PREFACE.

"And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David they were sore displeased, and said unto him, Hearst thou what these say? and Jesus said unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?" Matt. 21: 15-16.

In harmony with the truth of this passage, this little book has been prepared, and it is sent out with the hope that it may meet a very general want among the little folks.

The usual Sunday-school song book has but few pieces which are adapted to the use of small children, and the result is that a lack of variety represses the spirit of song, and causes the Sunday-school work to become irksome to the little ones.

The words and music of the following pages have been selected or prepared with special reference to the younger grades of pupils. The book contains every variety of childhood songs from the simplest nature songs up to the highest expressions of adoration that children are capable of understanding. In addition to the songs, it contains a considerable amount of other matter which will greatly assist teachers and leaders of Junior Leagues, etc., in instructing children without the use of an additional book. This matter consists of prayers, hymns, creeds, and questions on the construction of the Bible and on the Life of Christ.

In order to obtain the best results in the school, superintendents and teachers should as far as possible influence parents to procure a copy for use for the child in the home. This will greatly advance the teacher's work in fixing in the minds of the children the great lessons designed to be taught in the songs and other matter which the book presents.

Teachers will find it of the utmost importance to have a sufficient supply for the use of classes. For the best results there should be one copy for each member of the class. Nothing more effectually removes embarrassment and tends to good order and good singing than for each child to have in hand a copy of the book.

The music editor of this volume is Prof. W. J. Kirkpatrick, whose work on the Young People's Hymnal has made his name known and loved throughout the ranks of our young people in every state of the south and west.

This little volume is sent forth with the prayer that it may be a source of lifelong pleasure and spiritual profit to all the little people who shall use it, and that Jesus the Friend of children may accept the praises which the children bring.

No. 37. Jesus was Once a Little Child.

Jesus was once a little child,
A little child like me;
Was cradled in his mother's arms,
And sat upon her knee.

Once he was just the age I am,
And just as helpless too;
He used to sleep, and walk, and speak
Just as all children do.

And yet; though he was once a child,
He is the God of all,
And angel hosts before his throne,
In lowly worship fall.

And why was it he choose to be
A child so poor and weak?
It was that I might learn from him,
How blessed are the meek.

It was that I might learn from him,
My parents to obey,
And like the child of Nazareth,
Grow holier every day. Amen.

Beatitudes.

(Recite alternate lines by Boys and Girls or by Teachers and Scholars.)

Blessed are the poor in spirit :
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn :
For they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek :
For they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness :
For they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful :
For they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart :
For they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers :
For they shall be called the children of God.

No. 55. A Child's Work Song.

(Recitation.)

- 1 O, what can little children do to make the great world glad?
For pain and sin are everywhere, and many a life is sad.
Our hearts must bloom with charity wherever sorrow lowers,
For how could summer days be sweet without the little flowers?
- 2 O, what can little children do to make the dark world bright?
For many a soul in shadow sits, and longs to see the light.
O, we must lift our lamps of love, and let them gleam afar;
For how should night be beautiful without each little star?
- 3 O, what can little children do to bring some comfort sweet,
For weary roads where men must climb with weary, way-worn feet?
Our lives must ripple clear and fresh, that thirsty souls may sing;
Could robin pipe so merrily without the little spring?
- 4 All this may little children do, the saddened world to bless,
For God sends forth all loving souls to deeds of tenderness,
That this poor earth may bloom and sing like his dear home above;
But all the work would fail and cease without the children's love.

No. 63. Stand Up for Jesus!

- 1 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army he shall lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there.
- 3 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

No. 64. The Morning Light.

- 1 The morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears:
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,
A nation in a day.
- 3 Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim, "The Lord is come!"

No. 76. THE CHILD'S MORNING PRAYER.

Almighty God, the Maker of every thing in heaven and earth :
The darkness goes away, and the day-light comes, at thy command :
Thou art good, and thou doest good continually.

I thank thee that thou hast taken care of me through the night,
and that I am alive and well this morning.

Save me, O God, from evil all this day long ; and may I love and serve thee for ever, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son ! Amen.

MORNING HYMN.

The morning bright,
With rosy light,
Has waked me up from sleep :
Father, I own
Thy love alone
Thy little one doth keep.

All through the day,
I humbly pray,
Be thou my guard and guide ;
My sins forgive,
And let me live,
Blest Jesus, near thy side.

O make thy rest
Within my breast,
Great Spirit of all grace :
Make me like thee—
Then shall I be
Prepared to see thy face.

RISING.

Now I awake and see the light,
'Tis God hath kept me thro' the night,
To him I lift my voice and pray
That he would keep me thro' the day.

EVENING HYMN.

The daylight fades,
The evening shades
Are gathering round my head :
Father above,
I praise that love
Which smooths and guards my bed.

While thou art near,
I need not fear
The gloom of midnight hour :
Blest Jesus, still
From every ill
Defend me with thy power.

Pardon my sin,
And enter in
And sanctify my heart :
Spirit divine,
O make me thine,
And ne'er from me depart.

LYING DOWN.

And now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep :
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.

A CHILD'S PRAYER FOR THE LORD'S DAY.

(To be added to the Morning Prayer.)

Suffer me not, O Lord, to waste this thy day in sin and folly ; but let me worship thee with much delight. Teach me to know more of thee, and to serve thee better than ever I have done before, that I may be made fit to dwell in heaven, where thy worship and service will be everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Things to be Memorized by the Children.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name : thy kingdom come : thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil : For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER BEFORE DIVINE SERVICE.

Direct me now, O gracious Lord,
To hear aright thy Holy word :
Assist thy minister to preach,
And let thy holy Spirit teach ;
And let eternal life be found
By all who hear the joyful sound.

PRAYER AFTER DIVINE SERVICE.

Impress upon my heart, O Lord,
The sacred doctrines of thy word :
Bid me thy Holy name revere,
For ever walking in thy fear ;
And when I've served thy will below,
Bring me where endless pleasures flow.

GRACE BEFORE MEAT.

Be present at our table, Lord !
Be here, and everywhere, adored.
Thy creatures bless ; and grant that we
May feast in paradise with thee.

GRACE AFTER MEAT.

We thank thee, Lord, for this our food,
But more because of Jesus' blood.
Let manna to our souls be given,
The bread of life sent down from heaven.

THE HOLY CHILD JESUS.

77

Lamb of God, I look to thee !
Thou shalt my example be :
Thou art gentle, meek, and mild,
Thou wast once a little child.
Fain I would be as thou art :
Give me thy obedient heart :
Thou art pitiful and kind,
Let me have thy loving mind.

Loving Jesus ! gentle Lamb !
In thy gracious hands I am :
Make me, Saviour, what thou art :
Live thyself within my heart.
I shall then show forth thy praise,
Serve thee all my happy days :
Then the world shall always see
Christ, the holy Child, in me.

No. 79. A Closing Prayer.

Dear Saviour, bless us as we part,
And with thy love, fill every heart;
Help us to follow in thy way;
Keep us from evil every day;
And, if thy will, bring us again,
To our dear Sunday School, Amen.

No. 80. Doxology.

Tune, “Old Hundred.” L. M.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
