PUBLISHERS' NOTE.

"SUNDAY-SCHOOL PRAISES" is a very happy title. There is a constantly-growing demand for a book for Sunday-school praise and worship only. This book will have its own field therefore, and is not planned to enter any other.

The gifted author's name is everywhere known and his praise is in all the Churches. Thus the high quality of this, his latest work, is guaranteed. We confidently expect for SUNDAY-SCHOOL PRAISES a generous welcome.

QUARTET OR SEMI-CHORUS.

Moderato.

1. A song is in my heart to-day, It gladdens ev-'ry hour;
2. He's a-ble to preserve my soul, My trust is staid on him;
3. Oft in my weakness would I fall, But for his arms of love;
4. Some day, thro' boundless grace alone, I'll reach the mansions fair;

'Tis praise to him who guides my way, And keeps me by his power.
And when the clouds above me roll, His light is nev-er dim.
He quick-ly answers ev-'ry call With blessing from a-bove.
A-mid the glories 'round the throne I'll sing his prais-es there.

CHORUS.* 1 Tim. 1 : 17.

1. Conquering now and still to conquer, Rid-eth a King in his might,
2. Conquering now and still to conquer, Who is this won-der-ful King?
3. Conquering now and still to conquer, Je-sus, thou Rul-er of all,

Leading the host of all the faith- ful In- to the midst of the fight;
Whence are the armies which he lead-eth, While of his glo - ry they sing?
Thrones and their sceptres all shall per-ish, Crowns and their splendor shall fall,

See them with courage ad - vanc-ing, Clad in their brilliant ar - ray,
He is our Lord and Re - deem- er, Saviour and Monarch di - vine,
Yet shall the ar - mies thou lead- est, Faithful and true to the last,

1. We are sing-ing on the way, To a bless-ed land of day, Where the raptur'd hal - le - lu-jahs nev- er cease; Soon we'll see its shin-ing tow'rs,
2. What tho' trials here we meet? Soon we'll walk the golden street, Where we'll look up - on the beau-ty of our King; Tears of sor-row here may flow,
3. We are press-ing on the way, Let us work, and watch, and pray, Winning stars to spar-kle in our crowns of light; Let us tell the Saviour's love,

Rest within its lovely bow'rs, In that E-den-land of ev - er - last-ing peace.
But "hereafter we shall know," And redeeming love thro' endless a-ges sing.
Till he bids us come above, Where no shadow ev- er mars the radiance bright.

D.S.—glory we shall share, In the house of "many mansions," bright and fair.

No. 177. TILL WE MEET AGAIN.

E. E. HEWITT. COPYRIGHT, 1898, BY WM. J. KIRKPATRICK. WM. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. Saviour, keep us till we meet a-gain, Let thy blessing with us still remain;
2. Many dangers will around us throng, Faith, triumphant, sings her victor song;
3. On - ly parting for a lit-tle while, Let us linger in the Master's smile;

Hold us ev-er by thy mighty hand; Guide our footsteps to the Better Land.
Taking Jesus as our Guard and Guide, Joy and safety at his wounded side.
Singing, praying, thro' life's sun and rain, Saviour, keep us till we meet again.

CHORUS.

Till we meet again, till we meet again; Saviour, keep us till we meet again;

Till we meet again, till we meet again,

ad lib.

Till we meet again, till we meet again, Grace and peace be with us all. Amen.

Till we meet again, till we meet again,
