sinner, but that he be converted and live. I know thy mercies are above all thy works, and I most confidently hope that, as, in thy mercy, thou hast spared me so long, and hast now given me this desire of returning to thee, so thou wilt finish thy work, and bring me to a perfect reconciliation with thee.

Come, O Holy Ghost, send forth thy light into my soul, and discover to me all those sins which I ought to confess. Grant me, I beseech thee, perfect contrition for my sins, that I may detest them with the deepest sorrow of heart. Assist me by thy grace, that I may be able to declare my sins to the priest, fully, humbly, and with a contrite heart, and to obtain perfect remission of them all through thy infinite goodness. Amen.

O holy Virgin Mary, beloved Mother of Jesus Christ, my Saviour, intercede for me, that I may worthily receive this holy sacrament, to the glory of God and the salvation of my soul.

O my Guardian Angel, my holy Patrons and all ye Saints of God, pray for me, that now I may make a good confession, be freed from my sins, and then, after your example, lead a holy life. Amen.

Here keep yourself recollected in the Divine presence, and review your actions, thoughts, words, conversations, desires and omissions since your last confession, employing in this examination a reasonable time.

A Table, which may serve to Assist the Memory in the Examination of Conscience.

When did I make my last confession? Was it a good one? Did I forget or conceal in it any mortal sin? Have I performed my penance?

1. Have I omitted morning or evening prayers, prayed negligently, with wilful distractions, neglected any of my religious duties? Have I wilfully doubted of any article of faith, or exposed my faith to any danger? Have I been guilty of any acts of superstition? Have I yielded to thoughts of distrust or presumption? Have I in troubles resigned my will to God?

2. Have I taken the name of God in vain, spoken irreverently of God and holy things, cursed, taken false or rash oaths?

3. Have I neglected to hear Mass on Sundays, or on days of obligation, or heard it with wilful distractions? Have I come too late to Mass, or gone away before it was over? Have I broken the days of abstinence and fasting? Have I shown irreverence in church?

4. Have I disobeyed my parents, grieved or wronged them? Have I disobeyed any other lawful superiors, or shown any disrepect to them?

5. Have I borne any malice, hatred, or spirit of revenge? Have I, through impatience, wished for my own death, or for that of any other person? Have I done any thing injurious or dangerous to my own health or that of another person? Have I grieved others, vexed them, or caused them to commit sin? Have I refused pardon to those who had injured me?

6. Have I been guilty of any acts of impurity? Of filthy talking? Of listening wilfully to such talking? Of reading immodest books? Of indelicacy of dress? Of unchaste looks? Of taking any indecent liberties?

7. Have I been guilty of stealing or of wronging in any way my neighbor's property?

8. Have I been guilty of telling lies? Have I done any injury to any one, by speaking ill of him? Have I listened with satisfaction to detraction? Have I lessened the good reputation of my neighbor by any sort of detraction, or calumny, in any matter of importance? Formed rash judgments, spread any report that exposed others to contempt, or have I caused discord between others?

9. Have I taken pleasure in any unchaste thoughts or imaginations? Have I wilfully entertained any improper thoughts, desires, or indelicate feelings?

10. Have I desired any loss, or misfortune, to any one, in order to gain thereby? Have I entertained any wish or design to steal?

The Capital Sins.

a. Have I indulged the feelings of pride? Of vanity?

b. Have I been covetous, hard-hearted?

c. Have I grieved at my neighbor's good fortune, prosperity, praise, or rejoiced at his adversity?

d. Have I indulged in anger, impatience, excitement, quarrelled with others?

e. Have I been guilty either of drinking or eating to excess? Have I contributed to any such excess in others?

f. Have I in any way yielded to sensuality or impurity?

g. Have I neglected the frequentation of the sacraments, prayer, religious instructions? The mortification of my passions? Have I neglected my studies, my work, the proper employment of time?

Having brought before your mind the different sins which you have been guilty of, along with the circumstances changing or augmenting the sins, and the number of times you may have fallen into the same offences, excite yourself to sorrow for them. If, however, you do not recollect much to confess since your last confession, call first to mind the more grievous sins of your past life. Then reflect a few moments on the motives of contrition: the majesty of God, whom you have slighted; his terrible justice and your folly; his goodness and your ingratitude.

ACT OF CONTRITION.

O my God! I am most heartily sorry for all my sins, and I detest them above all things from the bottom of my heart, because they displease thee, my God, who art most deserving of all my love, for all the benefits thou hast so plentifully bestowed upon me, and for thy most amiable and adorable perfections. I firmly purpose, by thy holy grace, never more to offend thee, to avoid all dangerous occasions of sin, and to do all that I can to atone for the sins which I have committed.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy great mercy; and according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my iniquity.

Wash me yet more from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin; for I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me.

Turn away thy face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Create a clean heart in me, O God; and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

Cast me not away from thy face; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and strenghten me with a perfect spirit.

A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: a contrite and humbled heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

O Lord, thou wilt open my lips; and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

For I will declare my iniquity; and I will confess my sins.

Lord, all my desire is before thee, and my groaning is not hidden from thee.

In thee, O Lord, have I hoped: thou wilt hear me, O Lord, my God.

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

Attend unto my help, O Lord, the God of my salvation. Amen.

AFTER CONFESSION.

Accept, O Lord, I beseech thee, this my confession, and mercifully pardon all my deficiencies, that, according to the greatness of thy mercy, I may be fully and perfectly absolved in heaven: through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

I have acknowledged my sins to thee, O Lord, and my injustice I have not concealed.

I said: I will confess against myself my injustice to the Lord, and thou hast forgiven the wickedness of my sin.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

O my Divine Saviour, I give thanks unto thee, that thou hast been pleased to cleanse me from my sins by thy precious blood. Blessed be thy Name, O Lord, for ever and ever. I acknowledge and adore thy mercy, and dedicate myself wholly to thy service hereafter. Assist my weakness, and suffer me not again to fall into my past sins and to be separated from thee; but so bind my heart and soul to thee with the bonds of thy love, that I may say with the Apostle: Who shall separate me from the love of Christ?

O my blessed Mother Mary, my good Guardian Angel, my holy Patrons, and all ye Angels and Saints, intercede for me; obtain that I may keep all my good resolutions faithfully unto the end of my life. Amen.

Now perform immediately, if possible, the penance enjoined.

V. DEVOTIONS FOR HOLY COMMUNION.

BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION.

COME to me, all you that labor and are burdened, and I will refresh you, saith the Lord. (St. Matt. xi.)

Take and eat, this is my body, which is given for you. (St. Luke xxii.)

He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, abideth in me, and I in him. (St. John vi.)

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of everlasting glory, behold I desire to come to thee this day, and to receive thy body and blood in this Sacrament, for thy honor and glory, and for the good of my soul. I desire to receive thee, because it is thy desire, and thou hast so ordained and kindly invited me. I desire to come to thee, that I may be refreshed by thee; that I may be delivered from my weakness and all my evils, and embrace thee, my only good. I desire to come to thee that I may be happily united to thee, that I may henceforth abide in thee, and thou in me; and that nothing in life or death may ever separate me from thee.

Act of Faith.

O my Saviour, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, I most firmly believe, that thou art truly and really present in this adorable Sacrament; that there is thy body and blood, thy soul and thy divinity. This I most steadily believe, because it is what thou hast taught us by thy Word and by thy holy Catholic Church. I believe; O Lord, do thou increase my faith.

Act of Hope.

O my Saviour, Jesus Christ, in thee I place all my hope. Thou alone art my salvation, my strength, my refuge, and the foundation of all my happiness. Were it not for the confidence I place in thy merits, and the precious blood wherewith thou didst redeem me, I would not presume to partake of this banquet. Yet, encouraged by thy goodness and thy kind invitation, behold, I come to thee as a poor and infirm sheep to its shepherd; as a sick man to his physician, as a criminal to his powerful intercessor; that, as the true shepherd of my soul, thou mayst feed and strengthen me, heal me as my physician, and, as my merciful advocate, deliver me from all my evils. Thou wilt have pity on me, my Jesus, and save me: for thou forsakest none that place their hope in thee. Strengthen my hope, O Lord!

Act of Love.

O my Saviour, Jesus Christ, how wonderful is thy goodness and bounty, how excessive thy mercy and charity! Thou art the Saint of Saints and the Lord of the universe. I am thy creature, and a poor sinner; and behold, thou wilt come to me, thou art willing to be in me and with me. After having shed thy blood for me, thou invitest me to thy banquet, where thou wilt give me thy heavenly food, the bread of Angels, to eat. In return for this thy infinite love, I desire to love thee, my Jesus, who art my only comfort in this place of banishment, the only hope of my infirm soul, and happiness above all I can enjoy in this life. Make me love thee, my God, with my whole heart, with my whole soul, with all my mind, and all my strength; inflame my heart with the fire of thy love, that it may continue burning, and as every moment is an increase of my life, so it may be also of my love towards thee.

Act of Contrition.

O my amiable Saviour! inflamed with thy love I again detest with my whole heart all the sins by which I have ever offended thee, from the first moment that I was capable of sinning, to this very hour. All my sins displease me exceedingly, because they have offended thy infinite goodness; I am sorry for them, and will be sorry for them as long as I live. I am fully resolved henceforth to avoid every fault that may in the least displease thee. Pardon, dear Lord, all that is past, and be thou my preserver for the time to come, that I may never more offend thee. For the present, I have the confidence that my soul has been cleansed in the holy Sacrament of Penance; still I desire to be washed more and more from my iniquities. Create a clean heart in me, O God, and then enter into it.

Act of Humilily.

But what am I, O God of majesty and glory, that thou shouldst come and visit me? Lord, I am not worthy of so great a favor. Adorable Sovereign, King of heaven and earth! Behold I prostrate and annihilate myself before thee. I acknowledge, with the most profound respect, the infinite grandeur of thy divine majesty, and my own miserable baseness. I confess with the centurion:

Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

On receiving the Blessed Sacrament say:

MAY the body of our Lord preserve my soul unto everlasting life. Amen.

PRAYERS AFTER HOLY COMMUNION.

O Jesus, thou hast now satisfied the desire of my heart. I possess thee; O make me ever thine. Remember, O Lord, that one visit from thee would suffice to sanctify the greatest sinner; permit not, then, that I should receive thee in vain. Thou art the true light of the world; enlighten the eyes of my soul that I may know thee better. Thou art the physician of souls, who healest all our infirmities by thy sacred blood; Oh, heal my soul and all its weakness, and all its irregular inclinations.

Thou art the good Shepherd, who hast laid down thy life for thy sheep; behold, I am the lost sheep that has strayed from thee; take me, and carry me with thee on thy shoulders.

O my Lord and God, behold, I am thy servant; give me understanding and excite my affection, that I may henceforth in all things know and do thy will.

Thou art the Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world; oh, take away from me whatsoever is hurtful to me and displeasing to thee, and grant me what thou knowest to be pleasing to thee and profitable to me.

O my God and my all, may the flame of thy love consume my soul, that so I may die to the world for love of thee, who hast vouchsafed to die upon the cross for love of me.

Prayer of St. Bonaventure.

PIERCE through and through the marrow of my bones and my inmost soul, with the sweet and saving wound of thy love, O sweetest Jesus, my Lord! Let my love of thee be true and bright, apostle-like and saintly, that my soul may languish and melt away with ever-burning love and longing for thee alone, and yearning after thee, sink and faint away within thy courts, wishing to be dissolved, and be with thee. Let my soul hunger for thee, bread of Angels, food of holy souls, our daily supersubstantial bread, having in it every sweet flavor, every delight of taste; may my heart hunger for thee and enjoy thee, whom Angels wish to contemplate, and may the depths of my soul be filled with thy sweetness; may it ever thirst for thee, fountain of life. spring of wisdom and of science, source of eternal light, torrent of joy, riches of the house of God; may it ever aim at thee, seek and find thee, tend to and reach thee; let me think of thee, talk of thee, do all for the praise and the glory of thy name, with humility and discretion, with love and delight, promptly, joyfully, and with perseverance to the end; and be thou alone for ever my hope, my trust and salvation; be my wealth, my joy, my delight and happiness; be my repose, my rest, my peace; be my enjoyment, my sweetnees and fragrance, my food and refreshment, my refuge and help, my wisdom, my portion and possession, and my treasure, to which my mind and my heart may remain firmly and steadily attached for ever. Amen.

Prayer for many Virtues.

O good Jesus, whom I here recognize truly present, let me feel, I beseech thee, the effect of thy presence; pour into my soul the light of thy grace. Give me a quick apprehension, a ready intelligence, a retentive memory; give me efficacy in my work, amiability in conversation, progress in study, success in my undertakings, consolation in adversity, protection in prosperity, and, whithersoever I turn myself, let thy grace precede me. If I wander, bring me back; if I am ignorant, teach me; if I sin, correct me; if I am sad, console me; if I fall, raise and support me; let me know thee more truly, love thee more securely, confide in thee more sincerely, follow thee more ardently. This Sacrament of thy body and blood be to me a solace in life, a support in death, and a reward in eternity. Amen.

Conclusion.

O blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of my God and Saviour, pray for me and recommend all my petitions to thy Son. All ye Angels and Saints, citizens of heaven, join also your prayers with mine. You ever stand before the throne and see him face to face whom I here received under the sacramental veil; be ever mindful of me, and obtain from him and through him, that with you I may bless him and love him forever.

And now, Lord Jesus, I go from thee for a while to pursue the duties of my vocation. To thy love and protection I recommend myself, as well as my parents, my relations, my benefactors, my friends and enemies, and all for whom I am in any way bound to pray. Love us, O Lord, bless us, change our hearts and transform us into thyself. May I myself at least be wholly employed in thee and for thee; and may thy glory and love be the end of all my thoughts, words, and actions, who livest and reignest with God the Father, in union with the Holy Ghost forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER BEFORE A CRUCIFIX.

A Plenary Indulgence is granted to all who shall devoutly say the following prayer before a crucifix, with contrite hearts, after having confessed and received Holy Communion:

LOOK down upon me, good and gentle Jesus, while before thy face I humbly kneel, and, with burning soul, pray and beseech thee to fix deep in my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, true contrition for my sins, and a firm purpose of amendment; while I contemplate with great love and tender pity thy five wounds, pondering over them within me, calling to mind the words which David, thy prophet said of thee, my Jesus: "They pierced my hands and my feet; they numbered all my bones."

Some other prayer for the intention of the Pope must be added: five times "Our Father" and "Hail Mary," or an equivalent, is sufficient.

VI. TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

AN ACT OF REPARATION AND OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

SWEETEST Jesus, source of love, Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who hast opened to us, poor and unworthy sinners, the unspeakable treasures of thy most Sacred Heart: in order to give thee thanks for the numberless benefits thou hast bestowed upon me, and all mankind, and in particular for the institution of the Blessed Sacrament; and to make some reparation for all the injuries that I myself and others have inflicted on thy Sacred Heart, in that mystery of thy inconceivable love, I offer up to thee my whole self and all that belongs to me, together with all the gifts, and merits I have already obtained or hope still to obtain; and promise, as much as my weakness enables me, to propagate the devotion to thy Divine Heart.

To this end I choose also the Blessed Virgin Mary in a special manner for my mother, and likewise consecrate and offer up myself, with all that is mine, to her spotless heart, promising to spread, according to my power, the devotion to this loving mother, especially that to her Immaculate Conception.

Therefore I humbly beseech thy infinite goodness and mercy, graciously to accept this sacrifice, and as thou hast given the grace to desire and offer it, so also to give strength to fulfil it. Amen.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart,

Make our hearts like unto Thine.

LET US PRAY.

O, almighty and eternal God, look upon the Heart of Thy dearly beloved Son, and upon the praise and satisfaction he offers thee in the name of sinners and for those who seek thy mercy; be Thou appeased, and grant us pardon in the name of the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

VII. THE HOLY WAY OF THE CROSS.

A PREPARATORY PRAYER.

O Jesus, treasure of my soul, infinitely good, infinitely merciful, behold me prostrate at thy sacred feet. Sinner as I am, I fly to the arms of thy mercy, and implore that grace, which melts and converts, — the grace of true compunction. I have offended thee, adorable Jesus. I repent; let the fervor of my love equal the baseness of my ingratitude. I desire to make this Way of the Cross, in memory of that painful journey which thou hast made to the mount of Calvary for our redemption. Grant me the grace to to do so devoutly with the holy purpose of reforming my morals and amending my life. I wish to gain all the the Indulgences, granted by thy Vicar on earth and apply them in suffrage to the souls in purgatory (particularly N. N.....). I begin this devotion under thy sacred protection and in imitation of thy dolorous Mother. Let then this holy exercise obtain for me mercy in this life, and glory in the next. Amen.

Before each Station:

V. We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

After each Station:

Our Father. Hail Mary.

V. Jesus Christ crucified.

R. Have mercy on us and deliver the suffering souls.

FIRST STATION.

Jesus is condemned to death.

CONSIDER how Pilate condemned the innocent Jesus to death, and how thy Redeemer submitted to this sentence, to free thee from the sentence of everlasting death.

O Jesus, I thank thee for this thy great love, and I beseech thee to take back the sentence of everlasting death which I have deserved by my sins, so that I may be made worthy to attain to everlasting life.

SECOND STATION.

Jesus is made to bear the Cross.

CONSIDER how Jesus took upon his shoulders the Cross, which thy many sins made so heavy.

O Jesus, grant me the grace not to make thy Cross heavier by new sins, and cheerfully to carry mine in a true spirit of penance.

THIRD STATION.

Christ falls the first time.

CONSIDER how Jesus, overcome by weariness and pain, fell to the ground under the weight of the Cross.

O Jesus, my falls into sin caused thee this fall. Grant that I may never renew thy pain by a relapse into sin.

FOURTH STATION.

Jesus is met by his Blessed Mother.

CONSIDER the anguish which filled the hearts of Jesus and Mary at this sorrowful meeting. It was thy sins that caused the Son and the Mother this affliction.

O Jesus, excite in me, through the intercession of thy holy Mother, a lively sorrow for my sins, that I may bewail them my whole life long, and in the hour of my death find favor with thee.

FIFTH STATION.

The Cross is laid on Simon of Cyrene.

CONSIDER how the Jews, seeing that Jesus was no longer able to drag his Cross along, compelled Simon of Cyrene to carry it after him.

O Jesus, I ought to carry the Cross, because I have sinned. Give me the grace at least to accompany thee on the way to Calvary, and for the love of thee cheerfully to bear the Cross of adversities.

SIXTH STATION.

Veronica wipes the face of Jesus.

CONSIDER how this woman tried to alleviate the sufferings of Jesus, and how he rewarded her by leaving the print of his sacred face on the towel she had in her hands.

O Jesus, grant me the grace to cleanse my soul from all its defilements, and imprint deep in my heart and mind the image of thy holy sufferings.

SEVENTH STATION.

Jesus falls the second time.

CONSIDER the sufferings Jesus endures in this second fall. Thou hast been the cause of them, by thy frequent relapses into sin.

O Jesus, I stand before thee full of shame. Give me the grace so to arise from my sins, as never again to fall back into them.

EIGHTH STATION.

Jesus speaks to the women of Jerusalem.

CONSIDER how Jesus exhorts these women to weep, not for him, but for themselves; to teach thee to weep more for thy sins than for his sufferings.

O Jesus, give me tears of true contrition, that the sorrow I feel for thy sufferings may be profitable to me.

NINTH STATION.

Jesus falls the third time.

CONSIDER how Jesus falls the third time, enduring excruciating pain, to atone for thy obstinacy in continually committing new sins.

O Jesus, now I am firmly resolved to give up sin forever, so as not to cause thee new sufferings. Strengthen me in this my resolution, and by thy grace make it efficacious.

TENTH STATION.

Jesus is stripped and receives gall to drink.

CONSIDER the shame Jesus endured in being stripped of his garments, and the bitterness of the wine mixed with myrrh and gall, which they caused him to drink. Thus he atoned for thy immodesty, and thy intemperance in eating and drinking.

O Jesus, I am sorry for all the sins I have committed by sensuality. I promise, with thy assistance, not to renew thy shame and suffering, and to live henceforward in modesty and temperance.

ELEVENTH STATION.

Jesus is nailed to the Cross.

CONSIDER the dreadful sufferings Jesus endured, when the Jews stretched his bleeding body on the Cross, and fastened it thereon with nails through his sacred hands and feet.

O Jesus, thou sufferedst all this for me; and should I suffer nothing for thee? Fasten my obstinate will to thy Cross. I firmly resolve never more to offend thee, and for the love of thee to suffer every thing.

TWELFTH STATION.

Jesus dies on the Cross.

CONSIDER how Jesus, after three hours' agony, dies on the Cross for thy salvation.

O Jesus, since thou hast sacrificed thy life for me, it is but just that I should spend the rest of my life for thee. And this I firmly purpose to do. Only grant me, by the merits of thy death, the grace to put my resolution into practice.

THIRTEENTH STATION.

The body of Jesus is taken down from the Cross.

CONSIDER the grief of the Mother of God, when she received in her arms the body of her divine Son, all pale, covered with blood, and void of life.

O most holy Virgin, obtain for me the grace never more to crucify Jesus afresh by my sins, but by the practice of virtue to keep him ever alive in me.

FOURTEENTH STATION.

Jesus is laid in the sepulchre.

CONSIDER how the most sacred body of Jesus was laid, with the greatest reverence, in the new grave prepared for it.

O Jesus, I thank thee for all thou hast suffered in order to redeem me; and I beseech thee, grant that I may prepare myself to receive worthily in holy communion, the body which thou hast given for me. Take up thy abode forever in my soul.

CONCLUSION.

COMPASSIONATE Jesus! behold with eyes of mercy this devotion which I have endeavored to perform in honor of thy bitter passion and death, in order to obtain remission of my sins and of the pains incurred by them. Accept it for the salvation of the living and the eternal repose of the faithtful departed, particularly of those for whom I directed it. Do not, my Jesus, suffer the ineffable price of thy blood to be fruitless, or my miserable soul, ransomed by it, to perish. The voice of thy blood cries louder for mercy than my crimes for vengeance. Have mercy, then, O Lord! Have mercy and spare me for thy mercy's sake. Amen.

VIII. TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN, THE ANGELS AND THE SAINTS.

A METHOD OF SAYING THE BEADS.

Taking your rosary in your right hand, by the cross or medal make the Sign of the Cross, and recite the Apostles' Creed (page 4), and one "Our Father."

At the three small beads say three "Hail Marys" to obtain Faith, Hope and Charity.

"Glory be to the Father, etc."

Then come the five decades, each consisting of one "Our Father," ten "Hail Marys," and one "Glory be to the Father."

Before each decade mention the corresponding mystery, thus:

"First joyful mystery — the Annuntiation;" and while you recite the decade meditate on this mystery.

Conclude the last decade with the "Hail, holy Queen, etc." or the "Memorare."

I. THE FIVE JOYFUL MYSTERIES.

1. The Annuntiation.
2. The Visitation.
3. The Birth of our Saviour Jesus Christ in Bethlehem.
4. The Presentation of our Blessed Lord in the Temple.
5. The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple.

II. THE FIVE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES.

1. The Prayer and Bloody sweat of our Blessed Saviour in the Garden.
2. The Scourging of our Blessed Lord at the Pillar.
3. The Crowning of our Blessed Saviour with Thorns.
4. The Carrying of the Cross.
5. The Crucifixion and Death of our Lord.

III. THE FIVE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES.

1. The Resurrection.
2. The Ascension of Christ into Heaven.
3. The Descent of the Holy Ghost on the Apostles.
4. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven.
5. The Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Heaven.

PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART OF MARY.

O Heart of Mary, Mother of God, and our Mother, Heart most worthy of love, object of the complacency of the most holy Trinity, and deserving of all the veneration and tenderness of angels and of men, thou art most like the Heart of Jesus, of which thou art the most perfect image. O Heart, full of goodness and compassion for our miseries, vouchsafe to thaw the ice of our hearts, and turn them to the Heart of our Divine Saviour. Pour into them the love of thy virtues; inflame them with that blessed fire with which thou continually burnest. Shut up within thyself the holy Church, guard it, and be always its sweet asylum and its tower of strength against all the incursions of its enemies. Be thou our way to go to Jesus, and the channel by which we receive all the graces necessary for our salvation. Be thou our succor in our wants, our support in our afflictions, our comfort in temptations, our refuge in persecutions, our aid in all dangers, but especially in the last combat of our life at the hour of death, when all hell will be unchained against us to snatch our souls away in that most dreadful moment on which our eternity depends. Oh, then, most tender Virgin, make us feel the sweetness of thy maternal Heart, and the greatness of thy power with the Heart of Jesus, and open to us in that same fountain of mercy a secure refuge, that we may come to bless him with thee in Paradise for ever and ever. Amen.

TO CHOOSE ST. JOSEPH FOR PATRON.

Amen.

Amen.

Hymnus.

Ave maris stella,
Dei Mater alma,
Atque semper Virgo,
Felix coeli porta.

Sumens illud Ave
Gabriélis ore,
Funda nos in pace,
Mutans Hevae nomen.

Solve vincla reis,
Profer lumen caecis;
Mala nostra pelle,
Bona cuncta posce.

Monstra te esse matrem,
Sumat per te preces,
Qui pro nobis natus,
Tulit esse tuus.

Virgo singuláris,
Inter omnes mitis,
Nos culpis solutos,
Mites fac et castos.

Vitam praesta puram,
Iter para tutum,
Ut vidéntes Jesum,
Semper collaetémur.

Sit laus Deo Patri,
Summo Christo decus,
Spirítui sancto,
Tribus honor unus. Amen.
