RESPONSIVE READING.

Great is the Lord.

SUPT. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

Response. We have thought of thy loving kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

SUPT. Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands—make his praise glorious.

Response. Sing praises with the understanding, for he is the King of all the earth.

SUPT. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

Response. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, the city of the great King.

SUPT. God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

Response. O clap your hands all ye people, shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

SUPT. According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth.

All. This God is our God forever and ever, he will be our guide, even unto death.

SINGING BY THE CONGREGATION.

TUNE,—CORONATION.

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name,
Let angels prostrate fall,
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

2. Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him, Lord of all.

RECITATION.

The Easter Guest.

1. I knew Thou wert coming, O Lord Divine,
I felt in the sunlight a softened shine,
And a murmur of welcome, I thought I heard,
In the ripple of brook and the chirp of bird;
And the bursting buds and the springing grass,
Seemed to be waiting to see Thee pass;
And the sky, and the sea, and throbbing sod,
Pulsed and thrilled to the touch of God.
2. I knew Thou wert coming, O Love Divine,
To gather the world's heart up to Thine;
I knew the bonds of the rock-hewn grave,
Were riven, that living, Thy life might save.
But blind and wayward, I could not see
Thou wert coming to dwell with me, e'en me.
And my heart o'er-burdened with care and sin,
Had no fair chamber to take Thee in.
3. Not one clean spot for Thy foot to tread,
Not one pure pillow to rest Thy head;
There was nothing to offer, no bread, no wine,
No oil of joy in this heart of mine;
And yet the light of Thy kingly face
Illumed for Thyself a small dark place,
And I crept to the spot by Thy smile made sweet,
And the tears came ready to wash Thy feet.
4. Now let me come nearer, O Christ Divine,
Make in my soul for Thyself a shrine;
Cleanse, till the desolate place shall be
Fit for a dwelling, dear Lord, for Thee.
Rear, if Thou wilt, a throne in my breast,
Reign, I will worship and serve my guest,
While Thou art in me—and in Thee I abide—
What end can there be to the Easter-tide.—Mary Dickinson.

ADDRESS. (BY PASTOR.)

Hi Christ Should Come To-day,

EMMA PITT.

D. B. TOWNER.

1. When ear - ly morn..... shall greet my eyes,..... And mid-night
2. Or if at noon..... rich glow - ing hour!..... Thro' rift - ed
3. Or if at eve..... sweet gloaming time!..... My cross laid dark..... has turned a - way,..... How thrills my soul..... with sweet sur-clouds, His face should shine, If He should find..... me watching down, my burdens cease, As twilight shades..... shall deeper praise, O what if Christ..... should come to - day.

still, What sweet re - ward..... will then be mine.
grow, I'll have a calm, un - end - ing peace.

O trans - port rich, my joy complete, My ten - der Saviour, Friend to greet,
How love's sweet sto - ry I'd re - peat, With joy His bless - ed com - ing greet,
O bless - ed bur - dens glo - ri - fied, My soul should then be sat - is - fied,

I'd sit me at His bless - ed feet, If Christ should come to - day.
I'd cast my sheaves at His dear feet, If Christ should come to - day.
I'd sit me at His bless - ed side, If Christ should come to - day.

RESPONSIVE READING.

The Tender Shepherd.

PASTOR.—Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name: thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers they shall not overflow thee.

Response.—A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench; he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

PASTOR.—I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee for a light of the Gentiles.

Response.—To open the blind eyes, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

PASTOR.—Fear ye not, neither be afraid, for I am the Lord thy God, and beside me there is no Saviour. Sing O heavens, and be joyful O earth, and break forth into singing O mountains, for the Lord hath comforted his people.

ALL.—He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.

Wonderful Songs of Love.

EMMA PITT.

W. G. FISCHER.

1. Wonderful songs of love I hear, Giving the heart sweet peace and cheer,
 2. Wonderful songs are steal - ing thro' Hearts that are sad with hope re - new,
 3. Wonderful songs of joy shall ring, Round the throne of Christ our King,
 4. Wonderful songs we'll sing on high—Where peace and hope can nev - er die,

Bringing to us a Christ so near, Wonderful, wonderful songs of love.
 Telling of Him for - ev - er true, Wonderful, wonderful songs of love.
 By and by on harps we'll sing, Wonderful, wonderful songs of love.
 Praises to Je - sus by and by, Wonderful, wonderful songs of love.

CHORUS.

Beau-ti-ful songs, wonderful songs, Ris-ing to Je-sus a - bove, a - bove,

Fill-ing the air with sweet-est sounds, Won-der-ful songs of love.

9. RESPONSIVE READING.

Gifts of God.

SUPT.—Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.

Response.—Herein is love; not that we loved God, but that he loved us.

SUPT.—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believed in him should not perish but have everlasting life.

Response.—If God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

SUPT.—Let brotherly love continue.

Response.—Hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts.

SUPT.—Hope we have as an anchor of the soul.

Response.—By grace are ye saved through faith—and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.

SUPT.—Therefore we rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

Response.—These things I say unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

SUPT.—Rejoice in the Lord always.

Response.—I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart, I will be glad and rejoice in thee.

Wonderful Love.

GOD BLESS YOU.

EMMA PITT.

D. B. TOWNER.

1. God bless you till we meet a - gain, And gently hide you 'neath His wing;
 2. 'Tis sweet to min-gle here be - low, In pray'r and praise and grateful song;
 3. There is a brighter, rich-er thought That tinges life with pur-est gold;

Then may your hours be fill'd with joy, While in your heart His praises sing.
 'Tis sweet our fellowship to know, And to God's people here be-long.
 Some day we'll meet to part no more, Some day we'll join the heav'nly fold.

CHORUS.
