THIS collection of melodies is the genuine expression of the Negro's musical nature. They are truly traditional. The harmonies could have come into being only in the oppressed, but ever aspiring heart of the slave. The unparalleled spirituality with which they ring, and the fatality shown therein, are their most distinguishing qualities.

Composed by Amanda Smith.

With mountains high on either side,
And Pharaoh's host could see;
The Lord he unto Moses said,
I'll roll the sea away.

Then forward march, with courage bold,
Nor heed the ceaseless spray;
But trust him in the darkest hour,
He'll roll the sea away.

And when the great last battle's fought,
And I the King shall see,
I'll shout through all eternity,
He rolled the sea away.

HB36063

The Conquering Tread Hymn.

When Israel out of bondage came,
A sea before them lay;
The Lord reached down his mighty hand,
And rolled the sea away.

CHORUS.

Then forward still, 'Tis Jehovah's will,
Though the billows dash and spray;
With a conq'ring tread, We will push ahead,
He'll roll the sea away.
