(SOLO AND CHORUS.)

ARTHUR W. NELSON.

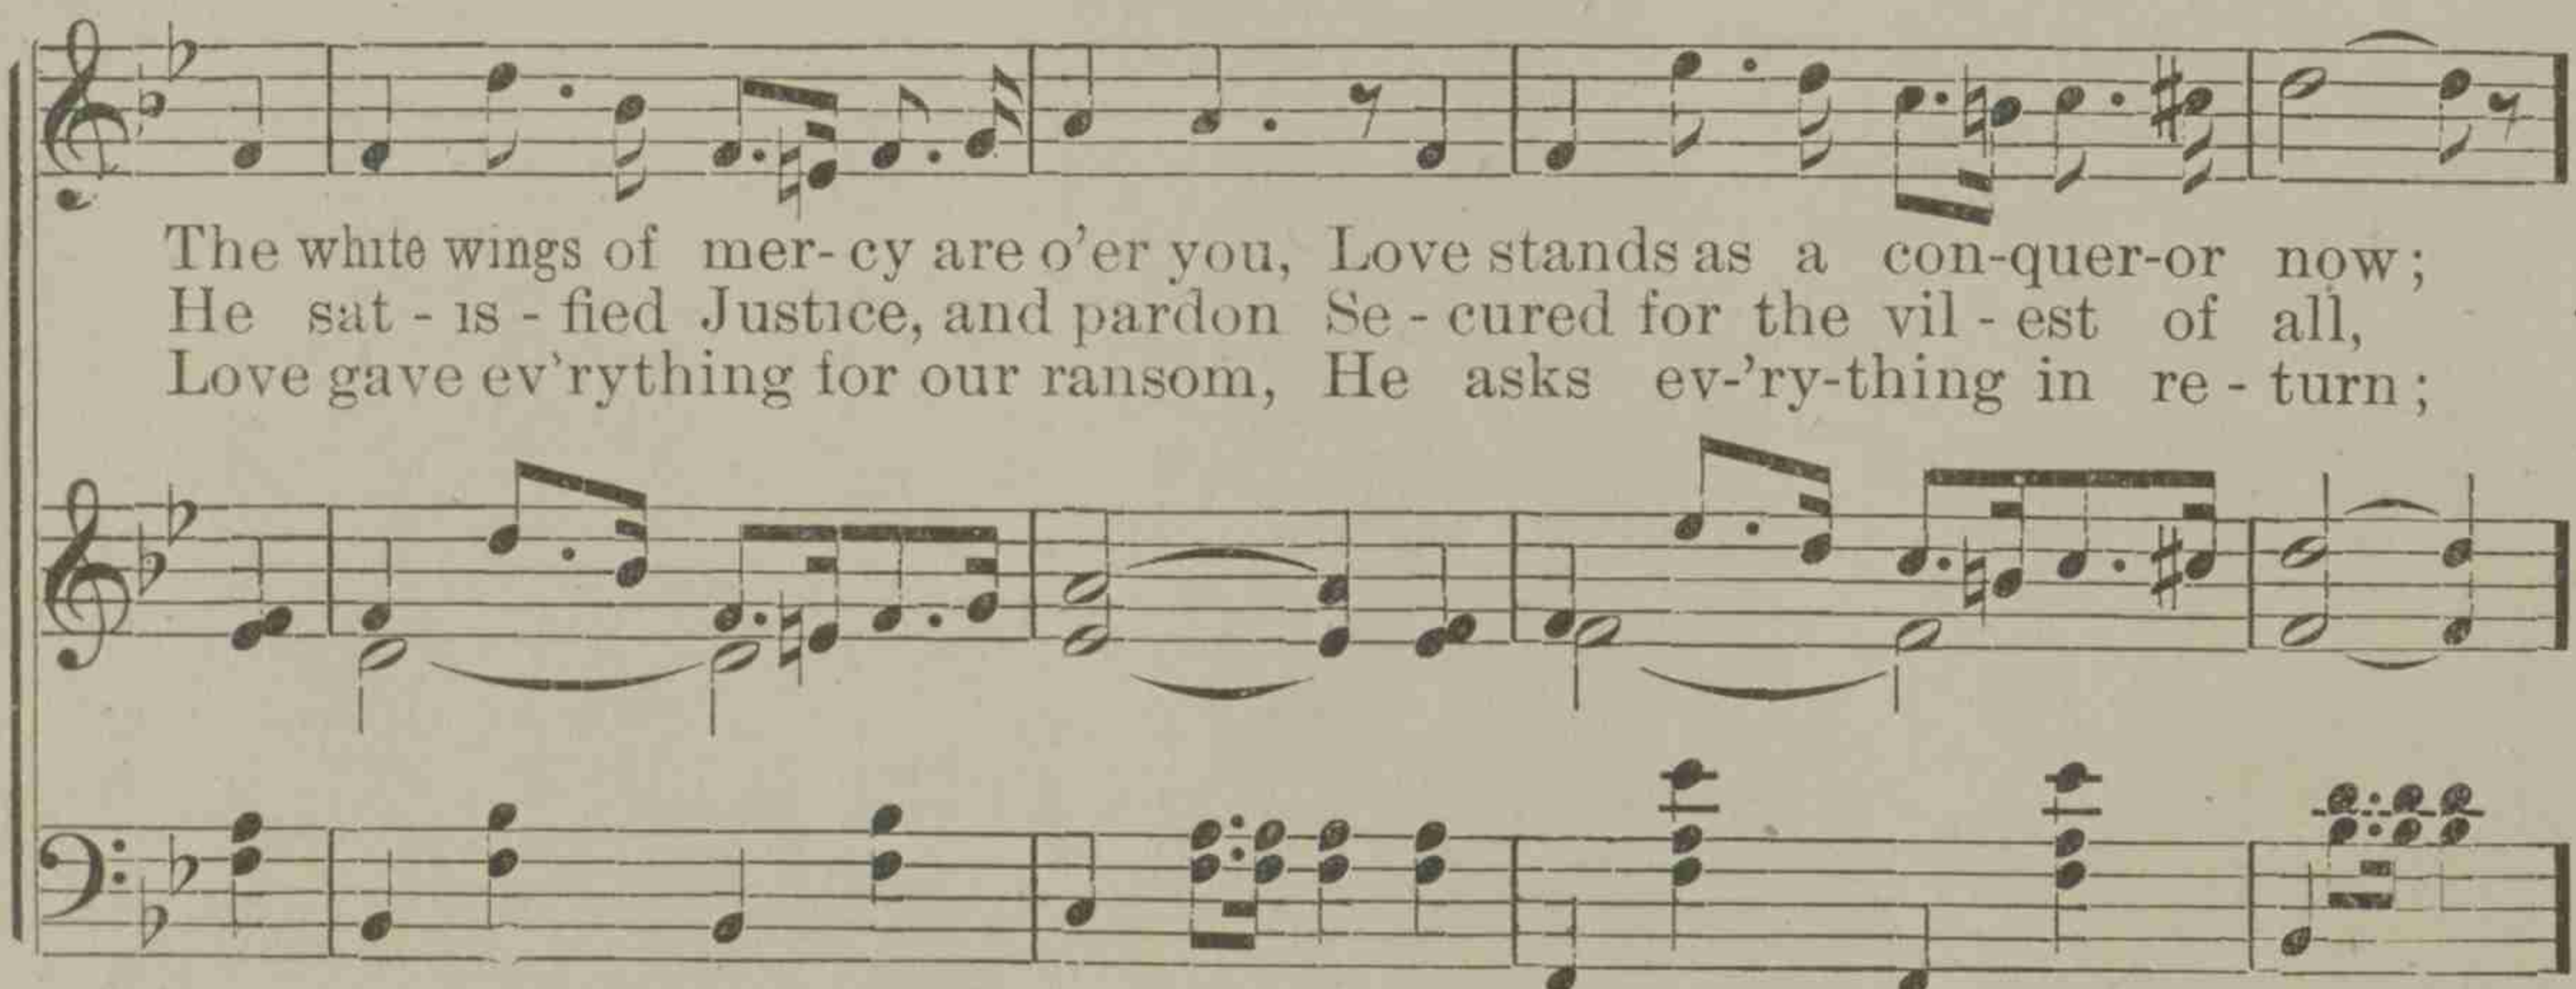

SOLO SOPRANO.
March Tempo.

1. Break forth, ransomed earth, in-to singing, Rejoice in your freedom, ye lands,
2. Love purchased a per-fect sal-va-tion, Nor shrunk from the ter-ri-ble cost;
4. Sin hides in the blackness of darkness, He shrinks from the presence of love;

The bondage of sin has been broken, And jus-tice has loosened his bands.
He passed thro' the great condemnation To suc-cor the guilt-y and lost.
Fair Mercy smiles brightly up-on us, And Justice sits per-fect a - bove.

The white wings of mer-cy are o'er you, Love stands as a con-quer-or now;
He sat - is - fied Justice, and pardon Se - cured for the vil - est of all,
Love gave ev'ry-thing for our ransom, He asks ev'-ry-thing in re - turn;

HAIL, LOVE, REDEEMER OF MEN. Concluded.

Cres.

Give praise for his perfect sal-va-tion, And hasten be-fore him to bow. . . .
 If they will believe and accept him, And humbly be-fore him will fall. . . .
 Naught should we withhold, if the blessing Our glad hearts in freedom would learn. . .
