PREFACE.

AMID the infinite variety of tastes in reference to the subject of church-music, it would be the height of infatuation for any one even to hope to be able to compile a tune-book which should meet every desire; unless, perhaps, he should, with herculean labor, throw together into one vast unmusical chaos all that is and that has been called music. All that can reasonably be expected is that the general taste should be gratified, and that there should be such a variety and quality of music offered as will meet the usual demands of public and social worship.

The work which is now presented to the church is the result of much diligent and careful labor bestowed upon the selection of music and the adaptation of it to the General Synod's Collection of Hymns. Had it not been supposed that such a work was needed, this would never have been undertaken; for who will venture his means upon an enterprise which does not commend itself to the public want?

For the sake of convenience, the book is arranged under three Parts. Part First consists of hymn-tunes suitable for the ordinary public worship; Part Second comprises a large number of beautiful Anthems and Chants, adapted to the various festive and other occasions which are celebrated in our churches; Part Third contains a collection of tunes which are peculiarly endeared and pleasing to a large body of our brethren, and intended for prayer-meetings, seasons of revival and spiritual enjoyment. The whole work is preceded by "A Condensed System of Music," compiled by the editor for the benefit of learners, or those not familiar with the science of music. Although brief, this "System" will be found to contain all that is really necessary for acquiring a sufficient knowledge of vocal music for all practical purposes, especially when aided by the instructions of a competent teacher.

In fine, the book contains a suitable tune for every hymn in the General Synod's Collection; when a hymn is announced to be sung, the chorister need but turn to the Table of First Lines at the end of the book, where he will find a reference to one or more tunes suited to it; and in the majority of cases the hymn itself will be found accompanying the tune. Ministers need, therefore, not hesitate to announce any hymn contained in the hymn-book above referred to, where this work is introduced, through fear that the chorister or choir cannot find a tune adapted to it. In this one particular at least, the Carmina Ecclesiæ is, we think, perfectly complete.

It is not deemed necessary in these prefatory remarks to waste time and space in telling people how and what they ought to sing, or what is and what is not churchly music. People have acceptably sung the praises of God long before this Editor beheld the light of this world, and they will doubtless continue so to do, according to their own taste and in a manner most pleasing to themselves, long after his "feeble, stammering tongue" shall have fallen "silent in the grave."

The three tunes "Bridges," "Rathvon," and "Keller," by Prof. W. B. Bradbury, were composed expressly for this work, as were also the melodies which bear the names of Dr. B. F. Schneck, W. Shriver, Howard Shriver, P. A. Keller, and J. P. Smeltzer, to whom, as well as to the many other kind friends who rendered important assistance in the selection of pieces, we here offer our thanks. Our cordial thanks are also due to the choir of Charles Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore,—likewise to a number of other personal friends of the publisher, in that city and elsewhere,—for a number of valuable and favorite contributions. We deem it but proper, also, in this place, to acknowledge the valuable labors of Prof. W. Harman, of Baltimore, Maryland, in supervising the revisions and in correcting the harmony in many of the choral as well as other tunes in the body of this work. Our acknowledgments are also due to Messrs. Miller & Beacham, music dealers and publishers of Baltimore, for the gratuitous use of a number of admirable compositions by the late C. Meineke, published in their "Music for the Church," and also to Oliver Ditson, Prof. Schwing, and Dr. Everett, for similar courtesies. The music not acknowledged above is (with some exceptions, where it was impossible to obtain the address of the owners) inserted by express permission of the authors or publishers.

The book is now commended to the public, with the earnest hope that it may contribute to the edification and spiritual enjoyment of those who love to sing "the songs of Zion."

NOTE BY THE PUBLISHER.

A new edition of CARMINA ECCLESIÆ being called for, the Publisher deems it necessary to say,—that this edition has been carefully revised and thoroughly adapted to the new "BOOK OF WORSHIP," recently published by authority of the General Synod. All the new hymns introduced into that collection ("Book of Worship,") have been provided with appropriate and beautiful tunes, and a few others of established merit and popularity have been added, including a number of new meters; a more ample supply of music suitable for the "Order of Public Worship," as recommended by the General Synod, has also been inserted, (commencing on page 410) thus rendering this edition of CARMINA ECCLESIÆ more complete than any hitherto published.

It is but just and proper that we should thus publicly thank Mr. Samuel Martin, of Baltimore, for the care and taste he has displayed in selecting the new tunes for the respective hymns.

A CONDENSED SYSTEM OF VOCAL MUSIC.

GENERAL REMARKS.

MUSIC is the art of combining sounds so as to produce agreeable impressions upon the ear. Sound is the effect produced by the vibrations of any elastic substance, such as steel, wood, string, or muscle. All sounds are either long or short, high or low, soft or loud. These distinctions are the bases of the three grand departments of music, known as RHYTHM, MELODY, and DYNAMICS or EXPRESSION. Each of these will now be separately discussed.

PART I.

RHYTHM.

LESSON I.

Q. What is that part of musical science called which treats of the performance of a piece of music?

A. It is called Time.

Q. How many kinds of time are there?

A. In common use there are but four,—viz.: Double, Triple, Quadruple, and Sextuple.

Q. What are Measures?

A. They are equal portions of time separated by perpendicular strokes called Bars. Thus:—

The spaces between the bars are called measures

Q. When one of these portions is divided into two parts, what kind of measure is it?

A. It is called Double Measure.

Q. When divided into three parts?

A. Triple Measure.

Q. Four?

A. Quadruple Measure.

Q. Six?

A. Sextuple Measure.

Q. How is Time measured?

A. By movements of the hand called Beats.

Q. How do you beat time in double measure?

A. With one downward motion of the hand and one upward, counting one, two.

Q. How do you beat triple measure?

A. With one downward motion, one horizontal motion towards the left, and a diagonal motion upward, counting one, two, three.

Q. How must you beat quadruple time?

A. With one motion downward, one to the left, one to the right, and one upward, counting one, two, three, four.

Q. How must you beat sextuple time?

A. Precisely like triple time, only that it is necessary to count one, two, three, four, five, six.

LESSON II.

Q. How are sounds represented?
A. By characters called notes.
Q. How are the different lengths of sounds indicated?
A. By the different forms of these notes.
Here are the characters most commonly employed,—viz.:

3

4

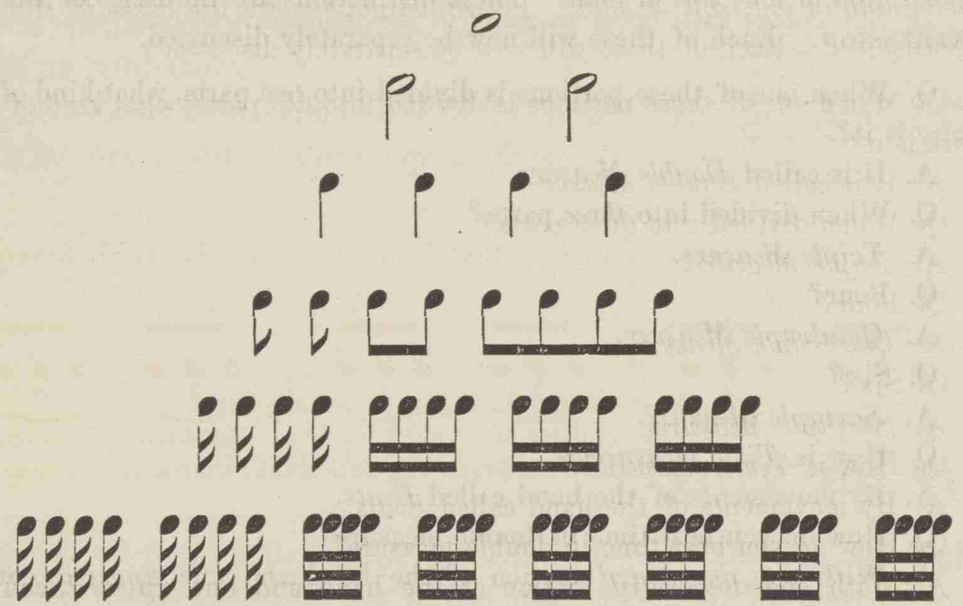
6



Q. What do you call the character in the first line?
A. A Whole note.
Q. In the second?
A. Half notes; the two being equivalent to the preceding whole note.
Q. In the third?
A. Quarter notes; the four being equivalent to the preceding half notes, or to the whole note.
Q. In the fourth?
A. Eighth notes.
Q. In the fifth?
A. Sixteenth notes
Q. In the sixth?
A. Thirty-second notes.
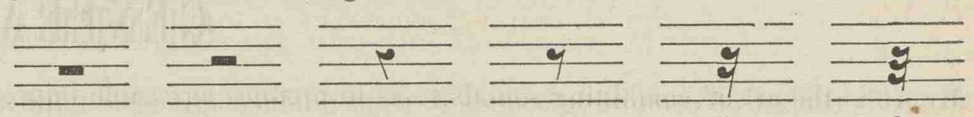
Q. What are the following characters called?—viz.:



1 2 3 4 5 6

A. They are called Rests. The first is a whole rest, the second is a half rest, and, consecutively quarter rest, eighth rest, sixteenth rest, and thirty-second rest. They correspond to the notes of the same name, and are exactly equivalent to them in time.

Q. What do these rests denote when they occur in music?

A. They indicate that the singers must suspend the voice during as many beats as the rest requires.

LESSON III.

Q. When there are four quarter notes in a measure, how is it called?
A. Common or Four-four measure.
Q. How is it indicated?
A. Thus:— $\frac{4}{4}$ or $\mathbf{C}$
Q. How do you beat time for this measure?
A. Down, left, right, up; or, one, two, three, four.
Q. If a half note or a whole note should occur in this measure, how many beats would you give to each?
A. Two beats to the half note, and four to the whole note.
Q. Sometimes a dot follows a note, thus, What do you call such a note, and what is the value of the dot?

A. The note is called a Dotted note, and the dot is in every case equal to just half the value of the note which precedes it.

Q. In quadruple measure, suppose a dotted half note should occur: what would be its value?

A. It would be equivalent to three quarter notes, or to three beats.

Q. What do the figures at the commencement of every piece of music denote?*

A. The kind of measure and the sort of notes which make up the measure. The upper figure indicates the number of beats in the measure, and the lower figure the kind of notes which are equivalent to each beat. Thus, $\frac{2}{2}$ means two, $\frac{3}{2}$ three, $\frac{4}{2}$ four half notes in each measure.

Q. How many varieties of measure are in ordinary use?

A. There are ten,—viz.:

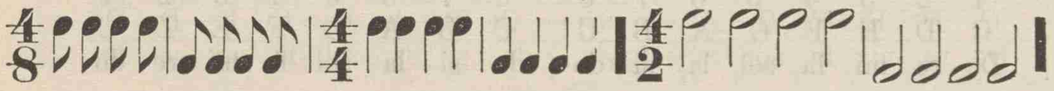
In Double Measure,

In Triple Measure,

In Quadruple Measure,



In Sextuple Measure,

Q. Must each measure contain the same kind of notes?

A. No. Each measure must contain a sufficient number of notes of any kind to fulfil the number and kind indicated by the figures at the beginning of the piece. Thus:—

Q. Sometimes three notes are sung in the same time as two; thus:—

What are they called?

A. Triplets.

Q. How are they to be sung?

A. With an accent similar to that in pronouncing the words beautiful or dutiful. Thus:—

Q. Sometimes at the end of a strain the following character occurs,—viz.:

What does it mean?

A. It indicates that the passage preceding must be repeated.

Q. Sometimes the letters D. C. occur at the end of a piece. What do they mean?

A. That the singer shall begin again at the beginning and sing to a designated point. The letters stand for the Italian words da capo.

Obs. We have now presented, in the most concise manner, all that is essential upon the subject of Rhythm. Let the teacher exercise his pupils by requiring them to point out the different characters, &c. in pieces from the body of this work, until they are so perfectly familiar with them that they can name them at a glance.

* These figures are omitted in this work: first, because the compiler considered them really unnecessary, as any one at all familiar with music can, in a moment, ascertain the measure without them; and, second, to avoid crowding the page too much.

PART II.

MELODY.

LESSON IV.

Q. Of what does Melody treat?

A. It treats of sounds as being high or low; or of the pitch of sounds.

Q. What is The Scale in music?

A. A succession of eight sounds written upon five horizontal lines called a Staff. Thus:—

Q. What is each line and each space called?

A. A Degree.

Q. How many degrees are there?

A. There are nine,—five lines and four spaces.

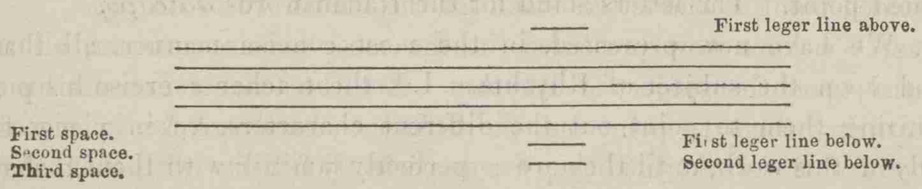
Q. Sometimes this number does not suffice: how do you supply the requisite degrees?

A. By Leger lines and by spaces above and below the staff. Thus:—



Q. How are the degrees named?

A. According to the first seven letters of the alphabet, A, B, C, D, E, F, G.

Q. Does the same letter invariably indicate the same line or space?

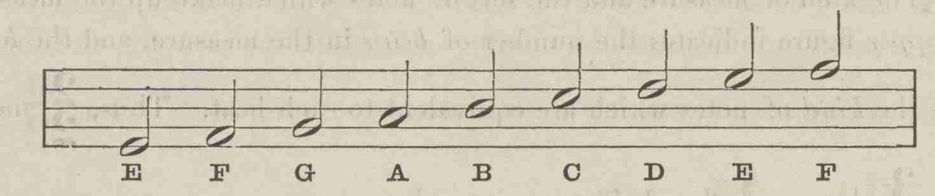
A. The letters are unchangeable in their position on the staff. The spaces are always F, A, C, E, beginning with the first; and the lines are always E, G, B, D, F, beginning with the first. Thus:—



Q. How are the characters or notes named?

A. They are named from the following seven syllables, viz.:—Do, (doe,) Re, (Ray,) Mi, (Mee,) Fa, (a as in father,) Sol, (Sole,) La, (a as in father,) Si, (See.)

Q. How are the sounds in the scale designated?

A. By means of numerals,—1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

Q. How do the numerals and syllables do, re, mi, &c. correspond?

A. Do is always 1 of the scale, re is 2, mi is 3, fa is 4, &c. Thus:—

Q. Why do you call 8 Do?

A. Because 8 is always 1 of the next scale, and therefore has the same syllable as 1.

LESSON V.

Q. What is a Cleff?

A. It is a character employed to determine the name of the degree of the staff.

Q. How many are there?

A. There are in common use only two,—Treble or G Cleff,

, and the Bass or F Cleff,
Q. Why is the former called G Cleff?

A. Because it determines G to the second line.

Q. Why is the latter called F Cleff?

A. Because it determines F to the fourth line of the staff.

Q. What is the distance between F of the Bass Cleff and G of the Treble Cleff?

A. It is nine tones lower.

LESSON VI.

Q. What is an interval?

A. The distance from one tone in the scale to another.

Q. Are these intervals of the same length?

A. They are not. They consist of tones and semitones.

Q. How many are there of each?

A. There are five tones and two semitones.

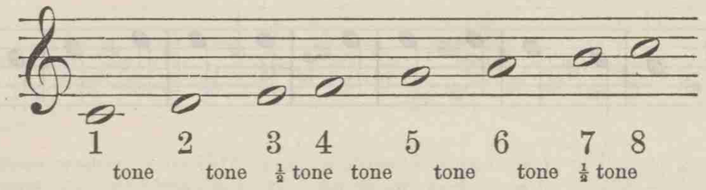
Q. In what order do they occur?

A. From 1 to 2, and from 2 to 3, are whole tones; from 3 to 4 is a semitone; from 4 to 5, from 5 to 6, and from 6 to 7 are tones; and from 7 to 8 is a semitone. Thus:—



Obs. It is now time that the pupiis should learn to strike the intervals out of the regular order. Let the teacher exercise his class until they know perfectly the position of the letters upon both the F and G Cleffs. Before singing the following exercises, let the pupils be required to name each note, numerically, syllabically, and alphabetically.

   Wishing! &c.

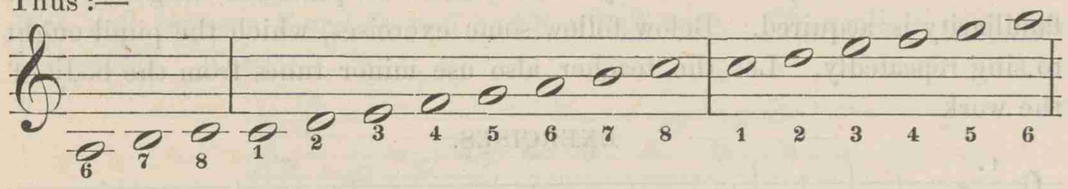
LESSON VII.

Q. When you wish to sing higher or lower than the eight sounds of the scale, what must you do?

A. When we wish to sing above the scale, 8 must be considered as 1 of a new scale, and when below, we must regard 1 as 8 of a descending scale. Thus:—



Q. How are the various capacities of the human voice divided?

A. Into four classes,—viz.: Treble or Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass.

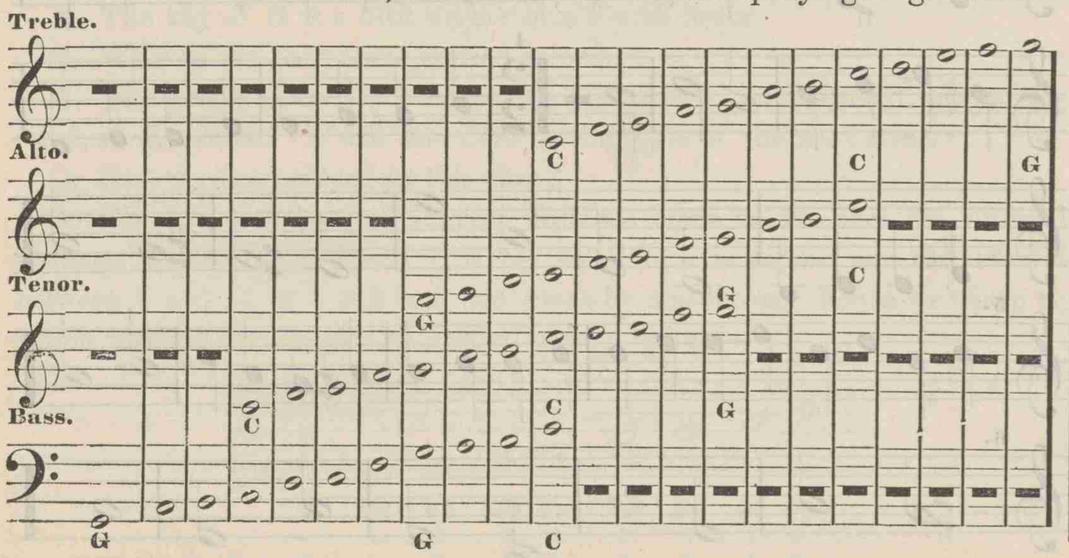
Q. Which of these are suited to male and which to female voices?

A. The Tenor and Bass are for male voices and the Alto and Treble for female voices.

Q. What is the compass of each?

A. The Bass from G to C, the Tenor from C to G, the Alto from G to C, and the Treble from C to G, as exhibited in the accompanying diagram.



Obs. The intelligent instructor will, of course, make this subject perfectly familiar to his pupils, and will try the voice of each, so that he may know precisely to which of the four parts it is adapted. He will find few good Alto voices, and still fewer Tenors.

LESSON VIII.

Q. By what name is the scale already referred to sometimes known?

A. The Diatonic scale.

Q. What is the Chromatic Scale?

A. It is a scale that consists of semitones only.

Q. How is such a scale formed?

A. By raising or depressing the tones.

Q. What characters are employed for this purpose?

A. A Sharp (♯) is the sign of elevation, and a Flat (♭) is the sign of depression.

Q. Give the chromatic ascending scale.

Q. Give the chromatic descending scale.

Q. What character is used to restore a sharped or flatted note?

A. A Natural (♮).

Q. What are all these characters called when they occur elsewhere than at the beginning of a piece of music?

A They are called Accidentals.

Q. How far does an accidental affect a note?

A. Only through the measure in which it occurs. A bar destroys its effect.

LESSON IX.

Q. You have mentioned two scales: is there not another?

A. Yes; the Minor Scale.

Q. How does it differ from the other?

A. In the major (Diatonic or Chromatic) scale the semitones occur between the third and fourth and between the seventh and eighth degrees ascending and descending; but the minor scale has the semitones in ascending between the second and third and seventh and eighth degrees; and in descending the second or upper semitone is between the fifth and sixth degrees. Thus:—

This scale is called the Melodic Minor.

There is another form, called the Harmonic Minor. Thus:—

Q. Has each major its relative minor, and vice versa?

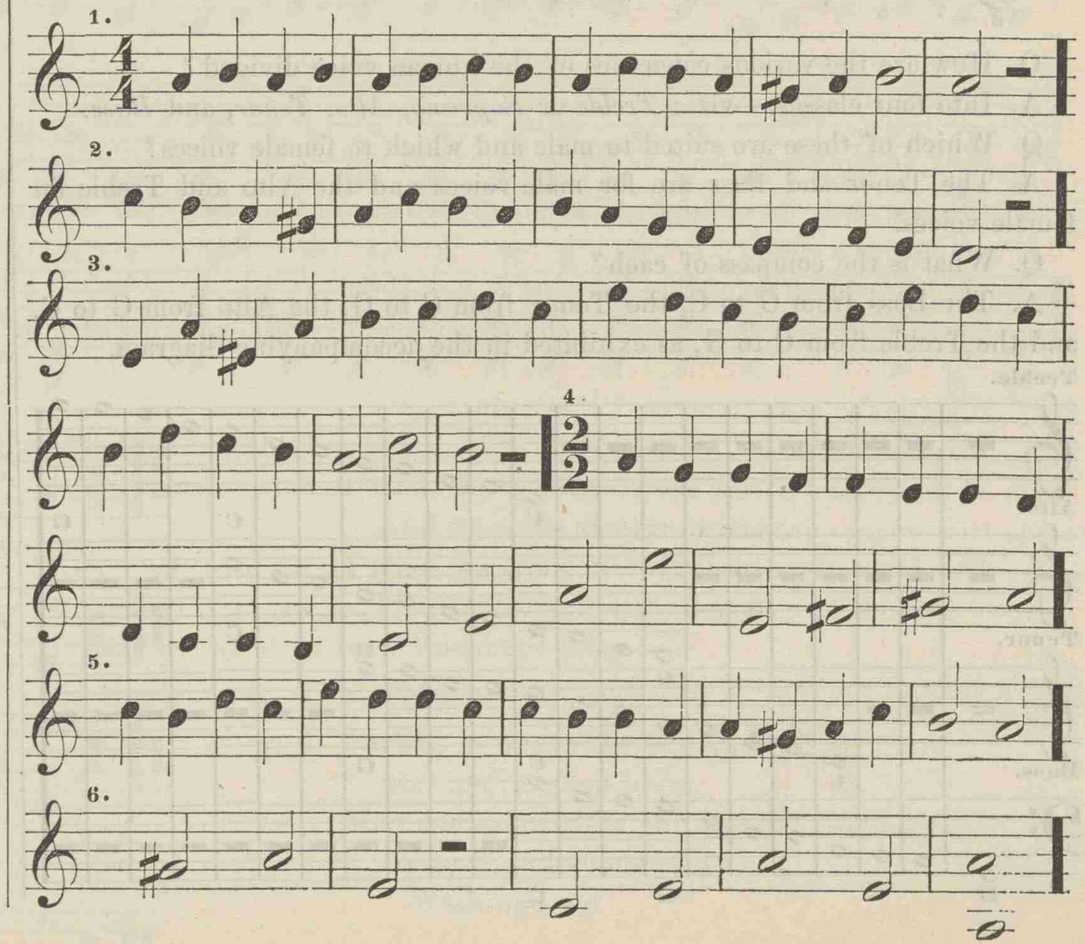
A. Yes.

Q. Upon what is the relative minor of any major based?

A. Upon its sixth; and the relative major to any minor is based upon its third.

Obs. The minor, like the major scale, must be practised diligently until familiarity is acquired. Below follow some exercises, which the pupil ought to sing repeatedly. Let the teacher also use minor tunes from the body of the work.

EXERCISES.



Let us now transpose the natural scale from its present position on C to G.

Q. If we take G as the tonic of the new scale, what changes must be made in order to preserve the order of the intervals?

A. No change will be necessary until we come to E: here the interval is too small by half a tone, and from F to G the interval is too great by half a tone: hence F is sharped, making the interval between E and F, or 6 and 7, a tone, and between F and G, or 7 and 8, a half tone. The scale is now complete again. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the C scale	5	6	7	8	2	3	4	5

Q. Why do you place the ♯ at the beginning of the staff?

A. Because it is designed to affect all notes that fall upon F, whether on the fifth line or on the first space: if it were placed anywhere else throughout the piece, it would be regarded merely as an accidental.

Q. What is the difference between the scale of the key of C and that of G?

A. The key of G is a fifth higher or a fourth lower.

Q. What is the next transposition in order?

A. The fourth below G; because the fifth above would place it beyond the reach of the voice. D will therefore be the tonic of the next scale.

Q. How do you proceed in this case?

A. The intervals are all correct until we come to B: here the interval between B and C, or 6 and 7, is too small by a semitone, and the interval between C and D, or 7 and 8, is too great by a semitone: hence we sharp C, which restores the scale to its natural order. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the Key of G	5	6	7	8	2	3	4	5

Q. What is the signature of the key of D?

A. Two sharps,—one on F and one on C.

Q. What is the next transposition?

A. The fifth above D,—A In this case we find, by the process pursued heretofore, that G must be sharped in order to make the scale right again. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the scale of D	5	6	7	8	2	3	4	5

Q. What is the signature of the key of A?

A. Three sharps,—one on F, one on C, and one on G.

Q. What is the next transposition?

A. E,—four sharps. Thus,

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the scale of A	5	6	7	8	2	3	4	5

Q. How do you proceed when F is taken as the tonic or key-note?

A. Starting from F on the natural or C scale, we find that B, which is 4 of the new scale, is too high by half a tone, and hence must be depressed to that extent; and a ♭ placed upon that line indicates this depression. The signature, therefore, of this key is one flat, placed at the beginning of the staff and on the third line. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the scale of C	4	5	6	7	8	2	3	4

Q. What is the difference between the transposition by sharps and that by flats?

A. In the former case, the interval of the first semitone, or that between 3 and 4 of the preceding scale, is altered in order to accommodate it to the new scale, and in the latter case the second semitone, or that between 7 and 8, is altered.

Q. What is the next transposition by flats?

A. B flat. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fe	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the key of F	4	5	6	7	8	2	3	4

Q. What is the next transposition?

A. E flat. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the key of B flat	4	5	6	7	8	2	3	4

Q. What is the next transposition?

A. A flat. Thus:—

	Do	Re	Mi	Fa	Sol	La	Si	Do
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Of the key of E flat	4	5	6	7	8	2	3	4

Q. What is Modulation?

A. Modulation is a temporary change of the scale introduced throughout a tune to vary or improve the melody, as in the following examples:—

Do Sol Mi Sol Do Mi Do Si La Si La Mi Fi Si La Do Si La

Or Do Si Do Sol La Si

Do Mi Sol Do Sol Se La Fa Fa La Do Fa Do Me Re Se

Or Do Si Sol Sol Si Re Sol Re Fa Mi Do

3.

LESSON X.

Q. What letter have you regarded as 1 of the scale, or as Do, in all the previous exercises?

A. The letter C on the first leger line below the staff.

Q. What is C on this scale called?

A. The Key-Note or Tonic.

Q. Can the scale commence on any other key?

A. Yes. Any other letter may be taken as the key, by proper transpositions, so that the relative positions of the semitones may be preserved.

Obs. The subject of transposition is generally regarded by pupils as exceedingly difficult and incomprehensible. Let the teacher show his class that these transpositions have no other use than to accommodate instruments to the human voice, and that if there were no instruments in existence there would be no absolute necessity for more than one scale; because any singer could readily strike such a pitch as would enable him to sing any tune whatever with ease and comfort. But if an organ, for example, had only a succession of natural scales, it would be impossible to use it to accompany the voice in any tunes but those only which are set upon and sung in the pitch of the natural scale. The difficulty is fully illustrated in an accordeon which has only two semitones: upon such an instrument none but tunes written upon the natural scale can be performed. In order to obviate this difficulty, the system of sharps (♯) and flats (♭) has been invented, by means of which the scale may be shifted from one degree on the staff to another, without destroying the natural order of tones and semitones.

The transposition of scales is not so difficult that it may not be fully mastered after a half-hour's instruction from an intelligent teacher. Every thing that has been said concerning the natural scale, particularly so much as refers to the order of the tones and semitones, should here be carefully and thoroughly rehearsed. The pupil should be impressed with the unalterable rule which requires every major scale to have one semitone between the third and fourth note, or between Mi and Fa, and one between the seventh and eighth note, or between Si and Do; and that this order is never deviated from, whether the scale is elevated or depressed on the staff.

LESSON XI.

Q. Are there other intervals recognised, besides those already mentioned?

A. There are, viz.: Unisons, Seconds, Thirds, Fourths, Fifths, Sixths, Sevenths, and Eighths, commonly called Octaves.

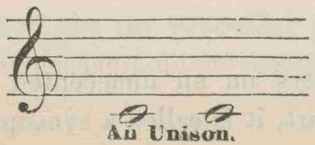
Q. Give an example of the unison.

A. An unison from 1 to 1. Thus:—



Q. Of a second.

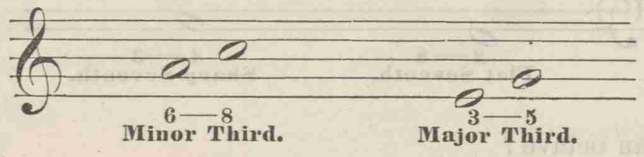
A. A second may include one tone or one semitone: in the former case it is called a major second, and in the latter a minor second. Thus:—

Q. How do you count intervals?

A. That note is always regarded as 1 from which you begin to count.

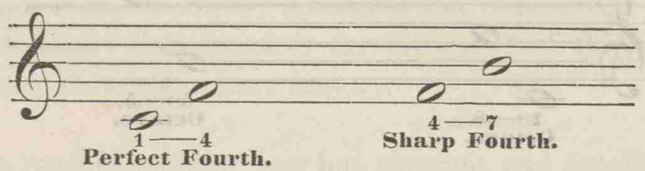
Q. What is a third?

A. The interval from one letter to a third one, including either one tone and one semitone (a minor third), or two tones (a major third).



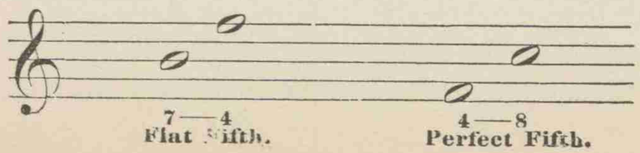
Q. What is a fourth?

A. It includes two tones and one semitone (a perfect fourth), or three tones (a sharp fourth).



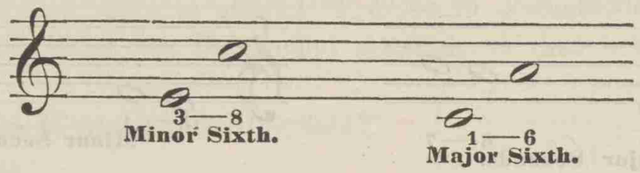
Q. What is a fifth?

A. It is an interval which includes two tones and two semitones (a flat fifth), or three tones and one semitone (a perfect fifth).



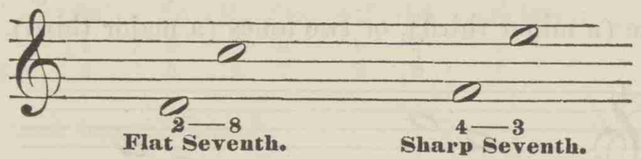
Q. What is a sixth?

A. It embraces three tones and two semitones (a minor sixth), or four tones and one semitone (a major sixth).



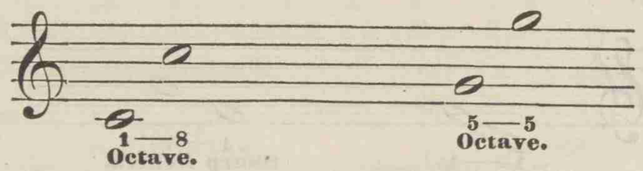
Q. What does the seventh embrace?

A. Four tones and two semitones (a flat seventh), or five tones and one semitone (a sharp seventh).



Q. What is an octave?

A. It is an interval including the entire scale, or five tones and two semitones. Of course, all octaves are equal.



PART III.

EXPRESSION.

LESSON XII.

Q. What are Grace Marks?

A. Various contrivances employed for the purpose of adding grace and elegance to the execution of music.

Q. What are the principal Graces?

A. Appogiatura, Syncope, Tie, Staccato, Pause, Crescendo, Diminuendo, Swell, and Sforzando.

Q. What is an Appogiatura?

A. When a supplementary note precedes an essential note, it is called an appogiatura. Thus:—

Q. What is Syncope?

A. When a note commences on an unaccented part of a measure and is continued on the accented part, it is called a syncopated note. Thus:—

Q. What is a Tie?

A. A Tie (⁀) connects two notes, so that they become one, as in the preceding example.

Q. What is Staccato?

A. Staccato (' ' ' ') indicates that the notes must be sung in a short and distinctly separate manner.

Written,—

Performed,—

Q. What is a Pause?

A. A Pause (𝄐) shows that a note or rest over which it stands must be prolonged beyond its proper time.

Q. What is Crescendo?

A. Crescendo (or cres.) placed over a passage denotes that it must be sung softly at first, increasing in force to the end.

Q. What is Diminuendo?

A. It is the opposite of Crescendo, and is marked  , or dim.

Q. What is a swell?

A. It is a combination of the two preceding graces, and is marked thus:—

Q. What is Sforzando?

A. A single note struck with an explosive sound. It is marked sf, fz, > or ∨.

Q. Are there not other marks indicative of expression?

A. There are, viz., Pianissimo (pp), very softly; Piano (p), softly; Mezzo (pronounced metzo) Piano (mp), moderately softly; Mezzo Forte (mf), moderately loud; Forte (f), loudly; Fortissimo (ff), very loudly.

Q. What does Legato mean?

A. In a smooth, flowing, gliding manner.

Q. What Adagio?

A. To be sung very slowly.

Q. Andante?

A. To be sung slowly.

Q. Moderato?

A. Moderately.

Q. Allegretto?

A. Rather fast.

Q. Allegro?

A. Very fast.

Q. What is essentially requisite to sing a piece with the proper expression?

A. A proper apprehension of the subject-matter of the hymn; a delicate adaptation of music to the words; a distinct and unequivocal articulation and emphasis; judiciously chosen pauses for the relief of the lungs; simplicity of manner; and, above all, a pure heart.

OBS. There remains nothing now but constant and intelligent practice to insure capability of reading and singing any music that is ordinarily employed in our churches. Below follow some simple and entertaining exercises, which may be introduced at any time, for the sake of variety and amusement, after the class has commenced to read notes on the different keys.

CARMINA ECCLESIÆ.

[H. 44. B. W. 1.] OLD HUNDRED. L. M. MARTIN LUTHER.

1. Be - fore Je - ho - vah's aw-ful throne, Ye na-tions, bow with sa - cred joy: Know that the Lord is God a - lone; He can cre - ate, and he de - stroy.
2. His sovereign power, without our aid, Made us of clay, and form'd us men, And when, like wandering sheep, we stray'd, He brought us to his fold a - gain.

3. We are his peo - ple, we his care, Our souls, and all our mor - tal frame: What lasting ho - nors shall we rear, Al-might - y Ma - ker, to thy name!

4. We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs, High as the heavens our voi-ces raise; And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
5. Wide as the world is thy command, Vast as e - ter - ni - ty thy love; Firm as a rock thy truth must stand, When rolling years shall cease to move.

[H. 173. B. W. 181.]

STONEFIELD. L. M.

STANLEY

1. Come, gra - cious Spi-rit, heav'nly Dove, With light and com-fort from a-bove; Be thou our guard-ian, thou our guide, O'er ev'-ry thought and step pre-side.
2. Con - duct us safe, con-duct us far From ev'-ry sin and hurt-ful snare; Lead to thy word, that rules must give, And teach us les-sons how to live.
3. The light of truth to us dis-play, That we may know and love thy way; Plant ho - ly fear in ev' - ry heart, That we from thee may ne'er de-part.
4. Lead us to right-eous-ness, the road That we must take to dwell with God; Lead us to heav'n, the seat of bliss, Where plea-sure in per - fec - tion is.

[H 192. B. W. 127.]

ZEPHYR. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Hark! 'tis the Sa-viour's voice I hear: Come, trem-bling soul, dis-pel thy fear! He said—and who his word can doubt?—He will in no wise cast you out.
2. Doth Sa-tan fill you with dis - may, And tell you Christ will cast a - way? It is a truth,—why should you doubt?—He will in no wise cast you out.
3. Doth sin ap-pear be - fore your view Of scar-let or of crim-son hue? If black as hell, why should you doubt? He will in no wise cast you out.
4. The pub-lic-an and dy - ing thief Ap-plied to Christ, and found re - lief; Nor need you en - ter - tain a doubt: He will in no wise cast you out.
5. Ap-proach your God; make no de - lay; He waits to wel-come you to - day; His mer-cy try, nor long - er doubt: He will in no wise cast you out.

[H. 612. B. W. 512.]

GRATITUDE. L. M.

1 My God, how end - less is thy love! Thy gifts are ev' - ry eve-ning new; And morn-ing mer-cies from a-bove Gen - tly de-scend like ear - ly dew.

2. Thou spread'st the cur - tains of the night, Great Guard-ian of my sleep-ing hours; Thy sovereign word restores the light, And quickens all my drow-sy powers.

3. I yield my - self to thy com-mand, To thee de-vote my nights and days; Per - pet - ual bless-ings from thy hand De-mand per - pet-ual hymns of praise.

[H. 629. B. W. 521.]

HEBRON. L. M.

Dr. MASON.

1. Thus far the Lord has led me on, Thus far his power prolongs my days; And ev' - ry eve-ning shall make known Some fresh me-mo - rial of his grace.

2. Much of my time has run to waste, And I, perhaps, am near my home; But he for-gives my fol-lies past; And strength sup-plies for days to come.

3. I lay my bo - dy down to sleep, Peace is the pil - low of my head; His ev-er-watch-ful eye will keep Its con-stant guard a - round my bed.

4. Faith in his name for-bids my fear; O may thy pre-sence ne'er de-part; And in the morn-ing may I bear Thy lov - ing kind - ness on my heart.

[H. 2. B. W. 460.]

HAMBURG. L. M.

Dr. MASON.

1. 'Twas by an or - der from the Lord The ancient prophets spoke his word; His Spirit did their tongues in - spire, And warm'd their hearts with heav'nly fire.
2. The works and wonders which they wrought Confirm'd the mes-sages they brought; The prophet's pen suc - ceeds his breath, To save the ho - ly words from death.
3. Great God! mine eyes with pleasure look On the dear vo-lume of thy book! There my Re-deem-er's face I see, And read His name who died for me.
4. Let the false raptures of the mind Be lost, and van - ish in the wind: Here I can fix my hope se - cure: This is thy word, and must en - dure.

[H. 203. B. W. 284.]

ROSEDALE. L. M.

G. F. ROOT.

1. Return, O wan - der - er, re - turn, And seek an in-jured Fa - ther's face: Those warm desires that in thee burn Were kin - dled by re - claiming grace.
2. Return, O wan - der - er, re - turn, And seek a Fa - ther's melt-ing heart: His pitying eyes thy grief dis - cern, His hand shall heal thy in-ward smart.
3. Return, O wan - der - er, re - turn; Thy Sa-viour bids thy spi - rit live: Go to his bleed - ing feet, and learn How free - ly Je - sus can for-give.
4. Return, O wan - der - er, re - turn, And wipe a - way the fall - ing tear; 'Tis God who says, "No longer mourn," 'Tis mer - cy's voice in - vites thee near.

[H. 625. B. W. 559.]

GERMANY. L. M.

1. Our Sabbaths come so wel - come on, We wish them to re - main a while; But soon, a - las! their joys are gone, And scarce "bequeath a part-ing smile."

2. Full many are the hours of grief Al-lot-ted to the sons of men: Our Sabbaths bring a short re - lief, Yet leave us but to mourn a - gain.

3. Ye peaceful days! and thou blest sun! Why roll ye in such haste a - way? Ye hap-py hours! why flow ye on So fast towards e - ter - ni - ty?
4. Oh, if ye bring an end - less day, Speed fast a - long, nor ev - er cease; We'll glad-ly feel your joys de - cay In per - fect and en-dur - ing bliss.

[H. 25. B. W. 58, 306.]

MALVERN. L. M.

1. Lord, thou hast search'd and seen me through; Thine eye commands, with piercing view, My ris-ing and my rest - ing hours, My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

2. Could I so false, so faith-less, prove, To quit thy ser - vice and thy love, Where, Lord, could I thy pre-sence shun, Or from thy dread-ful glo - ry run?

3. If, mounted on a morn-ing ray, I fly beyond the west-ern sea, Thy swift-er hand would first ar - rive, And there ar-rest thy fu - gi - tive.
4. Or should I try to shun thy sight Be-neath the spreading veil of night, One glance of thine, one pierc-ing ray, Would kin-dle darkness in - to day.

[H. 14. B. W. 341.]

MILFORD. L. M.

From Dr. CALCOTT.

1. Thou art, O God! a Spi - rit pure, In - vi - si - ble to mor - tal eyes, Th'immor-tal and th'e - ter - nal King, The great, the good, the on - ly wise.
2. Whilst na-ture changes, and her works Cor-rupt, decay, dis - solve, and die, Thine essence pure no change shall see, Se - cure in im - mor - ta - li - ty.
3. Thou great In-vi - si-ble! what hand Can draw thine image, spot - less, fair? To what in heaven, to what on earth, Can men th'immortal King compare?
4. Let stupid heathens frame their gods Of gold and silver, wood and stone: Ours is the God that made the heav'ns, Je - ho - vah he, and God a - lone.
5. My soul, thy pu-rest homage pay, In truth and spirit him a - dore: More shall this please than sa - cri-fice, Than outward forms de-light him more.

[H. 217. B. W. 297.]

WELLS. L. M.

HOLDRAYD.

1. Life is the time to serve the Lord, The time to in-sure the great reward; And while the lamp holds out to burn, The vi - lest sin - ner may re - turn.
2. Life is the hour that God has given To escape from hell and fly to heaven,—The day of grace; and mortals may Se - cure the bless-ings of the day
3. The liv-ing know that they must die, But all the dead for - got - ten lie; They have no share in all that's done Beneath the cir - cuit of the sun.
4. Then what my thoughts design to do, My hands, with all your might pursue; Since no de-vice nor work is found, Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.
5. There are no acts of par - don past In the cold grave to which we haste; But darkness, death, and long despair Reign in e - ter - nal si-lence there.

[H. 151. B. W. 70.]

BECKER. L. M.

1. Re-joice, ye shin-ing worlds on high; Be-hold the King of glo - ry nigh! Who can this King of glo - ry be? The might-y Lord, the Sa - vior's he.

2. Ye heav'n-ly gates, your leaves display, To make the Lord, the Sa-vior, way; La-den with spoils from earth and hell, The conqueror comes with God to dwell.

3. Raised from the dead, he goes be-fore, He o - pens heav'n's e - ter - nal door, To give his saints a blest a - bode Near their Re-deem - er and their God.

[H. 71. B. W. 80.]

WARD. L. M.

Arranged from a Scottish Theme, by LOWELL MASON.

1. God is the re - fuge of his saints, When storms of sharp dis - tress in - vade; Ere we can of - fer our com-plaints, Be - hold him pres - ent with his aid.

2. Let mountains from their seats be hurl'd Down to the deep, and bur - ied there, Convulsions shake the sol - id world; Our faith shall nev - er yield to fear.

3. Loud may the troubled o - cean roar, In sa - cred peace our souls a - bide; While ev'ry na - tion, ev'ry shore, Trembles and dreads the swelling tide.

4. Midst storms and tempests, Lord, thy word Does ev'ry ris - ing fear con - trol; Sweet peace thy pro-mis-es af - ford, And will sus - tain the faint-ing soul.

[H. 21. B. W. 56.]

WELTON. L. M.

Rev. C. MALAN.

1. All-powerful, self-ex - ist - ent God, Who all cre - a - tion dost sus - tain! Thou wast, and art, an . art to come, And ev - er - last - ing is thy reign.
2. Fix'd and e - ter - nal as thy days, Each glorious at - tri - bute di - vine Through ages in - fi - nite shall still With un-di - minish'd lus - tre shine.
3. Fountain of be - ing! source of good! Im-mu-ta - ble dost thou re - main; Nor can the sha - dow of a change Obscure the glo-ries of thy reign.
4. Earth may with all her powers dissolve, If such the great Cre - a - tor's will; But thou for - ev - er art the same; "I Am" is thy me - mo - rial still.

[H. 37. B. W. 284.]

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

Dr. LOWELL MASON.

1. Ye sons of men, in sa - cred lays, At - tempt the great Cre - a - tor's praise; But who an equal song can frame? What verse can reach the loft - y theme?
2. He sits enthroned amidst the spheres, And glo - ry like a gar - ment wears; While boundless wisdom, power, and grace Command our awe, transcend our praise.
3. Before his throne a shin - ing band Of cherubs and of se - raphs stand,— E - the-real spi-rits, who in flight Out-strip the rapid speed of light.
4. To God all na - ture owes its birth; He form'd this ponderous globe of earth; He raised the glorious arch on high, And mea-sured out the a - zure sky.

BUEL. L. M.

1. My song shall bless the Lord of all, My praise shall climb to his a - bode; Thee, Saviour, by that name I call, The great Su-preme, the might-y God.
2. With-out be-gin - ning or de - cline, Ob - ject of faith, and not of sense, E - ternal a - ges saw him shine, He shines e - ter - nal a - ges hence.
3. As much when in the man-ger laid, Almight-y ru - ler of the sky, As when the six days' work he made Fill'd all the morning stars with joy.
4. Of all the crowns Je - ho - vah bears, Sal - va-tion is his dear - est claim: That gracious sound well pleased he hears, And owns Immanu el for his name.
5. A cheerful con - fi - dence I feel, My well-placed hopes with joy I see; My bosom glows with heaven-ly zeal, To worship Him who died for me.

SABBATH EVE. L. M.

Dr. B. F. SCHNECK.

1. Is there a time when moments flow More peacefully than all be - side? It is, of all the times be-low, A Sabbath eve in sum - mer's tide.
2. Delightful scene! a world at rest, A God of love, no grief, no fear, A heavenly hope, a peaceful breast, A smile un - sullied by a tear.
3. If heaven be ev - er felt be - low, A scene so heaven-ly, sure, as this, May cause a heart on earth to know Some foretaste of ce - les - tial bliss.
4. Delightful hour! how soon will night Spread her dark mantle o'er thy reign, And soon the morn's re-turn-ing light Will call us to the world a - gain.
5. Yet will there dawn at last a day, A sun that nev - er sets shall rise, Night will not veil his glorious ray: The heavenly Sabbath nev - er dies.

[H. 430. B. W. 147.]

REYNOLDS. L. M.

W. D. R.

1. Wherefore should man, frail child of clay, Who, from the cra-dle to the shroud, Lives but the in-sect of a day,— Oh, why should mortal man be proud?
2. His brightest visions just ap-pear, Then vanish and no more are found: The stateliest pile his pride can rear, A breath may level with the ground.
3. By doubts per-plex'd, in err-or lost, With trem-bling step he seeks his way: How vain of wisdom's gift the boast, Of reason's lamp how faint the ray!
4. Fol-lies and crimes, a count-less sum, Are crowd-ed in life's lit-tle span: How ill, alas! does pride be-come That err-ing, guilty crea-ture, man!
5. God of my life! Fa-ther di-vine! Give me a meek and low-ly mind: In modest worth, oh, let me shine, And peace in humble virtue find.

[H. 394. B. W. 298.]

LAUPEN. L. M.

Arranged from a Russian Melody.

1. Our Father, throned above the sky, To thee our emp-ty hands we spread: Thy chil-dren at thy foot-stool lie, And ask thy bless-ings on their head.
2. With cheer-ful hope and fi-lial fear, In that au-gust and pre-cious name By thee or-dain'd, we now draw near, And would the pro-mised bless-ing claim.
3. Does not an earth-ly pa-rent hear The cra-vings of his fa-mish'd son? Will he re-ject the fi-lial prayer, Or give for bread the flin-ty stone?
4. Our heaven-ly Father, how much more Will thy di-vine com-pas-sions rise, And o-pen thy un-bound-ed store, To sa-tis-fy thy chil-dren's cries?

BRENTFORD. L. M.

1. Je-sus, thy blood and righteousness My beau-ty are, my glo-rious dress;'Midst flaming worlds, in these ar-ray'd,With joy shall I lift up my head.
2. When from the dust of death I rise, To take my man - sion in the skies, E'en then shall this be all my plea,— "Je - sus hath lived, hath died, for me."
3. Bold shall I stand in that great day; For who aught to my charge shall lay?Fully through thee ab - solved I am From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.
4. This spotless robe the same appears When ruin'd na - ture sinks in years; No age can change its glo - rious hue, The robe of Christ is ev - er new.
5. And when the dead shall hear thy voice, The banish'd children shall rejoice; Their beauty this, their glo - rious dress, Je - sus, the Lord, our righteousness.

[H. 630. B. W. 517.]

ASHFORD. L. M.

CH. ZEUNER.

1. An - oth - er fleeting day has gone, Slow o'er the west the shadows rise, Swift the soft - stealing hours have flown, And night's dark mantle veils the skies.
2. An - oth - er fleet-ing day has gone, Swept from the re cords of the year; And still with each suc - cess-ive sun, Life's fad-ing vis - ions dis - ap - pear.
3. An - oth - er fleet-ing day has gone, To tell thy se - crets, O my soul; Faith-ful be - fore th' e-ter - nal throne, Thy slightest fol - ly 'twill en - rol.
4. An - oth - er fleet-ing day has gone, To join the fu - gi - tives be - fore: And I, when life's em - ploy is done, Shall sleep, to wake in time no more.

GUIDO. L. M.

1. A - wake, our souls, a - way, - - - - - - - - our fears, Let ev' - ry trem - bling thought be -

A - wake, our souls, a - way, our fears,

2. True, 'tis a strait and thorn - - - - - - - - y road, And mor - tal spi - rits tire and faint; But they for - get the might - y God, Who feeds the strength of ev' - ry saint.

[H. 1. B. W. 22.]

MEINEKE. L. M.

1. E - ter - nal Spi-rit, 'twas thy breath The or - a - cles of truth in - spired, And kings and ho - ly seers of old With strong pro-phet-ic im-pulse fired.
2. Moved by thy great al-mighty power, Their lips with hea-ven-ly wisdom flow'd; Their hands a thou-sand won-ders wrought, Which bore the sig-na-ture of God.
3. With gladsome hearts they spread the news Of par - don through a Sa-viour's blood, And to a numerous seeking crowd Mark'd out the path to his a - bode.
4. The powers of earth and hell in vain A-gainst the sa - cred word com-bine; Thy pro-vi-dence through ev - ry age Se - cure - ly guards the work di - vine.
5. Thee, its great author, source of light, Thee, its pre-ser-ver, we a - dore, And hum-bly ask a ray from thee Its hid - den won - ders to ex - plore.

This tune may be sung to the 1022d Doxology by slurring the notes in the next to the last measure in the 2d and 4th strains, and repeating the seventh line in each verse.

[H. 68. B. W. 372.]

ROCKINGHAM. L. M.

Dr. MASON.

1. Through all the va - rious shift-ing scene Of life's mis - tak - en ill or good, Thy hand, O God, con - ducts, un-seen, The beau - ti - ful vi - cis - si - tude.
2. Thou giv - est with pa - ter - nal care, How - e'er un - just - ly we com-plain, To all their ne - ces - sa - ry share Of joy and sor - row, health and pain.
3. Trust we to youth, or friends, or power? Fix we on this ter - res-trial ball? When most se-cure, the com - ing hour, If thou see fit, may blast them all.
4. Thy power-ful con - so - la-tions cheer; Thy smiles suppress the deep-fetch'd sigh; Thy hand can dry the trickling tear That se-cret wets the wid - ow's eye.

[H. 654. B. W. 504.]

WOODWORTH. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Dear Saviour, if these lambs should stray From thy secure enclosure's bound, And, lured by worldly joys a - way, Among the thoughtless crowd be found;
2. Re-mem-ber still that they are thine, That thy dear sacred name they bear; Think that the seal of love di - vine, The sign of covenant grace, they wear.
3. In all their err - ing, sin - ful years, Oh, let them ne'er for-gotten be; Re - mem-ber all the prayers and tears Which made them con-se-crate to thee.
4. And when these lips no more can pray, These eyes can weep for them no more, Turn thou their feet from folly's way, The wand'rers to thy fold re - store.

[H. 590. B. W. 209.]

REST. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Lord, I am thine, entirely thine, Purchased and saved by blood di - vine; With full con-sent thine I would be, And own thy sov'reign right in me.
2. Here, Lord, my life, my soul, my all, I yield to thee be-yond re - call; Ac-cept thine own, so long with-held, Ac-cept what I so free - ly yield.
3. Grant one poor sin-ner more a place Among the chil-dren of thy grace; A wretched sin - ner, lost to God, But ran-som'd by Im-man-uel's blood.
4. Thine would I live, thine would I die, Be thine through all e - ter - ni - ty; The vow is pass'd be-yond re - peal, Now will I set the so - lemn seal.

[H. 322. B. W. 137.]

GROFF. L. M.

B. F. SCHNECK.

1. Enslaved by sin, and bound in chains Be-neath its dreadful ty - rant sway, And doom'd to ever - last-ing pains, We wretched, guilt - y cap - tives lay.
2. Nor gold nor gems could buy our peace, Nor the whole world's col - lect-ed store Suf - fice to pur-chase our re-lease: A thousand worlds were all too poor.
3. Je-sus, the Lord, the might-y God, An all - suf - fi-cient ran - som paid: Oh, match-less price! his precious blood For vile, re - bel - lious traitors shed.
4. Je-sus the sa-cri-fice be - came, To res-cue guilt - y souls from hell; The spotless, bleeding, dying Lamb, Be - neath a - veng-ing jus - tice fell.
5. A - maz-ing goodness! love di - vine! Oh, may our grate-ful hearts a - dore The matchless grace, nor yield to sin Nor wear its cru - el fet - ters more.

[H. 204. B. W. 283.]

SCHMUCKER. L. M.

W. D. R.

1. Be-hold a stranger at the door, He gen-tly knocks, has knock'd before, Hath waited long, is wait - ing still: You treat no oth-er friend so ill
2. Oh, love - ly at - ti - tude! he stands, With melting heart and loaded hands! Oh, match-less kindness! and he shows This matchless kindness to his foes!
3. But will he prove a friend in - deed? He will,—the ve-ry friend you need; The friend of sin - ners, yes, 'tis he, With garments dyed on Cal-va - ry.
4. Rise, touch'd with gra-ti-tude di-vine; Turn out his en - e - my and thine, That soul - de stroy - ing mon - ster, sin, And let the heavenly stranger in.
5. Ad - mit him, ere his an - ger burn, His feet de-parted ne'er re-turn: Ad - mit him, or the hour's at hand You'll at his door re - ject - ed stand.

[H. 514. B. W. 262.]

WINDHAM. L. M.

READ.

1. 'Twas on tnat dread - ful, doleful night, When the whole pow'r of darkness rose A-gainst the Son of God's delight, And friends betray'd Him to his foes.
2. Be - fore the mourn - ful scene be-gan, He took the bread, and bless'd, and brake: What love through all his actions ran! What wondrous words of grace he spake!
3. "This is my bo - dy broke for sin; Receive and eat the living food:" Then took the cup and bless'd the wine, "'Tis the new covenant in my blood."
4. "Do this, (He cried,) till time shall end, In memory of your dying Friend; Meet at my ta - ble, and re - cord The love of your de - parted Lord."

[H. 100. B. W. 59.]

PSALTER. L. M.

From Fr. SILCHER.

1. Bright king of glo - ry, dread-ful God; Our spi - rits bow be - fore thy seat; To thee we lift an humble thought, And worship at thine aw - ful feet.
2. A thousand seraphs, strong and bright, Stand round the glorious de - i - ty; But who a - mong the sons of light Pretends com-par - i - son with thee?
3. Yet there is one of hu - man fame, Je - sus, ar-ray'd in flesh and blood, Thinks it no rob - ber - y to claim A full e - qual - i - ty with God.
4. Their glo - ry shines with equal beams; Their essence is for - ev - er one, Though they are known by different names, The Father God, and God the Son.
5. Then let the name of Christ our King With e - qual hon - ors be a-dored; His praise let ev' - ry an - gel sing, And all the na - tions own their Lord.

[H. 460. B. W. 555.]

BAUGHER. L. M.

1. The darken'd sky, how thick it lowers! Troubled with storms and big with showers, No cheerful gleam of light ap - pears, But na-ture pours forth all her tears.
2. Yet let the sons of grace re - vive; God bids the soul that seeks him live, And from the gloomiest shade of night Calls forth a morn - ing of de - light.
3. The seeds of ec - sta - sy unknown Are in these water'd fur - rows sown; See the green blades, how thick they rise, And with fresh verdure bless our eyes!
4. In se-cret foldings they con-tain Unnumber'd ears of gold - en grain; And heav'n shall pour its beams a-round, Till the ripe har - vest load the ground.
5. Then shall the trembling mourner come, And find his sheaves, and bring them home; The voice, long broke with sighs, shall sing, Till heav'n with hal-le - lu - jahs ring.

[H. 244. B. W. 227.]

ROSE HILL. L. M.

1. Why will ye lav - ish out your years A-midst a thou-sand tri - fling cares, While, in the va-rious range of thought, The one thing needful is for-got?
2. Why will ye chase the fleet - ing wind, And fam-ish an im - mor - tal mind, While an-gels with re - gret look down To see you spurn a heav'nly crown?
3. Th' e - ter-nal God calls from a - bove, And Je-sus pleads his dy - ing love, A-waken'd conscience gives you pain; And shall they join their pleas in vain?
4. Not so your dy - ing eyes shall view Those objects which you now pur-sue; Not so shall heav'n and hell ap - pear When the de - ci - sive hour is near.
5. Al-migh-ty God! thine aid im - part, To fix con - vic - tion on the heart; Thy powers can clear the dark-est eyes, And make the haughtiest scorner wise.

[H. 408. B. W. 180, 224.]

LILLY. L. M.

E. IVES

1. I love the Lord; but, ah! how far My thoughts from the dear object are; This wan-ton heart, how wide it roves! And fancy meets a thousand loves.

3. Would I en-joy my Lord a-lone, I bid my passions all be-gone,— All but my love,—and charge my will To bar the door and guard it still.

5. This foolish heart can leave its God, And shadows tempt its thoughts a-broad: How shall I fix this wand'ring mind, Or throw my fet-ters on the wind?

2. If my soul burn to see my God, I tread the courts of his a-bode; But troops of rivals throng the place, And tempt me oft be-fore his face.

4. But cares or tri-fles make me find Still new ap-proaches to the mind, Till I with grief and wonder see Huge crowds betwixt the Lord and me.

6. Look gen-tly down, almight-y grace; Pri-son me round in thine em-brace; Pi-ty the soul that would be thine, And let thy pow'r my love con-fine.

LOCHMAN. L. M.

1. Where is my God? does he re-tire Be-yond the reach of hum-ble sighs? Are these weak breath-ings of desire Too lan-guid to as-cend the skies?

3. Look up, my soul, with cheerful eye, See where the great Re-deem-er stands, The glo-rious Ad-vo-cate on high, With pre-cious in-cense in his hands.

2. He hears the breathings of de-sire: The weak pe-ti-tion, if sin-cere, Is not for-bid-den to as-pire And hope to reach his gra-cious ear.

4. He hears and soothes each humble groan, He recommends each bro-ken pray'r: Recline thy hopes on Him a-lone, Whose power and love for-bid de-spair.

JOHN HUSS.

1. So let our lips and lives ex - press The ho - ly gos - pel we pro-fess; So let our works and vir - tues shine, To prove the doc - trine all di - vine.

2. Thus shall we best pro-claim a - broad The hon - ors of our Saviour God: When his sal - va - tion reigns within, And grace subdues the power of sin.

3. Our flesh and sense must be de-nied, Pas - sion and en - vy, lust and pride; While justice, temperance, truth, and love Our inward pi - e - ty ap-prove.

4. Re - li - gion bears our spi-rits up, Whilst we ex - pect that blessed hope, The bright ap-pear-ance of the Lord, And faith stands lean-ing on his word.

[H. 142. B. W. 560.] WOODWELL. L. M. Or 6 lines, by repeating the first two lines.

1. Now be that sac - ri - fice survey'd Which for our souls the Saviour made, While love to sin - ners fired his heart And conquer'd all the kill - ing smart.

2. Blest Je - sus, while thy grace I sing, What grateful tri - bute shall I bring, That earth and heaven and all may see My love to Him who died for me?

3. That offering, Lord, thy word hath taught, Nor be thy new command for-got, That, if their Master's death can move, Thy servants should each oth - er love.

4. When on the cross I fix mine eye, Let ev' - ry sin - ful pas-sion die; And may I ev - er read-y be To serve, forgive, and love like thee.

STERLING. L. M.

1. From all who dwell below the skies, Let the Cre - a - tor's praise a - rise; Let the Redeemer's name be sung Through ev'ry land, by ev' - ry tongue.
2. E - ter-nal are thy mer-cies, Lord; E - ter-nal truth at-tends thy word; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till suns shall set and rise no more.
3. Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring; In songs of praise di - vine - ly sing; The great salvation loud pro - claim, And shout for joy the Sa - viour's name.
4. In ev'ry land be - gin the song; To ev'-ry land the strains be - long; In cheerful sounds all voices raise, And fill the world with loud - est praise.

ORFORD. L. M. Or 6 lines, by repeating the first two lines.

1. When Israel through the desert pass'd, A fi - ery pil - lar went be - fore, To guide them through the dreary waste And les-sen the fatigues they bore.
2. Such is thy glorious word, O God! 'Tis for our light and guidance given: It sheds a lustre all abroad, And points the path to bliss and heaven.
3. It fills the soul with sweet delight, And quick-ens its in - ac - tive powers; It sets our wand'ring footsteps right, Displays thy love, and kin - dles ours.
4. Its prom - i - ses re - joice our hearts; Its doctrines are di - vine - ly true; Knowledge and pleasure it imparts; It com - forts and instructs us too.
5. Ye fa - vor'd lands, that have this word, Ye saints, who feel its saving power, Unite your tongues to praise the Lord, And his dis - tinguished grace a - dore.

Arranged from FR. DANZI.

1. Oh that I had a seraph's fire, His rapturous song and golden lyre, To chant the love and grace supreme Re-veal'd as in the gos - pel scheme!
2. Here's par - don for transgressions past, It matters not how black their cast; And—O my soul, with wonder view,—For sins to come here's par - don too.
3. When Je - sus died, our debts were paid, Our sins, laid on this Scape-Goat's head, Were to the trackless desert driven, And, by his bound - less love, for-given.
4. In this abyss of love pro - found, When scught for, they shall not be found; Hid from Jehovah's piercing eye, There, in ob - li - vion's shades, they lie.

PLEYEL.

1. Oh, hap-py day, that fix'd my choice On thee, my Saviour and my God! Well may this glowing heart re - joice And tell its rap-tures all a - broad.
2. Oh, hap-py bond, that seals my vows To Him who mer-its all my love! I'll praise him in his sa-cred house, And glad - ly to his al - tar move.
3. Now with his saints I choose my part; With them I come, a welcome guest: Here rest, my once di - vi - ded heart, In him, thy blissful por-tion, rest.
4. High Heaven, that heard the solemn vow, That vow re-new'd shall dail - y hear, Till, call'd at last from all be - low, I bless in death a bond so dear.

PENTECOST. L. M.

From German by W. D. R

1. Go, friends of Je-sus, and pro-claim The dear Re-deem-er you have found, And speak his ev-er pre-cious name To all the wond'-ring na-tions round.
2. Go tell the unletter'd, wretched slave, Who groans beneath a ty-rant's rod, You bring a par-don bought with blood, The blood of an in-car-nate God.
3. Go tell the fierce, un-tu-tor'd chief On E-thi-o-pia's scorching sand, You come with a re-fresh-ing stream, To cheer and bless his thirst-y land.
4. Go tell the dis-tant isles a-far, Ta-hi-ti and the poor Pe-lew, That in the cov-e-nant of grace Their unknown names are writ-ten too.

[H. 467. B. W. 448.]

SPRECHER. L. M.

J. M.

1. How do thy mercies close me round! For-ev-er be thy name a-dored; I blush in all things to a-bound: The servant is a-bove his Lord!
2. In-ured to pov-er-ty and pain, A suf-f'ring life my Mas-ter led: The Son of God, the Son of man, He had not where to lay his head.
3. But, lo! a place he hath prepared For me, whom watchful an-gels keep; Yea, he himself be-came my guard: He smooths my bed and gives me sleep.
4. Je-sus protects; my fears, begone: What can the Rock of A-ges move! Safe in thine arms I lay me down.—Thine ever-last-ing arms of love.

[H. 939. B. W. 486.]

THANKSGIVING. L. M.

From German by W. D. R.

4.

And will he deign to lend an ear
When I—poor, abject mortal—pray?
Yes, boundless goodness! he will hear,
Nor cast the meanest wretch away.

Then let me serve thee all my days,
And may my zeal with years increase;
For pleasant, Lord, are all thy ways,
And all thy paths are paths of peace.

[H. 790. B. W. 328.]

RETREAT. L. M.

Dr. HASTINGS.

1. From ev' - ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev' - ry swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure retreat: 'Tis found be-neath the mer - cy - seat.
2. There is a place where Je- sus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads, A place than all besides more sweet: It is the blood-bought mercy seat.
3. There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellow-ship with friend: Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet A-round one common mer - cy-seat.
4. Ah! whi-ther could we flee for aid, When tempted, des - o - late, dismay'd, Or how the hosts of hell de-feat, Had suffering saints no mer - cy-seat?

[H. 859. B. W. 85.]

TRELL. L. M.

1. A-wake, our souls, a - way, our fears! Let ev'ry trembling thought be gone: A-wake, and run the heavenly race, And put a cheerful cou - rage on.
2. True, 'tis a strait and thorn-y road, And mortal spirits tire and faint; But they for - get the might-y God, Who feeds the strength of ev' - ry saint.
4. From thee, the ev - er - flowing spring, Our souls shall drink a fresh supply; While such as trust their native strength Shall melt away, and droop and die.
5. Swift as an ea - gle cuts the air, We'll mount aloft to thine a - bode; On wings of love our souls shall fly, Nor tire amid the heaven - ly road.

[H. 708. B. W. 477.]

WINCHESTER. L. M.

German.

1. Why should we start and fear to die? What timorous worms we mor-tals are! Death is the gate of end-less joy, And yet we dread to en-ter there.
2. The pains, the groans, and dy-ing strife, Fright our ap-proaching souls a-way; Still we shrink back a-gain to life, Fond of our prison and our clay.
3. Oh, if my Lord would come and meet, My soul should stretch her wings in haste, Fly fearless thro' death's i-ron gate, Nor feel the terrors as she pass'd.
4. Je-sus can make a dy-ing bed Feel soft as downy pil-lows are, While on his breast I lean my head And breathe my life out sweetly there.

[H. 490. B. W. 52.]

PORTUGAL. L. M.

THORLEY.

1. Far from my thoughts, vain world, begone; Let my re-li-gious hours a-lone; Fain would my eyes my Sa-viour see; I wait a vi-sit, Lord, from thee.
2. My heart grows warm with ho-ly fire, And kindles with a pure de-sire: Come, my dear Je-sus, from a-bove, And feed my soul with heavenly love.
3. Blest Je-sus, what de-li-cious fare, How sweet thine en-ter-tain-ments are! Nev-er did an-gels taste a-bove Re-deeming grace and dy-ing love.
4. Hail, great Im-man-uel, all di-vine! In thee thy Fa-ther's glo-ries shine, Thou brightest, sweetest, fair-est one That eyes have seen or an-gels known.

WARRINGTON. L. M.

1. When God's own peo-ple stand in need, His good - ness will provide supplies: Thus, when E-li-jah faints for bread, A ra - ven to his suc - cor flies.

2. At God's command, with speed - y wings, The hun - gry bird re-signs its prey, And to the ho - ly pro - phet brings The need-ful por - tion, day by day.

3. This wonder oft has been re - new'd, And saints by sweet expe - rience find Their e - vil o - ver-ruled for good, Their foes to friend-ly deeds inclined.

4. Who can dis - trust that might - y hand Which rules with u - ni - ver- sal sway, Which nature's laws can countermand, Or feed us by a bird of prey!

[H. 699. B. W. 352.]

THE PASSING BELL. L. M.

1. Oft as the bell, with so - lemn toll, Speaks the de-part - ure of a soul, Let each one ask himself, "Am I Prepared, should I be call'd to die?"

3. Then, leaving all I loved be - low, To God's tri - bu - nal I must go,— Must hear the Judge pronounce my fate, And fix my ev - er - last - ing state.

4. Lord Je - sus! help me now to flee, And seek my hope a - lone in thee; Ap - ply thy blood, thy Spi - rit give, Sub-due my sin, and let me live.

5. Then when the solemn bell I hear, If saved from guilt, I need not fear; Nor would the thought alarm-ing be, Perhaps it next may toll for me.

1. Though na - ture's voice you must o - bey, Think, while your swelling griefs o'erflow, That hand which takes your joys a - way, That sovereign hand can heal your woe.
2. And while your mournful thoughts de-plore The parent gone, removed the friend, With hearts re - sign'd, His grace a - dore On whom your nobler hopes depend.
3. Does he not bid his chil-dren come Thro' death's dark shades to realms of light? Yet, when he calls them to their home, Shall fond survivors mourn their flight?
4. His word—here let your souls re - ly— Immortal con-so - la-tion gives: Your heavenly Fa - ther can - not die, Th'e-ter-nal Friend for-ev-er lives.
5. Oh, be that best of friends your trust; On his al-might-y arm re-cline: He, when your com - forts sink in dust, Can give you comforts more di-vine.

Dr. CH. BURNEY.

1. Come, O my soul, in sa - cred lays At-tempt thy great Cre - a - tor's praise; But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame, What verse can reach the loft - y theme?

2. Enthroned a-mid the radiant spheres, He glo-ry like a garment wears; To form a robe of light di - vine, Ten thousand suns a-round him shine.

3. In all our Maker's grand designs Almight - y power with wis-dom shines; His works thro' all this wondrous frame Declare the glo - ry of his name.

4. Raised on de- votion's loft-y wing, Do thou, my soul, his glo-ries sing; And let his praise em - ploy thy tongue, Till listening worlds shall join the song.

NAZARETH. L. M.

SAMUEL WEBB.

1. When at a distance, Lord, we trace The va-rious glo-ries of thy face, What transport glows in ev' - ry breast, And charms our cares and woes to rest!

2. A-lone with thee, in darkest cell, On some bleak moun-tain, would I dwell, Ra-ther than pomp-ous courts be-hold And share their grand-eur and their gold.

3. A - way, ye dreams of mor - tal joy; Rap-tures di - vine my thoughts em-ploy; I see the King of glo - ry shine, And feel his love, and call him mine.

4. On Ta - bor thus his servants view'd His lustre when transform'd he stood, And, bid-ding earth- ly scenes farewell, Cried, "Lord, 'tis pleasant here to dwell."

AMES. L. M.

1. They that have made their re-fuge God, Shall find a most se-cure a-bode; Shall walk all day beneath his shade, And there at night shall rest their head.
2. If burning beams of noon con-spire To dart a pes-ti-len-tial fire, God is their life; his wings are spread To shield them 'midst ten thou-sand dead.
3. If va-pors, with ma-lig-nant breath, Rise thick, and scatter mid-night death, Still they are safe: the poison'd air A-gain grows pure, if God be there.
4. But if the fire, or plague, or sword, Re-ceive commission from the Lord To strike his saints among the rest, Their very pains and death are blest.
5. The sword, the pes-tilence, or fire, Shall but ful-fil their best de-sire, From sins and sor-rows set them free, And bring thy children, Lord, to thee.

MENDELSSOHN. L. M.

BRADBURY.

1. Why sinks my weak, desponding mind? Why heaves my heart the anx-ious sigh? Can sovereign good-ness be un-kind? Am I not safe if God is nigh?
2. 'Tis he supports this fainting frame; On him a-lone my hopes re-cline: The wondrous glo-ries of his name, How wide they spread, how bright they shine!
3. In-fi-nite wisdom, boundless power, Unchanging faithful-ness and love, Here let me trust, while I a-dore, Nor from my re-fuge e'er re-move.
4. My God, if thou art mine in-deed, Then I have all my heart can crave,—A present help in times of need, Still kind to hear, and strong to save.
5. For-give my doubts, O gra-cious Lord, And ease the sorrows of my breast, Speak to my heart the heal-ing word, That thou art mine, and I am blest.

BEETHOVEN. L. M.

Arranged from BEETHOVEN.

1. In sleep's se-rene ob - liv - ion laid, I safe - ly pass'd the si-lent night; A - gain I see the break-ing shade, I drink a - gain the morning light.
2. New-born, I bless the wak - ing hour, Once more, with awe, re-joice to be; My conscious soul re-sumes her power, And springs, my guardian God, to thee!
3. Oh, guide me thro' the various maze My doubt - ful feet are doom'd to tread; And spread thy shield's protecting blaze Where dan-gers press around my head.
4. A deep-er shade shall soon impend, A deep - er sleep my eyes op-press; Yet then thy strength shall still defend, Thy good-ness still de-light to bless.
5. That deeper shade shall break a-way, That deep - er sleep shall leave mine eyes; Thy light shall give e - ter - nal day, Thy love, the rap-tures of the skies.

RINK. L. M.

From CH. H. RINK, by L. MASON.

1. Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love; But there's a no - bler rest a - bove: To that our long-ing souls as - pire, With cheerful hope and strong de - sire.

2. No more fatigue, no more dis-tress, Nor sin nor death, shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs Which warble from im - mor - tal tongues.

3. No rude a - larms of ra-ging foes, No cares to break the long re - pose; No midnight shade, no cloud-ed sun; But sa-cred, high, e - ter - nal noon.

When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gather'd thick and thunder'd loud,
He near my soul has always stood:
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

5.

Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Jesus to depart;
But, though I have him oft forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.

Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale;
Soon all my mortal powers must fail:
Oh, may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death!

7.

Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day,
And sing, with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

DUKE STREET. L. M.

J. HATTON.

1. 'Tis by the faith of joys to come, We walk thro' deserts dark as night; Till we ar - rive at heaven our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
2. The want of sight she well sup - plies; She makes the pearly gates ap-pear; Far in-to dis - tant worlds she pries, And brings e - ter - nal glo - ries near.
3. Cheerful we tread the de - sert through, While faith inspires a heavenly ray, Though lions roar, and tem - pests blow, And rocks and dan - gers fill the way.
4. So Abra'm, by di - vine com-mand, Left his own house to walk with God; His faith beheld the pro - mised land, And cheer'd him on his toilsome road.

DRESDEN. L. M. Double.

German.

D.C.

1. He dies! the Friend of sin - ners dies! Lo! Salem's daughters weep a-round;
   A solemn darkness veils the skies, A sudden trembling shakes the ground.
D. C. He shed a thousand drops for you, A thousand drops of richer blood.

} Come, saints, and drop a tear or two For him who groan'd beneath your load;

D.C.

2. Here's love and grief be-yond de - gree: The Lord of glo - ry dies for men!
   But lo! what sud-den joys we see! Je - sus, the dead, re-vives a- gain.
D. C. Cher - u - bic legions guard him home, And shout him welcome to the skies.

} The ris - ing God for-sakes the tomb, In vain the tomb for - bid his rise,

HINGHAM. L. M.

Or 6 lines, by repeating the first two lines.

1. In glad amazement, Lord, I stand Amidst the bounties of thy hand; How numberless those bounties are! How rich, how various, and how fair! How rich, how various, &c.
2. But, oh, what poor returns I make! What lifeless thanks I pay thee back! Lord, I confess, with humble shame, My off'rings scarce deserve the name, My off'rings scarce, &c.
3. Fain would my laboring heart devise To bring some nobler sacrifice. It sinks beneath the mighty load: What shall I render to my God? What shall I render to my God?
4. To him I consecrate my praise, And vow the remnant of my days. Yet what, at best, can I pretend, Worthy such gifts from such a friend? Worthy such gifts from, &c.

LOVE. L. M.

From BEETHOVEN.

1. Lord, didst thou die, but not for me? Am I for - bid to trust thy blood? Hast thou not pardon, rich and free? And grace, an o - ver - whelm-ing flood?
2. Presumptuous thought! to fix the bound—To li - mit mer - cy's sovereign reign: What other happy souls have found, I'll seek; nor shall I seek in vain.
3. I own my guilt, my sins con - fess; Can men or de - vils make them more? Of crimes, alrea - dy number - less, Vain the at - tempt to swell the score.

C. KOCHER.

1. Oh that the Lord would hear my cry, And stay his an - ger, lest I die! Thy wrath is just: yet, oh, for - give! And let a mourning sin - ner live.
2. In all my frame, with-out, with-in, I feel the sad ef - fects of sin; How long, my God, must I com-plain, And de - pre - cate thy wrath in vain?
3. Oh, should I die de-prived of thee! What be - ing else can suc - cor me? Thy frowns would rend my soul in death, And sink it to the depths be-neath.
4. Ye dar-ling sins that plague me so, The great-est en - e - mies I know, De - part, for God has heard my prayer, And will not let me long de - spair.
5. No: I shall yet his good-ness bless; And, when this transient life shall pass, Then, full of glo - ry, I shall prove; He can be just, and sin - ners love.

CAMP. L. M.

Arranged from ARNOLD.

Andante

1. Behold, the blind their sight receive! Be-hold, the dead a-wake and live! The dumb speak wonders, and the lame Leap like the hart, and bless his name.
2. Thus doth th' e-ter-nal Spi-rit own And seal the mis-sion of the Son; The Fa - ther vin-di-cates his cause, While he hangs bleeding on the cross.
3. He dies: the heav'ns in mourning stood; He ri-ses and appears a God. Be - hold the Lord, as-cend - ing high, No more to bleed, no more to die.

[H. 123. B. W. 247.]

PLAYFORD. L. M.

From CARTER'S PSALTER.

1. Come, let our mournful songs re-cord The dy-ing sorrows of our Lord, When he ex-pired in shame and blood, Like one for-sa-ken of his God.
2. The Jews be-held him thus for-lorn, And shook their heads and laugh'd in scorn: "He rescued others from the grave, Now let him try him-self to save."
3. Oh, harden'd peo-ple, cru-el priests! How they stood round like savage beasts, Like li-ons read-y to de-vour, When God had left him in their power!
4. They wound his head, his hands, his feet, Till streams of blood each o-ther meet; By lot his garments they di-vide, And mock the pangs in which he died.

[H. 366. B. W. 119.]

BROADMEAD. L. M.

JOHN DANIEL.

1. The new-born child of gos-pel grace, Like some fair tree when sum-mer's nigh, Beneath Immanuel's shining face, Lifts up his blooming branch on high.
2. No fear he feels, he sees no foes, No conflict yet his faith em-ploys; Nor has he learn'd to whom he owes The strength and peace his soul enjoys.
3. But sin soon darts its cru-el sting, And comforts sink-ing day by day; What seem'd his own, a self-fed spring, Proves but a brook that glides a-way.
4. When Gideon arm'd his numerous host, The Lord soon made his num-bers less, And said, "Lest Is-rael vainly boast, 'My arm procured me this suc-cess.'"
5. Thus will he bring our spi-rits down, And draw our ebb-ing com-forts low, That, saved by grace, but not our own, We may not claim the praise we owe.

[H. 473. B. W. 183.]

OBERLIN. L. M.

Or 6 lines, by repeating the first two lines.

NEUKOMM.

1. My spi-rit looks to God a - lone; My rock and ref - uge is his throne: In all my fears, in all my straits, My soul on his sal - va - tion waits.

2. Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways, Pour out your hearts be - fore his face: When help-ers fail, and foes in - vade, God is our all - suf - fi - cient aid.

3. False are the men of high de - gree, The bas - er sort are van - i - ty; Laid in the bal-ance, both ap - pear Light as a puff of emp - ty air.

4. Make not in-creas-ing gold your trust, Nor set your heart on glitt'ring dust; Why will you grasp the fleeting smoke, And not be - lieve what God hath spoke?

[H. 471. B. W. 371.]

NEW-MARKET. L. M.

Dr. WAINWRIGHT.

1. Courage, my soul! while God is near, What en - e - my hast thou to fear? How canst thou want a sure de - fence, Whose refuge is om - nip - o - tence?

2. Though thickest dan - gers crowd my way, My God can chase my fears a - way; My steadfast heart on him re - lies, And all those dangers still de - fies.

3. Though bil - lows af - ter bil - lows roll, To overwhelm my sink - ing soul, Firm as a rock my faith shall stand, Up - held by God's al - might-y hand.

4. In life, his presence is my aid; In death, 'twill guide me through the shade, Chase all my ris - ing fears a - way, And turn my dark-ness in - to day.

PYRTON. L. M.

1. When faith be-holds the saints a-bove, And hears them sing of Je - sus' love, I fain would fly to join their lays, And sing with them my Saviour's praise.

2. But can my soul such bliss obtain, Whose guilt de-serves e - ter - nal pain? Can I ex-pect his face to see Throughout a vast e - ter - ni - ty?

3. If heaven be mine, 'tis all of grace; I'll praise him for the low - est place; May I but reach with-in the door, My anx - ious soul de - sires no more.

4. "There ye that love my Saviour sit, There I with you would fain have place, A - mong your thrones, or at your feet, So I may see his love - ly face."

[H. 713. B. W. 555.]

BABYLON STREAMS. L. M.

Arranged by V. NOVELLO.

1. So fades the love-ly, bloom - ing flower, Frail, smiling so - lace of an hour; So soon our transient com-forts fly, And plea-sure on - ly blooms to die.

2. Is there no kind, no heal - ing art To soothe the an-guish of the heart? Spi-rit of grace, be ev - er nigh: Thy comforts are not made to die.

3. Let gen-tle patience smile on pain, Till dy-ing hope re-vives a-gain; Hope wipes the tear from sor-row's eye, And faith points up-ward to the sky.

[H. 427. B. W. 211.]

TIMSBURY. L. M.

J. SMITH.

1. Re-turn, my rov-ing heart, re-turn, And chase these shadowy forms no more; Seek out some so-li-tude to mourn, And thy for-sa-ken God im-plore.
2. Wis-dom and plea-sure dwell at home: Re-tired and si-lent, seek them there; This is the way to o-ver-come, The way to break the tempter's snare.
3. And thou, my God, whose piercing eye Dis-tinct sur-veys each deep re-cess, In these se-clud-ed hours, draw nigh, And with thy presence fill the place.
4. Through all the ma-zes of my heart, My search let heavenly wis-dom guide; And still its ra-diant beams im-part, Till all be search'd and pu-ri-fied.
5. Then with the vi-sits of thy love Vouchsafe my in-most soul to cheer; Till ev'-ry grace shall join to prove That God has fix'd his dwelling there.

[H. 459. B. W. 280.]

WAITE. L. M.

1. Fa-ther! I bless thy gen-tle hand: How kind was thy chas-tis-ing rod, That forced my conscience to a stand, And brought my wandering soul to God!
2. Fool-ish and vain, I went a-stray, Be-fore I felt thy scourging, Lord! I left my guide and lost my way: But now I love and keep thy word.
3. 'Tis good for me to wear the yoke, For pride is apt to rise and swell; 'Tis good to bear my Father's stroke, That I may learn his sta-tutes well.
4. The law that is-sues from thy mouth Shall raise my cheerful passions more Than all the treasures of the south, Or west-ern hills of gold-en ore.

PLYMOUTH DOCK. L. M. 6 lines.

1. When, stream - ing from the east - ern skies, The morn - ing light sa - lutes mine eyes, O Sun of right - eous - ness di - vine,
2. When each day's scenes and la - bors close, And wea - ried na - ture seeks re - pose, With pard'n-ing mer - cy rich - ly blest,
3. And at my life's last set - ting sun, My con - flicts o'er, my la - bors done, Je - sus, thy heaven-ly ra - diance shed

On me, with beams of mer - cy, shine; Chase the dark clouds of guilt a - way, And turn my dark - ness in - to day.
Guard me, my Sa - viour, while I rest, And, as each morn - ing sun shall rise, Oh, lead me on - ward to the skies.
To cheer and bless my dy - ing bed, And from death's gloom my spi - rit raise, To see thy face and sing thy praise.

WALTER. L. M.

W. SHRIVER.

1. When Is-rael forth from E - gypt went, And Ja - cob left the stranger's land, God's glo - ry shadow'd Ju-dah's tent, And Is - rael own'd her monarch's hand.

2. The sea be - held his power and fled; Back to her source was Jordan driven; The trembling mountains shook for dread; From their strong base the hills were riven.

3. O sea, what ter - rors urged thy flight? Why, Jordan, did thy flood retreat? Why moved the hills? and whence the fright That shook the mountains from their seat?

4. Tremble, O earth, when God ap-pears,—Be-fore the might of Ja - cob's God; Whose power the flint - y rock de-clares, And, melt - ing, pours the gush-ing flood.

[H. 998. B. W. 98.]

BUTLER. L. M.

P. A. KELLER.

1. There is a pure and peaceful wave, That rolls a - round the throne of love; Whose wa - ters glad-den as they lave The bright and heaven-ly shores above;

2. While streams which on that tide de - pend Steal from those heaven - ly shores away, And o'er this de - sert world descend, O-ver our bar-ren land to stray.

3. The pil-grim, faint and near to sink Be-neath his load of earth-ly woe, Refresh'd be - neath its ver-dant brink, Re-joices in its gen - tle flow.

4. There, O my soul, do thou re - pose, And hov - er o'er the hallow'd spring, To drink the crys-tal wave, and there To lave thy wounded, wea-ry wing.

[H. 945. B. W. 526.]

TALLIS' EVENING HYMN. L. M.

1. Great God, to thee my eve - ning song With humble gra - ti - tude I raise: Oh, let thy mer-cy tune my tongue And fill my heart with live-ly praise.
2. My days uncloud - ed, as they pass, And ev' - ry on-ward - roll - ing hour, Are mon - u - ments of wondrous grace, And witness to thy love and power.
3. And yet this thoughtless, wretched heart Too oft, re-gard-less of thy love, Un-grate - ful, can from thee de-part, And from the path of du - ty rove.
4. Seal my for-give-ness in the blood Of Christ, my Lord: his name a - lone I plead for pardon, gra-cious God, And kind ac-cept - ance at thy throne.

[H. 419. B. W. 453.]

LEE. L. M.

1. Jesus, my Saviour and my God, Thou hast redeem'd me with thy blood; By ties both na-tural and di - vine, I am and ev - er will be thine.
2. But ah! should this inconstant heart, Ere I'm a - ware, from thee de - part, What dire reproach would fall on me For such in - gra - ti - tude to thee!
3. The thought I dread, the crime I hate; The guilt, the shame, I de - pre - cate; And yet, so mighty are my foes, I dare not trust my warmest vows.
4. Pit-y my frailty, dear-est Lord, Grace in the need-ful hour af - ford; Oh, steel this timorous heart of mine With for - ti - tude and love di - vine.
5. So shall I triumph o'er my fears, And gath-er joy from all my tears; So shall I to the world pro - claim The honors of the Christian name.

[H. 159. B. W. 504.]

LOWELL. L. M.

From a Russian Melody.

1. Now let us raise our cheer-ful strains, And join the bliss-ful choir a-bove: There our ex-alt-ed Sa-viour reigns, And there they sing his won-drous love.
2. Je-sus, who once up-on the tree In ag-o-niz-ing pains ex-pired, To save us re-bels,—yes, 'tis he! How bright, how lovely, how ad-mired!
3. Je-sus, who died that we might live, Died in the wretched trai-tor's place: Oh, what re-turns can mor-tals give For such im-mea-sur-a-ble grace?
4. Were u-ni-ver-sal na-ture ours, And art with all her boasted store, Na-ture and art, with all their powers, Would still confess the off'-rer poor.
5. Yet though for bounty so di-vine We ne'er can e-qual honors raise, Je-sus! may all our hearts be thine, And all our tongues pro-claim thy praise

[H. 531. B. W. 213.]

PARK STREET. L. M.

VENUA.

1. Hark! what triumphant strains are these, Which echo through the vault of heaven? "To Jesus, once on Calvary slain, The kingdoms of the earth are given," The kingdoms, &c.
2. Hark! the new song before the throne, Which only the redeem'd can raise; Angels may tune their golden harps, But cannot reach these notes of praise, But cannot, &c.
3. They worship our ex-alt-ed Lord, And hail him uni-ver-sal King; But saints—the purchase of his blood— Can strike a sweeter, nobler string, Can strike, &c.
4. The wonders of his dy-ing love Their hallelujahs loud proclaim, While with ecstatic joy they shout New honors to his sacred name, New honors to his, &c.

LOUVAN. L. M.

1. What sin-ners va-lue I re-sign: Lord! 'tis enough that thou art mine! I shall be-hold thy bliss-ful face, And stand complete in righteousness.
2. This life's a dream, an emp-ty show; But the bright world to which I go Hath joys sub-stan-tial and sin-cere: When shall I wake and find me there?
3. O glorious hour! O blest a-bode! I shall be near and like my God, And flesh and sin no more con-trol The sa-cred pleasures of the soul.
4. My flesh shall slumber in the ground Till the last trumpet's joyful sound; Then burst the chains with sweet surprise, And in my Sa-viour's im-age rise.

TRANQUILLITY. L. M.

English Theme.

1. Bright as the sun's me-ridian blaze, Vast as the bless-ings he con-veys, Wide as his reign from pole to pole, And per-ma-nent as his con-trol.
2. So, Jesus, let thy kingdom come; Then sin and hell's ter-ri-fic gloom Shall, at thy brightness, flee a-way, The dawn of an e-ter-nal day.
3. Then shall the heathen, fill'd with awe, Learn the blest knowledge of thy law, And an-ti-christ, on ev'-ry shore, Fall from his throne, to rise no more.
4. Then shall thy lof-ty praise resound On Afric's shores, through India's ground, And is-lands of the South-ern sea Shall stretch their eager arms to thee.

[H. 63. B. W. 164.]

MORRIS. L. M.

W. D. R.

1. Great God! what hosts of angels stand In shin - ing ranks at thy right hand, Ar-ray'd in robes of dazzling light, With pin - ions stretch'd for distant flight!
2. Im-mor - tal fires! se-raph-ic flames! Who can recount their various names? In strength and beauty they ex-cel; For near the throne of God they dwell.
3. How ea - ger - ly they wish to know The du - ties he would have them do: What joy their act - ive spi - rits feel, To ex - e - cute their Sovereign's will!
4. Hith - er, at his command, they fly To guard the beds on which we lie; To shield our persons night and day, And scat - ter all our fears a - way.
5. Send, O my God, some an-gel down, (Though to a mortal eye un - known,) To guide and guard my doubtful way Up to the realms of end - less day

[H. 659. B. W. 341.]

BLOOMFIELD CHANT. L. M.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. Now, Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost, To whom we for our chil - dren cry! The good de-sired and wanted most, Out of thy rich-est grace sup - ply.
2. Er - ror and ig - no-rance re - move, The blindness of their hearts and mind; Give them the wis - dom from a - bove, Spot-less and peace-a-ble and kind.
3. An - swer on them the end of all Our cares and pains and stu-dies here! On them, re - cov - er'd from their fall, Stamp'd with the humble cha - rac - ter.
4. U - nite what long has been disjoin'd,—Knowledge and vital pi - e - ty; Learning and ho - li-ness combined, And truth and love, let all men see.
5. Fa - ther, ac-cept them through thy Son, And ev - er by thy Spi - rit guide! Thy wis - dom in their lives be shown, Thy name con-fess'd and glo - ri - fied.

[H. 653. B. W. 29.]

HARVEST. L. M.

Arranged from BEETHOVEN.

1. Now, in the heat of youthful blood, Remember your Cre - a - tor, God: Behold, the months come hastening on When you shall say, "My joys are gone."
2. God from on high beholds your thoughts; His book records your secret faults; The works of darkness men have done Must all ap - pear be - fore the sun.
3. Be - hold, the a - ged sin - ner goes, La-den with guilt and heav-y woes, Down to the re-gions of the dead, With bitterest cur - ses on his head.
4. The dust re-turns to dust a - gain; The soul, in a – go - nies of pain, Ascends to God, not there to dwell, But hears her doom, and sinks to hell.
5. God of the young! turn off their eyes From earth's allur-ing van - i - ties; And let the warnings of thy word A-wake their souls to fear the Lord.

[H. 359. B. W. 280.]

ALL SAINTS. L. M.

KNAPP.

1. I hear a voice that comes from far, From Cal - va - ry it sounds abroad; It soothes my soul and calms my fear; It speaks of pardon bought with blood.
2. And is it true that ma - ny fly The sound that bids my soul re-joice, And ra - ther choose in sin to die, Than turn an ear to mer-cy's voice?
3. A - las for those!—the day is near When mer - cy will be heard no more; Then will they ask, in vain, to hear The voice they would not hear be - fore.
4. With such, I own, I once appear'd, But now I know how great their loss; For sweet-er sounds were nev - er heard Than mer - cy ut - ters from the cross.

[H. 273. B. W. 167.]

WINCHELSEA. L. M.

PRELIEUR.

1. Thou Man of griefs, re - mem - ber me: Thou sure - ly nev - er canst for - get Thy last mys - te-rious ag - o - ny, Thy faint - ing pangs and blood-y sweat!
2. When wrestling in the strength of prayer, Thy spi - rit sank be-neath its load! Thy fee - ble flesh a - fraid to bear The wrath of an al-might-y God!
3. Fa-ther, (if I may call thee so,) Re-gard my fear - ful heart's de - sire; Re - move this load of guilt - y woe, Nor let me in my sins ex - pire!
4. I trem - ble lest the wrath di-vine, Which bruis-es now my sin - ful soul, Should bruise this wretched soul of mine Long as e - ter - nal a - ges roll!
5. I de - pre - cate that death a - lone, That end-less ban - ish-ment from thee! Oh, save me through thine on - ly Son, Who trembled, wept, and bled for me!

[H. 433. B. W. 92.]

TILGHMAN. L. M.

W. SHRIVER.

1. How blest the sa-cred tie that binds, In union sweet, ac-cord-ing minds! How swift the heavenly course they run, Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes, are one!
2. To each, the soul of each how dear! What watchful love, what ho-ly fear! How doth the generous flame with - in Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!
3. Their streaming eyes to-geth - er flow For hu-man guilt and mor - tal woe; Their ardent prayers to - geth - er rise, Like mingling flames in sa - cri - fice.
4. To - geth - er both they seek the place Where God reveals his aw - ful face; How high, how strong their raptures swell, There's none but kindred souls can tell.
5. Nor shall the glow-ing flame ex - pire 'Midst nature's drooping, sickening fire: Soon shall they meet in realms a - bove, A heaven of joy, be-cause of love.

[H. 479. B. W. 103.]

BRIDGES. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. While on the verge of life I stand, And view the scene on ei - ther hand, My spi-rit struggles with my clay, And longs to wing its flight a - way.

2. Where Jesus dwells, my soul would be, And faints my much-loved Lord to see: Earth, twine no more about my heart! For 'tis far better to de - part.

3. Come, ye an - gel - ic en - voys! come, And lead the will-ing pil - grim home; Ye know the way to Je - sus' throne, Source of my joys, and of your own.

4. That blissful in - ter - view, how sweet! To fall transport-ed at his feet! Raised in his arms, to view his face, Through the full beamings of his grace.

[H. 790. B. W. 328.]

RATHVON. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. From ev'-ry stormy wind that blows, From ev'ry swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure re - treat: 'Tis found be-neath the mer-cy - seat.

2. There is a place where Je - sus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads, A place than all be-sides more sweet: It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3. There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet A - round one common mer - cy - seat.

4. Ah! whither could we flee for aid When tempted, des - o - late, dis-may'd, Or how the host of hell de - feat, Had suffering saints no mer-cy - seat?

[H. 1001. B. W. 583.]

KELLER. 6,6,8, 6,8,8. Peculiar.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Friend af - ter friend de - parts; Who hath not lost a friend? There is no u - nion here of hearts That finds not here an end.

2 Be - yond the flight of time, Be - yond the reign of death, There sure - ly is some bless - ed clime Where life is not a breath,

Were this frail world our fi - nal rest, Liv - ing or dy - ing, none were blest.

Nor life's af - fec - tions tran - sient fire, Whose sparks fly up - ward and ex - pire.

There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown;
A long eternity of love,
Form'd for the good alone;
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that glorious sphere.

4.

Thus star by star declines,
Till all are pass'd away;
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night,
But hide themselves in heaven's own light.

Not the most perfect rules they gave
  Could show one sin forgiven,
Nor lead a step beyond the grave:
  But thine conduct to heaven.

3.
Lord, I have made thy word my choice,
  My lasting heritage;
There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
  My warmest thoughts engage.

4.
I'll read the histories of thy love
  And keep thy laws in sight,
While through thy promises I rove
  With ever fresh delight.

5.
'Tis a broad land of wealth unknown,
  Where springs of life arise,
Seed of immortal bliss is sown,
  And hidden glory lies.

1. Come, let us join our souls to God, In ev - er - last - ing bands; And seize the bless-ings he be - stows, With ea - ger hearts and hands
2. Come, let us to his tem - ple haste, And seek his fa - vor there, Be - fore his footstool hum-bly bow, And pour our fer - vent prayer.
3. Come, let us seal, with - out de - lay, The cove - nant of his grace; Nor shall the years of dis - tant life Its memory e'er ef - face.
4. Thus in our youthful days we'll haste To seek our fa-thers' God, But may we ne'er for - sake the path Their bless-ed feet have trod.

3. Each ten - der tie, dis-solved with pain, With end - less bliss is crown'd;
   All that was dead re - vives a - gain, All that was lost is found. } And while remembrance, lingering still, D aws joy from sorrowing hours,
   D. C. New pros-pects rise, new plea-sures fill The soul's ex - pand-ing powers.

1. Let o - thers boast how strong they be, Nor death nor dan - ger fear; While we con - fess, O Lord, to thee, What fee - ble things we are.

2. Fresh as the grass our bo - dies stand, And flourish bright and gay: A blast-ing wind sweeps o'er the land, And fades the grass a - way.

3. Our life con - tains a thousand springs, And dies if one be gone; Strange! that a harp of thou-sand strings Should keep in tune so long.

4. But 'tis our God sup-ports our frame, The God that form'd us first: Sal - va - tion to th'al - might - y name That rear'd us from the dust.

[H. 662. B. W. 176.] HOLDEN. C. M. HOLDEN.

1. Yes, there are joys that can - not die, With God laid up in store; Trea-sure, beyond the chang - ing sky, Brighter than gold - en ore.

2. The seeds which pi - e - ty and love Have scat - ter'd here be - low, In the fair, fer - tile fields a - bove To am - ple har-vests grow.

3. The mite my will - ing hands can give, At Je - sus' feet I lay; Grace shall the hum - ble gift re - ceive, And grace at large re - pay.

"CHRISTUS DER IST MEIN LEBEN."

Arranged by H. SCHWING.

1. Lord of my life! oh, may thy praise Em-ploy my noblest powers, Whose goodness lengthens out my days And fills the circling hours.
2. Preserved by thine Almight-y arm, I pass the shades of night Se-rene and safe from ev'-ry harm, And see re-turn-ing light.
3. While ma-ny spent the night in sighs, And rest-less pains and woes, In gen-tle sleep I closed mine eyes, And un-disturb'd re-pose.
4. When sleep, death's semblance, o'er me spread, And I un-conscious lay, Thy watchful care was round my bed To guard my fee-ble clay.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Ye hearts with youthful vig-or warm, In smil-ing crowds draw near, And turn from ev'-ry mor-tal charm, A Sa-viour's voice to hear.
2. He, Lord of all the worlds on high, Stoops to con-verse with you, And lays his ra-diant glo-ries by, Your friend-ship to pur-sue.
3. "The soul who longs to see my face Is sure my love to gain, And those who ear-ly seek my grace Shall nev-er seek in vain."
4. What ob-ject, Lord, my soul should move, If once compared with thee? What beau-ty should com-mand my love Like what in Christ I see?
5. A-way, ye false, de-lu-sive toys, Vain tempters of the mind! 'Tis here I fix my last-ing choice, And here true bliss I find.

[H. 588. B. W. 207.]

BALERMA. C. M.

1. Blest Je - sus, come thou gen - tly down, And fill this hallow'd place: Oh, make thy glo - rious go - ings known, Dif-fuse a-round thy grace.
2. Shine, dear-est Lord, from realms of day, Dis-perse the gloom of night: Chase all our clouds and doubts a - way, And turn the shades to light.
3. Be-hold and pi - ty, from a - bove, Our cold and lan-guid frame; Oh, shed a-broad thy quickening love, And glo - ri - fy thy name.
4. All-glo - rious Sa - viour, source of grace, To thee we raise our cry: Un - veil the beau - ties of thy face To ev' - ry wait - ing eye.

HERBERT. C. M.

1. To calm the sorrows of the mind, Our heavenly Friend is nigh, To wipe the anxious tear that starts Or trembles in the eye, Or trembles in the eye.
2. Thou canst, when anguish rends the heart, The secret woe control; The inward mal - a - dy canst heal, The sickness of the soul, The sickness of the soul.
3. Thou canst repress the rising sigh, Canst soothe each mortal care, And every deep and heart-felt groan Is wafted to thine ear, Is wafted to thine ear.
4. Thy gracious eye is watchful still, Thy potent arm can save From threatening danger and disease, And the devouring grave, And the devour-ing grave.

[H. 642. B. W. 469.]

YORK. C. M.

1. Lord, thou wilt hear me when I pray: I am for - ev - er thine: I fear be - fore thee all the day, Nor would I dare to sin.
2. And while I rest my wea - ry head, From care and busi-ness free, 'Tis sweet con - ver - sing on my bed With my own heart and thee.
3. I pay this even - ing sac - ri - fice; And when my work is done, Great God, my faith, my hope, re - lies Up - on thy grace a - lone.
4. Thus with my thoughts composed to peace, I'll give mine eyes to sleep; Thy hand in safe - ty keeps my days, And will my slum-bers keep!

JOHN COLE.

When all thy mercies, O my God, My ris - ing soul sur-veys, Transported with the view, I'm lost In won - der, love, and praise.

When all thy mercies, O my God, My ris - ing soul surveys, Trans-port - ed with the view, I'm lost In won - der, love, and praise.

When all thy mer-cies, O my God, My ris - ing soul surveys, Transport - ed with the view, I'm lost In won - der, love, and praise.

1. "Proclaim," said Christ, "God's wondrous grace To all the sons of men; He who be-lieves and is bap-tized, Sal-va-tion shall ob-tain."

2. Let plenteous grace de-scend on those Who, hop-ing in his word, This day have pub-lic-ly de-clared That Je-sus is their Lord.

3. With cheer-ful feet may they go on, And run the Chris-tian race; And in the troubles of the way Find all-suf-fi-cient grace.

4. And when the aw-ful mes-sage comes To call their souls a-way, May they be found pre-pared to live In realms of end-less day.

[H. 676. B. W. 419.] COLESHILL. C. M.

1. 'Tis hard to part with those we love, Who weep be-side our bed, Whose tears be-dew our burn-ing brow, Whose arm sup-ports our head.

2. When fad-ing from the diz-zy view, I sought their forms in vain; The bit-ter-ness of death I knew, And groan'd to live a-gain.

3. 'Tis dread-ful when th' ac-cu-ser's power As-sails the sink-ing heart, Re-call-ing ev'-ry wast-ed hour And each un-wor-thy part.

4. Yet, Je-sus, in that mor-tal fray, Thy bless-ed com-fort stole, Like sun-shine in an au-tumn day, A-cross my dark-en'd soul.

ROEDEL. C. M.

B. F. SCHNECK.

1. We sing th'almighty pow'r of God, Who bade the mountains rise, Who spread the flowing seas abroad, And built the lof - ty skies, And built the lof - ty skies.
2. We sing the wisdom that ordain'd The sun to rule the day; The moon shines full at his command, And all the stars o - bey, And all the stars o - bey.
3. We sing the goodness of the Lord, Who fills the earth with food; Who form'd his creatures by a word, And then pronounced them good, And then pronounced them good.
4. Lord, how thy wonders are display'd Where'er we turn our eyes, Whether we view the ground we tread, Or gaze up-on the skies! Or gaze up - on the skies!

JOSEPHINE. C. M.

W. D. R.

1. Ye hum - ble souls that seek the Lord, Chase all your fears a - way, And bow with plea - sure down to see The place where Je - sus lay.
2. Thus low the Lord of life was brought, Such won - ders love can do! Thus cold in death that bo - som lay Which throbb'd and bled for you!
3. A mo - ment give a loose to grief; Let grate - ful sor - rows rise; And wash the blood - y stains a - way With tor - rents from your eyes.
4. Then dry your tears, and tune your songs, The Sa - viour lives a - gain! Not all the bolts and bars of death The Con-queror could de - tain.

FLORENCE. C. M.

1. Ye trem - bling souls! dis - miss your fears; Be mer - cy all your theme; Mer - cy, which, like a riv - er, flows In one con - ti-nued stream.

2. Fear not the powers of earth and hell: God will these powers re - strain, His might - y arm their rage re - pel, And make their ef - forts vain.

3. Fear not the want of out - ward good; He still for his pro - vides, Grants them sup-plies of dai - ly food, And gives them heaven be - sides.

4. Fear not that he will e'er for - sake, Or leave his word un - done; He's faith - ful to his pro - mi - ses, And faith - ful to his Son.

BYEFIELD. C. M.

1. Prayer is the soul's sin - cere de - sire, Ut - ter'd or un - express'd, The mo - tion of a hid - den fire That slum - bers in the breast.
2. Prayer is the bur - den of a sigh, The fall - ing of a tear, The up - ward glan - cing of an eye, When none but God is near.

3. Prayer is the sim - plest form of speech That in - fant lips can try; Prayer the sub - limest strains that reach The ma - jes - ty on high.

4. Prayer is the Christian's vi - tal breath, The Chris - tian's na - tive air, His watch-word at the gates of death: He en - ters heaven with prayer.
5. Prayer is the con - trite sin - ner's voice Re - turn - ing from his ways, While an - gels in their songs re - joice, And say, "Be - hold, he prays."

1. Dear Re-fuge of my wea - ry soul, On thee, when sor-rows rise, On thee, when waves of trou-ble roll, My faint-ing hope re - lies.
2. To thee I tell each ris - ing grief, For thou a - lone canst heal; Thy word can bring a sweet re - lief For ev' - ry pain I feel.
3. But, oh, when gloomy doubts pre - vail, I fear to call thee mine; The springs of com-fort seem to fail, And all my hopes de - cline.
4. Yet, gra-cious God, where shall I flee? Thou art my on - ly trust; And still my soul would cleave to thee, Though prostrate in the dust.

SECRET PRAYER. C. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. O thou from whom all goodness flows, I lift my soul to thee, In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes, O Lord, re - mem - ber me. Remember me, remember me.
2. When on my ach-ing, burden'd heart My sins lie hea - vi - ly, Thy pardon grant, new peace im-part; O Lord, re - mem - ber me. Remember me, remember me.
3. When tri - als sore obstruct my way, And ills I can - not flee, Oh, let my strength be as my day: Dear Lord, re - mem - ber me! Remember me, remember me.
4. When worn with pain, dis-ease, and grief This feeble frame shall be, Grant patience, rest, and kind re-lief; Dear Lord, re - mem - ber me! Remember me, remember me.

VARINA. C. M. Double.

From RINK, by G. F. ROOT.

1. There is a land of pure de-light, Where saints im-mor-tal reign; In-fi-nite day ex-cludes the night, And plea-sures ban-ish pain.

3. Sweet fields, be-yond the swell-ing flood, Stand dress'd in liv-ing green; So to the Jews old Ca-naan stood, While Jor-dan roll'd be-tween.

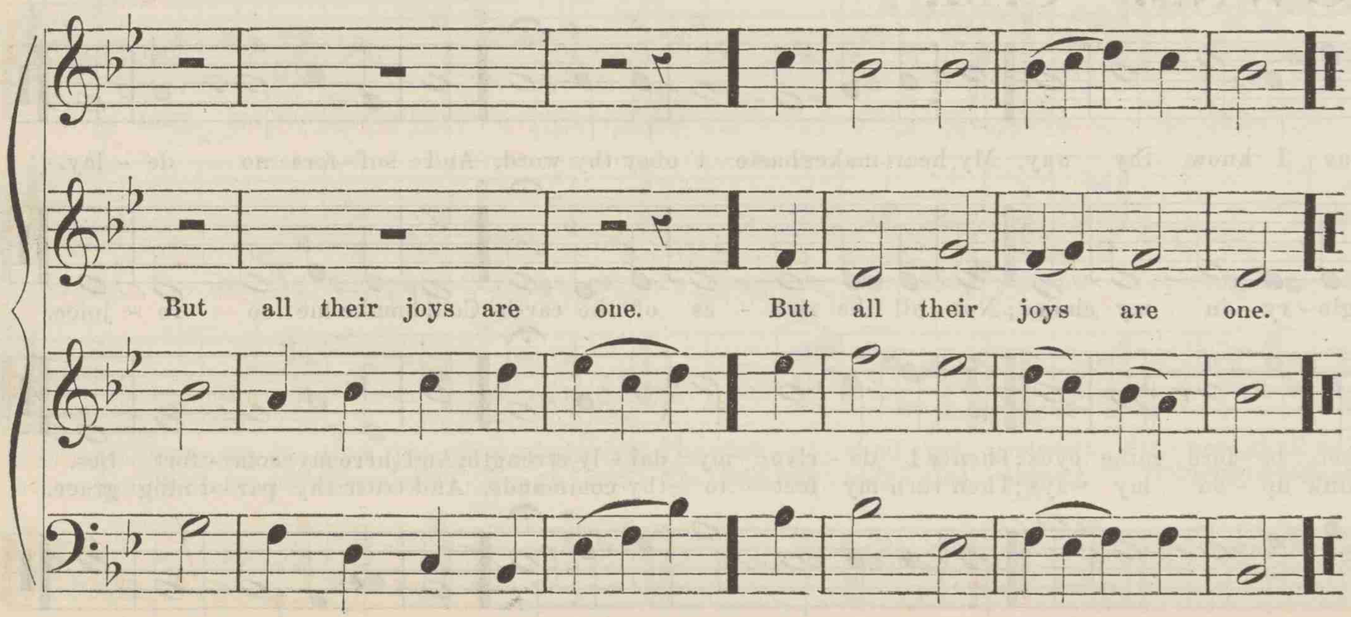
5. Oh! could we make our doubts re-move, Those gloom-y doubts that rise, And view the Ca-naan that we love, With un-be-cloud-ed eyes!

2. There ev-er-last-ing spring abides, And nev-er-withering flowers: Death, like a nar-row sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.

4. But timorous mor-tals start and shrink, To cross this nar-row sea; And lin-ger, shivering, on the brink, And fear to launch a-way.

6. Could we but climb where Mo-ses stood, And view the land-scape o'er, Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood, Should fright us from the shore.

MOUNT PLEASANT. C. M.



2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
To be exalted thus:
"Worthy the Lamb," our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of Him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

1. What shall I ren - der to my God For all his kind - ness shown? My feet shall vi - sit thine a - bode, My songs ad - dress thy throne.
2. A - mong the saints that fill thy house, My off'-rings shall be paid; There shall my zeal per - form the vows My soul in an-guish made.
3. Now I am thine, for - ev - er thine, Nor shall my pur - pose move; Thy hand hath loosed my bonds of pain, And bound me with thy love.
4. Here in thy courts I leave my vow, And thy rich grace re - cord; Wit - ness, ye saints, that hear me now, If I for - sake the Lord.

WARWICK. C. M.

STANLEY.

1. Lord, in the morn-ing thou shalt hear My voice as - cend - ing high; To thee will I di - rect my prayer, To thee lift up mine eye.
2. Up to the hills where Christ has gone To plead for all his saints, Pre - sent - ing at his Fa-ther's throne Our songs and our com - plaints.
3. Thou art a God be - fore whose sight The wick - ed shall not stand: Sin - ners shall ne'er be thy de - light, Nor dwell at thy right hand.
4. But to thy house will I re - sort To taste thy mer - cies there; I will fre-quent thy ho - ly court, And wor - ship in thy fear.

FORNEY. C. M.

Altered and arranged from a German tune, by W. D. R.

1. Come, dear - est Lord, and feed thy sheep On this sweet day of rest; Oh, bless this flock, and make this fold En - joy a heaven - ly rest.

2. Wel - come and pre - cious to my soul Are these sweet days of love; But what a Sab - bath shall I keep When I shall rest a - bove!

3. I come, I wait, I hear, I pray, Thy foot-steps, Lord, I trace; Here, in thy own ap - point-ed way, I wait to see thy face.

4. These are the sweet and pre - cious days On which my Lord I've seen; And oft, when feast-ing on his word, In rap - tures I have been.

BEMERTON. C. M.

1. See Is-rael's gen - tle Shepherd stand, With all - en - gag - ing charms! Hark! how he calls the ten - der lambs, And takes them in his arms!
2. "Permit them to approach," (he cries,) "Nor scorn their hum - ble name; It was to save such souls as these, With power and love I came."
3. We bring them, Lord, with grateful hearts, And yield them up to thee; Re-joiced that we ourselves are thine, Thine let our off-spring be!
4. Ye lit - tle flock, with pleasure hear; Ye chil-dren, seek his face; And fly, with transport, to re - ceive The gos - pel of his grace.
5. If orphans they are left be - hind, Thy care, O God! we trust; And let thy pro-mise cheer our hearts, If weep-ing o'er their dust.

HADLEIGH. C. M.

1. Ear - ly, my God, without de - lay, I haste to seek thy face; My thirsty spirit faints away Without thy cheering grace, Without thy cheering grace.

2. So pilgrims on the scorching sand, Be - neath a burn - ing sky, Long for a cooling stream at hand, And they must drink or die, And they must drink or die.

3. I've seen thy glo - ry and thy power Through all thy tem - ple shine; My God, repeat that heavenly hour, That vision so divine, That vi - sion so di - vine.

4. Not all the bless-ings of a feast Can please my soul so well, As when thy richer grace I taste And in thy presence dwell, And in thy presence dwell.

ANTIOCH. C. M.

Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

3.

No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground:
He comes to make his blessings flow,
Far as the curse is found.

4.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

PLEYEL.

1. While thee I seek, pro - tect - ing Power! Be my vain wish - es still'd; And may this con - se - crat - ed hour With bet - ter hopes be fill'd.

3. In each e - vent of life, how clear Thy rul - ing hand I see! Each blessing to my soul most dear, Be-cause be - stow'd by thee.

5. When gladness wings the fa-vor'd hour, Thy love my thoughts shall fill: Resign'd, when storms of sor - row lower, My soul shall meet thy will.

2. Thy love the powers of thought bestow'd; To thee my thoughts would soar: Thy mer - cy o'er my life has flow'd; That mer - cy I a - dore.

4. In ev' - ry joy that crowns my days, In ev' - ry pain I bear, My heart shall find de-light in praise, Or seek re - lief in prayer.

6. My lift - ed eye, with-out a tear, The lower - ing storm shall see, My stead-fast heart shall know no fear: That heart will rest on thee.

ZANESVILLE. C. M.

1. A - gain the Lord of life and light A - wakes the kin - dling ray; Dis - pels the dark-ness of the night, And pours in - creas-ing day.
2. Oh, what a night was that which wrapp'd A sin-ful world in gloom! Oh, what a sun that broke, this day, Tri - umph - ant from the tomb!
3. This day be grate-ful hom-age paid, And loud ho - san - nas sung: Let glad - ness dwell in ev' - ry heart, And praise on ev' - ry tongue.
4. Ten thou - sand thou-sand lips shall join To hail this wel - come morn, Which scat-ters bless-ings from its wings To na - tions yet un-born.

NICHOLS. C. M.

1. The Spirit breathes up-on the word, And brings the truth to sight; Precepts and promis - es af - ford A sanc-ti-fy-ing light, A sanc-ti-fy-ing light.
2. A glo-ry gilds the sa-cred page, Ma - jes - tic like the sun; It gives a light to ev' - ry age, It gives—but borrows none, It gives—but borrows none.
3. The hand that gave it still sup - plies The gracious light and heat; His truths upon the na - tions rise, They rise but never set, They rise but never set.
4. Let ev-er - last - ing thanks be thine, For such a bright display As makes a world of darkness shine With beams of heavenly day. With beams of heavenly day.

[H. 28. B. W. 18.]

CHRISTMAS. C. M.

HANDEL.

1. Ho - ly and reverend is the name Of our e - ter-nal King; Thrice ho-ly, Lord! the angels cry; Thrice ho-ly, let us sing, Thrice ho-ly, let us sing.

2. Ho - ly is he in all his works, And saints are his de - light; But sinners and their wicked ways Are hateful in his sight, Are hateful in his sight.

3. The deepest reverence, homage, love, Pay, O my soul, to God; Lift with thy hands a ho - ly heart To his sublime abode, To his sublime a-bode.
4. Thou righteous God! preserve my mind From all pol - lu - tion free; Thine image form within my breast, That I thy face may see, That I thy face may see.

[H. 601. B. W. 479.]

CROSS AND CROWN. C. M.

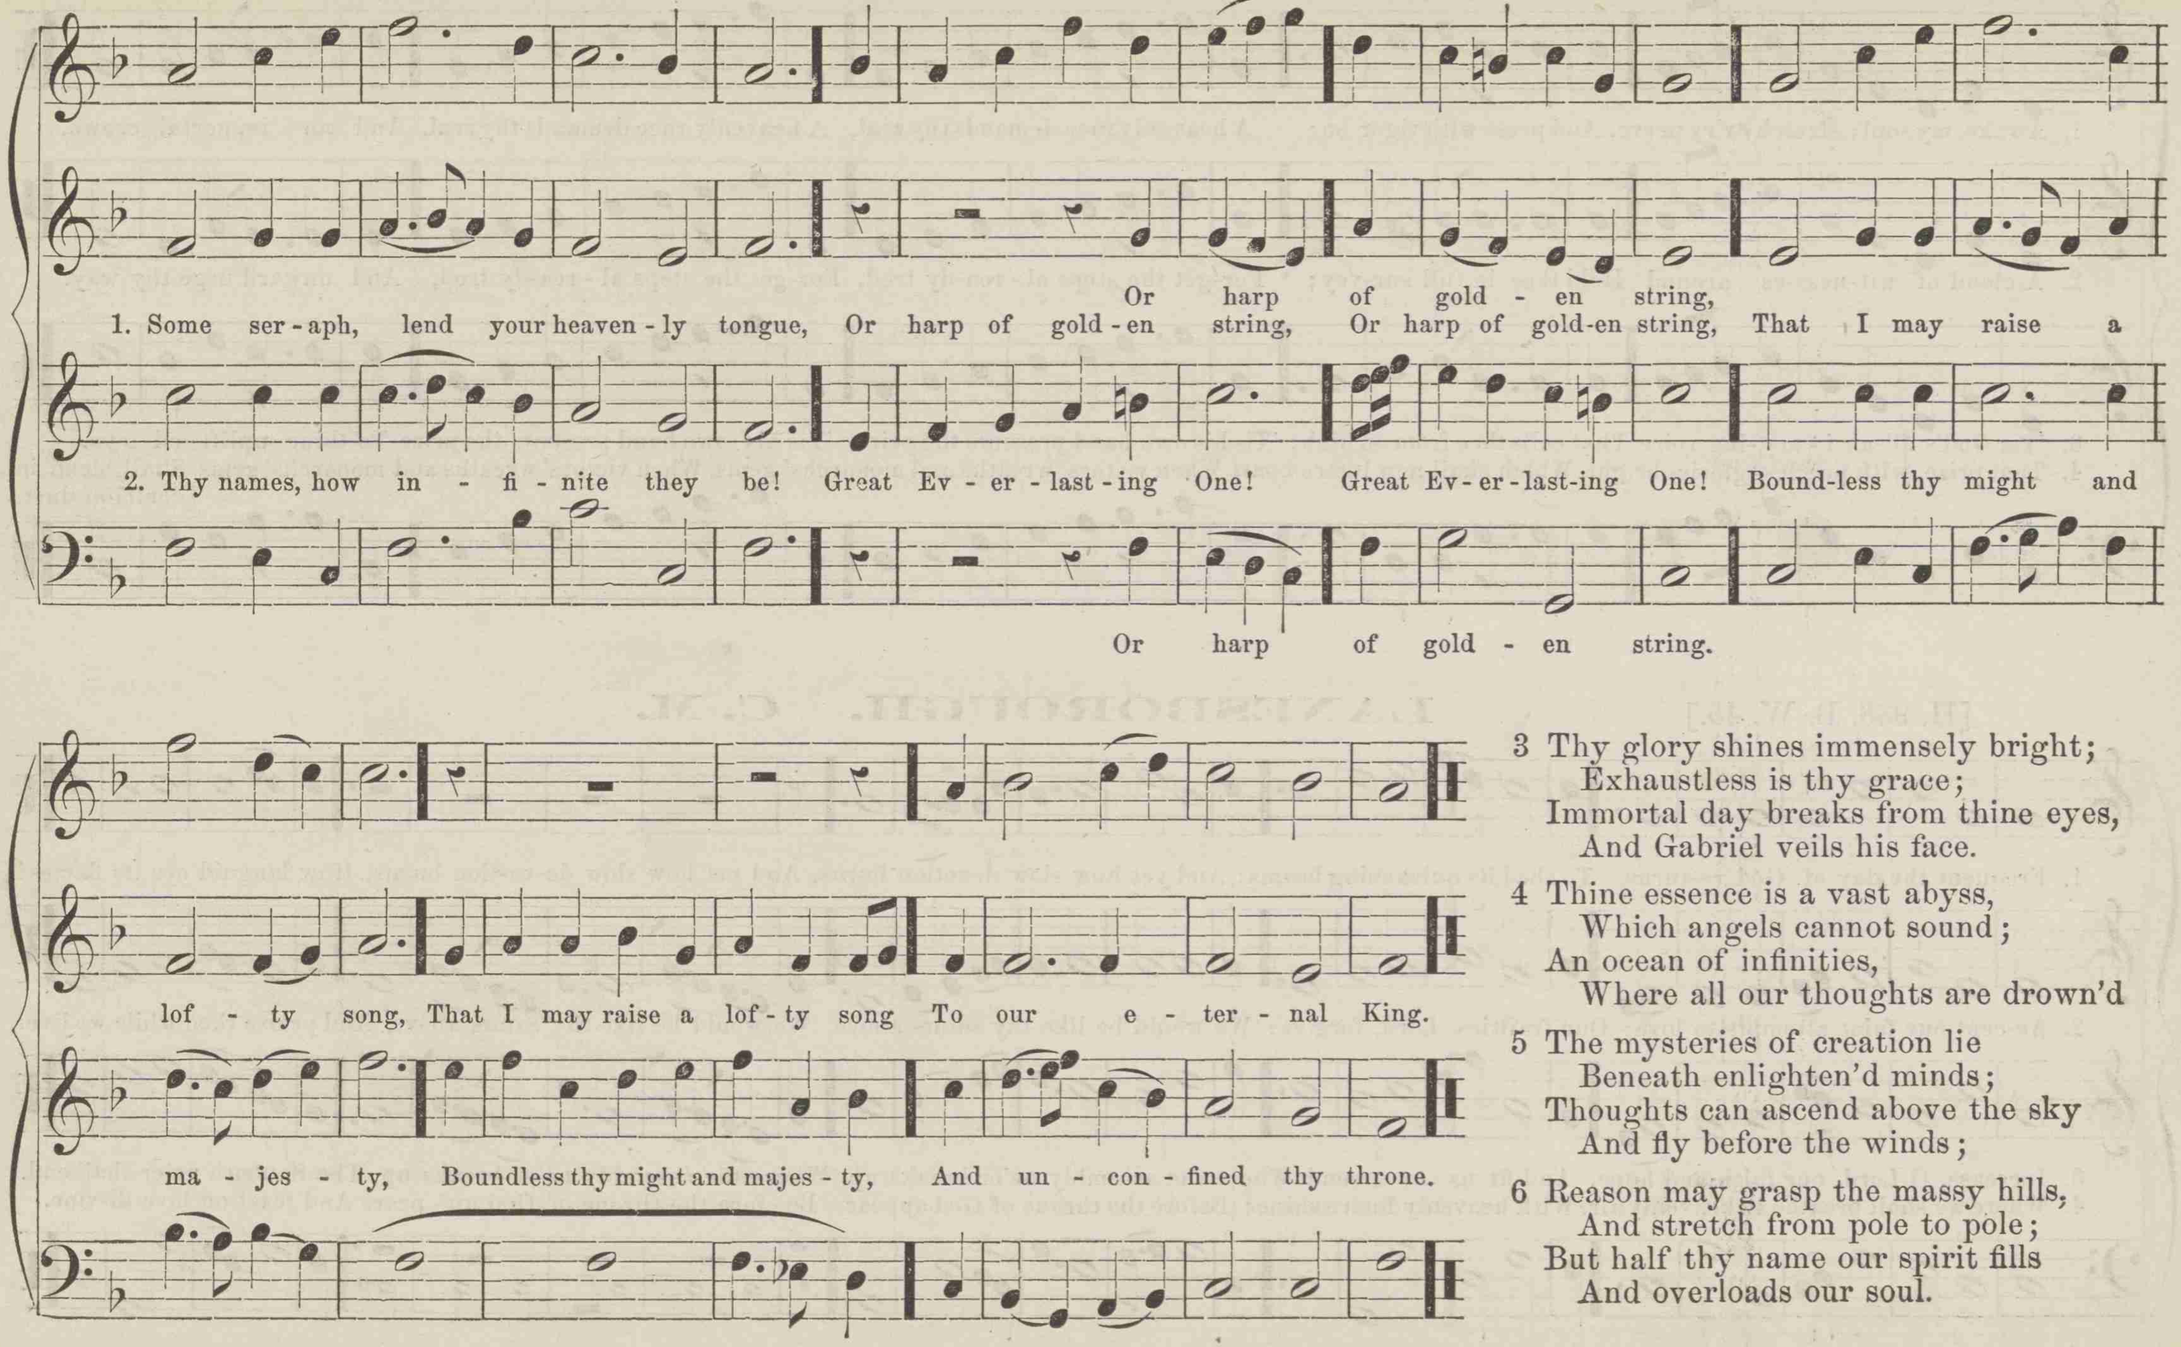
Western Melody.

1. When ver-dure clothes the fer - tile vale, And blossoms deck the spray, And fragrance breathes in ev' - ry gale, How sweet the ver - nal day!

2. Hark! how the feather'd war-blers sing! 'Tis na-ture's cheerful voice; Soft mu - sic hails the love - ly spring, And woods and fields re - joice.

3. O God of na - ture and of grace, Thy heavenly gifts im - part; Then shall my me - di - ta - tion trace Spring blooming in my heart.
4. In - spired to praise, I then shall join Glad na-ture's cheerful song, And love and gra - ti - tude di - vine At - tune my joy - ful tongue.

ANNAPOLIS. C. M.



3 Thy glory shines immensely bright;
Exhaustless is thy grace;
Immortal day breaks from thine eyes,
And Gabriel veils his face.

4 Thine essence is a vast abyss,
Which angels cannot sound;
An ocean of infinities,
Where all our thoughts are drown'd

5 The mysteries of creation lie
Beneath enlighten'd minds;
Thoughts can ascend above the sky
And fly before the winds;

6 Reason may grasp the massy hills,
And stretch from pole to pole;
But half thy name our spirit fills
And overloads our soul.

[H. 349. B. W. 155.]

RUTHRAUFF. C. M.

1. Plunged in a gulf of dark de-spair We wretch-ed sin-ners lay, With-out one cheer-ful beam of hope Or spark of glimmering day.
2. With pitying eyes, the Prince of Grace Be-held our help-less grief; He saw, and (oh, a-maz-ing love!) He ran to our re-lief.
3. Down from the shin-ing seats a-bove With joy-ful haste he fled; Enter'd the grave in mor-tal flesh, And dwelt a-mong the dead.
4. He spoil'd the powers of dark-ness thus, And brake our i-ron chains; Je-sus has freed our cap-tive souls From ev-er-last-ing pains.

[H. 672. B. W. 55.]

IRISH. C. M.

1. Lord! I am pain'd; but I re-sign My bo-dy to thy will; 'Tis grace, 'tis wis-dom all-di-vine, Ap-points the pains I feel.
2. Dark are the ways of pro-vi-dence, When those who love thee groan: Thy rea-sons lie con-ceal'd from sense, Mys-te-rious and un-known.
3. Yet na-ture may have leave to speak, And plead be-fore her God; Else would th'o'erburthen'd spi-rit break Be-neath his heav-y rod.
4. The mournful groans and flow-ing tears Give my poor spi-rit ease; While ev'-ry groan my Fa-ther hears, And ev'-ry tear he sees.
5. Is not some smil-ing hour at hand, With peace up-on its wings? Give it, O God! thy swift com-mand, With all the joys it brings.

[H. 637. B. W. 524.]

ASHLAND. C. M.

MEINEKE.

3.

Minutes and mercies multiplied
Have made up all this day;
Minutes came quick, but mercies were
More fleet and free than they.

4.

New time, new favors, and new joys
Do a new song require;
Till we shall praise thee as we would,
Accept our hearts' desire.

5.

Lord of our time, whose hand hath set
New time upon our score,
Thee may we praise for all our time,
When time shall be no more.

[H. 206. B. W. 473.]

BURFORD. C. M.

1. As on the cross the Sa - viour hung, And wept, and bled, and died, He pour'd sal - va - tion on a wretch That languish'd at his side.

2. His crimes, with in - ward grief and shame, The pen - i - tent con - fess'd, Then turn'd his dy - ing eyes to Christ, And thus his prayer address'd:

3. "Je - sus, thou Son and heir of heaven! Thou spot - less Lamb of God! I see thee bathed in sweat and tears, And wel - t'ring in thy blood.

4. "Yet quick - ly from these scenes of woe In tri - umph thou shalt rise, Burst through the gloom-y shades of death, And shine a - bove the skies.

[H. 82. B. W. 77.]

ST. ANN'S. C. M.

Dr. CROFT.

1. Thy way, O God, is in the sea, Thy paths I can - not trace, Nor com - pre - hend the mys - te - ry Of thine unbound - ed grace.

2. Here the dark veils of flesh and sense My cap - tive soul sur - round; Mys - te - rious deeps of prov - i - dence My wondering thoughts confound.

3. As through a glass, I dim - ly see The won - ders of thy love: How lit - tle do I know of thee, Or of the joys a - bove!

4. 'Tis but in part I know thy will: I bless thee for the sight; When will thy love the rest re - veal, In glo - ry's clear - er light?

[H. 513. B. W, 261.]

ROMBERG. C. M.

1. Ac - cord - ing to thy gra - cious word, In meek hu - mi - li - ty, This will I do, my dy - ing Lord: I will re - mem - ber thee.
2. Thy bo - dy, bro - ken for my sake, My bread from heaven shall be; Thy tes - ta - ment - al cup I take, And thus re - mem - ber thee.
3. Geth-se - ma - ne can I for - get, Or there thy con - flict see, Thine ag - o - ny and blood-y sweat, And not re - mem - ber thee?
4. When to the cross I turn mine eyes, And rest on Cal - va - ry, O Lamb of God, my sa - cri - fice! I must re - mem - ber thee.

[H. 95. B. W. 299.]

ELON. C. M.

1. When in the light of faith di - vine We look on things be - low, Ho - nor, and gold, and sen - sual joy, How vain and dangerous too!
2. Ho-nor's a puff of noi - sy breath; Yet men ex - pose their blood, And ven - ture ev - er - last - ing death, To gain that air - y good.
3. Whilst oth - ers starve the no - bler mind, And feed on shi - ning dust, They sa - cri - fice e - ter - nal bliss To mean and sor - did lust.
4. The pleasures that al - lure our sense Are dangerous snares to souls; There's but a drop of flatter - ing sweet, And dash'd with bit - ter bowls.

1. Come, let us lift our voi-ces high, High as our joys a-rise, And join the songs above the sky, Where pleasure nev-er dies, Where pleasure nev-er dies.

2. Je-sus, the Lord, that fought and bled, How kind his smiles appear! What melting, soothing words he says To ev'-ry hum-ble ear, To ev'-ry hum-ble ear!

3. "For you, the objects of my love, It was for you I died; Be-hold my hands, behold my feet, And look in-to my side, And look in-to my side.
4. "These are the wounds for you I bore, The to-kens of my pains, When I was sent to free your souls From mi-se-ry and chains, From mi-se-ry and chains."

[H. 313. B. W. 359.] PETERBOROUGH. C. M.

1. Faith adds new charms to earth-ly bliss, And saves me from its snares; Its aid in ev'-ry du-ty brings, And soft-ens all my cares;

2. Ex-tin-guish-es the thirst of sin, And lights the sa-cred fire Of love to God and heaven-ly things, And feeds the pure de-sire.

3. The wounded conscience knows its power The heal-ing balm to give; That balm the saddest heart can cheer, And make the dy-ing live.
4. Wide it un-veils ce-les-tial worlds, Where deathless pleasures reign, And bids me seek my por-tion there, Nor bids me seek in vain.

[H. 64. B. W. 156.]

CAMBRIDGE. C. M.

Dr. RANDALL.

1. What is the thing of greatest price, The whole creation round? That which was lost in Pa-ra-dise, That which in Christ is found: That which in Christ is found.

2. The soul of man,—Jehovah's breath,—That keeps two worlds at strife; Hell moves beneath to work its death; Heaven stoops to give it life, Heaven stoops to give it life.

3. God, to redeem it, did not spare His well-be-lov-ed Son; Je-sus, to save it, deign'd to bear The sins of all in one, The sins of all in one.

4. And is this treasure borne be-low, In earth-en ves-sels frail? Can none its utmost va-lue know, Till flesh and spirit fail? Till flesh and spi-rit fail?

[H. 710. B. W. 473.]

GREENWALD. C. M.

German Choral, harmonized by RINK.

1. Must friends and kindred droop and die And help-less be with-drawn, While sor-row, with a weep-ing eye, Counts up our com-forts gone?

2. Be thou our comfort, might-y God! Our help-er and our friend; Nor leave us in this dangerous road, Till all our tri-als end.

3. Oh, may our feet pursue the way Our pi-ous fa-thers led; While love and ho-ly zeal o-bey The coun-sels of the dead.

4. Let us be wean'd from earthly joys; Let hope our grief dis-pel: The dead in Je-sus shall a-rise In end-less bliss to dwell.

DUNDEE. C. M.

1. Al - might - y Fa - ther! gra - cious Lord! Kind guard-ian of my days! Thy mer - cies let my heart re - cord In songs of grate - ful praise.

2. In life's first dawn, my ten - der frame Was thine in - dul - gent care, Long ere I could pronounce thy name Or breathe the in - fant prayer.

3. When rea - son with my sta - ture grew, How weak her bright - est ray! How lit - tle of my God I knew! How apt from thee to stray!

4. A - round my path what dan - gers rose! What snares o'erspread my road! No power could guard me from my foes, But my pre - ser - ver, God.

BROWN. C. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. I love to steal a while a - way From ev' - ry cum - b'ring care, And spend the hours of set - ting day In hum - ble, grate - ful prayer.

2. I love in sol - i - tude to shed The pen - i - ten - tial tear, And all his pro - mi - ses to plead, Where none but God can hear.

3. I love to think on mer - cies past, And fu - ture good im - plore, And all my cares and sor - rows cast On Him whom I a - dore.

4. I love, by faith, to take a view Of bright - er scenes in heaven; The pros - pect does my strength re-new, While here by tem-pests driven.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er, May its de - part ing ray Be calm as this im-press - ive hour, And lead to end - less day.

BROOMSGROVE. C. M.

MARTYRS. C. M.

Scottish Tune.

1. Thee we a - dore, e - ter - nal Name, And hum - bly own to thee How fee - ble is our mor - tal frame, What dy - ing worms are we.

2. Our wast - ing lives are short'ning still As months and days increase; And ev' - ry beat - ing pulse we tell Leaves but the num - ber less.

4. Great God, on what a slen - der thread Hang ev - er - last - ing things! Th'e - ter - nal states of all the dead Up - on life's fee - ble strings.

5. Yet while a world of joy or woe De - pends on ev' - ry breath, Thoughtless and un - concern'd we go Up - on the brink of death.

[H. 718. B. W. 558.]

CHINA. C. M.

SWAN.

1. Why do we mourn de-part - ing friends, Or shake at death's a - larms? Tis but the voice that Je - sus sends To call them to his arms, [to his arms.]

2. Are we not tend-ing up-ward, too, As fast as time can move? Nor would we wish the hours more slow, To keep us from our love.

3. Why should we tremble to con-vey Their bod - ies to the tomb? There the dear flesh of Je - sus lay, His light dispell'd its gloom.

4. The graves of all his saints he blest, And soften'd ev'-ry bed: Where should the dy - ing mem-bers rest, But with the dy-ing Head?

[H. 103. B. W. 232.]

BETHLEHEM. C. M.

MADAN.

"This day almighty love fulfils
Its great eternal word;
This day is born in Bethlehem
A Saviour, Christ the Lord.

5.

"There shall you find the heavenly babe
In humblest weeds array'd,
All meanly wrapp'd in swaddling clothes,
And in a manger laid."

6.

He ceased, and sudden all around
Appear'd a radiant throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus
Warbling their choral song:—

7.

"Glory to God, from whom on high
All gracious mercies flow!
Who sends his heaven-descended peace
To dwell with men below."

LEBANON. C. M.

1. Long as I live, I'll bless thy name, My King, my God of love; My work and joy shall be the same In brighter worlds a - bove.

2. Great is the Lord—his power unknown; Oh, let his praise be great; I'll sing the hon - ors of thy throne, Thy works of grace re - peat.

3. Thy grace shall dwell up - on my tongue; And while my lips re - joice, The men who hear my sa - cred song Shall join their cheer - ful voice.

[H. 715. B. W. 479.]

MARLOW. C. M. (Minor.)

1. When blooming youth is snatch'd a - way By death's re - sist - less hand, Our hearts the mourn - ful tri - bute pay Which pi - ty must de - mand.
2. While pi - ty prompts the ris - ing sigh, Oh, may this truth, im - prest With aw - ful power, "I too must die!" Sink deep in ev' - ry breast.

3. Let this vain world de - lude no more: Be - hold the gap - ing tomb! It bids us seize the present hour, To - mor - row death may come.

4. The voice of this a - larm-ing scene May ev' - ry heart o - bey; Nor be the heaven - ly warn-ing vain, Which calls to watch and pray.
5. Oh, let us fly, to Je - sus fly, Whose power-ful arm can save! Then shall our hopes as - cend on high, And tri - umph o'er the grave.

BOWLY. C. M.

MEINEKE.

3.
He darts along the burning skies;
Loud thunders round him roar:
All heaven attends him as he flies,
All hell proclaims his power.

He scatters nations with his breath,
The scatter'd nations fly;
Dire pestilence and wasting death
Confess the Godhead nigh.

5.
Ye worlds, with every living thing,
Fulfil his high command;
Mortals, pay homage to your King,
And own his ruling hand.

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all, And crown him Lord of all.
2. Crown him, ye morning stars of light, Who fix'd this floating ball; Now hail the strength of Israel's might, And crown him Lord of all, And crown him Lord of all.
3. Ye chosen seed of Adam's race, Ye ransom'd from the fall; Hail him who saves you by his grace, And crown him Lord of all, And crown him Lord of all.
4. Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget The wormwood and the gall, Go, spread your trophies at his feet, And crown him Lord of all, And crown him Lord of all.
5. Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe, On this terrestrial ball, To him all ma - jes - ty ascribe, And crown him Lord of all, And crown him Lord of all.

[H. 26. B. W. 57.] BARBY. C. M. TANSUR.

1. Lord, all I am is known to thee! In vain my soul would try To shun thy pre-sence, or to flee The no - tice of thine eye.
2. Thine all-sur-round-ing sight sur - veys My ris - ing and my rest, My pub - lic walks, my private ways, And se - crets of my breast.
3. My thoughts lie o - pen to thee, Lord, Be - fore they're form'd with - in; And ere my lips pro-nounce the word, Thou know'st the sense I mean.
4. Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high! Where can a crea - ture hide? With-in thy circling arms I lie, Be - set on ev' - ry side.
5. So let thy grace surround me still, And like a bul - wark prove, To guard my soul from ev' - ry ill, Se - cured by sovereign love.

[H. 620. B. W. 39.]

MELBOURN. C. M.

English Tune.

1. To thee let my first offer-ings rise, Whose sun cre - ates my day; Swift as the gladdening influence flies,
2. This day thy favor-ing hand be nigh, So oft vouchsafed be - fore! Still may it lead, pro - tect, sup - ply,
3. If bliss thy pro - vi - dence im - part, For which, re - sign'd, I pray, Give me to feel the grate - ful heart,
4. Af - flic - tion shouldst thou please to send, As sin's or fol - ly's cure, Pa - tient, to gain that bless - ed end,

Swift as the gladdening in - fluence flies, Swift as the gladdening in - fluence flies, And spot - less as his ray.
Still may it lead, pro - tect, sup - ply, Still may it lead, pro - tect, sup - ply, And I that hand a - dore.
Give me to feel the grate-ful heart, Give me to feel the grate - ful heart That, with - out guilt, is gay.
Pa - tient, to gain that bless - ed end, Pa - tient, to gain that bless - ed end, May I the means en - dure.

1. Bright Source of ever - last - ing love! To thee our souls we raise; And to thy matchless bounty rear A mon - u-ment of praise, A mon - u - ment of praise.
2. Thy mer - cy gilds the path of life With ev' - ry cheer-ing ray; Kind-ly restrains the ris - ing tear, Or wipes that tear a-way, Or wipes that tear a - way.
3. When, sunk in guilt, our race approach'd The borders of de-spair, Thy grace through Jesus' blood proclaim'd A free salvation near, A free sal - va - tion near.
4. What shall we render, bounteous Lord, For all the grace we see? Alas! the goodness worms can yield Ex - tend-eth not to thee, Ex - tend-eth not to thee.

[H. 356. B. W. 105.] LYDIA. C. M. C. L.

1. Thou Lord of all the worlds on high, Al - low my hum - ble claim; Nor, while a child would raise its cry, Disdain a Father's name, Disdain a Father's name.
2. My Father, God, how sweet the sound! How tender and how dear! Not all the mel-o - dy of heaven Could so delight the ear, Could so de - light the ear.
3. Come, Sacred Spi - rit, seal the name On my be - liev - ing heart, And show that in Jehovah's grace I share a filial part, I share a fi - lial part.
4. By such a heaven - ly sig - nal cheer'd, Unwavering, I be - lieve, And Abba, Father, humbly cry; Nor can the sound deceive, Nor can the sound deceive.

[H. 410. B. W. 429.]

RISSAH. C. M.

1. My drow - sy powers, why sleep ye so? A - wake, my slug - gish soul! No - thing has half thy work to do, Yet no - thing's half so dull.

2. The lit - tle ants, for one poor grain, La - bor, and toil, and strive; Yet we, who have a heaven t'ob-tain, How neg - li - gent we live!

3. We, for whose sake all na - ture stands, And stars their cour - ses move; We, for whose guards the an - gel bands Come fly - ing from a - bove;
4. We, for whom God the Son came down, And la - bor'd for our good, How care - less to se - cure that crown He purchased with his blood!

[H. 470. B. W. 342.]

VULPIUS. C. M.

1. And let this fee - ble bo - dy fail, And let it faint or die; My soul shall quit the mourn-ful vale And soar to worlds on high:

2. Shall join the dis - em - bo - died saints, And find its long-sought rest, That on - ly bliss for which it pants, In the Re-deem-er's breast.

3. In hope of that im - mor - tal crown, I now the cross sus - tain, And glad - ly wan - der up and down, And smile at toil and pain:
4. I suf - fer on my three-score years Till my De - liv' - rer come, And wipe a - way his ser-vant's tears And take his ex - ile home.

ST. JOHN'S. C. M.

English Tune.

1. Songs of im-mor-tal praise be-long To my al-might-y God: He hath my heart, and he my tongue, To spread his name a-broad.
2. How great the works his hand hath wrought! How glo-rious in our sight! And men in ev'-ry age have sought His won-ders with de-light.
3. How most ex-act is na-ture's frame! How wise th'e-ter-nal mind! His coun-sels nev-er change the scheme That his first thoughts design'd.
4. When he redeem'd the sons of men, He fix'd his covenant sure: The or-ders that his lips pro-nounce To end-less years en-dure.

[H. 524. B. W. 203.]

ORTONVILLE. C. M.

Dr. HASTINGS.

1. Lord, at thy ta-ble I be-hold The wonders of thy grace; But most of all admire that I Should find a welcome place, Should find a wel-come place.
2. I, that am all de-fil'd with sin, A re-bel to my God; I, that have cru-ci-fied his Son, And trampled on his blood, And trampled on his blood.
3. What strange, surprising grace is this, That such a soul has room! My Saviour takes me by the hand, My Je-sus bids me come, My Je-sus bids me come.
4. "Eat, O my friend," the Saviour cries, "The feast was made for you; For you I groan'd and bled and died, And rose and triumph'd too, And rose and triumph'd too."
5. With trembling faith, and bleeding hearts, Lord, we accept thy love: 'Tis a rich banquet we have had: What will it be a-bove? What will it be a-bove?

[H. 743. B. W. 576.]

MERTON. C. M.

H. K. OLIVER.

1. Ye gold-en lamps of heaven, farewell, With all your fee-ble light; Fare-well, thou ev-er-chang-ing moon, Pale em-press of the night.
2. And thou, re-ful-gent orb of day, In brighter flames ar-ray'd! My soul, which springs beyond thy sphere, No more demands thine aid.
3. Ye stars are but the shin-ing dust Of my di-vine a-bode, The pave-ments of those heaven-ly courts, Where I shall reign with God.
4. The Fa-ther of e-ter-nal light Shall there his beams dis-play; Nor shall one moment's dark-ness mix With that un-va-ried day.

[H. 89. B. W. 109.]

REO. C. M.

Dr. LOWELL MASON.

1. Bless'd with the joys of innocence, Our fa-ther Ad-am stood, Till he debased his soul to sense, Till he debased his soul to sense, And ate th'unlawful food.
2. Now we are born a sensual race, To sin-ful joys in-clined; Reason has lost its native place, Reason has lost its native place, And flesh enslaves the mind.
3. While flesh and sense and passion reign, Sin is the sweetest good: We fancy mu-sic in our chain, We fancy mu-sic in our chain, And so forget the load.
4. Great God, renew our ruin'd frame, Our broken powers re-store, Inspire us with a heavenly flame, Inspire us with a heavenly flame, And flesh shall reign no more.
5. Eternal Spirit, write thy law Up-on our in-ward parts, And let the se-cond Adam draw, And let the se-cond Ad-am draw His image on our hearts.

[H. 721. B. W. 465.]

HEBER. C. M.

1. There is a house not made with hands, E - ter - nal and on high; And here my spi - rit wait-ing stands Till God shall bid it fly.

2. Short - ly this pri - son of my clay Must be dis - solved and fall; Then, O my soul, with joy o - bey Thy heavenly Fa - ther's call.

3. 'Tis he, by his al - might - y grace, That forms thee fit for heaven, And as the ear - nest of the place, Has his own Spi - rit given.

4. We walk by faith of joys to come, Faith lives up - on his word; But while the bo - dy is our home, We're ab - sent from the Lord.

[H. 287. B. W. 406.]

ROCHESTER. C. M.

English Tune.

1. God, my sup-port - er and my hope, My help for - ev - er near! Thine arm of mer - cy held me up, And saves me from de - spair.

2. Thy counsels, Lord! shall guide my feet Through life's dark wil - der - ness; Thy hand con-duct me near thy seat, To dwell be - fore thy face.

3. Were I in heaven with - out my God, 'Twould be no joy to me; And while this earth is my a - bode, I long for none but thee.

6. But to draw near to thee, my God, Shall be my sweet em - ploy; My tongue shall sound thy work a - broad And tell the world my joy.

MARLOW. C. M. (Major.)

Arranged from a Chant.

1. Mis - ta-ken souls, that dream of heaven, And make their emp - ty boast Of in-ward joys and sins forgiven, While they are slaves to lust!

2. Vain are our fan - cies, air - y flights, If faith be cold and dead; None but a liv - ing power u - nites To Christ the liv - ing head:

3. A faith that chan - ges all the heart; A faith that works by love, That bids all sin - ful joys de - part, And lifts the thoughts a - bove.

4. Faith must o - bey our Fa-ther's will, As well as trust his grace: A pardoning God re-quires us still To per-fect ho - li - ness.

[H. 458. B. W. 320.]

WILLOW-DALE. C. M. Double.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Not from the dust af - flic - tion grows, Nor trou - bles rise by chance;
   Yet we are born to care and woes, A sad in - he - rit - ance.
D. C. So grief is root - ed in our souls, And man grows up to mourn.

As sparks break out from burn-ing coals, And still are up-wards borne,

D.C.

3. Yet with my God I leave my cause, And trust his promised grace;
   He rules me by his well-known laws Of love and righteous - ness.
D. C. For death and hell can do no more Than what my Fa - ther please.

Not all the pains that e'er I bore Shall spoil my fu - ture peace;

ARLINGTON. C. M.

Dr. ARNE.

1. Shall a-theists dare in - sult the cross Of our Re - deem - er God? Shall in - fi - dels reproach his laws, Or tram-ple on his blood?

2. What if he chose mys - te - rious ways To cleanse us from our faults? May not the works of sovereign grace Transcend our fee - ble thoughts?

3. What if the gos - pel bids us fight With flesh, and self, and sin? The prize is most di - vine - ly bright Which we are call'd to win.

4. What if the fool - ish and the poor His glo-rious grace par - take? This but confirms his truth the more, For so the pro - phets spake.

1. 'Twas in the watch - es of the night I thought up - on thy power; I kept thy love - ly face in sight A - midst the dark-est hour.

2. My flesh lay rest - ing on my bed, My soul a - rose on high: "My God, my life, my hope," I said, "Bring thy sal - va - tion nigh."

3. My spi - rit la - bors up thy hill, And climbs the heavenly road; But thy right hand up - holds me still, While I pur - sue my God.

4. Thy mer - cy stretch-es o'er my head The sha - dow of thy wings; My heart re - joi - ces in thine aid, My tongue a-wakes and sings.

ST. MARTIN. C. M.

1. Great God! my ear - ly vows to thee With gra - ti - tude I'll bring, And at the ro - sy dawn of day Thy lof - ty prais - es sing.
2. Thou round the heaven - ly arch dost draw A dark and sa - ble veil, And all the beau - ties of the world From mor - tal eyes con-ceal.
3. A-gain the sky with gold - en beams Thy skil - ful hands a-dorn, And paint with cheer - ful splen - dor gay The fair as - cend-ing morn.
4. And as the gloom - y night re-turns, Or smil - ing day renews, Thy constant good - ness still my soul With be - ne - fits pursues.
5. For this will I my vows to thee With eve - ning in - cense bring, And at the ro - sy dawn of day Thy lof - ty prais - es sing.

COVENTRY. C. M.

1. Almight - y God, thy word is cast Like seed up - on the ground; Oh, let the dew of heaven de - scend, And shed its in - fluence round.
2. Let not the foe of Christ and man This ho - ly seed re - move; May it take root in ev' - ry heart, And grow in faith and love.
3. Let not this life's de - ceit - ful cares, Nor world - ly wealth and joy, Nor scorch-ing beam, nor storm - y blast, The ri - sing plants de-stroy.
4. Where'er the word of life is sown, A large in - crease be-stow, That all who hear thy mes - sage, Lord, Its sav - ing power may know.

1. On thee each morn - ing, O my God, My wak - ing thoughts at - tend; In whom are found - ed all my hopes, In whom my wish - es end.
2. My soul, in pleas - ing won - der lost, Thy bound-less love sur - veys, And, fired with grate-ful zeal, pre - pares The sa - cri - fice of praise.
3. When evening slumbers press mine eyes, With thy pro - tec - tion blest, In peace and safe - ty I com - mit My wea - ry limbs to rest.
4. My spi - rit, in thy hands se - cure, Fears no ap-proach - ing ill; For whe - ther wak-ing or a - sleep, Thou, Lord, art with me still.

1. How did my heart re-joice to hear My friends devout-ly say, "In Zi-on let us all ap-pear And keep the so-lemn day!"
2. I love her gates, I love the road; The church, adorn'd with grace, Stands, like a pal-ace built for God, To show his mild-er face.
3. Peace be with-in this sa-cred place, And joy a con-stant guest; With ho-ly gifts and heaven-ly grace Be her at-tend-ants blest.
4. My soul shall pray for Zi-on still, While life or breath re-mains; Here my best friends, my kin-dred, dwell, Here God, my Sa-viour, reigns.

1. Fountain of mercy, God of love, How rich thy bounties are! The rolling seasons, as they move, Proclaim thy constant care, Proclaim thy constant care.
2. When in the bo-som of the earth The sow-er hid the grain, Thy goodness mark'd its secret birth, And sent the early rain, And sent the ear-ly rain.
3. The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was thine; The plants in beau-ty grew; Thou madest refulgent suns to shine, And gavest refreshing dew, And gavest refreshing dew.
4. These various mercies from a-bove Ma-tured the swell-ing grain; A kindly harvest crowns thy love, And plenty fills the plain, And plen-ty fills the plain.
5. We own and bless thy gracious sway; Thy hand all na-ture hails: Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day, Summer nor winter, fails, Summer nor win-ter, fails.

1. This is the day the Lord has made; He calls the hours his own: Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, And praise surround the throne.
2. To-day arose our glorious Head, And death's dread empire fell; To - day the saints his triumph spread, To-day the saints his triumph spread, And all its wonders tell.
3. Hosannah! the a - noint-ed King Ascends his destined throne: To God our grate-ful hom-age bring, To God our grateful homage bring, And his Mes-si-ah own.
4. Blest be the Lord, who came to men With messages of grace: Who came in God his Father's name, Who came in God his Father's name, To save our sinful race.
5. Hosannah in the highest strains The church on earth can raise! The highest heavens in which he reigns, The highest heavens in which he reigns, Shall give him nobler praise.

FIELD. C. M.

1. Oh, the delights, the heavenly joys, The glories, of the place Where Jesus sheds the brightest beams Of his o'erflowing grace! Of his o'erflowing grace!

2. Princes to his imperial name Bend their bright sceptres down; Dominions, thrones, and powers rejoice To see him wear the crown, To see him wear the crown.

3. Arch-an-gels sound his lofty praise Through ev'ry heavenly street, And lay their highest honors down, Submis-sive at his feet, Sub-mis-sive at his feet.

4. While angels shout and praise their King, Let mortals learn their strains; Let all the earth his honors sing; O'er all the earth he reigns, O'er all the earth he reigns.

1. Spi - rit of ho - li - ness, look down, Our faint - ing hearts to cheer; And when we trem - ble at thy frown, Oh, bring thy com-forts near.
2. The fear which thy con-victions wrought, Oh, let thy grace re - move; And may the souls which thou hast taught To weep now learn to love.
3. Now let thy sav - ing mer-cy heal The wounds it made be - fore; Now on our hearts im-press thy seal, That we may doubt no more.
4. Com-plete the work thou hast be - gun, And make our dark-ness light, That we a glo - rious race may run, Till faith be lost in sight.
5. Then as our wondering eyes dis - cern The Lord's un - cloud - ed face, In fit - ter lan - guage we shall learn To sing tri - umph-ant grace.

NEW GABRIEL. C. M.

Well might the heavens with wonder view
A love so strange as thine;
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine.

3.

And didst thou, Saviour, leave the sky,
To sink beneath our woes?
Didst thou descend to bleed and die
For thy rebellious foes?

Oh, may our willing hearts confess
Thy sweet, thy gentle sway;
Glad captives of thy matchless grace,
Thy righteous rule obey.

IVES. C. M.

1. 'Tis sweet to rest in live - ly hope That, when my change shall come, Angels will hov - er round my bed And waft my spi - rit home.

3. Shall see him wear that ve - ry flesh On which my guilt was lain; His love in-tense, his mer - it fresh, As though but new-ly slain.

5. These eyes shall see him in that day, The God that died for me! And all my ris - ing bones shall say, Lord, who is like to thee?

2. There shall my dis-im-pri-son'd soul Behold him and a - dore; Be with his likeness sa - tis-fied, And grieve and sin no more, And grieve and sin no more.

4. Soon too my slumbering dust shall hear The trumpet's quickening sound; And, by my Saviour's power re-built, At his right hand be found, At his right hand be found.

6. If such the views which grace unfolds, Weak as it is be - low, What rap-tures must the church a-bove, In Jesus' presence, know! In Je-sus' presence, know!

4. How shall I leave my tomb? With tri - umph, or re - gret? A fear - ful or a joy - ful doom, A curse or bless - ing meet?

[H. 499. B. W. 202.]

HECK. S. M.

1. I love thy Zi - on, Lord! The house of thine a - bode; The church, O blest Redeemer, saved With thine own precious blood, With thine own precious blood.

2. I love thy church, O God! Her walls be-fore thee stand, Dear as the ap-ple of thine eye, And gra-ven on thy hand, And gra - ven on thy hand.

3. If e'er to bless thy sons My voice or hands de - ny, These hands let useful skill forsake, This voice in silence die, This voice in silence die.

4. If e'er my heart for - get Her wel-fare or her woe, Let ev'-ry joy this heart forsake, And ev'- ry grief o'er - flow, And ev' - ry grief o'er-flow.

[H. 698. B. W. 480.]

CHILDS. S. M.

J. ZUNDEL.

1. Oh, where shall rest be found, Rest for the wea - ry soul? 'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound, Or pierce to ei - ther pole.

2. The world can nev - er give The bliss for which we sigh: 'Tis not the whole of life to live, Nor all of death to die.

3. Beyond this vale of tears There is a life a - bove, Un-mea-sured by the flight of years; And all that life is love.

4. There is a death whose pang Outlasts the fleet - ing breath: Oh, what e - ter - nal hor - rors hang A - round the se - cond death!

[B. W. 356.]

VERNY. S. M.

L. O. EMERSON.

1. O Je - sus, not for pride Or self - ish - ness we meet; For prayer and praise we turn a - side, And worldly thoughts for-get, And worldly thoughts forget.

2. We meet the grace to take Which thou hast free-ly given; We meet on earth for thy dear sake, That we may meet in heaven, That we may meet in heaven.

3. Pre - sent we know thou art; But, oh, thy - self re - veal: Now, Lord, let ev'-ry waiting heart Thy gracious presence feel, Thy gracious presence feel.

4. Oh, may thy quickening voice The death of sin re - move; And bid our inmost souls re - joice In hope of perfect love, In hope of per-fect love.

[H. 291. B. W. 570.]

BEVERLY. S. M.

H. G. NÄGELI.

1. I would, but can - not sing, I would, but can - not pray; For Sa - tan meets me when I try, And frights my soul a - way.

2. I would, but can't re - pent, Though I en - dea - vor oft: This sto - ny heart can ne'er re - lent, Till Je - sus makes it soft.

3. I would, but can - not love, Though woo'd by love di - vine: No ar - gu-ments have power to move A soul so base as mine.

4. I would, but can - not rest In God's most ho - ly will; I know what he appoints is best, Yet mur-mur at it still.

5. Oh, could I but be - lieve! Then all would ea - sy be; I would, but can - not Lord, re - lieve: My help must come from thee!

[H. 292. B. W. 355.]

WOODSIDE. S. M.

1. Be - side the gos - pel pool, Ap-point - ed for the poor, From year to year my helpless soul Has wait - ed for a cure.
2. How oft - en have I seen The heal-ing wa - ters move, And oth - ers round me, stepp-ing in, Their ef - fi - ca - cy prove!
3. But my com-plaints re - main; I feel the ve - ry same, As full of guilt, and fear, and pain, As when at first I came.
4. Oh, would the Lord ap - pear, My ma - la - dy to heal! He knows how long I've languish'd here, And what dis - tress I feel.

[H. 508. B. W. 443.]

GETHER. S. M.

1. Lord! what our ears have heard Our eyes de - light - ed trace, Thy love in long suc - ces - sion shown To ev' - ry faith - ful race.
2. Our children thou dost claim, And mark them out for thine: Ten thousand bless - ings to thy name For goodness so di - vine.
3. Thy covenant may they keep, And bless the hap - py bands Which clo - ser still en-gage our hearts To hon - or thy com-mands.
4. How great thy mer - cies, Lord! How plenteous is thy grace, Which in the pro - mise of thy love Includes our ris - ing race!
5. Our offspring, still thy care, Shall own their fa - thers' God, To lat - est times thy blessings share, And sound thy praise a - broad.

[H. 635. B. W. 522.]

SEIR. S. M.

1. The day is past and gone, The eve-ning shades ap - pear; Oh, may I ev - er keep in mind The night of death draws near.
2. I lay my gar-ments by, Up - on my bed to rest: So death will soon re - move me hence And leave my soul un - drest.
3. Lord, keep me safe this night, Se - cure from all my fears; May an - gels guard me while I sleep, Till morn-ing light ap - pears.
4. And when I ear - ly rise, To view th'un - wearied sun, May I set out to win the prize, And af - ter glo - ry run.

[H. 979. B. W. 466.]

WERDEBAUGH. S. M.

W. D. R.

1. Be - hold, the morn - ing sun Be-gins his glo - rious way; His beams through all the na-tions run, And life and light con - vey.
2. But where the gos - pel comes, It spreads di - vi - ner light; It calls dead sin-ners from their tombs, And gives the blind their sight.
3. How per - fect is thy word! And all thy judgments just! For - ev - er sure thy promise, Lord, And we se-cure - ly trust.
4. My gra - cious God, how plain Are thy di - rec - tions given! Oh, may I nev - er read in vain, But find the path to heaven!

1. How beau - teous are their feet Who stand on Zi - on's hill! Who bring sal - va - tion on their tongues,
2. How charm - ing is their voice! How sweet the ti - dings are! "Zi - on, be - hold thy Sa - viour - King;
3. How hap - py are our ears, That hear this joy - ful sound, Which kings and pro - phets wait - ed for,
4. How bless - ed are our eyes, That see this heaven - ly light! Pro-phets and kings de - sired it long,

And words of peace re - veal, And words of peace re - veal.
He reigns and tri - umphs here, He reigns and tri - umphs here."
And sought, but nev - er found! And sought, but nev - er found!
But died with - out the sight, But died with - out the sight.

The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

6.

The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad:
Let all the nations now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

154 [H. 320. B. W. 135, & 468.]

EMORY. S. M.

C. TIFFANY.

1. Not all the blood of beasts, On Jew-ish al - tars slain, Could give the guilt-y conscience peace, Or wash a - way the stain.
2. But Christ, the heavenly Lamb, Takes all our sins a - way; A sa - cri-fice of no-bler name And rich - er blood than they.
3. My faith would lay her hand On that dear head of thine, While as a pe - ni - tent I stand, And there con - fess my sin.
4. My soul looks back to see The bur-den thou didst bear When hang - ing on the curs-ed tree, And hopes her guilt was there.
5. Be - liev - ing, we re - joice To see the curse re - move; We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice, And sing his bleed - ing love.

[H. 908. B. W. 495.]

THOUGHT. S. M.

S. P. TUCKERMAN.

1. Once more we meet to pray, Once more our guilt con - fess; Turn not, O Lord, thine ear a - way From crea-tures in dis - tress.
2. Our sins to heaven as - cend, And there for vengeance cry: O God, be - hold the sin - ner's Friend, Who in - ter - cedes on high.
3. Though we are vile in - deed, And well de - serve thy curse, The me - rits of thy Son we plead, Who lived and died for us.
4. Now let thy bo - som yearn, As it hath done be - fore; Re - turn to us, O God, re - turn, And ne'er for - sake us more.

[H. 55. B. W. 218.]

WATCHMAN. S. M.

1. My God, my life, my love, To thee, to thee, I call; I can - not live if thou re - move, For thou art all in all.
2. To thee, and thee a - lone, The an - gels owe their bliss; They sit a-round thy gra - cious throne, And dwell where Je - sus is.
3. Not all the harps a - bove Can make a heavenly place, If God his res - i - dence re - move, Or but con - ceal his face.
4. Nor earth, nor all the sky, Can one de - light af - ford, No, not a drop of re - al joy, With - out thy presence, Lord.

[H. 485. B. W. 331.]

BOYLSTON. S. M.

Dr. LOWELL MASON.

1. The Lord, who tru - ly knows The heart of ev' - ry saint, In - vites us by his ho - ly word To pray and nev - er faint.
2. He bows his gra - cious ear; We nev - er plead in vain; Yet we must wait till he ap - pear, And pray, and pray a - gain.
3. Though un - be - lief sug - gest, Why should we long - er wait? He bids us nev - er give him rest, But be im - por - tu - nate.
4. 'Twas thus a wi - dow poor, With - out sup - port or friend, Be - set the un - just judge's door, And gain'd at last her end.

[H. 516. B. W. 324.]

SHIRLAND. S. M.

STANLEY.

1. Je - sus in - vites his saints To meet a - round his board: Here those he died to save may hold Com - mu - nion with the Lord.
2. Our heavenly Fa - ther calls Christ and his mem - bers one: We are the chil - dren of his love, And he the first-born Son.
3. We are the sev' - ral parts Of the same bro - ken bread; One bo - dy, with its sev'-ral limbs, But Je - sus is the head.
4. Let all our powers be join'd His glo - rious name to raise, Plea - sure and love fill ev' - ry mind, And ev' - ry voice his praise.

[H. 649. B. W. 304.]

BADEA. S. M.

1. And let our bo - dies part, To different climes re - pair; In - se - pa - ra - bly join'd in heart The friends of Je - sus are.
2. Je - sus, the cor - ner - stone, Did first our hearts u - nite; And still he keeps our spi - rits one, Who walk with him in white.
3. Oh, let us still pro - ceed In Je - sus' work be - low; And, following our tri - umphant Head, On - ward to con - quest go.
4. The vine-yard of the Lord Be - fore his lab' - rers lies; And, lo! we see the vast re - ward Which waits us in the skies.

1. Great God, now con - de - scend To bless our ris - ing race; Soon may their will - ing spi - rits bend To thy vic - to - rious grace.
2. Oh, what a vast de - light Their hap - pi - ness to see! Our warm - est wish - es all u - nite To lead their souls to thee.
3. Dear Lord, thy Spi - rit pour Up - on our in - fant seed; Oh, bring the long'd - for, hap - py hour That makes them thine in - deed.
4. May they re - ceive thy word, Con - fess the Sa-viour's name; Then fol - low their de - spis - ed Lord Through the bap - tis - mal stream.
5. Thus let our fa - vor'd race Sur-round thy sa - cred board, There to a - dore thy sove-reign grace And sing their dy - ing Lord.

[H. 936. B. W. 34.] LISBON. S. M. Theme by READ.

1. Wel - come, sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord a - rise; Wel - come to this re - viv - ing breast And these re - joic - ing eyes.
2. The King him - self comes near, And feasts him - self to - day; Here we may sit, and see him here, And love and praise and pray.
3. One day a - mid the place Where Christ, my Lord, has been Is sweet-er than ten thou-sand days Of plea-sure and of sin.
4. My will - ing soul would stay In such a frame as this, Till call'd to rise and soar a - way To ev - er - last - ing bliss.

[H. 112, 249. B. W. 114.]

BOYLE. S. M.

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. Ye saints, pro - claim a - broad The ho - nors of your King; To Je - sus, your in - car - nate God, Your songs of prai - ses sing.
2. Not an - gels round the throne Of ma - jes - ty a - bove Are half so much o - bliged as we To our Im - ma - nuel's love.
3. They nev - er sunk so low, They are not raised so high; They nev - er knew such depths of woe, Such heights of ma - jes - ty.
4. The Sa - viour did not join Their na - ture to his own; For them he shed no blood di - vine, Nor breathed a sin - gle groan.
5. May we with an - gels vie The Sa - viour to a - dore: Our debts are great - er far than theirs, Oh, be our prai - ses more!

[H. 106. B. W. 95.]

MOORFIELD. S. M.

Arranged from an English tune, by LOWELL MASON.

1. Raise your tri - umphant songs To an im - mor - tal tune; Let the wide earth re-sound the deeds Ce - les - tial grace has done, Ce - les - tial grace has done.
2. Sing how e - ter - nal love Its chief Be - lov - ed chose, And bade him raise our wretched race From their a - byss of woes, From their a-byss of woes.
3. His hand no thun-der bears, No ter - ror clothes his brow; No bolts to drive our guilt - y souls To fier - cer flames be - low, To fier - cer flames be-low.
4. 'Twas mer-cy fill'd the throne, No wrath stood frowning by, When Christ was sent with par-don down To re - bels doom'd to die, To re - bels doom'd to die.

1. God, to cor-rect the world, In wrath is slow to rise, But comes at length, in thun - der clothed, And dark - ness veils the skies.
2. His ban - ners, lift - ed high, The na - tions' God de - clare, And, stain'd with blood, with ter - rors mark'd, Spread won - der and de - spair.
3. All earth - ly pomp and pride Are in his pre - sence lost; Empires o'erturn'd, thrones, scep-tres, crowns, In wild con - fu - sion tost.
4. While war and woe pre - vail, And de - so - la - tion wide, In God, the sovereign Lord of all, The right - eous still con - fide.

[H. 50. B. W. 6.] SILVER STREET. S. M. I. SMITH.

1. Come, sound his praise a - broad, And hymns of glo - ry sing; Je - ho - vah is the sove - reign God, The u - ni - ver - sal King.
2. He form'd the deeps un-known; He gave the seas their bound; The wa - tery worlds are all his own, And all the so - lid ground.
3. Come, worship at his throne; Come, bow be - fore the Lord: We are his works, and not our own, He form'd us by his word.
4. To - day at - tend his voice, Nor dare pro - voke his rod; Come, like the peo - ple of his choice, And own your gra - cious God.

[H. 751. B. W. 570.]

ERSKINE. S. M.

HOWARD SHRIVER.

1. And will the Judge de-scend? And must the dead a-rise? And not a sin-gle soul es-cape His all-dis-cern-ing eyes!

2. And from his right-eous lips Shall this dread sen-tence sound, And through the numerous guilt-y throng Spread black de-spair a-round?

3. "Depart from me, ac-cursed, To ev-er-last-ing flame, For re-bel an-gels first pre-pared, Where mer-cy nev-er came."

4. How will my heart en-dure The ter-rors of that day, When earth and heaven, be-fore his face, As-ton-ish'd shrink a-way?

[H. 827. B. W. 432.]

PLITT. S. M.

Altered and arranged from a tune by BRADBURY by W. D. R.

1. The swift-de-clin-ing day, How fast its mo-ments fly! While evening's broad and gloom-y shade Gains on the west-ern sky.

2. Ye mor-tals, mark its pace, And use the hours of light; For know its Ma-ker can com-mand An in-stant, end-less night.

3. Give glo-ry to the Lord, Who rules the roll-ing sphere; Sub-mis-sive at his foot-stool bow, And seek sal-va-tion there.

4. Then shall new lus-tre break Through all the hea-vy gloom, And lead you to un-chang-ing light, In your ce-les-tial home.

[H. 562. B. W. 458.]

STORK. S. M.

1. E - quip me for the war, And teach my hands to fight; My sim - ple, up - right heart pre-pare, And guide my words a - right.
2. Con-trol my ev' - ry thought; And all my sins re-move; Let all my works in thee be wrought, Let all be wrought in love.
3. Oh, arm me with the mind, Meek Lamb, that was in thee! And let en - light - en'd zeal be join'd With per - fect cha - ri - ty.
4. Oh, may I love like thee! In all thy foot - steps tread; Thou hat - est all in - i - qui - ty, But no - thing thou hast made.
5. Oh, may I learn the art, With meek - ness to re - prove! And hate the sin with all my heart, But still the sin - ner love.

[H. 485. B. W. 331.]

WEDEKIND. S. M.

Dr. B. F. SCHNECK.

1. The Lord, who tru - ly knows The heart of ev' - ry saint, In - vites us by his ho - ly word To pray and nev - er faint.
2. He bows his gra - cious ear; We nev - er plead in vain; Yet we must wait till he ap - pear, And pray, and pray a - gain.
3. Though un-be - lief sug-gest, Why should we long - er wait? He bids us nev - er give him rest, But be im - por - tu - nate.
4. 'Twas thus a wi - dow poor, With-out sup - port or friend, Be - set the un - just jud - ge's door, And gain'd at last her end.

[H. 295. B. W. 19.]

MORNINGTON. S. M.

LORD MORNINGTON.

[H. 809. B. W. 588.]

PAULOS. S. M.

AHIRA. S. M.

1. Come, Ho - ly Spi - rit, come; Let thy bright beams a - rise; Dis - pel the sor - row from our minds, The dark - ness from our eyes.
2. Con - vince us all of sin, Then lead to Je - sus' blood, And to our wondering view re - veal The mer - cies of our God.
3. Re - vive our drooping faith, Our doubts and fears re-move, And kin - dle in our breasts the flame Of nev - er - dy - ing love.
4. 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart, To sanc - ti - fy the soul, To pour fresh life in ev' - ry part, And new - cre - ate the whole.
5. Dwell, Spi - rit, in our hearts; Our minds from bondage free; Then shall we know, and praise, and love, The Fa - ther, Son, and Thee.

LUTHER. S. M.

1. My soul, be on thy guard; Ten thousand foes arise; The hosts of sin are press - ing hard To draw thee from the skies, To draw thee from the skies.
2. Oh, watch, and fight, and pray; The battle ne'er give o'er; Re - new it bold - ly ev' - ry day, And help divine im-plore, And help di - vine im-plore.
3. Ne'er think the vic - tory won, Nor lay thine armor down; Thy ar - duous work will not be done Till thou obtain thy crown, Till thou ob-tain thy crown.

[H. 946. B. W. 446.]

STATE STREET. S. M.

JONATHAN C. WOODMAN.

1. An - oth - er day is past, The hours for - ev - er fled, And time is bear - ing me a - way To min - gle with the dead.

2. My mind in per - fect peace My Fa-ther's care shall keep; I yield to gen - tle slum-ber now, For thou canst nev - er sleep.

3. How bless-ed, Lord, are they On thee se - cure - ly stay'd! Nor shall they be in life a-larm'd, Nor be in death dis - may'd.

[H. 852. B. W. 377.]

OLMUTZ. S. M.

Arranged from a Gregorian Chant, by Dr. LOWELL MASON.

1. Com - mit thou all thy griefs And ways in - to his hands, To his sure truth and ten - der care, Who earth and heaven commands;

2. Who points the clouds their course, Whom winds and seas o - bey; He shall di - rect thy wandering feet; He shall pre - pare thy way.

3. Put thou thy trust in God; In du - ty's path go on; Fix on his word thy stead-fast eye; So shall thy work be done.

4. No pro - fit canst thou gain By self - con-sum - ing care; To him com-mend thy cause: his ear At - tends thy soft - est prayer.

LITTLE MARLBOROUGH. S. M.

English Tune.

1. Just o'er the grave I hung; No par - don met mine eyes; As bless - ings nev - er greet the slain, And hope shall nev - er rise.
2. Sweet mer - cy to my soul Re - veal'd no charm - ing ray; Be - fore me rose a long, dark night, With no suc - ceed - ing day.
3. Then, oh, how vain ap - pear'd The joys be - neath the sky! Like vi - sions past—like flowers that bloom When win - try storms are nigh.
4. How mourn'd my sink - ing soul The Sab - bath's hours di - vine, The day of grace—that pre - cious day—Con-sumed in sense and sin!
5. The work—the might - y work— Of life, so long de - lay'd; Re - pent - ance yet to be be - gun, Up - on a dy - ing bed.

[H. 914. B. W. 42.]

PLYMPTON. S. M.

Arranged from CHERUBINI.

1. A - wake, and sing the song Of Mo - ses and the Lamb; Wake, ev' - ry heart and ev' - ry tongue, To praise the Sa - viour's name.
2. Sing of his dy - ing love; Sing of his ri - sing power; Sing how he in - ter - cedes a - bove For us whose sins he bore.
3. Sing till we feel our hearts As - cend - ing with our tongue; Sing, till the love of sin de - part, And grace in - spire our song.
4. Sing on your heaven - ly way, Ye ran - som'd sin - ners, sing; Sing on, re - joic - ing ev' - ry day In Christ, th'e - ter - nal King.

[H. 53. B. W. 2.]

DOVER. S. M.

English Tune.

1. Oh, bless the Lord, my soul! Let all with - in me join, And aid my tongue to bless his name, Whose fa - vors are di - vine.
2. Oh, bless the Lord, my soul! Nor let his mer - cies lie For - got - ten in un - thankful-ness And with out prai - ses die.
3. 'Tis he for - gives thy sins; 'Tis he re - lieves thy pain; 'Tis he that heals thy sick - ness - es And gives thee strength a - gain.
4. He crowns thy life with love, When res - cued from the grave: He that re - deem'd our souls from death Hath bound-less power to save.

[H. 130. B. W. 355.]

ST. THOMAS. S. M.

A. WILLIAMS.

1. And shall we still be slaves, And in our fet - ters lie, When sum-mon'd by a voice di - vine T'as - sert our lib - er - ty?
2. Did the great Sa - viour bleed, Our free - dom to ob - tain? And shall we tram-ple on his blood And glo - ry in our chain?
3. Shall we go on in sin, Be - cause thy grace a - bounds, Or cru - ci - fy the Lord a - gain, And o - pen all his wounds?
4. For - bid it, might - y God! Nor let it e'er be said That those for whom thy Son has died In vice are lost and dead.

HANTS. S. M.

English Tune.

1. With humble heart and tongue, My God, to thee I pray: Oh, bring me now, while I am young, To thee, the liv-ing way, To thee, the liv - ing way.

2. Make an un - guard-ed youth The ob - ject of thy care; Help me to choose the way of truth And fly from ev'ry snare, And fly from ev' - ry snare.

3. My heart, to fol - ly prone, Re - new by power di - vine; U - nite it to thy - self a - lone, And make me wholly thine, And make me whol-ly thine.

4. Oh, let thy word of grace My warm - est thoughts employ; Be this, through all my following days, My treasure and my joy, My treasure and my joy.

5. To what thy laws im - part Be my whole soul in-clined: Oh, let them dwell with-in my heart And sanc-ti-fy my mind, And sanc-ti - fy my mind.

[H. 979. B. W. 6.]

THATCHER. S. M.

Arranged from HANDEL.

1. Be - hold, the morn - ing sun Be - gins his glo - rious way; His beams through all the na - tions run, And life and light con - vey.

2. But where the gos - pel comes, It spreads di - vi - ner light: It calls dead sin - ners from their tombs, And gives the blind their sight.

3. How per - fect is thy word, And all thy judg - ments just! For - ev - er sure thy pro - mise, Lord, And we se - cure - ly trust.

4. My gra - cious God, how plain Are thy di - rec - tions given! Oh, may I nev - er read in vain, But find the path to heaven.

[H. 36.]

MANLY. S. M.

W. MASON.

1. My soul, re - peat his praise Whose mer - cies are so great; Whose an - ger is so slow to rise, So rea - dy to a - bate.
2. God will not al - ways chide; And, when his wrath is felt, His strokes are few - er than our crimes, And light - er than our guilt.
3. High as the heavens are raised A-bove the ground we tread, So far the rich - es of his grace Our high - est thoughts ex-ceed.
4. His grace sub - dues our sins, And his for - giv - ing love Far as the east is from the west Doth all our guilt re - move.

[H. 141.]

AYLESBURY. S. M.

Dr. GREEN.

1. Be - hold th'a-maz - ing sight, The Sa-viour lift - ed high! Be - hold the Son of God's de - light Ex - pire in ag - o - ny!
2. For whom, for whom, my heart, Were all these sor - rows borne? Why did he feel that piercing smart, And meet that va - rious scorn?
3. For love of us he bled, And all in tor - ture died! 'Twas love that bow'd his fainting head, And oped his gush - ing side.
4. In sym-pa - thy of love Let all the earth com - bine; And, drawn by cords so gen-tle, prove The en - er - gy di - vine.
5. In him our hearts u - nite, Nor share his griefs a - lone, But from his cross pur - sue their flight To his tri - umph - ant throne.

FLUSHING. S. M.

1. Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Chris - tian love! The fel - low - ship of kin - dred minds Is like to that a - bove.

2. Be - fore our Fa-ther's throne We pour our ar - dent prayers; Our fears, our hopes, our aims, are one, Our com-forts and our cares.

3. We share our mu - tual woes, Our mu - tual bur - dens bear; And oft - en for each oth - er flows The sym - pa - thiz - ing tear.
4. When we a - sun - der part, It gives us in - ward pain; But we shall still be join'd in heart, And hope to meet a - gain.

ST. BRIDES. S. M.

Dr. HOWARD.

1. And must this bod - y die? This mor - tal frame de - cay? And must these act-ive limbs of mine Lie mouldering in the clay?

2. Cor - rup - tion, earth, and worms, Shall but re - fine this flesh, Till my tri - umph-ant spi - rit comes To put it on a - fresh.

3. God, my Re-deem - er, lives, And oft - en, from the skies, Looks down and watch - es all my dust, Till he shall bid it rise.

BEALOTH. S. M. Double.

"Am. Tune Book."

1 I was a wand - ring sheep, I did not love the fold, I did not love my shep-herd's voice, I would not be con - troll'd:

2. The Shep - herd sought his sheep, The Fath - er sought his child, He fol - low'd me o'er vale and hill, o'er de - serts waste and wild;

3. Je - sus my Shep - herd as, 'Twas He that loved my soul, Twas He that wash'd me in His blood, 'Twas He that made me whole;

I was a way-ward child, I did not love my home, I did not love my Fath - er's voice, I loved a - far to roam.

He found me nigh to death, Fam-ish'd, and faint, and lone; He bound me with the bands of love, He sav'd the wan'd-ring one.

'Twas He that sought the lost, That found the wand'-ring sheep, 'Twas He that brought me to the fold—'Tis He that still doth keep

Before me place, in dread array,
The pomp of that tremendous day
When thou with clouds shalt come
To judge the nations at thy bar;
And tell me, Lord, shall I be there,
To meet a joyful doom?

5.
Be this my one great business here,
With serious industry and fear
Eternal bliss to insure:
Thine utmost counsel to fulfil,
And suffer all thy righteous will,
And to the end endure.

6.
Then, Saviour, then, my soul receive,
Transported from this vale, to live
And reign with thee above,
Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
And hope in full supreme delight
And everlasting love.

RAPTURE. C. P. M.

3.

And, oh, may we repay this debt
To regions solitary yet
  Within our spreading land!
There brethren, from our common home,
Still westward, like our fathers, roam,
  Still guided by thy hand.

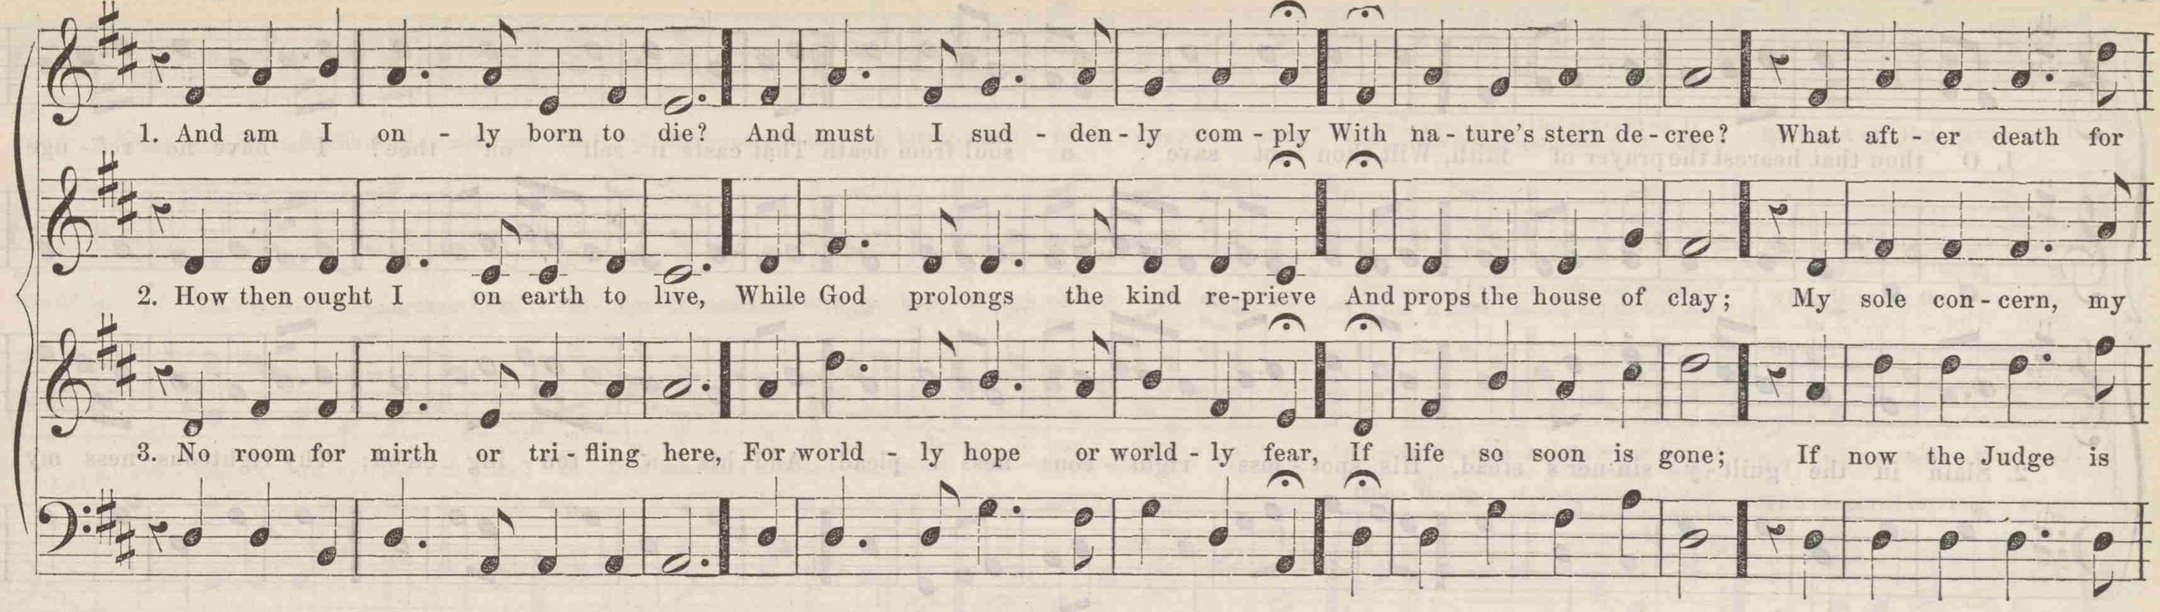
Saviour, we own this debt of love
Oh, shed thy Spirit from above,
  To move each Christian breast;
Till heralds shall thy truth proclaim
And temples rise to fix thy name,
  Through all our desert West

GANGES. C. P. M.



4.
No matter which my thoughts employ,
A moment's misery or joy;
But oh! when both shall end,
Where shall I find my destined place?
Shall I my everlasting days
With fiends or angels spend?

5.
Nothing is worth a thought beneath
But how I may escape the death
That never, never dies,—
How make mine own election sure,
And, when I fail on earth, secure
A mansion in the skies.

6.
Jesus, vouchsafe a pitying ray;
Be thou my guide, be thou my way
To glorious happiness!
Ah! write the pardon on my heart,
And, whensoe'er I hence depart,
Let me depart in peace!

AITHLONE. C. P. M.

3.

Then snatch me from eternal death,
The Spirit of adoption breathe,
His consolation send;
By him some word of life impart,
And sweetly whisper to my heart,
"Thy Maker is thy friend."

4.

The king of terrors then would be
A welcome messenger to me,
To bid me come away:
Unclogg'd by earth, or earthly things,
I'd mount, I'd fly, with eager wings,
To everlasting day.

MERIBAH. C. P. M.

1. When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come To call thy ransom'd peo-ple home, Shall I a-mong them stand? {Shall such a worthless worm as I, / Who sometimes am a-fraid to die,} Be found at thy right hand?

2. I love to meet a-mong them now, Be-fore thy gra-cious feet to bow, Though vil-est of them all; {But—can I bear the piercing thought?— / What if my name should be left out} When thou for them shalt call?

3. Pre-vent it, Lord, by thy rich grace; Be thou my soul's sure hid-ing-place In this th' ac-cept-ed day; {Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear, / To still my un-be-liev-ing fear,} Nor let me fall, I pray.

4. Let me a-mong thy saints be found When-e'er th' archangel's trump shall sound, And see thy smil-ing face; {Then loud-est of the crowd I'll sing, / While heaven's resounding mansions ring} With shouts of sovereign grace.

"How Calm and Beautiful." C. L. M.

Words and Music by Dr. HASTINGS.

How tranquil now the rising day!
'Tis Jesus still appears,
A risen Lord to chase away
Your unbelieving fears;
Oh, weep no more your comforts slain;
The Lord is risen; he lives again.

5.

And when the shades of evening fall,
When life's last hour draws nigh,
If Jesus shines upon the soul,
How blissful then to die!
Since He has risen who once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

Spanish Melody.

1. Guide me, O thou great Je - ho - vah! Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art might - y, Hold me with thy powerful hand;

2. O - pen thou the crystal foun - tain, Whence the healing streams do flow; Let the fier - y, cloudy pil - lar Lead me all my journey through.

3. When I tread the verge of Jor - dan, Bid my anxious fears subside; Death of death, and hell's de - struc - tion, Land me safe on Canaan's side

Bread of hea-ven, Bread of hea-ven, Feed me till I want no more; Bread of heaven, Bread of hea-ven, Feed me till I want no more.

Strong De - liver - er, Strong Deliverer, Be thou still my strength and shield; Strong De-liver-er, Strong De-liver-er, Be thou still my strength and shield.

Songs of prais - es, Songs of prais-es, I will ev - er give to thee, Songs of prais-es, Songs of prais - es, I will ev - er give to thee.

WINSTON. 8s & 7s.

1. Love di-vine, all love ex-cel-ling, Joy of heaven, to earth come down! Fix in us thy hum-ble dwell-ing, All thy faithful mer-cies crown;
Je-sus, thou art all com-pas-sion, Pure, un-bounded love thou art; Vi-sit us with thy sal-va-tion, En-ter ev'-ry trembling heart.

2. Breathe, oh, breathe thy love-ly spi-rit In-to ev'-ry troubled breast; Let us all in thee in-her-it, Let us find thy promised rest;
Take a-way the love of sin-ning, O-me-ga and Al-pha be; End of faith, as its be-gin-ning, Set our hearts at lib-er-ty.

[H. 886. B. W. 313.]

MILLENNIUM SONG. 7s & 6s.

Greek Melody.

"Roll on, thou mighty Ocean!"

1. Roll on, thou mighty o-cean! And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mer-cy To every land be-low:

2. A-rise, ye gales, and waft them Safe to the destined shore, That man may sit in darkness And death's deep shade no more.

3. O thou e-ter-nal Rul-er! Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the o-cean, Pro-tect them from all harm.

4. Oh, be thy presence with them, Wher-ever they may be; Though far from us who love them, Still let them be with thee.

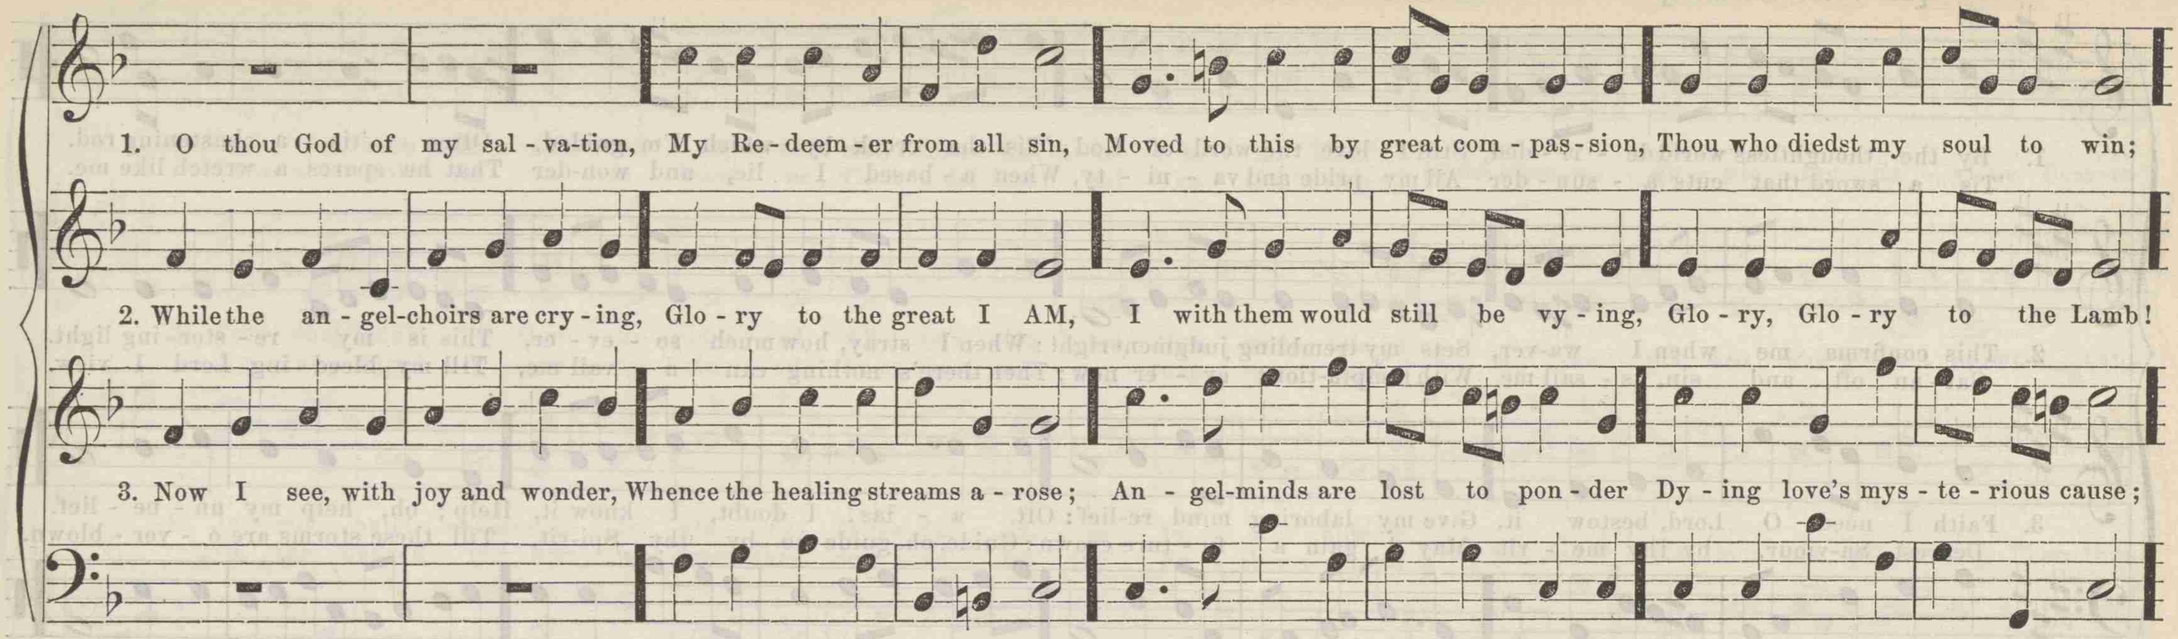
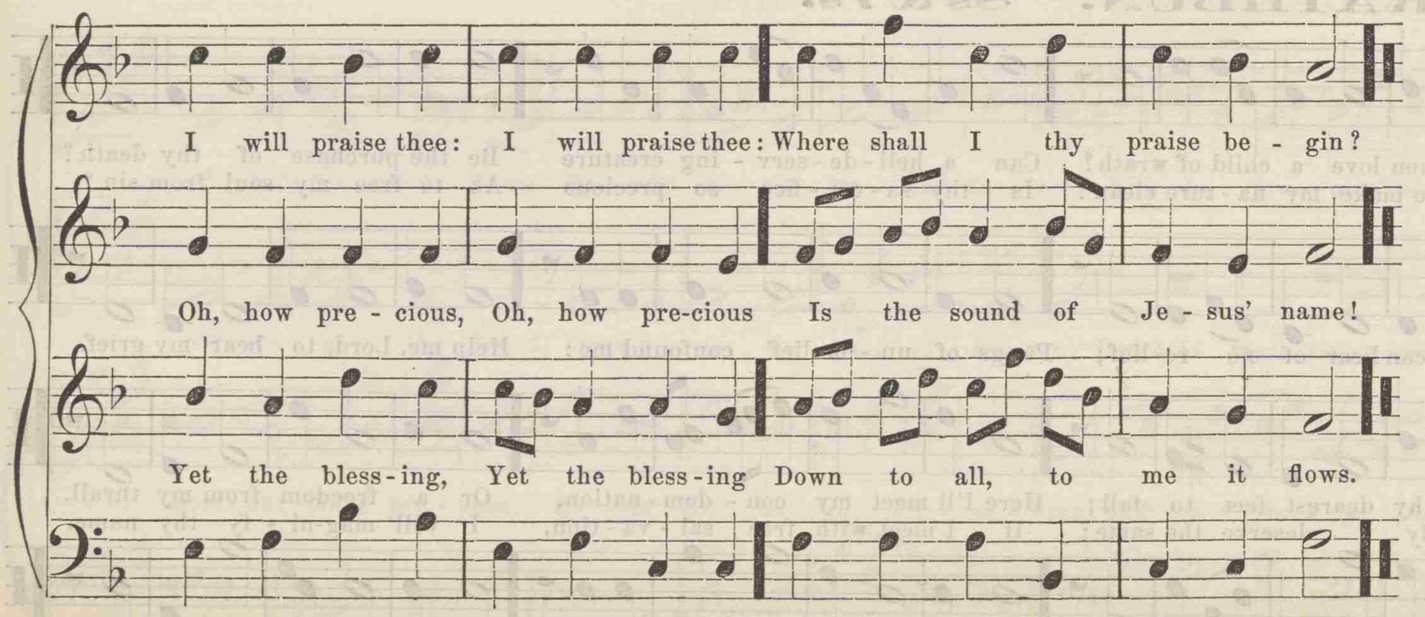
BENTEEN. 8s & 7s. 6 lines.

MEINEKE.





4.

Though unseen, I love the Saviour,
He almighty grace hath shown;
Pardon'd guilt and purchased favor,
This he makes to mortals known.
Give him glory!
Glory, glory is his own.

5.

Angels now are hovering round us,
Unperceived, they mix the throng,
Wondering at the love that crown'd us,
Glad to join the holy song:
Hallelujah!
Love and praise to Christ belong.

1. Yes! we trust the day is breaking; Joyful times are near at hand:
God, the mighty God, is speaking By his word in ev'-ry land:
When he chooses, Darkness flies at his command, When he chooses, Darkness flies at his command.

2. Let us hail the joy-ful sea-son; Let us hail the dawning ray;
When the Lord ap-pears, there's reason To expect a glorious day:
At his presence Gloom and darkness flee away, At his presence Gloom and darkness flee a-way.

3. While the foe becomes more daring, While he en-ters like a flood,
God, the Saviour, is preparing Means to spread his truth abroad;
Ev'-ry language Soon shall tell the love of God, Ev'-ry language Soon shall tell the love of God.

[H. 374. B. W. 394.] OTTO. 8s & 7s. Double. Carmina Sacra.

Fine. D. C.

1. Sweet the mo-ments, rich in bless-ing, Which be-fore the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace pos-sess-ing, From the sin-ner's dy-ing Friend:
D. C. Con-stant still in faith a-bid-ing, Life de-riv-ing from his death.
Love and grief my heart di-vid-ing, With my tears his feet I'll bathe,

Fine. D. C.

3. Tru-ly bless-ed is this sta-tion— Low be-fore his cross I'll lie;
While I see di-vine com-pas-sion Float-ing in his lan-guid eye;
D. C. Pre-cious drops, my soul be-dew-ing, Plead and claim my peace with God.
Here I'll sit— for-ev-er view-ing Mer-cy stream-ing in his blood:

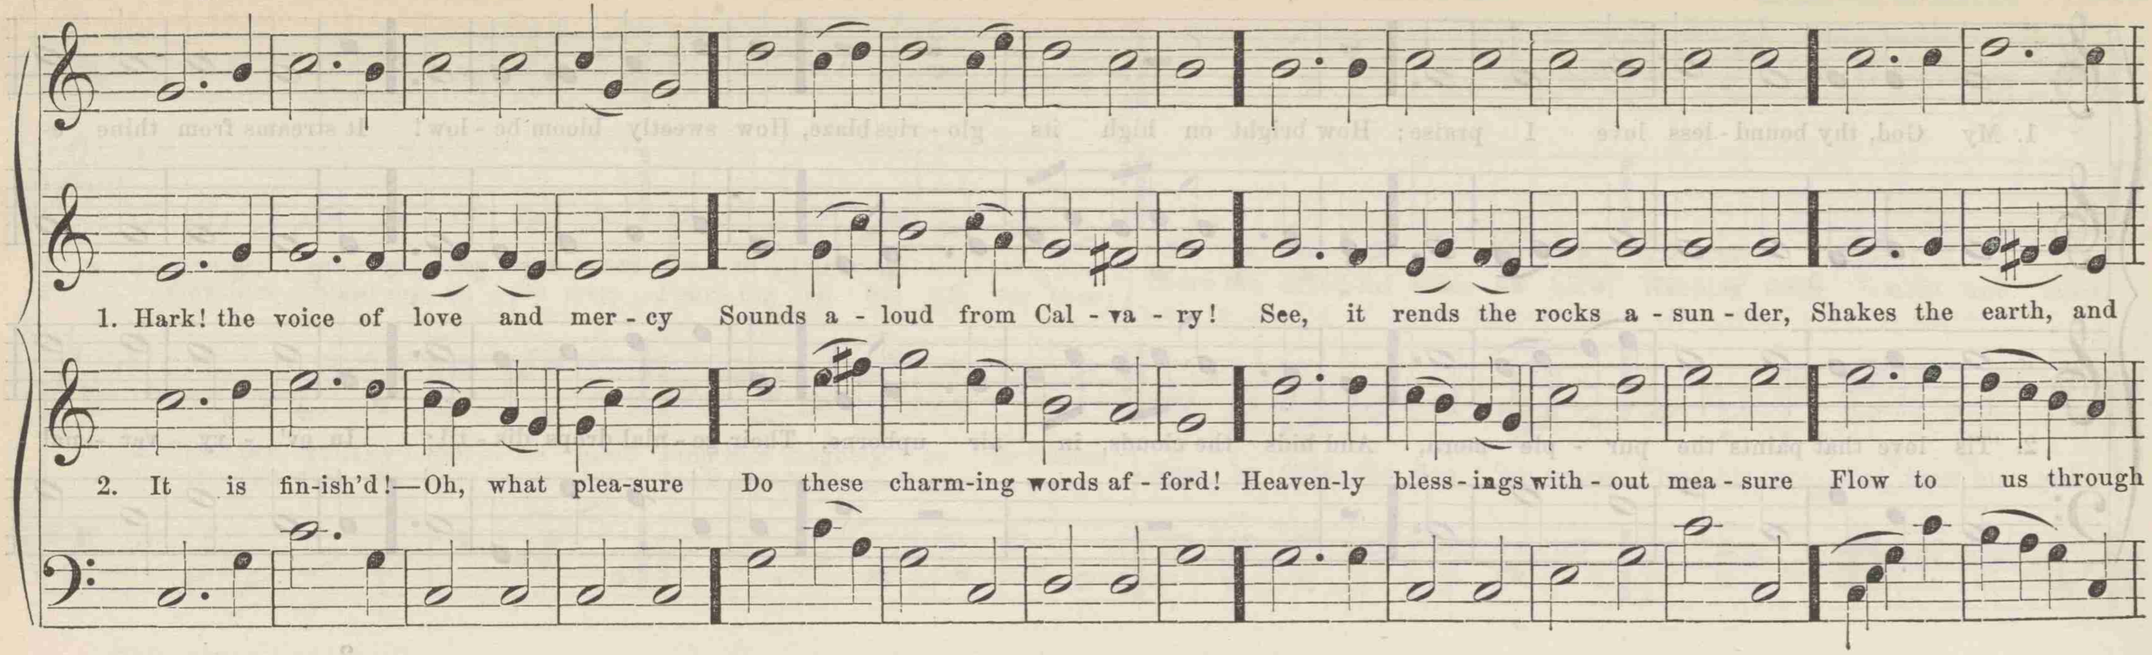
Naught shall pluck thee from my hands:" Sweet af - flic-tion, Sweet af - flic-tion, Ev' - ry word my love de - mands.



3.

Finish'd all the types and shadows
Of the ceremonial law!
Finish'd all that God had promised;
Death and hell no more shall awe.
It is finish'd!
Saints, from hence your comfort draw.

4.

Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs,
Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth, and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name.
Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

3.

It robes in cheerful green the ground,
And pours its flowery beauties round,
Whose sweets perfume the gale:
Its bounties richly spread the plain,
The blushing fruit, the golden grain,
And smile on every vale.

4.

But in thy gospel see it shine
With grace and glories more divine,
Proclaiming sins forgiven;
There faith, bright cherub, points the way
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.

5.

Then let the love that makes me blest
With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
And ardent gratitude,
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good.

ROSEFIELD. 7s. 6 lines.

Subject from Dr. MALAN.

1. Wea-ry sin-ner, keep thine eyes On th'a-ton-ing sa-cri-fice;
   View him bleed-ing on the tree, Pour-ing out his life for thee;
   There the dread-ful curse he bore; Weeping soul, lament no more.

2. Cast thy guilt-y soul on him; Find him might-y to re-deem;
   At his feet thy bur-den lay; Look thy doubts and care a-way;
   Now by faith the Son em-brace, Plead his pro-mise, trust his grace.

[H. 98. B. W. 187.]

REUNION. 7s.

S. P. TUCKERMAN.

1. Sin-ner, what has earth to show Like the joys be-liev-ers know? Is thy path of fa-ding flowers Half so bright, so sweet, as ours?

2. Doth a skil-ful, healing friend On thy dai-ly path at-tend, And, where thorns and stings abound, Shed a balm on ev'-ry wound?

3. When the tem-pest rolls on high, Hast thou still a re-fuge nigh? Can, oh, can thy dy-ing breath Sum-mon one more strong than death?

4. Canst thou, in that aw-ful day, Fearless tread the gloom-y way, Plead a glo-rious ran-som given, Burst from earth, and soar to heaven?

4 Who his ad - vent may a - bide? You that glo - ry in your shame, Will you find a place to hide When the world is wrapt in flame?

Arranged by S. P. TUCKERMAN.

1. Par-don'd through re-deem - ing grace, In thy bless-ed Son re - veal'd; Wor - ship-ping be-fore thy face, Lord, to thee our-selves we yield.

2. Thou the sa - cri - fice re - ceive, Hum-bly of-fer'd through thy Son; Quick-en us in him to live; Lord, in us thy will be done.

3. By the hal - low'd out - ward sign, By the cleansing grace with - in, Seal, and make us whol - ly thine; Wash, and keep us pure from sin.

4. Call'd to bear the Chris-tian name, May our vows and life ac - cord; And our ev' - ry deed pro - claim "Ho - li - ness un - to the Lord!"

[H. 880. B. W. 543.] ALFRED. 7s.

HOWARD SHRIVER.

1. Bread of heaven, on thee we feed, For thy flesh is meat in - deed; Ev - er let our souls be fed With this true and liv - ing bread.

2. Vine of heaven, thy blood sup-plies This blest cup of sa - cri - fice; Lord, thy wounds our heal - ing give; To thy cross we look and live.

3. Day by day with strength supplied, Through the life of Him who died, Lord of life, oh, let us be Root - ed, graft - ed, built, on thee.

[H. 949.B. W. 506.]

DOWNES. 7s.

L. T DOWNES.

1. God of mer - cy, hear our prayer For the chil dren thou hast given, Let them all thy bless-ings share, Grace on earth and bliss in heaven.

2. Cleanse their souls from ev'-ry stain, Through the Sa-viour's pre-cious blood: Let them all be born a - gain, And be re - con - ciled to God.

3. For this mer - cy, Lord, we cry: Bend thine ev - er - gra - cious ear: While on thee our souls re - ly, Hear our prayer, in mer - cy hear.

[B. W. 67]

BARTLETT. 7s.

F. T. BARRINGTON.
From Cant. Domino.

1. Let us chant the so - lemn lay, Let us ce - le - brate the day, Hail with joy th'au - spi - cious morn When the Son of Man was born.

Duo.

2 Babe of Bethlehem, low - ly laid! An - gels hov - er round thy bed, Paus - ing o'er the tune - ful lyre, As they won - der and ad - mire.

3. Hope of Is - rael! wel-come thou, Ev' - ry tribe to thee shall bow; Ev' - ry tongue thy right pro - claim; Ev' - ry land a - dore his name.

Organ.

ESHTEMOA. 7s.

1. God of mer - cy, hear our prayer For the chil - dren thou hast given; Let them all thy bless-ings share, Grace on earth and bliss in heaven.

2. Cleanse their souls from ev' - ry stain, Through the Sa-viour's pre - cious blood; Let them all be born a - gain And be re - con - ciled to God.

3. For this mer - cy, Lord, we cry; Bend thine ev - er - gra - cious ear: While on thee our souls re - ly, Hear our prayer, in mer - cy hear.

BOEHME. 7s. Double.

German.

Fine. D. C.

1. For a sea - son call'd to part, Let us now ourselves com-mend
   To the gra - cious eye and heart Of our ev - er - pre - sent Friend.
   D. C. Let thy mer - cy and thy care All our souls in safe - ty keep.

2. Je-sus, hear our hum - ble prayer, Ten - der shep - herd of thy sheep!

Fine. D. C.

3. In thy strength may we be strong; Sweeten ev' - ry cross and pain;
   Give us, if we live, ere long In thy peace to meet a - gain.
   D. C. And our souls shall praise the Lord, Who our poor pe - ti - tions heard.

4. Then, if thou thy help af - ford, E - be - ne - zers shall be rear'd,

[H. 768. B. W. 418.]

HEROLD. 7s.

HEROLD.

1. To thy tem - ple we re - pair; Lord, we love to wor-ship there: There, within the veil, we meet Christ up - on the mer - cy - seat.

2. While thy glo - rious name is sung, Tune our lips, in - spire our tongue; Then our joy - ful souls shall bless Christ, the Lord our Righteous-ness.

3. While to thee our prayers as - cend, Let thine ear in love at - tend; Hear us when thy Spi - rit pleads, Hear, for Je - sus in - ter - cedes.
4. While thy word is heard with awe, While we trem-ble at thy law, Let thy gos - pel's wondrous love Ev' - ry doubt and fear re - move.

[H. 256. B. W. 533.]

KOZELUCH. 7s.

KOZELUCH.

1. Fa - ther! at thy call I come: In thy bo - som there is room For a guilt - y soul to hide,— Press'd with grief on ev' - ry side.

2. Darkness fills my trem-bling soul; Floods of sor - row o'er me roll: Pi - ty, Fa-ther, pi - ty me; All my hope is placed in thee.

3. But may such a wretch as I— Self-con-demn'd and doom'd to die— Ev - er hope to be for - given And be smiled up - on by heaven?
4. Yes, I may! for I es - py Pi - ty trick - ling from thine eye; 'Tis a Father's heart that moves, Moves with par - don and with love.

ROME. 7s. Double.

Arranged from Righini.

Andante.

Col Basso.

1. Saviour, when in dust to thee Low we bow th'a - dor - ing knee, When, re - pent-ant, to the skies Scarce we lift our streaming eyes,

2. By thy birth and ear - ly years, By thy hu-man griefs and fears, By thy fast - ing and dis - tress In the lone - ly wil - der - ness,

3. By thine hour of dark de - spair, By thine a - go - ny of prayer, By the pur - ple robe of scorn, By thy wounds, thy crown of thorn,

4. By thy deep expiring groan. By the seal'd se - pul-chral stone, By thy tri-umph o'er the grave, By thy power from death to save,

f

Oh, by all thy pains and woe Suf-fer'd once for man be - low, Bending from thy throne on high, Hear our solemn li - ta - ny.

By the victory in the hour Of the sub - tle tempter's power, Je - sus, look with pitying eye: Hear our sol - emn li - ta - ny.
By thy cross, thy pangs and cries, By thy per - fect sa - cri - fice, Je - sus, look with pitying eye: Hear our sol - emn li - ta - ny.

f

Mighty God, as - cend- ed Lord, To thy throne in heaven restored, Prince and Saviour, hear our cry, Hear our sol - emn li - ta - ny.

WATCHMAN. 7s. Double.

Dr. LOWELL MASON.

Treble Voice. Tenor Voice.

1. Watchman! tell us of the night, What its signs of pro - mise are! Traveller! o'er yon mountain's height See that glo - ry-beam - ing star!
2. Watchman! tell us of the night, High - er yet that star as - cends! Traveller! bless - ed - ness and light, Peace and truth, its course portends.
3. Watchman! tell us of the night, For the morn - ing seems to dawn! Traveller! dark-ness takes its flight; Doubt and ter - ror are withdrawn!

Treble Voice. Tenor Voice.

Watchman! does its beau-teous ray Aught of hope or joy fore - tell? Traveller! yes, it brings the day, Promised day, of Is - ra - el.
Watchman! will its beams a - lone Gild the spot that gave them birth? Traveller! a - ges are its own: See, it bursts o'er all the earth!
Watchman! let thy wanderings cease, Hie thee to thy qui - et home; Traveller, lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God, is come!

CHORUS to 1st and 2d Stanzas. CHORUS to 3d Stanza.

1. Traveller! yes, it brings the day, Promised day, of Is - ra - el.

2. Traveller! a - ges are its own: See, it bursts o'er all the earth! 3. Traveller, lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God, is come! Lo! the Son of God, is come!

Love in loving finds employ,
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving Him who first loved me.

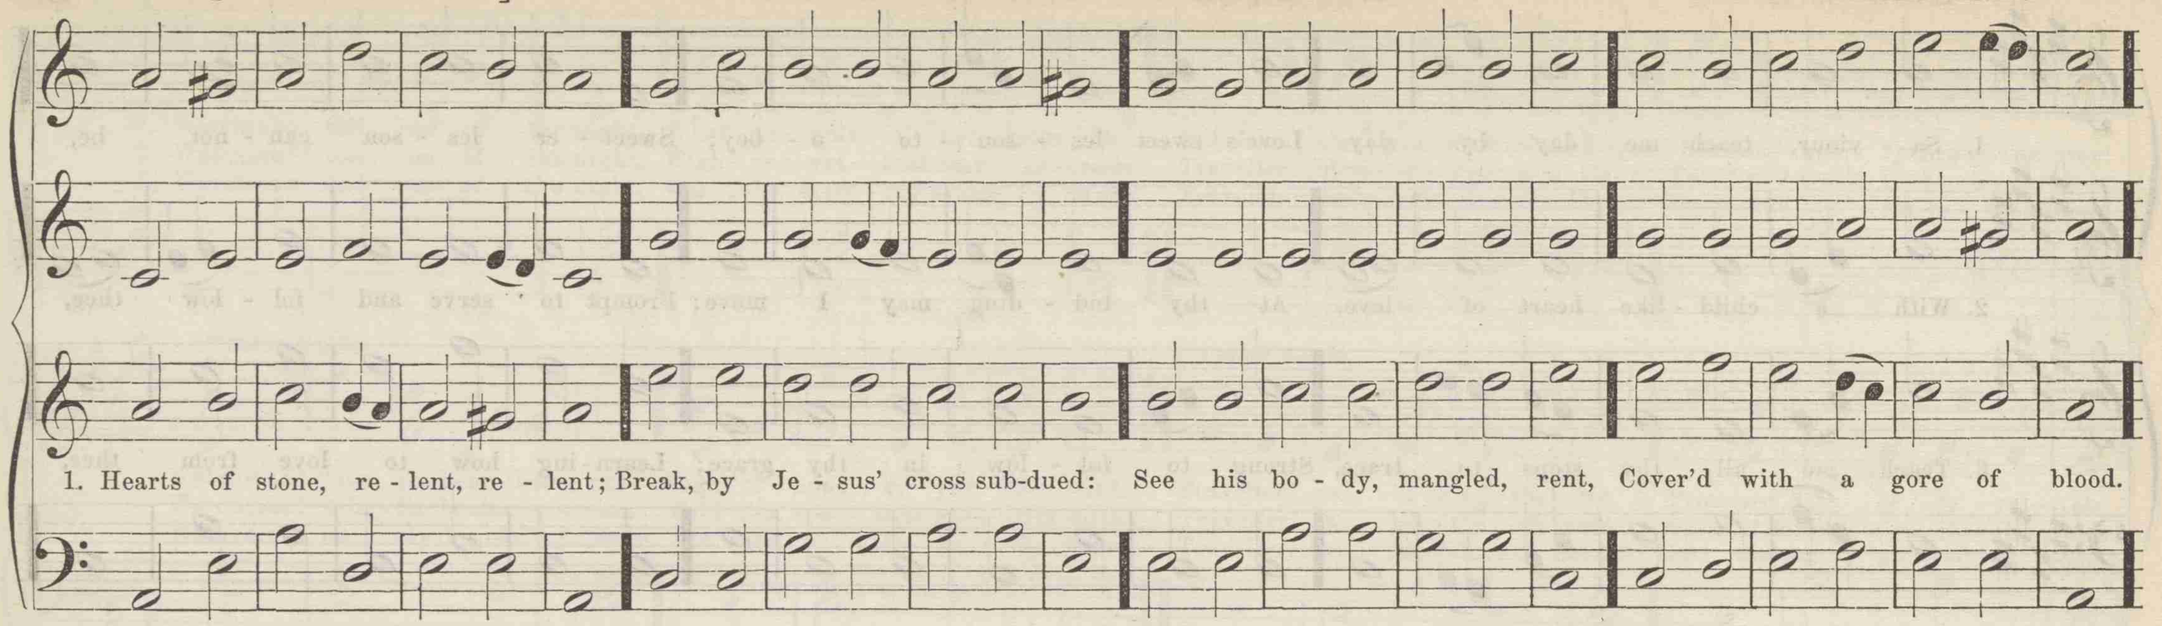
5.

Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till thy face I see,
Of His love who first loved me.

[H. 841. B. W. 336.]

MOUNT CALVARY. 7s.

STEPHEN JENKS.



2.

Yes, thy sins have done the deed,
Driven the nails that fix'd him there,
Crown'd with thorns his sacred head,
Plunged into his side the spear,
Made his soul a sacrifice,
While for sinful man he dies.

3.

Wilt thou let him bleed in vain?
Still to death thy Lord pursue?
Open all his wounds again,
And the shameful cross renew?
No! with all my sins I'll part:
Break, oh, break, my bleeding heart.

SIEGEN. L. M.

(PRAYER FOR A SICK PASTOR.)

1. O thou be-fore whose gracious throne We bow our suppliant spi - rits down: Thou know'st the anxious care we feel, And all our trembling lips would tell.
2. A-vert thy swift-de - scending stroke, Nor smite the shepherd of the flock, Lest o'er the barren waste we stray, To prowling wolves an easy prey.
3. Restore him sinking to the grave; Stretch out thine arm, make haste to save: Back to our hopes and wish-es give, And bid our friend and fa-ther live.
4. Yet, if our sup - pli - ca-tions fail, And prayers and tears can naught a-vail, Condemn'd on this dark desert coast To mourn our much-loved leader lost,
5. Be thou his strength, be thou his stay; Support him through the gloomy way; Comfort his soul, surround his bed, And guide him through the dreary shade.

[H. 752. B. W. 594.]

VINCENT. Dismissal. 8s. & 7s.

Dr. B. F. SCHNECK.

The hallelujah for each or the last verse only. In singing, observe the tie over the notes in the next to the last measure.

1. Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing, Fill our hearts with joy-and peace; } Oh, refresh us! Oh, re-fresh us! Travelling through this wilderness.

[H. 812. B. W. 281.] VOICE OF FREE GRACE. 12s.

Arranged from Dr. CLARKE.

1. The voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the moun-tain!" For A-dam's lost race Christ hath o-pen'd a foun-tain; For sin and un-

2. Ye souls that are wound-ed, oh, flee to the Sa-viour; He calls you in mer-cy,—'tis in-fi-nite fa-vor; Your sins are in-clean-ness, and ev'-ry trans-gres-sion, His blood flows most free-ly in streams of sal-va-tion, His blood flows most free-ly in 3.

O Jesus, ride onward, triumphantly, glorious,
O'er sin, death, and hell thou art more than victorious:
Thy name is the theme of the great congregation,
While angels and saints raise the shout of salvation.
Hallelujah to the Lamb! he has purchased our pardon:
We'll praise him again when we pass over Jordan.

With joy shall we stand, when escaped to the shore,
With our harps in our hands, we will praise him the more;
We'll range the sweet plains on the bank of the river,
And sing of salvation for ever and ever.
Hallelujah to the Lamb! he has purchased our pardon:
We'll praise him again when we pass over Jordan.

FREDERICK. 11s.

KINGSLEY.

3.

I would not live alway: no! welcome the tomb:
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

4.

Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

5.

Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren, transported, to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul?

[H. 954.]

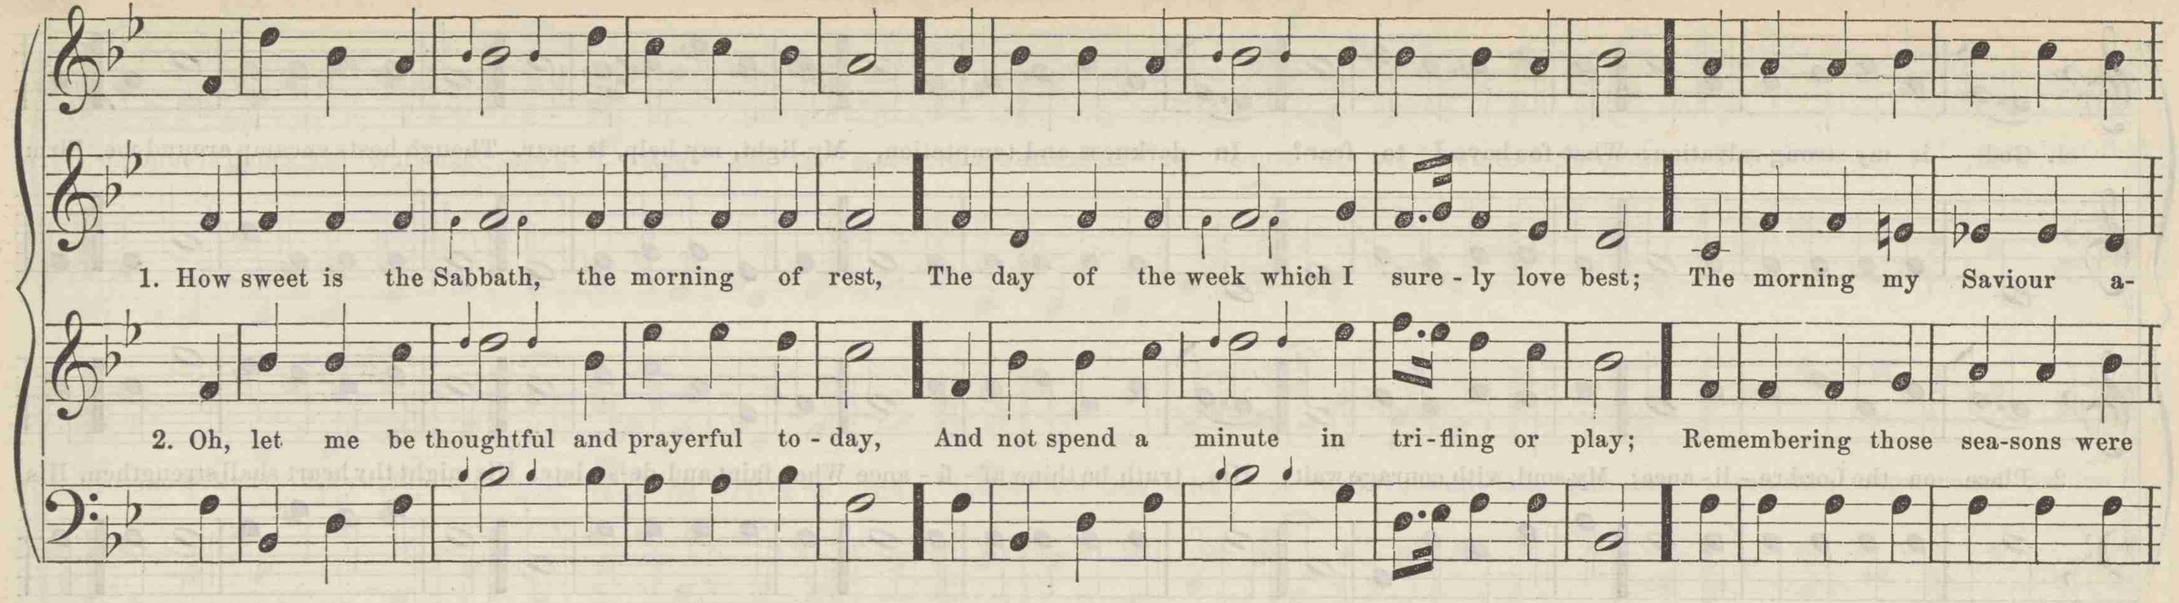
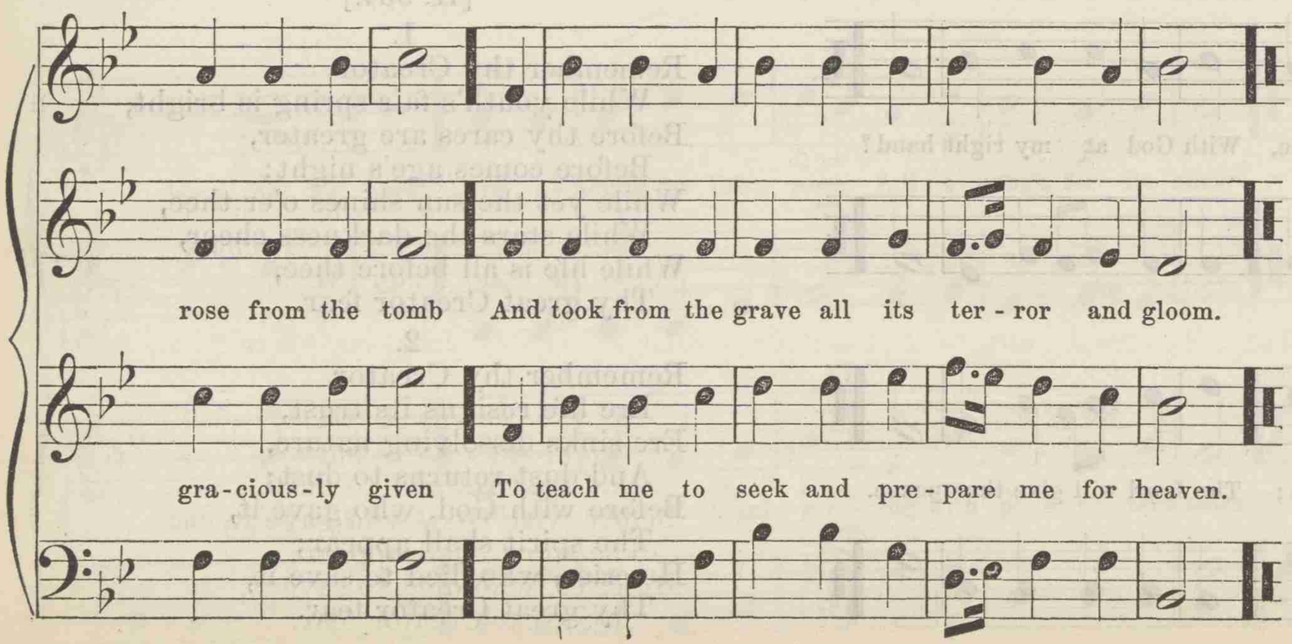
Remember thy Creator
While youth's fair spring is bright,
Before thy cares are greater,
Before comes age's night;
While yet the sun shines o'er thee,
While stars the darkness cheer,
While life is all before thee,
Thy great Creator fear.

2.

Remember thy Creator
Ere life resigns its trust,
Ere sinks dissolving nature,
And dust returns to dust;
Before with God, who gave it,
The spirit shall appear;
He cries, who died to save it,
Thy great Creator fear.

LYONS. 11s, or 5s & 6s.





3.

In the house of my God, in his presence and fear,
When I worship to-day, may it all be sincere;
In the school when I learn, may I do it with care,
And be grateful to those who watch over me there.

4.

Instruct me, my Saviour: a child though I be,
I am not too young to be noticed by thee;
Renew all my heart, keep me firm in thy ways,
I would love thee and serve thee, and give thee the praise.

WALTER. 8, 8, 8.

1. Judgment comes!—that day of mourning; Earth in flames!—to ash-es turn-ing! So the Scriptures give us warn-ing, So the Scrip-tures give us warning.
2. How will fear the soul be rend-ing, When the Judge is seen de-scend-ing, An-gel hosts their Lord at-tend-ing, An-gel hosts their Lord attend-ing!
3. Hark!—the trump,—its blast of wonder Tears the graves of earth a-sun-der! These their prison'd charge surrender; These their prison'd charge surrender.
4. Death and na-ture frighted, quak-ing, While the dead, their tombs forsaking, Are their place for tri-al tak-ing, Are their place for tri-al taking!
5. Then, be-fore the world col-lect-ed, Books are open'd and in-spect-ed, And by these the doom di-rect-ed, And by these the doom di-rect-ed.

[H. 293.]

SCHAEFFER. 8, 8, 6.

WEBBE.

1. Thou great, mys-te-rious God, un-known, Whose love hath gen-tly led me on, E'en from my in-fant days;
   Mine in-most soul ex-pose to view; And tell me if I ev-er knew Thy jus-ti-fy-ing grace.
2. If I have on-ly known thy fear, And fol-low'd with a heart sin-cere Thy draw-ing from a-bove,
   Now, now the far-ther grace be-stow, And let my sprink-led con-science know Thy sweet, for-giv-ing love.
3. Short of thy love I would not stop, A stran-ger to the gos-pel hope, The sense of sins for-given;
   I would not, Lord, my soul de-ceive, With-out thine in-ward wit-ness live, That an-te-past of heaven.

[H. 854. B. W. 407.]

KEMP. 7s & 6s.

C. MEINEKE.

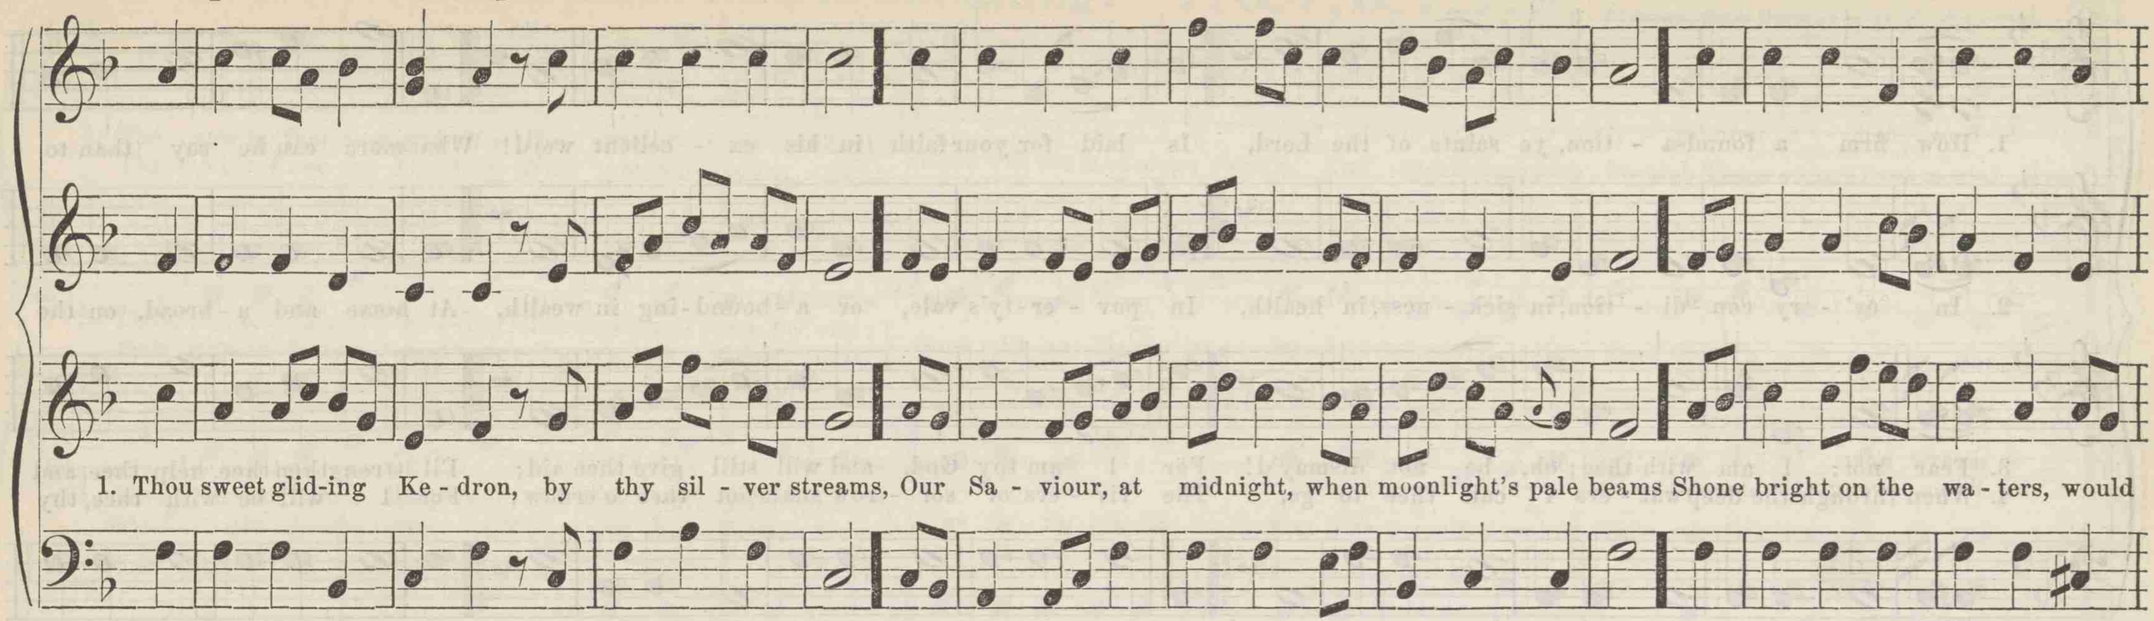
[H. 537. B. W. 221.] MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s & 6s. 8 lines.

Dr. LOWELL MASON.

3.
Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,—
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, oh, salvation!
The glorious sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learn'd Messiah's name.

4.
Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransom'd nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.



2.

How damp were the vapors that fell on his head!
How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed!
The angels, astonish'd, grew sad at the sight,
And follow'd their Master with solemn delight.

3.

O garden of Olives, thou dear honor'd spot,
The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot;
The theme most transporting to seraphs above;
The triumph of sorrow,—the triumph of love.

4.

Come, saints, and adore him; come, bow at his feet!
Oh, give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

[H. 874. B. W. 363.]

PERINE. 11s.

5.

When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply;
The flame shall not hurt thee: I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

6.

E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And then, when gray hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

7.

The soul that on Jesus hath lean'd for repose,
I will not, I cannot, desert to his foes:
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never—no, never—no, never forsake!

[H. 456.] 'The Sun is fast descending.' 7, 6, 7, 6, 7, 7, 6.

Arranged from German by C. W. KNAUFF.

1. The sun is fast de-scend-ing His circuit from on high;
The shades of eve are blending With yonder distant sky:
Soon will the landscape vanish, And sa-ble darkness ba-nish These scenes from mortal eye.

2. Thus, too, our days are end-ing; The race will soon be run;
Our sun is fast de-scend-ing; Our work is almost done.
Soon will our Master greet us, And heavenly legions meet us To waft us to our home.

3. Then, pilgrims! come, delay not On this unfriendly ground,
And in the de-sert say not That you have Canaan found.
The fie-ry pil-lar leads us, The promised manna feeds us, But bar-ren is the ground.

CECIX. 7s & 6s.

1. To Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost sing praises, The God whom Christians love; From sin and fear, from death and hell, he raises, To end-less joys a-bove.

[H. 786.] KEDRON. 8s & 6s. Peculiar. Dr. HASTINGS.

1. Be-yond where Kedron's wa-ters flow, Be-hold the suffering Saviour go To sad Geth-se-ma-ne; His coun-te-nance is all di-vine, Yet grief ap-pears in ev'-ry line.
2. He bows beneath the sins of men; He cries to God, and cries a-gain, In sad Geth-se-ma-ne; He lifts his mourn-ful eyes a-bove—"My Fa-ther, can this cup re-move?"
3. With gen-tle re-sig-na-tion still He yield-ed to his Fa-ther's will, In sad Geth-se-ma-ne; "Be-hold me here, thine on-ly Son; And, Fa-ther, let thy will be done."
4. The Father heard: and an-gels there Sustain'd the Son of God in prayer, In sad Geth-se-ma-ne; He drank the dread-ful cup of pain— Then rose to life and joy a-gain.
5. When storms of sorrow round us sweep, And scenes of an-guish make us weep, To sad Geth-se-ma-ne We'll look, and see the Saviour there, And hum-bly bow, like him, in prayer.

PRAISE YE JEHOVAH!

"Lobet den Herrn, den mächtigen König."

1. Praise ye Je - ho - vah! with an - thems of praise come be - fore him;
   Great is his mer - cy! with hearts of thanks-giv - ing a - dore him;
   Firm is his word, Free - ly his grace is con - ferr'd; Hum-bly for par - don im - plore him.

2. Praise him, all na - tions! 'Tis he that hath crown'd you with bless - ing:
   Oh, come be - fore him, your sins and trans - gres-sions con - fess - ing;
   Wor - ship the Lord; Bow to the claims of his word; Songs to his glo - ry ad - dress - ing.

3. An - gels, re - joic - ing, u - nite in the shout of sal - va - tion;
   Dai - ly and night - ly they sing to the God of cre - a - tion:
   "Worth - y to reign, Keep-er and Sa-viour of men, O'er ev' - ry king - dom and na - tion."

4. Praise ye Je - ho - vah! the sovereign of earth and of heav - en,
   Un - to his ho - ly name hon-or and glo - ry be giv - en:
   Wake ev' - ry string! Tune all your voi - ces and sing; Heav - en and earth re - ply, A - men!

THE GRAVE. 11s & 6s.

FLEMMING.

1. Tran-quil and peace-ful is the path to hea - ven, Where now so ma - ny, fresh from earth's ripe vintage, So ma-ny hap - py, high and bless-ed spi - rits Wait to re - ceive us.

2. There, life is bliss - ful! shall the spirit trem - ble? Bright, heavenly an - gels wait to lead us yon - der; There dwell the spi - rits pu - ri - fied by suffer - ing, Blessing and bless - ed.

3. There our lost rose - buds in our hands shall o - pen; Love, pure, and ho - ly, in our bo-soms glow - ing, Flows from the Fa - ther, Source of ev' - ry bless - ing, Liv - ing and lov - ing.

THE LORD WILL PROVIDE. 5s & 6s.

1. Though trou - bles as - sail, And dan - gers af - fright, Though friends should all fail, And foes all u - nite,
2. The birds, with - out barn Or store - house, are fed: From them let us learn To trust for our bread.
3. We may, like the ships, By tem - pests be tost On per - il - ous deeps, But can - not be lost:
4. When life sinks a - pace, And death is in view, This word of his grace Shall com - fort us through:

Yet one thing se - cures us, What - ev - er be - tide, The Scrip - tures as - sure us, The Lord will pro - vide.
His saints what is fit - ing Shall ne'er be de - nied, So long as 'tis writ - ten, The Lord will pro - vide.
Though Sa - tan en - rag - es The wind and the tide, The pro - mise en - gag - es, The Lord will pro - vide.
Not fear - ing nor doubt - ing, With Christ on our side, We hope to die shout - ing, The Lord will pro - vide.

BELMONT. 7s, 6 lines.

Dr. B. F. SCHNECK.

1. Safe - ly through an - o - ther week God has brought us on our way: Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in his courts to - day:

2. While we seek supplies of grace, Through the dear Re - deem-er's name, Show thy re - con - cil - ing face, Take a - way our sin and shame.

Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest! Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest.

From our worldly cares set free, May we rest this day in thee; From our worldly cares set free, May we rest this day in thee.

1. Who knows how near my life's ex - pend - ed? Time flies, and death is hasten - ing on:
How soon, my term of tri - al end - ed, May heave my last ex - pir - ing groan!
For Je - sus' sake, when flesh shall fail, With me, O God, may all be well!

2. My ma - ny sins!—oh, veil them o - ver With mer - its of thy dy - ing Son!
I here thy rich-est grace dis - co - ver.— Here find I peace, and here a - lone:
And, for his sake, when flesh shall fail, With me, O God, may it be well!

3. His bleeding wounds give me as - sur - ance That thy free mer - cy will a - bide;
Here strength I find for death's en - dur - ance, And hope for all I need be - side:
For Je - sus' sake, when flesh shall fail, With me, O God, may it be well!

[H. 1001. B. W. 583.]

"Friend after Friend departs." 8s & 7s. P. or L. M. by omitting the slurs and repeat.

1. Friend af - ter friend de - parts; Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no u - nion here of hearts That finds not here an end;
Were this frail world our fi - nal rest, Liv - ing or dy - ing, none were blest.

2. Be - yond the flight of time, Be - yond the reign of death,
There surely is some bless - ed clime Where life is not a breath,
Nor life's af - fec - tions transient fire, Whose sparks fly up - ward and ex - pire.

Omit the first slur in repeating, and sing the small note.

INGRAHAM. C. M. 6 lines.

G. W. FOSTER.
SACRED CROWN.

1. Fath - er, I know that all my life Is por - tion'd out by Thee; The chan - ges that will sure - ly come,

2. I ask Thee for a thought - ful love, Through con - stant watch - ing wise, To meet the glad with joy - ful smiles,

3. I would not have the rest - less will That hur - ries to and fro, That seeks for some - thing great to do,

Ped.

I do not fear to see; I ask Thee for a pres - ent mind, In - tent on pleas - ing Thee.

And wipe the weep - ing eyes; A heart at leis - ure from it - self, To soothe and sym - pa - thize.

Or se - cret thing to know; I would be treat - ed as a child, And guid - ed where I go.

EMELAND. L. M. 6 lines.

1. Wea - ry of wand'r - ing from my God, And now made will - ing to re - turn, I hear, and bow be - neath the rod;

2. O Je - sus! full of truth and grace, More full of grace than I of sin; Yet once a - gain I seek Thy face;

3. Thou know'st the way to bring me back, My fal - len spir - it to re - store; Oh, for Thy truth and mer - cy's sake,

For Thee, not with - out hope, I mourn: I have an Ad - vo - cate a - bove, A friend be - fore the throne of love.

Op - en thine arms and take me in; And free - ly my back - slid - ing, heal, And love the faith - less sin - ner still.

For - give and bid me sin no more! The ru - ins of my soul re - pair, And make my heart a house of prayer

1. Je - ho - vah is our strength, And He shall be our song; We shall o'er - come at length,
2. The Lord our re - fuge is, And ev - er will re - main; Since He hath made us His,
3. The Lord our por - tion is, What can we wish for more? As long as we are His,

Al - though our foes be strong; In vain doth Sa - tan then op - pose, The Lord is strong - er than His foes.
He will our cause main - tain: In vain our en - e - mies op - pose, For God is strong - er than His foes.
We nev - er can be poor: In vain do earth and hell op - pose, For God is strong - er than His foes.

1. No, no, it is not dy - ing To go un - to our God; This gloo - my earth for - sak - ing, Our jour - ney homeward tak-ing A long the star - ry road.

2. No, no, it is not dy - ing, Heav'n's cit-i-zen to be; A crown im - mor-tal wear - ing, And rest un - bro-ken shar - ing, From care aud conflict free.

3. No, no, it is not dy - ing, The shepherd's voice to know; His sheep He ev - er lead - eth, His peaceful flock He feed - eth, Where liv - ing pas-tures grow.

[B. W. 364.] OLIVET. 6s & 4s. "The Choir."

1. My faith looks up to Thee, Thou lamb of cal-va - ry, Sav - iour di - vine! Now hear me when I pray; Take all my guilt a - way; Oh, let me from this day, Be whol - ly thine.

2. May thy rich grace im-part Strength to my faint-ing heart, My zeal in-spire! As Thou hast died for me, Oh, may my love to Thee Pure, warm, and changeless be, A liv - ing fire!

3. While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs a-round me spread, Be Thou my guide; Bid dark-ness turn to-day, Wipe sor-rows tears a-way, Nor ev - er let me stray, From Thee a - side.

4. When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold sullen stream Shall o'er me roll, Blest Saviour, then in love, Fear and distrust remove; Oh, bear me safe a-bove A ransom'd soul!

"Eternity! Terrific Word."

1. E - ter - ni-ty! ter - ri- fic word, With - in the heart a pier - cing sword! Beginning without end - ing!
E - ter - ni-ty! unmeasured time! I sink beneath the thought sublime That I to thee am tend - ing!
Deep hor - ror fills my quaking heart, My lips in speech refuse to part.

2. E - ter-ni-ty! oh, what a pang! E - ter-ni-ty! no ser-pent's fang Could send that thrill of ter - ror:
When I revolve thy clanking chains, Thy dark abyss of deathless pains, My soul is fill'd with hor - ror.
Oh, search the u - ni - verse around, No e - qual terror can be found!

3. A - wake, O man, from sinful sleep; Be - think thyself, thou straying sheep, Seek God by true re - pent - ance!
A - wake, behold thy wasting sand, E - ter-ni - ty is just at hand, And brings thine awful sen - tence.
This is perchance thy fi - nal day: Who knows how soon he's snatch'd away?

[H. 788. B. W. 130.]

"O Sacred Head, now Wounded."

1. O sacred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame weigh'd down!
Now scornfully sur - round - ed With thorns, thine only crown,
O sacred Head, what glo-ry, What bliss, till now, was thine! Yet, though despised and go - ry, I joy to call thee mine.

2. How art thou pale with anguish, With sore abuse and scorn!
How does that visage languish Which once was bright as morn!
Thy grief and thy compassion Were all for sinners' gain; Mine, mine was the transgres - sion. But thine the deadly pain.

3. What language shall I bor - row, To thank thee, dearest friend,
For this thy dy - ing sor - row, Thy pi-ty without end?
Lord, make me thine for - ev-er, Nor let me faithless prove; Oh, let me nev-er, nev - er A - buse such dying love.

1. Raise, thoughtless sinner, raise thine eye; Behold God's balance lift - ed high! There shall his justice be display'd, And there thy hope and life be weigh'd, And there thy hope and life be weigh'd.
2. See in one scale his per - fect law; Mark with what force its precepts draw: Wouldst thou the awful test sustain? Thy works how light! thy thoughts how vain! Thy works how light! thy thoughts how vain!
3. Be - hold, the hand of God ap - pears To trace, in dreadful cha-rac - ters, "Sin - ner, thy soul is wanting found, And wrath shall smite thee to the ground, And wrath shall smite thee to the ground."
4. One on - ly hope may yet pre - vail: Christ hath a weight to turn the scale; Still doth the gos-pel publish peace And show a Sa - viour's righteousness. And show a Saviour's righteousness.

[H. 735. B. W. 298.] "Great God, what do I see and hear?"

1. Great God, what do I see and hear? The end of things cre - a - ted! } The trumpet sounds; the graves restore The dead whom they contain'd before: Prepare, my soul, to meet him.
   The Judge of mankind doth appear. On clouds of glo-ry seat - ed: }
2. The dead in Christ shall first arise. At the last trumpet's sound - ing. } No gloomy fears their souls dismay; His presence sheds e - ter - nal day On those prepared to meet him.
   Caught up to meet him in the skies, With joy their Lord sur - round - ing: }

R This magnificent Choral may easily be adapted to any Long Metre Hymn, by repeating the last strain.

1. I need Thee, pre - cious Je - sus, For I am full of sin; My soul is dark and guil - ty, My heart is dead with - in:

2. I need Thee, bless-ed Je - sus, For I am ve - ry poor; A strang - er and a pil - grim, I have no earth - ly store;

3. I need Thee, blessed Je - sus, And hope to see Thee soon, En - cir - cled with the rain - bow, And seat - ed on thy throne!

I need the cleans - ing foun - tian Where I can al - ways flee, The blood of Christ most pre - cious, The sin - ners per - fect plea.

I need the love of Je - sus, To cheer me on the way, To guide my doubt - ing foot - steps, And be my strength and stay.

There, with Thy blood-bought chil-dren, My joy shall ev - er be To sing Thy praise, Lord Je - sus, To gaze, my Lord, on Thee!

1. Gen-tle Shep-herd, Thou hast still'd Now Thy lit - tle lamb's long weep-ing;
Ah, how peace-ful, pale, and mild, In its nar - row bed 'tis sleep-ing! And no sigh of an-guish sore Heaves that lit - tle bo - som more.

2. In this world of care and pain, Lord, Thou wouldst no long - er leave it:
To the sun - ny heav'n-ly plain Dost Thou now in joy re - ceive it. Clothed in robes of spot-less white, Now it dwells with Thee in light.

3. Ah, Lord Je - sus, grant that we Where it lives may soon be liv - ing,
And the love - ly pas - tures see That its heav'n-ly food are giv - ing. Then the gain of death we'll prove, Though Thou take what most we love.

[B. W. 329.] NICOLAI. 11s & 10s. "Voice of Praise."

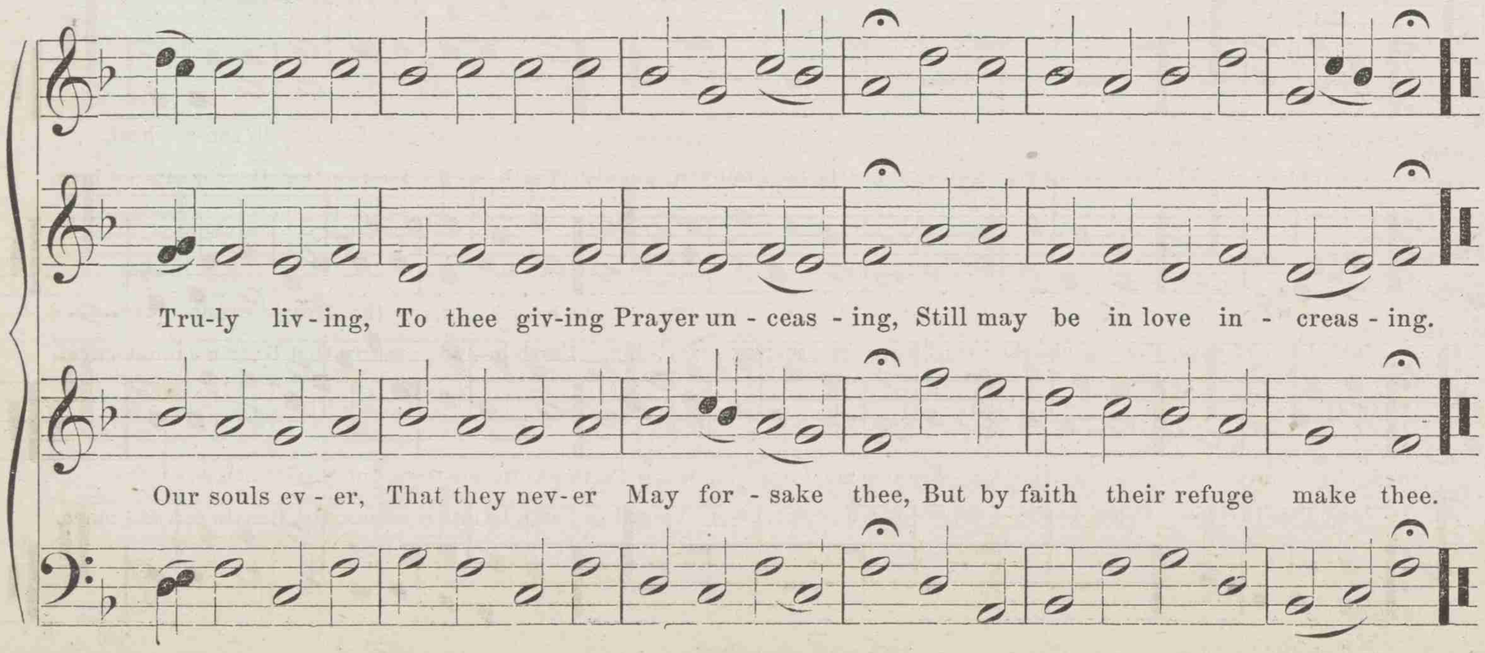
1st 2d

1. Come ye dis-con-so-late, where'er ye lan-guish
Come, at the mer-cy seat—Omit....., fer-vent-ly kneel: Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish; Earth has no sor-row that Heav'n can-not heal.

2. Joy of the des-o-late, Light of the stray-ing,
Hope of the pen-i-tent—Omit,..... ..... fade-less and pure, Here speaks the Com-fort-er, in mer-cy say-ing, Earth has no sor-row that Heav'n cannot cure.

3. Here see the Bread of life; see wa-ters flow-ing
Forth from the throne of God,:—Omit..... boundless in love Come to the feast pre-pared; come, ev-er know-ing Earth has its sor-rows, but Heav'n can re-move.

"O Holy Ghost, descend, we pray."



3. Thou fountain whence all wisdom flows
Which God on pious hearts bestows,
Grant us thy consolation,
That in our pure faith's unity
Our Christian brethren all may see
Thy witness truly given.
Hear us,
Cheer us
By thy teaching,
That our preaching
Thy salvation
Soon may tell to every nation.

4. Direct us by thy counsel still,—
That we may understand thy will;
Our ignorance enlighten.
Oh, grant us constancy, that we
May ever faithful prove to thee.
How much soe'er we suffer.
Descend,
Defend
From all errors
And earth's terrors,
Be our healing,
Jesus' love and peace revealing.

1. As the ea - gle fond - ly hov-ers O'er its young de - fenceless brood,
So my God from dan - ger cov-ers, Grant-ing me all need - ed good.
With a fa-ther's love he eyed me, When be-gan mine in - fant days;

2. For me, wretched, hopeless ly - ing, Worthy of his wrath a - lone,
He to shame, and griefs, and dy - ing, Gave his well - be - lov - ed Son.
Who the love of God can measure? None of all our fee - ble race;

3. As my teacher, to di - rect me, He has sent his Spi - rit too,
Who, to com-fort and pro - tect me, Should his scheme of love pur - sue,
And, while I am sin be - wail - ing, Give me hope, in weakness strength,

Ere my heart could mean his praise, He with watch-ful care sup-plied me. All things else their time will last, But his love, when time is past.

While on ev' - ry side we trace Proofs that mer - cy is his pleasure. Great my sins, but high a - bove Reaches his un-bound - ed love.

Light in darkness, till, at length, I might sing his grace un - fail - ing, And, though earthly griefs an - noy, Triumph still with ho - ly joy.

Aspire, my heart, on high to live.

1. As-pire, my heart, on high to live! For there is found thy trea - sure:
What's here, would all thy hopes deceive,—There on - ly is true plea - sure:
Poor is the wealth that soon must fail, No o - ther can for thee a-vail Than riches stored in hea - ven.

2. 'Tis all a gift,—not wages paid,— This treasure none can me - rit;
And Jesus, who atonement made, He, on - ly, can con - fer it.
The soul can have no higher good Than God's beloved Son, with blood, For us hath dear-ly purchased.

3. This is a treasure will remain,— By faith in him we seal it:
No foe can make its ti - tle vain, No thief can ev - er steal it.
Nor death nor time its worth destroys: 'Twill be a source of ho - ly joys, Long as the soul is liv - ing.

God is true!—Them he will ne'er forsake.

As silver seven times purified
Is known and prized the higher,
The word of God, when fully tried,
Doth deeper love inspire:
The cross but proves its greater worth:
It shines abroad o'er all the earth,
Enlightening all the nations.

5

O God, preserve it pure, we pray,
In this vile generation,
May we still walk its perfect way,
And see thy full salvation;
Here may it make the simple wise,
And there, beyond the glittering skies,
Fill every mouth with gladness.

1. Oh that I had a thousand voi - ces! A mouth to speak with thousand tongues!
Then, with a heart his praise re - joi - ces, Would I proclaim in grateful songs,
} To all, wherev - er I might be, What 'tis the Lord hath done for me.

2. Dear Fa-ther, endless praise I ren - der, For soul and body strange - ly join'd;
I praise thee, Guardian kind and ten-der, For all the no - ble joys I find
} So rich - ly spread on ev' - ry side, And free - ly for my use supplied.

3. What e-qual praises can I of - fer, Dear Je - sus, for thy mer-cy shown?
What pangs, my Saviour, didst thou suf - fer, And thus for all my sins a-tone!
} Thy death a-lone my soul could free From Satan, to be blest with thee.

[H. 1020.] "Now to the Father-God, who gave us."

Now to the Father-God, who gave us His Son to bear a - way our guilt;
To God the Son, made flesh to save us, Whose blood was for our ran - som spilt;
} To God the Spi - rit of all grace, Let praise as-cend from ev' - ry place.

MOZART. C. M. Double.

1. I love the bless-ed Sab-bath-day, Which God has kind-ly given, When we may meet to praise and pray, And learn the way to heaven.

2. I love to hear that Je-sus died, And how he rose a-gain, Ex-alt-ed at his Fa-ther's side, A Sa-viour-Prince to reign.

3. I love to sing on earth his grace To fall-en, sin-ful man; But when in glo-ry him I'll praise More than the an-gels can.

It leads our youth-ful thoughts to Him Who reigns in light a-bove, And makes the joys of earth grow dim While mus-ing on his love.

To him the pure an-gel-ic throng Raise their se-raph-ic strain; And yet a child's thanksgiving song His listen-ing ear may gain.

Then will we sing, in loud-er strain, Through all e-ter-ni-ty, Wor-thy the Lamb that once was slain! To him all glo-ry be.

1. Come hi - ther, ye faith - ful, tri - um - phant - ly sing: Come see in the man - ger the an - gels' dread King!

2. True Son of the Fa - ther, He comes from the skies; To be born of a vir - gin He does not de - spise:

3. Hark! hark to the an gels, all sing - ing in heav'n, "To God in the high - est all glo - ry be giv'n"

4.

Of every wrong this day I've done before thee,
Through thy dear Son, for pardon I implore thee;
And when in sleep I rest my weary head,
Be still thy wings of love around me spread!

5.

And when life's day by night shall be o'ertaken,
May then my soul, its faith in thee unshaken,
From death's dark vale with angels soar away
To where thy presence makes eternal day.

peace with - in my breast might dwell, Sin reign'd in all my na - ture.

death frown'd on me ev' - ry - where, And hell yawn'd just be - fore me.

4. Then touch'd my wretchedness the heart
Of Him who reigns in heaven;
He deign'd his mercy to impart,
And show my sins forgiven—
My Father's heart yearn'd over me;
What greater love than this could be,
Which gave his richest treasure?

5. "Go, my beloved Son," said he,
"Thou who my glory wearest,
Now let the world my mercy see,
Whilst thou salvation bearest;
Now burst their bonds, and free from sin,
Destroy the reign of death, and win
Eternal life for sinners."

6. The Son obey'd the Father's voice,
He own'd his virgin mother;
Let all the world aloud rejoice,
He hath become my brother;
Yea, he my humble form assumes,
And Satan to perdition dooms,
And thus his kingdom cometh.

"A safe stronghold our God is still."

"Ein' feste Burg ist unser Gott."

1. A safe stronghold our God is still,
He will de - liv - er from the ill
Our shield and sur - est weap - on;
That hath us now o'er - ta - ken.
Our old dead - ly foe Now aims his last blow;

2. By strength of ours could naught be done;
But for us fights the val - iant One,
The strife full soon were end - ed:
By God him - self com - mand - ed.
Ask you, "Who is He?" Christ Je - sus, there see,

Deep guile and strong power He boast-eth in this hour: On earth is not his e - qual

The Lord Sa - ba - oth, Our God and Sa-viour both— He conquers in this bat - tle.

3.

Though devils all the earth should fill,
Each watching to devour us,
We tremble not, we fear no ill,
They cannot overpower us.
The false prince of hell
May rage, rave, and swell.
He harms not a hair,
We shall escape his snare,
Christ's lightest word shall stay him.

4.

His word forever shall abide,
Our foes can ne'er destroy it,
He standeth ever at our side,
And cheers us by his Spirit.
And take they our life,
Goods, fame, children, wife,
When their worst is done,
Yet have they nothing won:—
We shall receive the kingdom.

HYMN. "No war nor battle's sound."

SUITABLE FOR MISSIONARY CELEBRATIONS.

3.

Unwilling kings obey'd,
And sheathed the battle-blade,
And call'd their bloody legions from the field.
In silent awe they wait,
And close the warrior's gate,
Nor know to whom their homage thus they yield.

4.

The peaceful conqueror goes,
And triumphs o'er his foes,
His weapons drawn from armories above.
Behold the vanquish'd sit,
Submissive at his feet,
And strife and hate are changed to peace and love.

New-Year Hymn.

As the winged arrow flies
  Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
  Darts, and leaves no trace behind;
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
  Bear us down life's rapid stream:
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
  All below is but a dream.

3.

Thanks for mercies past receive,
  Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live
  With eternity in view;
Bless thy word to young and old,
  Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And when life's short tale is told,
  May we dwell with thee above.

Frail bark on that bright summer sea,
That the breezes now curl but in sport,
Spread cheerly thy sail, for though pleasant it be,
Ne'er linger till safe in the port:
To the port, little bark, to the port.

Tired roe, that the hunter dost flee,
While his arrow's e'en now on the wing,
In yon deep-green recess there's a fountain for thee,
Go, rest by that clear secret spring:
To the spring, panting roe, to the spring.

My spirit still hovering, half blest,
'Midst shallows so fleeting and dim;
Ah! knowest thou THY rock and THY haven of rest,
And knowest thou THY pure spring of joy?
Then to HIM, fluttering spirit, to HIM.

DIXI CUSTODIAM. Ps. xxxix.

1. I said, I will take heed | to my | ways,
   That I of- | fend not | in my | tongue.
2. I will keep my mouth as it were | with a | bridle,
   While the un- | godly is | in my | sight.
3. I held my tongue | and spake | nothing,
   I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was | pain and | grief to | me.
4. My heart was hot within me; and while I was thus musing the | fire— | kindled:
   And at the last I | spake | with my | tongue:
5. Lord, make me to know mine end,
   And the measure of my | days,...what it | is:
   That I may know how | frail— | I— | am.
6. Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand-breadth,
   And mine age is as | nothing be-fore | thee.
   Verily, every man at his best state, is | alto- | gether | vanity.
7. Surely every man walketh in a vain show;
   Surely they are dis- | quiet-ed in | vain:
   He heapeth up riches, and | knoweth...not | who shall | gather them.
8. And now, Lord, what | wait I | for?
   My | hope— | is in | thee.
9. Deliver me from | all...my trans- | gressions;
   Make me | not...the re- | proach...of the | foolish.
10. I was dumb, I opened | not my | mouth;
    Because | thou— | —— | didst it.
11. Remove thy stroke a- | way— | from me;
    I am con- | sumed...by the | blow of...thine | hand.
12. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity,
    Thou makest his beauty to consume a- | way...like a | moth
    Surely | every | man is | vanity.
13. Hear my prayer, | O— | Lord,
    And give | ear un- | to my | cry.
14. Hold not thy | peace at...my | tears:
    For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as | all my | fathers | were.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS. (S. S. H. 172.)

1. Thou shalt have no more | Gods but | me;
2. Before no | idol | bow thy | knee.
3. Take not the name of | God in | vain;
4. Nor dare the | Sabbath- | day pro- | fane.
5. Give both thy parents | honor | due;—
6. Take heed that | thou no | murder do.
7. Abstain from words and | deeds un- | clean;
8. Nor steal, though | thou art | poor and | mean;
9. Nor make a willful lie nor | love | it;
10. What is thy neighbor's | dare not | cov- | et.

VENITE EXULTEMUS. Ps. xcv.

1. Oh, come, let us sing un- | to the | Lord,
   Let us make a joyful noise to the | Rock of | our sal- | vation.
2. Let us come before his presence | with thanks- | giving;
   And make a joyful | noise unto | him with | psalms.
3. For the Lord is a | great— | God;
   And a great | King a- | bove all | gods.
4. In his hand are the deep places | of the | earth;
   And the strength of the | hills is | his— | also.
5. The sea is his, | and he | made it;
   And his hands | form-ed | the dry | land.
6. Oh, come, let us worship | and bow | down;
   And kneel be- | fore the | Lord our | Maker.
7. { Repeat the latter strain of the Chant for this verse.
   For he is | our— | God.
   And we are the people of his pasture, and the | sheep of | his— | hand.
8. To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden | not your | heart;
   As in the day of temptation | in the | wil-der- | ness.
9. When your fathers | tempted | me:
   Proved | me and | saw my | work.
10. Forty years long was I grieved with this gene- | ration, and | said,
    It is a people who do err in their heart, and they have | not known | my— | ways.
11. Unto whom I sware | in my | wrath,
    They should not enter | into | my—rest.

BURIAL SERVICE.

1. Our days on earth are as a shadow, and there is | none a- | biding; || we are but of yesterday, there is but a | step..between | us and | death.
2. Man's days are as grass. as a flower of the field | so he | flourisheth; | he appeareth for a little time, and then | vanish- | eth a- | way.
3. Watch, for ye know not what hour your | Lord doth | come; || be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the | Son of | man— | cometh.
4. It is the Lord; let him do what | seemeth..him | good: || the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, and blessed be the | name of the | Lord. Amen.

BURIAL SERVICE.

1. Blessed are the dead, who die in the | Lord from | henceforth: || Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, | and their | works do | follow them.
2. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death | hath no | power: || but they shall be priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with | him a | thousand | years.
3. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests to God | and his | Father: || to him be glory and do- | minion..for- | ever..and | ever.
4. Blessed are the dead, who die in the | Lord from | henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, | and their | works do | follow them. Amen.

FAST.

1. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and | plenteous..in | mercy.
   He will not always chide, neither will he keep his | anger..for- | ever.
2. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to | our in- | iquities:
   For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward | them that | fear him.
3. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our trans- | gressions from us.
   Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth | them that | fear him. Amen.

1. Hear! Father, hear our prayer!
   Thou who art Pity where | sorrow..pre- | vaileth,
   Thou who art Safety when mortal help faileth,
   Strength to the feeble, and | Hope..to de- | spair.
   Hear! Father, hear our prayer!

2. Hear! Father, hear our prayer!
   Wandering unknown in the | land..of the | stranger,
   Be with all travellers in sickness or danger.
   Guard thou their path, guide their | feet..from the | snare.
   Hear! Father, hear our prayer!

3. Hear! Father, hear our prayer!
   Still thou the tempest, night's | terrors..re- | vealing,
   In lightning flashing, in thy thunders pealing:
   Save thou the shipwreck'd, the | voyager | spare.
   Hear! Father, hear our prayer!

4. Hear thou the poor that cry!
   Feed thou the hungry, and | lighten..their | sorrow;
   Grant them the sunshine of hope for the morrow;
   They are thy children, their | trust..is on | high;
   Hear thou the poor that cry!

5. Dry thou the mourner's tear!
   Heal thou the wounds of | time..hallowed af- | fection,
   Grant to the widow and orphan protection,
   Be in their trouble a | friend..ever | near.
   Dry thou the mourner's tear!

6. Hear! Father, hear our prayer!
   Long hath thy goodness our | footsteps..at- | tended;
   Be with the Pilgrim whose journey is ended;
   When at thy summons for | death..we pre- | pare.
   Hear! Father, hear our prayer!

EXAUDIAT TE, DOMINUS. Ps. xx.

1. The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble,
   The name of the God of | Jacob..de- | fend thee;
   Send thee help from the sanctuary,
   And | strengthen..thee | out of | Zion;
2. Remember all thy offerings,
   And ac- | cept thy..burnt | sacrifice;
   Grant thee according to thine own heart,
   And ful- | fil all | —..thy | counsels.
3. We will rejoice in thy salvation,
   And in the name of the Lord will we set | up our | banners;
   The Lord ful- | fil all | —..thy pe- | titions.
4. Now know that the Lord, | saveth..his an- | ointed;
   He will hear him from his holy heaven
   With the saving | strength of | his right | hand.
5. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;
   But we will remember the name of the | Lord our | God:
   They are brought down and fallen;
   But we are | risen..and | stand— | upright.
6. Save, Lord! let the king | hear us..when we | call.
   Save, Lord! let the king | hear us | when we | call.

MAGNA ET MIRABILIA OPERA. From Rev. xv.

VERBA MEA AURIBUS. Ps. v.

1. Give ear to my words, O Lord: consider my | med-i- | tation:
   Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God; for unto | thee will | I— | pray.
2. My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord;
   In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and | will look | up.
   For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness, neither shall | evil | dwell with | thee.
3. The foolish shall not stand in thy sight; thou hatest all | workers..of in- | iquity:
   Thou shalt destroy them that speak falsehood; the Lord will abhor the | bloody.. and de- | ceit-ful | man.
4. But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy;
   And in thy fear will I worship toward thy | ho-ly | temple.
   Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies;
   Make thy way | straight be- | fore my | face.
5. Let all them that put their trust in thee rejoice;
   Let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them;
   Let them also that love thy name be | joyful..in | thee:
   For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous;
   With favor wilt thou compass | him, as | with a | shield.

QUAM BONUS ISRAEL. Ps. lxxiii.

1. Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a | clean— | heart.
   But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my | steps had | wellnigh | slipped.
2. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the pros- | perity..of the | wicked.
   For there are no bands in their | death;..but their | strength is | firm.
3. When I thought to know this, it was too | painful | for me;
   Until I went into the sanctuary of God: | then..under- | stood I..their | end.
4. Surely thou didst set them in slippery places; thou castedst them | down..to de- | struction;
   How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! They are | utterly..con- | sumed..with | terrors.
5. As a dream when | one a- | waketh,
   So, O Lord, when thou awakest, | thou..shalt de- | spise their | image.
6. For lo, they that are far from | thee shall | perish;
   Thou hast destroyed all | them that..go a- | stray from | thee.
7. But it is good for me to draw | near to | God;
   I have put my trust in the Lord, that I may declare | all— | —thy | works.

JUDICA ME, DOMINE. Ps. xxvi.

1. Judge me, O Lord, for I have | walked in..mine in- | tegrity:
   I have trusted also in the Lord: | therefore..I | shall not | slide.
2. Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my | reins and..my | heart:
   For thy loving-kindness is before mine eyes, and I have | walked..in | thy— | truth.
3. I have not sat with vain persons; neither will I go | in..with dis- | semblers;
   I have hated the congregation of evil-doers,
   And | will not | sit..with the | wicked.
4. I will wash my hands in innocency: so will I compass thine | altar,..O | Lord:
   That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving,
   And tell of | all thy | wondrous | works.
5. Lord, I have loved the habi- | tation..of thy | house,
   And the | place..where thine | honor | dwelleth;
6. Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with | blood-y | men.
   In whose hands is mischief, and their | right hand..is | full of | bribes.
7. But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity.

The holy Church throughout | all the | world doth | —ac- | knowledge | thee;
The | — — | Father..of | —an | infi..nite | Majesty;
Thine honor- | able, | true, and | — — | only | Son;
Also the | Holy | Ghost, the | Com- — | —for- | ter.
Thou art the | King of | Glory, O | — — | — — | Christ.
Thou art the ever- | lasting | Son of | — — | —the | Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to de- | liver | man: thou didst not ab- | hor the | Virgin's | womb.
When thou hadst overcome the | sharpness..of | death, thou didst open the kingdom of | heaven..to | all be- | lievers.
Thou sittest at the right | hand of | God..in the | glory | of the | Father.
We believe that | thou shalt | come to | — — | be our | Judge.
We therefore pray thee, | help thy | servants, whom thou hast redeemed | with thy | precious | blood.
Make them to be numbered | with thy | saints in | glory | ever- | lasting.
O Lord, | save thy | people, and | bless thine | heri- | tage.
Go- — | vern | them, and | lift them | up for- | ever.
Day | — by | day we | — — | magni..fy | thee.
And we | worship thy | Name, ever, | world— | without | end.
Vouch- | safe, O | Lord, to keep us | this day | without | sin.
O Lord, have | mercy..up- | on us; have | — — | mercy..up- | on us.
O Lord, let thy mercy | lighten..up- | on us, as | our trust | is in | thee.
O Lord, in thee | have I | trusted, let me | never | be con- | founded.

JUST AS I AM.

Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out.—John vi. 37.

1 Just as I am—without one plea,
But that thy blood was | shed for | me,
And that thou bid'st me | come to | thee!
O Lamb of God, I come!

2 Just as I am—and waiting not
To rid my soul of | one dark | blot,
To thee, whose blood can | cleanse each | spot,
O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am—though toss'd about
With many a conflict, | many a | doubt,
'Fightings within, and | fears with- | out,'
O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am—poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing | of the | mind,
Yea, all I need, in | thee to | find;
O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, | cleanse, re- | lieve;
Because thy promise | I be- | lieve;
O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am—thy love unknown
Has broken every | barrier | down;
Now to be thine, yea, | thine a- | lone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

THE BEATITUDES.

1. { Blessed are the poor in spirit:
For theirs is the | kingdom of | heaven.
2. Blessed are they that mourn: for | they— | shall be | comforted.
3. Blessed are the meek: for they shall in- | herit the | earth.
4. { Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for | they— | shall be | filled.
5. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall | obtain— | mercy.
6. Blessed are the pure in heart: for | they shall | see— | God.
7. { Blessed are the peace-makers:
For they shall be called the | children of | God.
8. { Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness, sake:
For | theirs...is the | kingdom of | heaven.
9. { Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you | falsely, for | my sake.
10. { Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven;
For so persecuted they the | prophets which | were be- | fore you.

BEATUS VIR. Ps. i.

1. { Blessed is the man
That walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the | seat...of the | scornful;
2. { But his delight is in the law of the Lord,
And in his law doth he | medi-tate | day and | night.
3. { And he shall be like a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That bringeth forth his | fruit...in his | season.
4. { His leaf also shall not wither;
And whatso- | ever...he | doeth...shall | prosper.
5. { The ungodly are not so;
But are like the chaff which the wind | driveth...a- | way.
6. { Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congre- | ga-tion | of the | righteous.
7. { For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous,
But the way of the un- | godly...shall | perish.
8. { The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous,
But the | way...of th' un- | godly...shall | perish.

DOMINE REFUGIUM. Ps. xc.

1. Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in | all gene- | rations. ‖ Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, | thou art | God.
2. Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye | children..of | men. ‖ For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a | watch..in the | night.
3. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which | groweth | up. ‖ In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut | down, and | withereth.
4. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath | are we | troubled. ‖ Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the | light..of thy | countenance.
5. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as a | tale.. that is | told. ‖ So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our | hearts..unto | wisdom. Amen.

TRINITAS.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord | God Al- | mighty, ‖ who was, and | is, and | is to | come.

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and | honor, and | power, ‖ for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they | are and | were cre- | ated.

And worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive | power, and | riches, ‖ and wisdom, and strength, and | honor, and | glory, and | blessing.

And let every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and | under the | earth, ‖ and such as | are— | in them | say:

Blessing, and honor, and | glory, and | power, ‖ be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and un- | to the | Lamb, for- | ever.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord | God Al- | mighty, ‖ who was, and | is, and | is to | come.

DEUS MISEREATUR. Ps. lxvii.

1. God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
   And show us the light of his countenance,
   And be | merciful..unto | us.
   That thy way may be known upon earth,
   Thy saving | health a- | mong all | nations.
2. Let the people praise thee, O God;
   Yea, let | all the..people | praise thee.
   Oh, let the nations rejoice and be glad;
   For thou shalt judge the folk righteously,
   And govern the | na..tions up- | on— | earth.
3. Let the people praise thee, O God;
   Yea, let | all the..people | praise thee.
   Then shall the earth bring forth her increase;
   And God, even our | own..God, shall | give us..his | blessing.
4. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the world shall | fear— | him.
   God shall bless us; and all the ends of the | world shall | fear— | him.

THE CREED.

I believe in God the Father | Al- — | mighty, ‖ Maker of | heaven | and — | earth.

And in Jesus Christ, his only | Son, our | Lord, ‖ who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was cruci- | fied,— | dead, and | buried.

He descended | into | hell; ‖ the third day he | rose— | from the | dead.

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the | Father..Al- | mighty; ‖ from thence he shall come to judge the | quick — | and the | dead.

I believe in the | Holy | Ghost; ‖ the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints; the resurrection of the body, and the | life— | ever- | lasting.

DOMINUS REGIT ME. Ps. xxiii.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I | shall not | want. ‖ The Lord is my shepherd; I | shall— | not— | want.
2. He maketh me to lie down in | green— | pastures: ‖ he leadeth me be- | side the | still— | water.
3. He re- | storeth..my | soul; ‖ he leadeth me in the paths of | righteousness..for his | name's — | sake.
4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will | fear no | evil: ‖ for thou art with me; thy | rod and..thy | staff they | comfort me.
5. Thou preparest a table before me in the | presence of..my | enemies: ‖ thou anointest my head with | oil, my | cup..runneth | over.
6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the | days of..my | life: ‖ and I will dwell in the | house..of the | Lord for- | ever.

CONSERVA ME, DOMINE. Ps. xvi.

1. Preserve me, | O— | God, ‖ for in thee | do I | put my | trust;
2. O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou | art my | Lord; ‖ my goodness ex- | tendeth | not to | thee.
3. But to the saints that are | in the | earth, ‖ And to the excellent, in whom is | all— | my de- | light;
4. Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after an- | other | God; ‖ their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take their | names in- | to my | lips.
5. The Lord is the portion of my inheritance, and | of my | cup, ‖ thou main- | tainest | my — | lot;
6. The lines are fallen unto me in | pleasant | places; ‖ yea, I | have a | goodly | heritage.
7. I will bless the Lord, who hath | given..me | counsel; ‖ my reins also instruct me | in the | night— | season:
8. I have set the Lord | always..be- | fore me, ‖ because he is at my right hand | I shall | not be | moved.
9. Therefore my heart is glad, and my | glory..re- | joiceth; ‖ my flesh also shall | rest— | in— | hope.
10. For thou wilt not leave my | soul in | hell; ‖ neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy | One to | see cor- | ruption.

2. He bore our sins in his own body on the tree, and the Lord laid on him the iniquity | of us | all. ‖ His soul was sorrowful, even unto death; he was brought | as a lamb | to the | slaughter;
3. He humbled himself, and became obedient | unto | death, ‖ even the | death= | of the | cross.
4. He was taken from prison | and from | judgment; ‖ he was cut off out | of the land | of the | living.
5. Sing praises unto our God and the Lamb, | and= | say: ‖ Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us out of every kindred, and tongue, and | people, | and= | nation;
6. Thou hast made us unto our God | kings and | priests. ‖ Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, for | ever and | ev= | er.
7. All creatures which are in heaven, and | on the | earth, ‖ ascribe blessing and honor unto him that sitteth upon the throne, | and un- | to the | Lamb!
8. Now is come salvation and strength, and the kingdom | of our | God, ‖ and the | power | of his | Christ.
9. If God be for us, who | can be | against us? ‖ He spared not his | only be- | gotten | Son,
10. But delivered him up | for us | all; ‖ how shall he not with him also freely | give us | all= | things!
11. Unto him that | loved | us, ‖ and washed us from our sins in | his= | own= | blood,

No. 52. EASTER CANTICLE.

This is the day which the | Lord hath | made;
We will rejoice | and be | glad in | it.

The Lord is my strength | and my | song,
And is be- | come— | my sal- | vation.

The voice of rejoicing is in the tabernacles | of the | righteous;
The right hand of the | Lord doeth | valiant- | ly.

The right hand of the Lord | is ex- | alted:
The right hand of the | Lord doeth | valiant- | ly.

I shall not | die, but | live,
And declare the | works— | of the | Lord.

The stone which the builders | re- — | fused
Is become the head- | stone— | of the | corner.

Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son,
And | to the | Holy | Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever | shall be,
World without | end.— | A- — | men.

Christ, being raised from the dead, | dieth no | more;
Death hath no more do- | minion | over | him.

For in that he died, he died unto | sin— | once;
But in that he liveth, he | liveth | unto | God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed | unto | sin,
But alive unto God through | Jesus | Christ our | Lord.

Christ is risen | from the | dead,
And become the first- | fruits of | them that | slept.

For since by | man came | death,
By man came also the resur- | rection | of the | dead.

For as in Adam | all— | die,
Even so in Christ shall | all be | made a- | live.

Glory be to the Father, | and to the | Son,
And— | to the | Holy | Ghost;

1. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine | enemies thy | footstool. ‖ The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of | Zion | and= | say:
2. Rule thou in the | midst of thine | enemies! ‖ The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent: thou art a priest forever after the | order | of Mel- | chisedec.
3. Oh, clap your hands, | all ye | people. ‖ Shout unto God with the | voice= | of= | triumph!
4. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound | of a | trumpet. ‖ Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of | glory | shall come | in!
5. Who is this | King of | glory? ‖ The Lord, strong and mighty; | he is the | King of | glory.
6. Sing praises to God, and unto our King! | Sing= | praises! ‖ For he is the | King of | all the | earth.
7. God reigneth | over the | heathen; ‖ he sitteth upon the | throne of | his= | holiness.
8. Let all the world bow | down be- | fore him, ‖ and all the angels of | God= | worship | him!
9. Thy throne, O God, is for | ever and | ever; ‖ the sceptre of thy kingdom | is a | right= | sceptre.
10. Thou lovest righteousness and | hatest | wickedness; ‖ therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of | gladness a- | bove thy | fellows.
11. Thou hast as- | cended on | high; ‖ thou hast led cap- | tivi- | ty= | captive;
12. Thou hast received | gifts for | men. ‖ Thou hast entered into thy Father's house, to pre- | pare a | mansion for | us.
13. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that | justi- | fieth. ‖ Who is he that condemneth? | It is | Christ that | died;
14. Yea, rather, that is risen again, who is even at the | right hand of | God, ‖ who also maketh | inter- | cession | for us.

Glory be to the Father, | and to the | Son, ‖ and | to the | Holy | Ghost;
Through Jesus | Christ our | Lord. ‖ His is the kingdom, and the power, and the | glory! | A= | men.

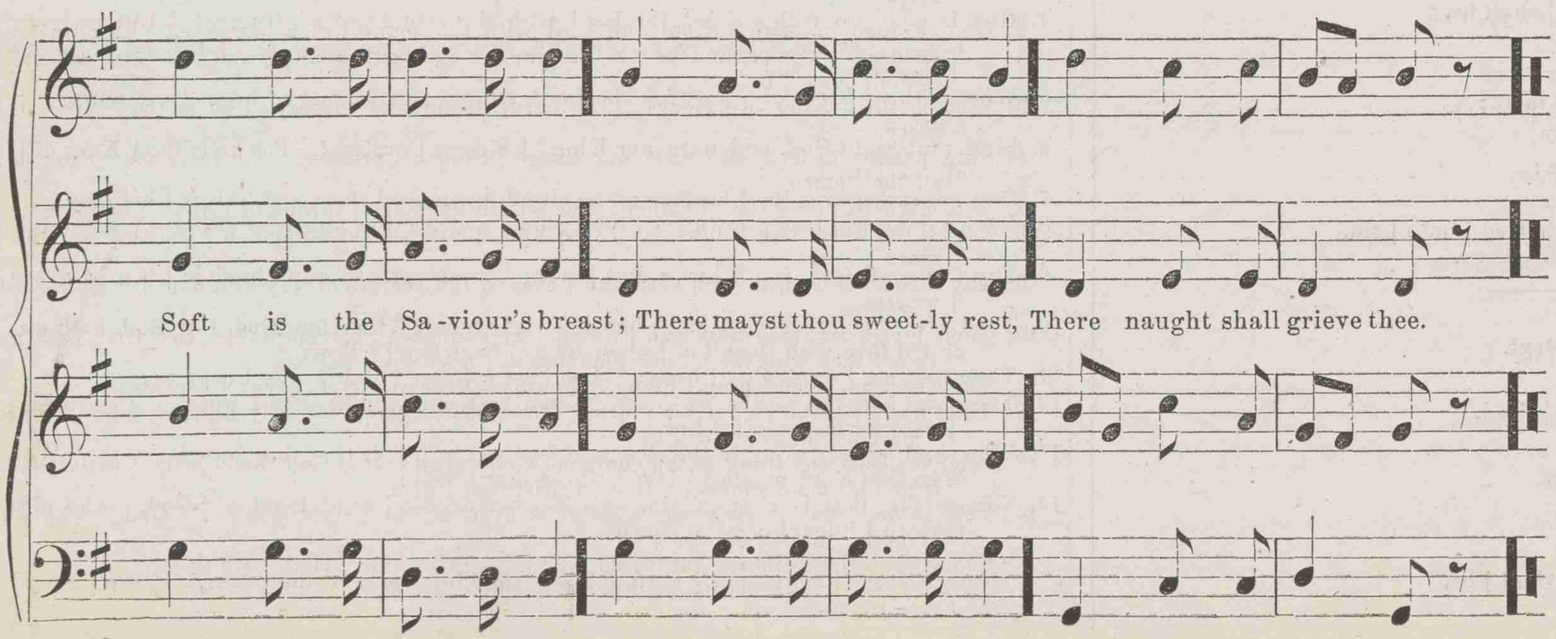
"Poor, wildered, weeping Heart!"

From the Spanish.

Very Slow.



2.

Come, trembling, timid soul,
  Why this delaying?
Thunders, that o'er thee roll,
  Fall on thee straying.
Turn from destruction's ways;
Turn to the throne of grace;
There seek thy Father's face,
  Weeping and praying.

3.

"Hence, guilty fear and doubt,
  Leave me forever!
Lord, wilt thou cast me out?
  Never—oh, never!
From unbelief of mind,
From thoughts to sin inclined,
From flesh and hell combined,
  Thou wilt deliver."

[H. 890, by omitting repeat.]

1. Glo-ry to God! the ho-ly an-gels cry; Glo-ry to God! let ev'-ry heart re-ply;
The Sun of righteousness now shines on earth, And peace returns at our Redeemer's birth.
Glo-ry to God! the ho-ly an-gels cry; Glo-ry to God! let ev'-ry heart re-ply.

2. Good will to men! the ho-ly an-gels cry; Good will to men! let ev'-ry heart re-ply;
Let hatred, wrath, and strife be heard no more, But peace and love be spread from shore to shore.
Good will to men! the ho-ly an-gels cry; Good will to men! let ev'-ry heart re-ply.

3. Glo-ry to God! who sent his Son from heaven, That through his blood our sins might be forgiven;
He comes with peace and pardon from a-bove, And rules his peo-ple with the laws of love.
Good will to men! the ho-ly an-gels cry; Good will to men! let ev'-ry heart re-ply.

   Full of sin, a - las! I am, But to thee for re-fuge flee: Friend of sin - ners, spot - less Lamb, Thy blood was shed for me.

2. No good word, or work, or thought, I bring to buy thy grace; Par - don I ac - cept unbought, Thy prof - fer I em - brace.
   Need - y, guilt - y, vile, I am; Yet I know thy love is free: Friend of sin - ners, spot - less Lamb, Thy blood was shed for me.

3. Sa - viour, from thy wound - ed side I nev - er will de - part; At thy cross will I a - bide, With hum - ble, trust - ing heart.
   When my place a - bove I claim, Still the cross shall be my plea: Friend of sin - ners, spot - less Lamb, Thy blood was shed for me.

1. And must I part with all I have, My dear - est Lord, for thee? It is but right! since thou hast done Much more than this for me.

2. Yes, let it go!—One look from thee Will more than make a - mends For all the loss - es I sus - tain Of cre - dit, rich - es, friends.

3. Ten thousand worlds, ten thou-sand lives, How worthless they ap-pear, Compared with thee, Su-preme-ly Good! Di - vine - ly bright and fair!

4. Sa - viour of souls! could I from thee A sin - gle smile ob - tain, Though des - ti - tute of all things else, I'd glo - ry in my gain.

Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet - ter por - tion trace; Rise, from tran - si - to - ry things, Tow'rds heaven, thy destined place:

Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet - ter por - tion trace; Rise, from tran - si - to - ry things, Tow'rds heaven, thy destined place:

Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet - ter por - tion trace; Rise, from tran - si - to - ry things, Tow'rds heaven, thy destined place:

Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats pre-pared a - bove.

Sun and moon and stars de - cay. Time shall soon this earth re - move; Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats pre-pared a - bove.

Come ye to the balmy waters,—
Dash the maddening cup aside;
Ruddy sons and rosy daughters,
Trip it gay, and be supplied.
Every bubbling fount that gushes
Holds a rosy troop of blushes:
Sip the tide!

5.

Wine may thrill the soul a minute,
But it poisons where it goes;
Water has a virtue in it
Scattering blessings where it goes.
Drink! and Heaven will smile upon thee!
Drink! and thou wilt look as lovely
As the rose.

HEAVENLY REST. C. M.

J. A. NAUMANN.

p Cres. p m p Dim.

1. There is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wanderers given; There is a joy for souls distress'd, A balm for every wounded breast: 'Tis found alone in heaven.
2. There is a soft, a downy bed, 'Tis fair as breath of even; A couch for weary mortals spread, Where they may rest the aching head, And find repose in heaven.
3. There is a home for weary souls, By sin and sorrow driven; When toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals, Where storms arise and ocean rolls, And all is drear—but heaven.

p Cres. p m p Dim.

4. There faith lifts up her cheerful eye, The heart no longer riven, And views the tempest passing by, The evening shadows quickly fly, And all serene in heaven.
5. There fragrant flowers immortal bloom, And joys supreme are given; There rays divine disperse the gloom; Beyond the dark and narrow tomb Appears the dawn of heaven.

1. Pil - grim burden'd with thy sin, Haste to Zi - on's gate to - day; There, till mer - cy lets thee in, Knock, and weep, and watch, and pray.
2. Knock, for mer - cy lends an ear; Weep, she marks the sin - ner's sigh; Watch, till heavenly light ap - pear; Pray, she hears the mourner's cry.
3. Mourning pil - grim, what for thee In this world can now re - main? Seek that world from which shall flee Sor - row, shame, and tears, and pain.
4. Sor - row shall for - ev - er flee, Shame shall nev - er en - ter there, Tears be wiped from ev' - ry eye, Pain in end - less bliss ex - pire.

DUNLAP'S CREEK. C. M.

1. When God re-veal'd his gracious name, And changed my mourn-ful state, My rap-ture seem'd a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-pear'd so great.
2. The world be-held the glorious change, And did thy hand con-fess; My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sang sur-pris-ing grace.

3. "Great is the work," my neighbors cried, And own'd thy power di-vine; "Great is the work," my heart re-plied, "And be the glo-ry thine."

4. The Lord can clear the dark-est skies, Can give us day for night, Make drops of sa-cred sor-row rise To ri-vers of de-light.
5. Let those that sow in sadness wait Till the fair har-vest come; They shall con-fess their sheaves are great, And bring rich bless-ings home.

SUFFERING SAVIOUR. C. M.

1. A-las! and did my Sa-viour bleed, And did my Sovereign die? Would he de-vote that sa-cred head For such a worm as I?

3. Well might the sun in dark-ness hide, And shut his glo-ries in, When God, the might-y Ma-ker, died For man, the crea-ture's sin!
4. Thus might I hide my blush-ing face, While his dear cross ap-pears, Dis-solve my heart in thank-ful-ness, And melt my eyes to tears.

Chorus: Oh, the Lamb, the lov-ing Lamb, The Lamb on Cal-va-ry— The Lamb that was slain, That liveth again, To in-ter cede for me!

GREENFIELDS. 8 lines, 8s.

D. C.

1. How te-dious and taste-less the hours When Je-sus no long-er I see!
Sweet pros-pects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers Have all lost their sweetness to me.
D. C. But when I am hap-py in him, De-cem-ber's as plea-sant as May.

The mid-sum-mer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay;

2. His name yields the rich-est per-fume, And sweet-er than mu-sic his voice;
His pre-sence dis-pers-es my gloom, And makes all with-in me re-joice:
D. C. No mor-tal so hap-py as I, My sum-mer would last all the year.

I should, were he al-ways thus nigh, Have noth-ing to wish or to fear,

D. C.

3. Con-tent with be-hold-ing his face, My all to his plea-sure re-sign'd,
No chan-ges of sea-son or place Would make an-y change in my mind;
D. C. And pri-sons would pa-la-ces prove, If Je-sus would dwell with me there.

While bless'd with a sense of his love, A pa-lace a toy would ap-pear.

SALEM. L. M.

Rewritten and arranged by W. D. R.

1. He dies! the Friend of sin-ners dies! Lo! Sa-lem's daugh-ters weep a-round: A so-lemn dark-ness veils the skies, A sud-den trem-bling shakes the ground.
2. Come, saints, and drop a tear or two For Him who groan'd be-neath your load: He shed a thou-sand drops for you, A thou-sand drops of rich-er blood!

3. Here's love and grief be-yond de-gree: The Lord of glo-ry dies for men! But lo!—what sud-den joys we see! Je-sus, the dead, re-vives a-gain.

4. The ris-ing God for-sakes the tomb, In vain the tomb for-bids his rise: Che-ru-bic le-gions guard him home, And shout him wel-come to the skies

WOODLAND. C. M.

1. Oh for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free! A heart that always feels thy blood, A heart that always feels thy blood, So free-ly spilt for me!
2. A heart resign'd, submissive, meek, My great Redeemer's throne; Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where Jesus reigns alone.
3. Oh for a low-ly, con-trite heart, Be-lieving, true, and clean, Which neither life nor death can part, Which neither life nor death can part From Him that dwells within!
4. A heart in ev'ry thought renew'd, And full of love divine, Perfect, and right, and pure, and good, Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,—A copy, Lord, of thine!
5. Thy nature, gra-cious Lord, impart, Come quickly from above; Write thy new name upon my heart, Write thy new name upon my heart, Thy new, best name of love.

WOODSTOCK. C. M.

The late D. DUTTON, Jr.

1. I love to steal a while a-way From ev'-ry cum-b'ring care, And spend the hours of set-ting day In hum-ble, grate-ful prayer.
2. I love in sol-i-tude to shed The pen-i-ten-tial tear, And all his pro-mi-ses to plead, Where none but God can hear.
3. I love to think on mer-cies past, And fu-ture good im-plore, And all my cares and sor-rows cast On Him whom I a-dore.
4. I love, by faith, to take a view Of brighter scenes in heaven; The pros-pect doth my strength re-new, While here by tem-pests driven.
5. Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er, May its de-part-ing ray Be calm as this im-press-ive hour, And lead to end-less day.

"I am Bound for the Promised Land."

Arranged by W. D. R.

D.C.

1. Con-vinced of sin, men now be - gin To call up - on the Lord;
Trem-bling they pray, and mourn the day In which they scorn'd his word.

} I am bound for the pro-mised land, I am bound for the promised land.

D.C. My Sa - viour calls, and I must go, I am bound for the promised land.

D.C.

2. Young converts sing, and praise their King, And bless God's ho - ly name;
While old - er saints leave their complaints And joy to join the theme.

} I am bound for the pro - mised land, I am bound for the promised land.

"Joyfully! joyfully!" 10s.

Rev. A. D. MERRILL.

1. { Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly on - ward I move, Bound for the land of bright spi-rits a - bove;
   { An - gel - ic chor - ist - ers sing, as I come, "Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly haste to thy home." } Soon, with my pilgrimage end - ed be - low,

2. { Friends fond-ly cherish'd have pass'd on be - fore, Wait - ing, they watch me approach-ing the shore;
   { Sing - ing to cheer me through death's chilling gloom, "Joy-ful - ly, joy - ful - ly haste to thy home." } Sounds of sweet mel-o - dy fall on my ear;

3. { Death, with thy weapons of war lay me low, Strike, King of ter - rors, I fear not thy blow;
   { Je - sus hath bro - ken the bars of the tomb: Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly will I go home. } Bright will the morn of e - ter - ni - ty dawn,

Home to the land of bright spi - rits I'll go, Pil - grim and stranger no more shall I roam, Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly rest-ing at home.

Harps of the bless - ed, your voi - ces I hear; Rings with the har - mo - ny heaven's high dome, "Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly haste to thy home."

Death shall be banish'd, his scep - tre be gone; Joy - ful - ly then shall I wit - ness his doom; Joy - ful - ly, joy - ful - ly, safe - ly at home.

I'M A PILGRIM.

Fine. D. C. Fine.

1. I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger; I can tar-ry, I can tar-ry but a night! Do not detain me, for I am going To where the streamlets are ever flowing.

D. C. for each verse. I'm a pilgrim, &c.

2. Of that ci-ty to which I journey, My Re-deemer, my Redeemer is the light; There is no sorrow, nor any sighing, Nor a-ny tears, nor a-ny dy-ing.

3. There the glory is ever shining, Oh, my longing heart, my longing heart is there; Here in this country so dark and so dreary I long have wander'd, forlorn and weary.

4. Father, mother, and sister, brother, If you will not journey with me I must go; For since your vain hope you still will cherish, Should I, too, linger, and with you perish?

Fine. D. C. Fine.

5. Farewell, neighbors, with tears I've warn'd you; I must leave you, I must leave you and begone; With this your portion, your heart's desire, Why will you perish in raging fire?

6. Farewell, dreary earth, by sin so blighted, In immortal beauty soon you'll be array'd; For He who form'd thee will soon restore thee From sin and death to praise and glory.

[B. W. 373.]

"Oh, turn ye."

1. Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, { When God, in great mer-cy, is com-ing so nigh? / Since Je-sus in-vites you, the Spi-rit says come, } And an-gels are waiting to welcome you home.

2. How vain the de-lu-sion, that, while you delay, { Your hearts may grow better by stay-ing a-way! / Come wretched, come starving, come just as you be, } While streams of salvation are flowing so free.

"Child of sin and sorrow." 6s & 4s.

T. HASTINGS.

1. Child of sin and sor - row, Fill'd with dis - may,
   Wait not for to - morrow: Yield thee to - day.
   Heaven bids thee come, While yet there's room; Child of sin and sor - row, Hear and o - bey.

2. Child of sin and sor - row, Why wilt thou die?
   Come, while thou canst borrow Help from on high;
   Grieve not that love Which from a - bove, Child of sin and sor - row, Would bring thee nigh.

3. Child of sin and sor - row, Where wilt thou flee
   Through that long to-morrow, E - ter - ni - ty?
   Ex - iled from home, Dark - ly to roam, Child of sin and sor - row, Where wilt thou flee?

4. Child of sin and sor - row, Lift up thine eye!
   Heirship thou canst borrow In worlds on high:
   In that high home, Gra - ven thy name: Child of sin and sor - row, Swift homeward fly.

LANSINGBURGH. 6s & 5s.

German.

"Why that look of sadness?"

1. Why that look of sadness? Why that downcast eye? Can no thought of gladness Lift thy soul on high? O thou heir of heaven, Think of Jesus' love, While to thee is giv - en All his grace to prove.

2. Is thy burden'd spi - rit A - gonized for sin? Think of Jesus' merit; He can make thee clean; Think of Calvary's mountain, Where his blood was spilt: In that precious fountain Wash away thy guilt.

3. Is thy spirit drooping? Is the tempter near? Still in Jesus ho - ping, What hast thou to fear? Set the prize be-fore thee, Gird thy armor on: Heir of grace and glory, Struggle for thy crown.

[H. 274. B. W. 298.]

THE PENITENT. L. M.

1. Show pi - ty, Lord! O Lord, for-give! Let a re - pent - ing sin - ner live: Are not thy mer - cies large and free? May not the con - trite trust in thee?
2. With shame my numerous sins I trace A-gainst thy law, a-gainst thy grace; And though my prayer thou shouldst not hear, My doom is just, and thou art clear.
3. Yet save a pe - ni - tent, O Lord! Whose hope, still hovering round thy word, Seeks for some precious pro-mise there, Some sure support a-gainst de-spair.
4. My sins are great, but don't sur-pass The rich-es of e - ter - nal grace: Great God, thy na - ture hath no bound, So let thy pardoning love be found.
5. Oh, wash my soul from ev' - ry stain, Nor let the guilt I mourn re - main; Give me to hear thy pardoning voice, And bid my bleed - ing heart re - joice.

[H. 164. B. W. 310.]

ROCK OF AGES. 7s, 6 lines, or 8 lines by repeating the first two.

T. HASTINGS.

1. Rock of a - ges, cleft for me! Let me hide my-self in thee; Let the wa - ter and the blood, From thy wound - ed side that flow'd,
D.C. Be of sin the per-fect cure: Save me, Lord! and make me pure.
2. Should my tears for - ev - er flow, Should my zeal no lan - guor know, This for sin could not a - tone: Thou must save, and thou a - lone.
D.C. In my hand no price I bring; Sim - ply to thy cross I cling.

MARTYN. 7s. Double.

S. B. MARSH.

Fine. D. C.

1. Ma - ry to the Sa-viour's tomb Hast-ed at the ear - ly dawn;
Spice she brought, and sweet perfume, But the Lord she loved had gone;
D. C. Trembling, while a crys - tal flood Is - sued from her weep - ing eyes.
For a while she ling'r - ing stood, Fill'd with sor - row and sur - prise,

2. But her sor - row quick - ly fled When she heard his wel - come voice,
Christ had ris - en from the dead, Now he bids her heart re - joice.
D. C. Ye who weep for Je - sus' sake, He will wipe your tears a - way.
What a change his word can make, Turn - ing dark-ness in - to day!

Fine. D. C.

3. He who came to com - fort her, When she thought her all was lost,
Will for your re - lief ap - pear, Though you now are tem - pest tost.
D. C. Weeping for a while may last, But the morn - ing brings the joy.
On his arm your bur - den cast, On his love your thoughts em - ploy:

"Jerusalem, my happy home!"

1. Je - ru - sa - lem! my hap - py home! Name ev - er dear to me!
When shall my la - bors have an end, In joy and peace, and thee?
2. When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls And pearl - y gates be - hold,
Thy bul - warks with sal - va - tion strong, And streets of shin - ing gold?
Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! My hap - py home, How do I sigh for thee!

3. Oh, when, thou ci - ty of my God, shall I thy courts as - cend.
Where con - gre - ga - tions ne'er break up, And Sabbaths have no end?
Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! My hap - py home, How do I sigh for thee!

4. There hap-pier bowers than E - den's bloom, Nor sin nor sor - row know!
Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes I on-ward press to you.
Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - ru - sa - lem! My hap - py home, How do I sigh for thee!

SOLO.

1. Come, ye dis - con-so-late, where'er ye lan - guish, Come, at the mer-cy - seat fer-vently kneel: Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish:
2. Joy of the des - o-late, light of the stray - ing, Hope of the pen - i - tent, fade-less and pure, Here speaks the Comforter, in mer - cy say - ing,
3. Here see the bread of life; see wa - ters flow - ing Forth from the throne of God, boundless in love; Come to the feast prepared; come, ev - er know - ing

Accompaniment.

CHORUS.

Earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal; Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish: Earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal.
Earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot cure; Here speaks the Comforter, in mer - cy say - ing, Earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot cure.
Earth has no sorrows but heaven can re-move; Come to the feast prepared; come, ev-er know - ing Earth has no sorrows but heaven can re-move.

CHORUS.

THE CONVERT. 6s & 9s.

Popular Melody.

1. How hap-py are they Who the Sa-viour o-bey, And have laid up their treasure a-bove! Oh, what tongue can express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its ear-li-est love?

2. 'Twas hea-ven be-low My Re-deem-er to know, And the an-gels could do nothing more Than to fall at his feet, And the sto-ry re-peat, And the Lov-er of sin-ners a-dore.

3. Oh, the rap-tu-rous height Of that ho-ly de-light Which I felt in the life-giving blood! Of my Sa-viour pos-sess'd, I was per-fect-ly blest, As if fill'd with the ful-ness of God.
4. Then all the day long Was my Je-sus my song, And re-demption through faith in his name: Oh that all might believe, And sal-va-tion re-ceive, And their song and their joy be the same!

[B. W. 385.]

GREENVILLE. 8s & 7s. Double.

ROUSSEAU.

1. Gen-tly, Lord, oh, gen-tly lead us Through this lone-ly vale of tears,
Through the changes thou'st de-creed us, Till our last great change ap-pears.
D.C. Let thy goodness nev-er fail us; Lead us in thy per-fect way.
When tempt-a-tion's darts as-sail us, When in devious paths we stray,

D.C.

2. In the hour of pain and an-guish, In the hour when death draws near,
Suf-fer not our hearts to lan-guish, Suf-fer not our souls to fear;
D.C. Till, by an-gel bands at-tend-ed, We a-wake a-mong the blest.
And, when mor-tal life is end-ed, Bid us in thine arms to rest,

Coda for fifth verse.

1. There is a fountain fill'd with blood Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners plunged beneath that flood Lose all their guilty stains.

2. The dy - ing thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day; Oh, there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins a - way!

3. Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood Shall nev-er lose its power Till all the ransom'd church of God Be saved to sin no more.

p

4. E'er since by faith I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply, Re - deeming love has been my theme, And shall be, till I die.

5. Then, in a no-bler, sweet-er song, I'll sing thy power to save, When this poor, lisping, stammering tongue Lies silent in the grave, Lies si - lent in the grave.

[B. W. 428.]

LABAN. S. M.

CHELMSFORD. C. M.

1. Dear Je - sus! pros-trate at thy feet A guilt-y re - bel lies, And upward to the mer - cy - seat Pre-sumes to lift his eyes.
2. Oh, let not jus - tice frown me hence; Stay, stay the venge - ful storm: For - bid it that Om - ni - po - tence Should crush a fee - ble worm.
3. If tears of sor - row would suf - fice To pay the debt I owe, Tears should from both my weep-ing eyes In cease-less tor - rents flow.
4. But no such sa - cri - fice I plead To ex - pi - ate my guilt; No tears but those which thou hast shed,—No blood but thou hast spilt.
5. Think of thy sor - rows, dearest Lord, And all my sins for - give: Jus - tice will well ap-prove the word That bids the sin - ner live.

PALESTRINA. L. M. 6 lines.

   Cease thy com-plaint, suppress thy groan, (Omit..... } To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

Fine. D.C.

2. Come, free-ly come, by sin op - press'd, Un - bur - den here thy weight - y load; } And trust the mer - cy of thy God; Thy God's thy Sa-viour,—glo-rious word!
   Here find thy re - fuge and thy rest, (Omit..... } For - ev - er love and praise the Lord.

"Delay not, delay not." 11s.

Moderato.

1. De - lay not, de - lay not, O sin - ner; draw near; The wa - ters of life are now flow - ing for thee!

2. De - lay not, de - lay not; why long - er a - buse The love and com - pas - sion of Je - sus, thy God?

3. De - lay not, de - lay not, O sin - ner, to come, For mer - cy still lin - gers, and calls thee to - day:
4. De - lay not, de - lay not! the Spi - rit of grace, Long grieved and re - sist - ed, may take its sad flight

No price is de - mand - ed, the Sa - viour is here, Re - demp - tion is pur - chased, sal - va - tion is free.

A foun - tain is o - pen'd, how canst thou re - fuse To wash and be cleansed in his par - don - ing blood!

Her voice is not heard in the shades of the tomb; Her mes - sage, un - heed - ed, will soon pass a - way.
And leave thee in dark - ness to fin - ish thy race, To sink in the gloom of e - ter - ni - ty's night.

CANAAN. L. M.

1. To earth de - scend, O Ho - ly Dove, From the rest and the joy of Ca - naan,
   And waft us on thy wings a - bove To the beau - ti - ful fields of Ca - naan.
2. A - bove the earth, a - bove the sky, Swell the star - flower'd hills of Ca - naan,
   And state - ly man - sions e - cho high With the feasts and the songs of Ca - naan.

3. We would as - cend that bless - ed height, To the throne of the land of Ca - naan;
   Where Je - sus reigns in glo - rious might, He is King of the realm of Ca - naan.

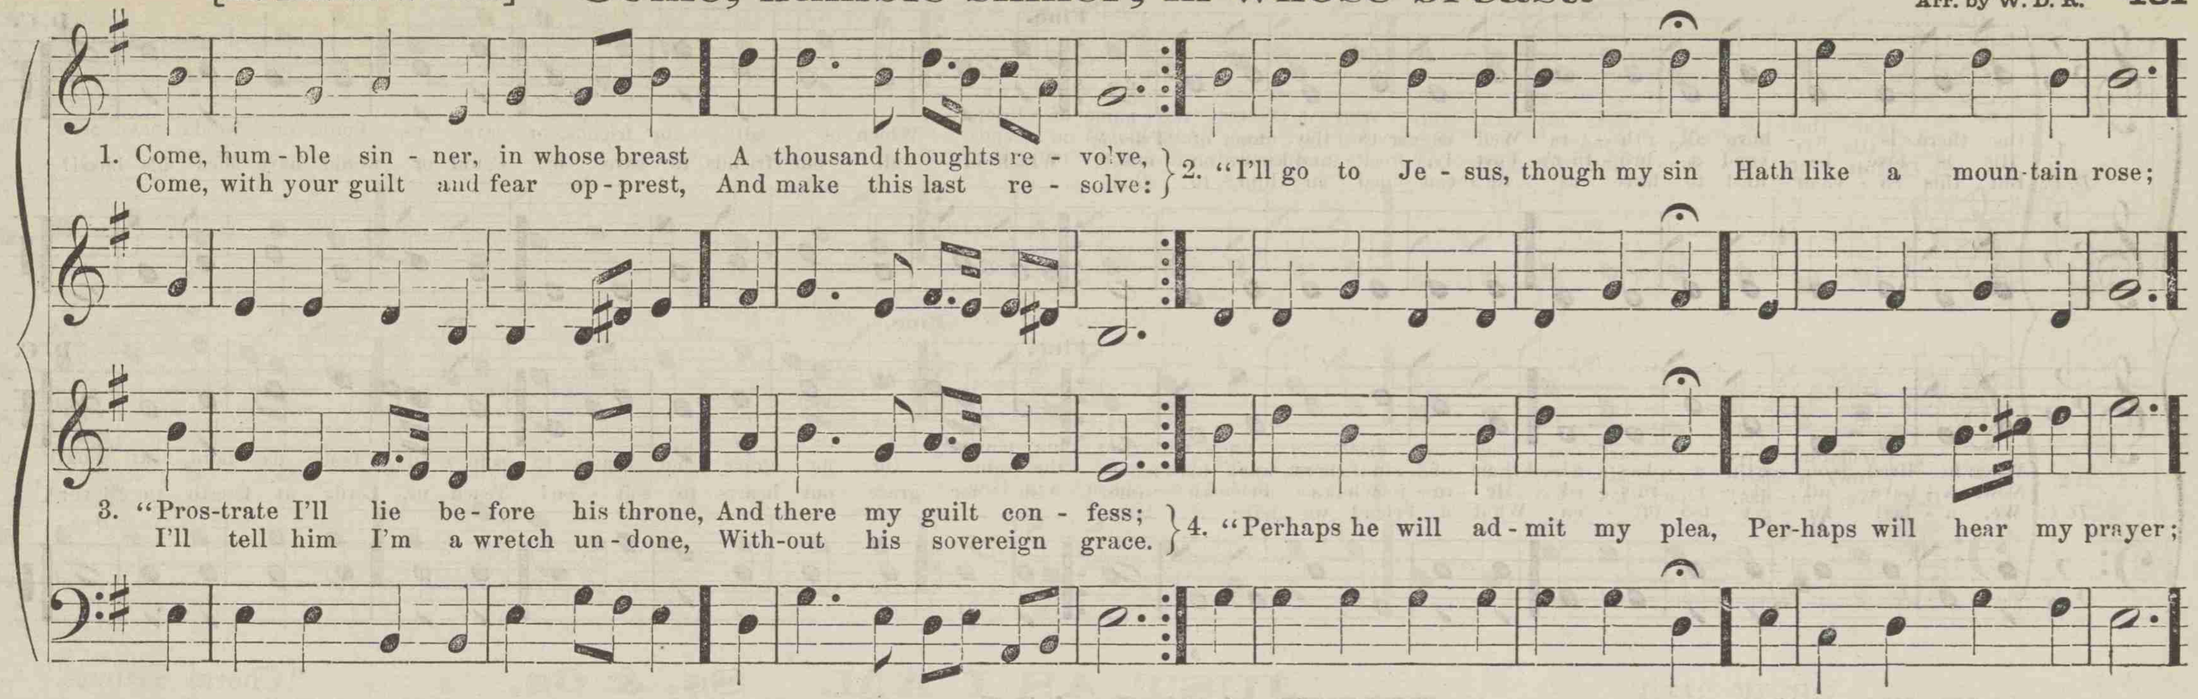
O Ca - naan, bright Ca - naan, I am bound for the land of Ca - naan!

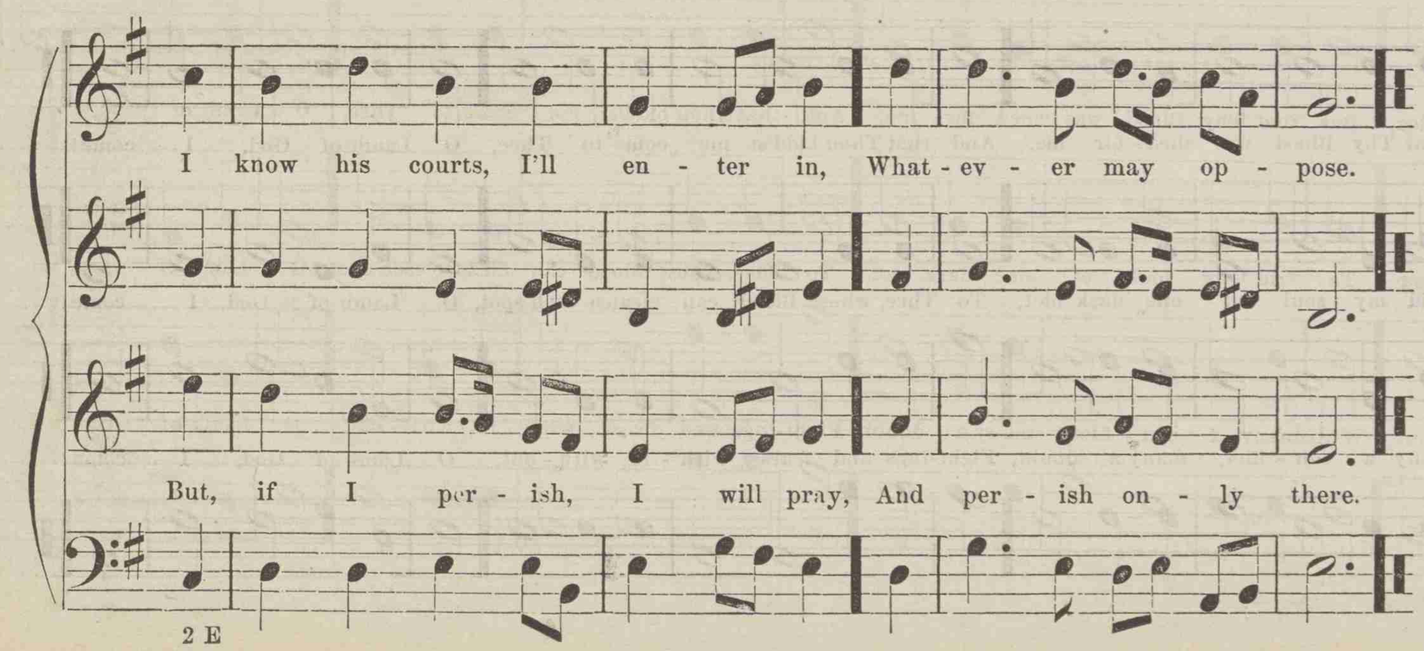
4. Re - joic - ing se - raphs round him flame, And the white-vested eld-ers of Ca - naan;
   His glo - ry and his grace pro - claim The bliss of the tribes in Ca - naan.
5. Dear Lord, we have been wait - ing long: When, oh, when shall we mount to Ca - naan,
   And join the sweet tri - umph - ant song, In the courts of the King of Ca - naan?

O Ca - naan, bright Ca - naan, I am bound for the land of Ca - naan!

O Ca - naan, my hap - py, hap - py home, I am bound for the land of Ca - naan!

O Ca - naan, my hap - py, hap - py home, I am bound for the land of Ca - naan!





5.

"I can but perish if I go;
I am resolved to try;
For if I stay away, I know,
I must forever die.

6.

"But if I die with mercy sought,
When I the King have tried,
That were to die (delightful thought!)
As sinners never died."

JUST AS I AM. 8s, & 6s.

"Choral Tribute."

1. Just as I am, with - out one plea, But that Thy Blood was shed for me, And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee, O Lamb of God, I come!

2. Just as I am, and wait - ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot, To Thee, whose Blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come!

3. Just as I am, though toss'd a - bout With many a con - flict, many a doubt, Fight-ings and fears with - in, with - out, O Lamb of God, I come!

"Nearer to Thee." 6s & 4s.

HASTINGS.

1. Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er to thee,
   E'en though it be a cross That rais - eth me,
2. Though, like the wan - der - er, The sun gone down
   Dark - ness be o - ver me, My rest a stone,
   Still all my song shall be, Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er to thee.
   Yet in my dreams I'd be Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er to thee.

3. There let the way ap - pear Steps in - to heaven;

"O Thou who driest the Mourner's Tear."

BAILY.

O thou who driest the mourner's tear, How dark this world would be If, pierced by sins and sor-rows here, We could not fly to thee! The friends who in our sun - shine live, When win - ter comes, are flown; And he who has but tears to give Must weep those tears a - lone.

"There is a Land." C. M.

But tim'rous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

5.

Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And view the Canaan that we love
With unbeclouded eyes,—

6.

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

BDELLIUM. 7s & 9s.

Hail, mighty Saviour! hail, mighty Saviour!
Prince and the Author of peace!
Oh, he burst the bars of death,
And triumphant from the earth
He ascended to mansions of bliss.

5.

There interceding, there interceding,
Pleading that sinners may live,
Crying, "Father, I have died,
Oh, behold my hands and side:
Oh, forgive them, I pray thee, forgive."

6.

"I will forgive them—I will forgive them,
When they repent and believe.
Let them now return to thee
And be reconciled to me,
And salvation they all shall receive."

THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM. L. M.

1. When, marshall'd on the night-ly plain, The glittering host be-stud the sky, One star a-lone of all the train Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

2. Once on the raging seas I rode; The storm was loud, the night was dark; The ocean yawn'd, and rudely blow'd The wind that toss'd my foundering bark.

3. It was my guide, my light, my all; It bade my dark fore-bod-ings cease; And thro' the storm and danger's thrall It led me to the port of peace.

Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks From ev'-ry host, From ev'-ry gem; But one a-lone the Sa-viour speaks:—It is the Star of Beth-le-hem.

Deep horror then my vi-tals froze; Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem; When suddenly a star a-rose:— It was the Star of Beth-le-hem.

Now safe-ly moor'd, my perils o'er, I'll sing, first in night's di-a-dem, For ev-er and for ev-er-more, The Star! the Star of Beth-le-hem.

AMAZING GRACE. C. M.

D. C.

1. A - maz - ing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a soul like me!
I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.
Was blind, but now I see, Was blind, but now I see.

2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, 'Twas grace my fears re - lieved;
How pre - cious did that grace ap - pear, The hour I first be - lieved!
The hour I first be - lieved, The hour I first be - lieved!

3. Full many a dan-ger, toil, and snare My soul has o - ver - come;
'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
And grace will lead me home, And grace will lead me home.
To meet to part no more, On Ca-naan's hap - py shore.

D. C.

Coda.

D. C. al Segno.

I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.
Oh, that will be joy-ful, joy-ful, joy-ful, Oh, that will be joyful, to meet to part no more.

Fine.

Then we shall meet at Jesus' feet, Shall meet to part no more.
Oh, that will be joy-ful, joy - ful, joy-ful, Oh, that will be joy-ful, to meet to part no more.

[H. 208. B. W. 396.]

BARTIMEUS. 8s & 7s.

1. "Mer-cy, O thou Son of Da-vid!" Thus the blind Bar-tim-eus pray'd; "O-thers by thy word are sav-ed, Now to me af-ford thine aid."
2. Ma-ny for his cry-ing chid him, But he call'd the loud-er still, Till the gra-cious Saviour bid him, "Come, and ask me what you will."
3. Mo-ney was not what he want-ed, Though by beg-ging used to live; But he ask'd, and Je-sus granted, Alms which none but he could give:—
4. "Lord, re-move this griev-ous blindness; Let mine eyes be-hold the day!" Straight he saw, and, won by kindness, Fol-low'd Je-sus in the way.

[H. 985. B. W. 347.]

MARTIE. 6s.

Rev. J. P. SMELTZER.

1. Go to thy rest, my child, Go to thy dream-less bed, Gen-tle and un-de-filed, With bless-ings on thy head.
2. Fresh ro-ses in thy hand, Buds on thy pil-low laid; Haste from this fear-ful land, Where flowers so quick-ly fade.
3. Be-fore thy heart had learn'd In way-ward-ness to stray; Be-fore thy feet had turn'd The dark and down-ward way;
4. Ere sin had sear'd the breast, Or sor-row woke the tear:—Rise to thy home of rest In yon ce-les-tial sphere.

MILTON. L. M. 6 lines, or L. M. Double.*

HAYDN.

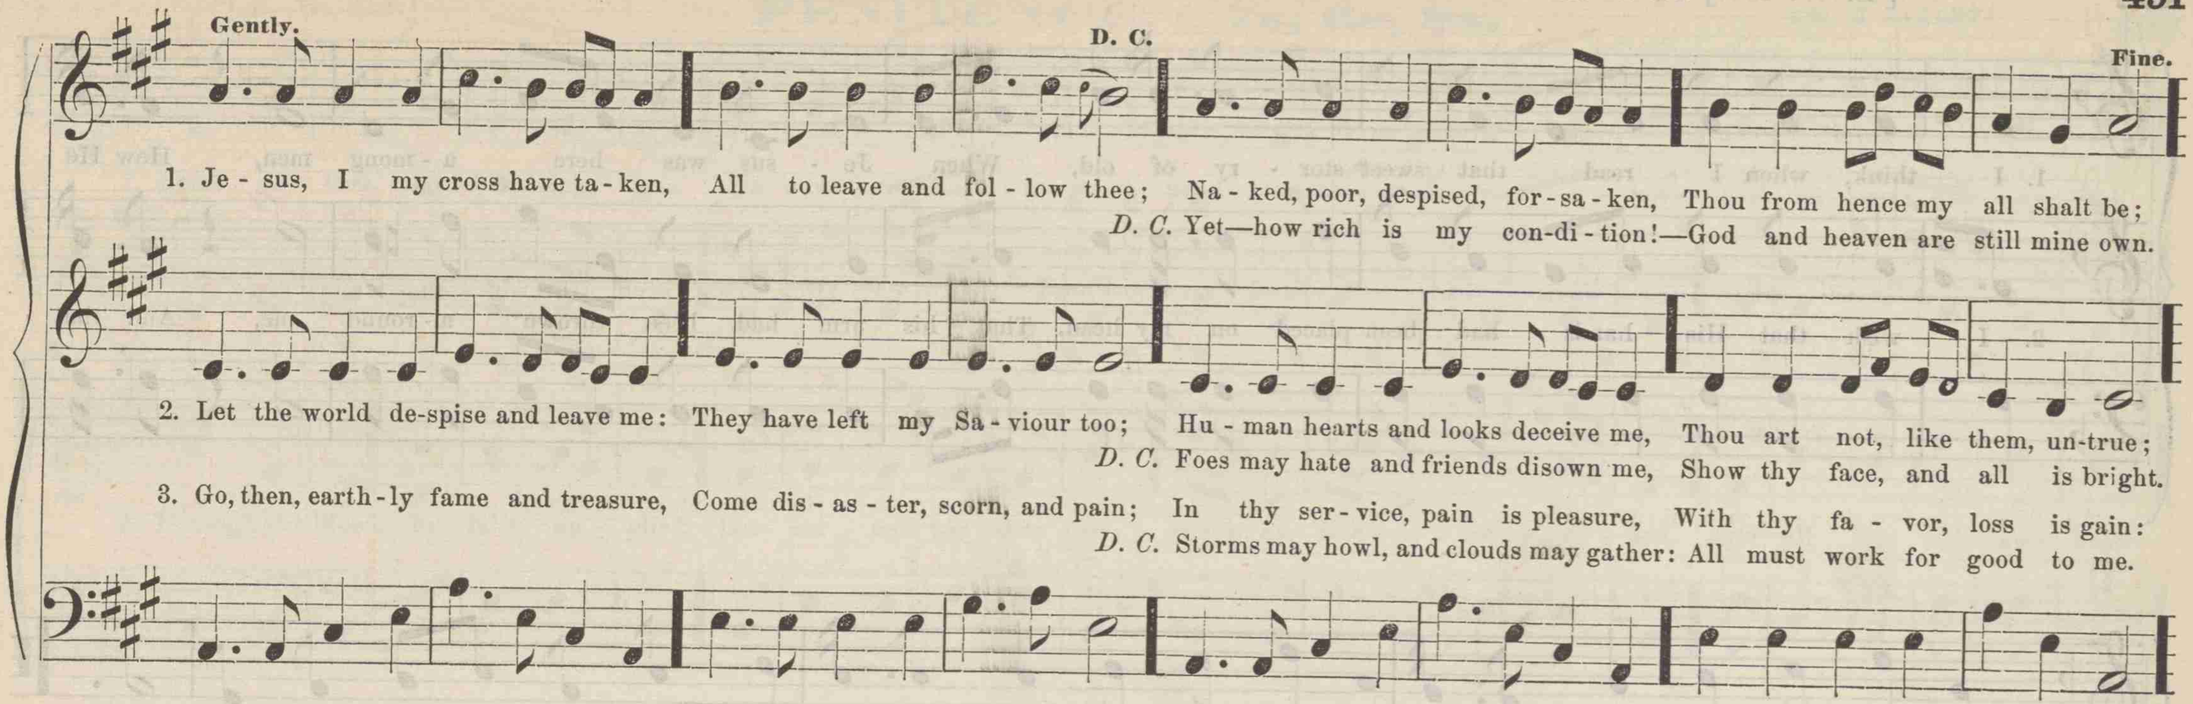
4.

When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend
Which covers all that was a friend
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while,
Thou, Saviour, seest the tears I shed;
For thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

5.

And, oh, when I have safely pass'd
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

* By repeating the first strain.



4. Soul, then know thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear;
Think what spirit dwells within thee;
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to win thee:
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

5. Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Arm'd by faith and wing'd by prayer;
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there:
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

CHILD'S DESIRE. 11, 9, 12, 9.

S. Bell.

1. I think, when I read that sweet stor - ry of old, When Je - sus was here a - mong men, How He call'd lit - tle chil - dren as lambs to His fold, I should like to have been with them then.

2. I wish that His hands had been placed on my head, That his arm had been thrown a - round me, And that I might have seen his kind look when he said, "Let the lit - tle ones come un - to me,"

3. Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in His love:
And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,
I shall see Him and hear Him above.

4. In that beautiful place He is gone to prepare,
For all who are wash'd and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

PENITENCE. 7s, 6s, 8s.

1. Lamb of God, whose bleed-ing love We now re - call to mind, Send the an - swer from a - bove, And let us mer - cy find.

2. Through thy blood, by faith ap - plied, Let sin - ners par - don feel; Speak us free - ly jus - ti - fied, And all our sick - ness heal.

Think on us, who think on thee; Ev' - ry bur-den'd soul re - lease; Oh, re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry, And bid us go in peace.

1. Sa-viour, vi - sit thy plant - a - tion, Grant us, Lord, a gra-cious rain! All will come to de - so - la - tion Un-less thou re - turn a - gain.
2. Keep no long - er at a dis-tance Shine up - on us from on high, Lest, for want of thine as -sist - ance, Ev'- ry plant should droop and die.
3. Sure-ly once thy gar-den flourish'd; Ev' - ry part look'd gay and green: Then thy word our spi-rits nourish'd,—Happy sea - sons we have seen!
4. But a drought has since suc-ceed - ed, And a sad de - cline we see: Lord, thy help is great-ly need-ed; Help can on - ly come from thee.

Lord, re - vive us, Lord, re - vive us, All our help must come from thee! Lord, re - vive us, Lord, re - vive us, All our help must come from thee!

Lord, re - vive us, Lord, re - vive us, All our help must come from thee! Lord, re - vive us, Lord, re - vive us, All our help must come from thee!

PORTUGUESE HYMN. 11s.

1. How firm a found-a - tion, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in his ex - cel-lent word! What more can he say than to you he has said? You who un-to Je - sus for re - fuge have fled, You who un-to Je - sus for re - fuge have fled.

2. In ev' - ry con-di - tion,—in sickness, in health, In po - ver-ty's vale, or a - bounding in wealth, At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea,— As thy days may de - mand, so thy suc-cor shall be, As thy days may de - mand, so thy succor shall be.

3. Fear not, I am with thee; oh, be not dismay'd! For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid; I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, Up - held by my righteous, om - ni - po-tent hand, Up - held by my righteous, om - ni - po - tent hand.

4. When thro' the deep wa - ters I call thee to go, The riv - ers of sor - row shall not thee o'er-flow; For I will be with thee, thy trou - bles to bless And sanc-ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress, And sanc - ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress.

THE SAINT'S SWEET HOME. 11s.

Sicilian Air.

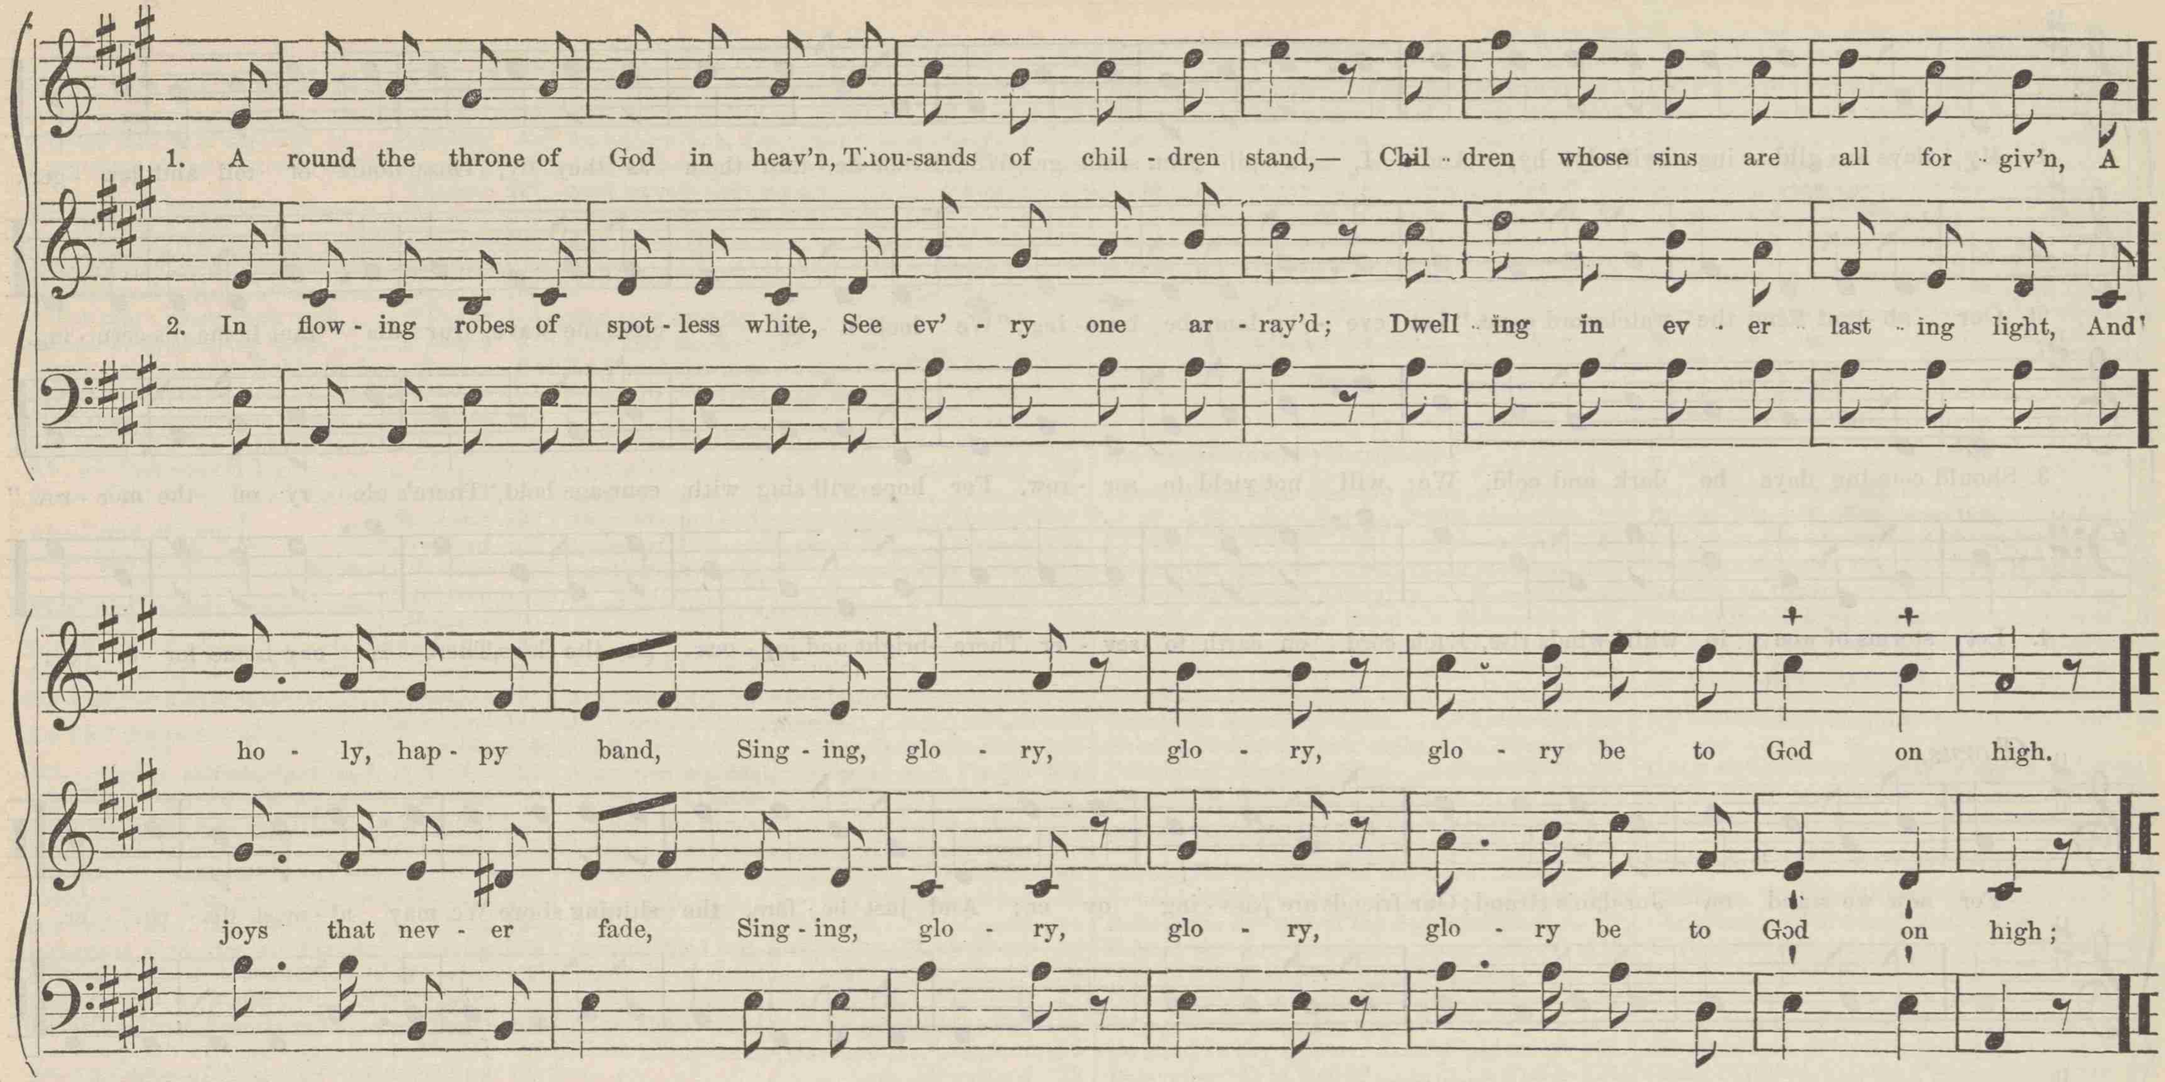
Andante.

1. 'Mid scenes of confusion and creature complaints, How sweet to my soul is com-mu-nion with saints! To find at the banquet of mer-cy there's room,
2. Sweet bonds, that unite all the children of peace! And thrice precious Jesus, whose love can-not cease! Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
3. I sigh from this bo-dy of sin to be free, Which hinders my joy and com-munion with thee; Though now my tempt-a-tions like bil-lows may foam,
4. While here in the val-ley of con-flict I stay, Oh, give me sub-mis-sion and strength as my day! In all my af-flic-tions to thee would I come,

And feel in the pre-sence of Je-sus at home.

I long to be-hold thee in glo-ry at home, Home, home! sweet, sweet home! Pre-pare me, dear Sa-viour, for hea-ven, my home.

All, all will be peace when I'm with thee at home. Home, home! sweet, sweet home! Pre-pare me, dear Sa-viour, for glo-ry, my home.
Re-joic-ing in hope of my glo-ri-ous home. Home, home! sweet, sweet home! Pre-pare me, dear Sa-viour, for glo-ry, my home.



3. What brought them to that world above,—
That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace, and joy, and love?
How came those children there?
Singing, glory, &c.

4. Because the Saviour shed his blood
To wash away their sin;
Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
Behold them white and clean!
Singing, glory, &c.

5. On earth they sought the Saviour's grace,
On earth they loved his name;
So now they see his blessed face,
And stand before the Lamb.
Singing, glory, &c.

THE SHINING SHORE. 8s, & 7s.

1. My days are glid - ing swift - ly by, And I, a pil - grim stran - ger, Would not de - tain them as they fly, Those hours of toil and dan - ger;

2. Our ab - sent King the watchword gave, "Let eve - ry lamp be burn - ing;" We look a - far a - cross the wave, Our dis - tant home dis-cern - ing.

3. Should com-ing days be dark and cold, We will not yield to sor - row, For hope will sing with cour-age bold, "There's glo - ry on the mor - row."

4. Let storms of woe in whirl-winds rise, Each cord on earth to sev - er There—bright and joy - ous in the skies, There— is our home for - ev - er;

Chorus.

For now we stand on Jor-dan's strand; Our friends are pass - ing ov - er; And just be - fore, the shining shore We may al - most dis - cov - er.
